

Presbyterian World Service & Development
Sunday School Challenge

Give a farmer seeds...
and he can grow food
to feed himself.

Give a farmer tools...

Give a farmer fertilizer...
and he can feed the community.

Give a farmer all three...
and we can help change the world!

Supporting Farmers in Pakistan

Subsistence farmers in the Swat region of Pakistan are working hard to recover from the devastating floods of 2010 that affected more than 20 million people and washed away thousands of acres of farmland. For families who lost everything—including their homes, fields, livestock and supplies—starting over is a daunting challenge.

Your support of PWS&D's Sunday School Challenge will give new hope and opportunity to farmers in Pakistan by providing seeds, tools and fertilizer to restart and rebuild farms. Your gifts will boost agriculture production, feed families and create income-generating opportunities.

Help support the rebuilding of farms and lives in Pakistan today!
