

Rev. George Anderson

George started out in life as a math & science teacher, then served two churches in South Africa as well as working for Scripture Union.

He emigrated from South Africa in 1989 with his wife, Audrey, and four daughters to serve at Ile Perrot church, Quebec. Since then he has enjoyed helping three St Andrew's congregations (Moncton, Islington and Huntsville) experience growth and renewal in the grace of Christ's Word and Spirit. Renewal and evangelism have been at the core of George's ministries.

Since retiring, they settled in Binbrook from where George will be doing some part-time preaching at work at Erskine Church in Hamilton. They enjoy their nine grand-children and visiting family back in Cape Town, South Africa. George served Renewal Fellowship for 10 years as convenor of the Men's Network.
