GUIDELINES FOR COMMUNITY LIFE

At CY2018, youth, young adults and adults will be living together in a Christian community. Christian community is based on love, respect, trust and support. These guidelines for community life recognize that each person, as a member of our community, is important, valued and to be respected. CY2018 adheres to Leading With Care and the Sexual Abuse and Sexual Harassment policies of The Presbyterian Church in Canada. How our community behaves reflects who and whose we are.

As a participant of CY2018, I will:

- remain on campus at all times; wearing my name badge around my neck and wrist band on my wrist.
- sleep, eat, and care for myself adequately so that I can participate fully in all scheduled CY activities, honour all meeting times, and check in with my assigned group at curfew.
- be fully clothed for all CY activities and in dining facilities, dressing appropriately for all activities.
- sleep in my assigned room so that I can be reached in the event of an emergency.
- honour and observe the CY Open Door Policy which states that visitors of either sex who are attending CY may visit friends in their residence room during free time as long as the door is left open at all times, an advisor or dean has been informed of the visitor, and all roommates agree to the visitor being there.
- not engage in sexual abuse, sexual harassment or violence of any kind. CY has a zero-tolerance policy.
- not engage in inappropriate sexual behaviour, including sexual intercourse with a partner other than my spouse.
- not use alcohol or illegal drugs (which includes all cannabis products). The Community Life team will be informed of any prescription drugs onsite.

- be respectful of worship space and recognize that there may be those around me who worship differently than I do.
- not place orders for outside food after 11 p.m. Residence doors will lock and food will not be received at residence halls after 11 p.m.
- smoke only in designated smoking areas at Brock (this includes vaping and all electronic smoking devices). Smoking is not a social activity.
- be considerate when using music devices and cell phones and refrain from their use during group activities, unless requested.
- avoid disruptive behaviour; conduct myself in public and private as a beloved child of God.
- leave the sheets on the bed, ensure towels remain in the residence rooms and that linens not be used for any other purpose.
- be liable for damage to Brock University property.

Accountability

Each CY2018 participant is responsible for her/his own actions. When covenant is broken, the CY2018 Community Life team will assess the situation and take appropriate action, which may include communication with the parent/guardian and home pastor. It may also include requiring the participant to leave the event at their own expense or at the expense of their parent/guardian and/or the involvement of local law-enforcement agencies.

PARTICIPANT COVENANT

As a member of God's family, I covenant to act in ways that honour and respect others and myself. I pledge to faithfully participate with this community to uphold the guidelines for community life.
