

CHRISTMAS STORY VIDEOS

It is Christmas pageant season! Over the last couple of years, several churches across the world have made Christmas Story videos with the children from their congregations. These videos, which are available for free on YouTube, are cute, inspiring, touching and often comical.

These videos are also great way to bring a bit of joy to those who may not be able to attend church this Christmas season. If you are going to visit an elderly relative or congregation member, bring along your tablet or phone and show them one of these videos. They are sure to bring a smile to people's faces!
