

Songs for Worship

A Resource for Worship Planners based on the Revised Common Lectionary by Christopher Fischer, MMus, ARCCO

- ❖ This is a revised and updated reference for pastors and musicians, offering hymns and other songs for use in worship on each of the Sundays and special liturgical days (e.g. Good Friday) of the three-year ecumenical Lectionary cycle. As a rule, there are two suggestions offered for each of the readings given.
- ❖ This revision is undertaken at the behest of The Presbyterian Church in Canada's office of Canadian Ministries to provide congregations with a variety of musical resources, especially contemporary and global song resources, to complement the appointed Scripture readings throughout the church year.
- ❖ Song numbers and titles are provided from two principal sources:

BP = The Book of Praise (1997, The Presbyterian Church in Canada)

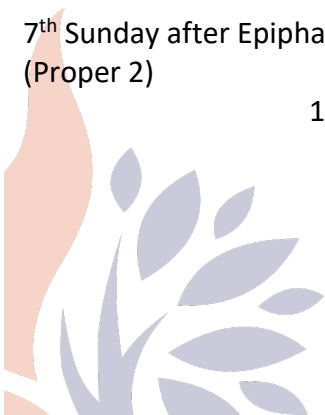

SCW = Sing the Circle Wide: Songs of Faith from Around the World (2017, Kanata Centre for Worship and Global Song: Waterloo Lutheran Seminary, Waterloo, ON)
- ❖ The list also includes as many songs as possible available online through the SongSelect copyright-licensed content program of Christian Copyright Licensing International (CCLI). To use these songs, congregations must purchase a copyright license (through <https://us.ccli.com>). The corresponding CCLI song number is included for reference.
- ❖ After each of Years A, B and C, there follows a list of days common to all three cycles: "Year A/B/
