THE ACTS AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF

The Presbyterian Church in Canada

HELD IN GLENVIEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, TORONTO
JUNE 3, 1973

FIRST SEDERUNT

At the City of Toronto, Ontario, and within Glenview Church there, Sunday, the third day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three at eight o'clock in the evening.

Which place and time Ministers and Ruling Elders, commissioners from the several Presbyteries of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, convened pursuant to appointment of the General Assembly held in the City of Toronto, Ontario, on the fourth day of June last year.

The Reverend M. V. Putnam, B.A., B.D., D.D., Moderator of the last General Assembly, assisted by the Reverend J. H. Williams, B.A., D.D., conducted public worship and preached a sermon on the subject: "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us".

WELCOME

On behalf of himself, the Kirk-Session and Congregation of Glenview, Dr. Williams extended a cordial welcome to Glenview Church.

According to appointment Dr. Putnam administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. In this he was assisted by Dr. Williams and Mr. M. R. Gellatly, B.D., (in the Assembly Hall). The Tables were served by Elders of the Kirk-Session of Glenview Church.

Thereafter, with prayer he did constitute the General Assembly in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the only King and Head of the Church.

ROLL CALL

The names of those commissioned by the several Presbyteries of the Church twenty-one days before the date were presented in a printed list, and the Assembly agreed to accept the same as the Roll of Assembly subject to any correction subsequently to be made when the same is scrutinized.

The Roll finally adopted is as follows:

ELECTION OF MODERATOR

Dr. Putnam then called upon the Assembly to choose a Moderator to preside over their deliberations.

On behalf of the Committee to Advise with the Moderator and in accordance with the method determined by the Ninety-fifth General Assembly (See A. & P., G.A. 1969 pp. 34, 355, 356, 362) Dr. A. Lorne MacKay placed in nomination the name of Dr. Agnew H. Johnston, Minister of St. Andrew's Church, Thunder Bay, Ontario.

No further nominations were made.

On motion of Mr. P. B. Reid, seconded by Mr. Wm. Scott, it was agreed that nominations cease.

On motion of Dr. A. Lorne MacKay, duly seconded, Dr. Johnston was thereupon elected Moderator of this Assembly.

DR. PUTNAM'S REPORT

Dr. Putnam addressed the Assembly and reported on the principal duties which had befallen him during the year.

MINUTE OF ELECTION

Dr. L. H. Fowler did then present the Minute of Election.

INSTALLATION OF MODERATOR

Dr. Johnston, having been conducted to the Chair by the mover of his election, was welcomed by Dr. Putnam.

Whereupon Dr. Putnam did by prayer call upon God to bless the newly-elected Moderator and confer upon him strength and wisdom that he might discharge the duties of his office. He did then install him in the Moderator's Chair.

THANKS OF MODERATOR

The newly-elected Moderator thanked Dr. Putnam for his kind words and the Assembly for the trust they had conferred on him and called upon the commissioners for their support in the business of the Court and in their prayers.

THANKS TO DR. PUTNAM

On motion of Mr. F. Whilsmith, seconded Mr. P. B. Reid, the thanks of the Assembly were accorded Dr. Putnam for his services to the Church and for his sermon with which he had opened the Assembly.

SYNOD RECORDS

The Clerks called for the records of the several Synods that they might be placed in the hands of such committees as may be appointed to examine them.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BUSINESS

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on Business, which was given in by Mr. James Ferguson, the Convener, as follows:

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Committee on Business recommends as follows:

1. That with a view to having the attendance recorded, each commissioner be requested to write on a card which has been provided for the purpose, his/her name, home address, the Presbytery which he/she represents, and other relevant matters and to hand it to the Registration Office receiving in return a copy of the Stitched Minutes to be submitted to this Assembly.

2. That the Sederunts of the Assembly be in this Church on Monday and Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 10 o'clock; on Wednesday from 9:30 to 12:30 in the morning and from 2 to 5 in the afternoon; and on Thursday and succeeding days, from 9:30 to 12:30 in the morning, from 2 to 5 in the afternoon, and from 7 to 10 in the evening.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Board of Education, which in the absence of the Chairman, was given in by Dr. H. A. Doig.

On motion of Mr. M. S. Jess, seconded by Mr. G. L. Fish, the Report was received, taken as read, spread on the Minutes and the Committee on Business was instructed to find a place for it on the docket of a future Sederunt.

The Report is as follows:

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Board of Education begs to present the following report:

I. SPECIAL COURSES

Note: Attention is drawn to the following regulation adopted by the General Assembly of 1953.

"That status of a catechist must not be understood as a step toward ultimate ordination. The recognition of this office is considered to be desirable only in order that the opportunity for full-time service may be provided for men with preaching and pastoral gifts and who are willing to give themselves to this work, but who may not be able to meet the educational requirements for the ministry, and also enable the Church to profit by the service which such men can render." (A. & P. 1953, p. 22).

(a) Applications already considered by previous General Assemblies.

1. Donald Bruce Hanley. Presbytery of Guelph-Saugeen. It is reported that he has completed successfully the third year of the assigned course in Theology. It is recommended that permission be granted to take him on trials for license.
2. Kenneth J. Rowland. Presbytery of West Toronto. It is reported that he has completed successfully the third year of the assigned course in Theology. It is recommended that permission be granted to take him on trials for license.
3. Alexander Benedek Fuleki, B.A., B.D. Presbytery of Niagara. It is reported that he has completed successfully the assigned course in Theology. It is recommended that permission be granted to take him on trials for license.
4. Nelson Trafford. Presbytery of Kingston. It is recommended that this case be dropped.
5. John Ross Jamieson. Presbytery of Algoma and North Bay. It is recommended that action be deferred until consultation with the Commissioners from the Presbytery.
6. Jack Velduis. Presbytery of West Toronto. It is recommended that action be deferred until consultation with the Commissioners from the Presbytery.
7. John Andrew Renouf Turnbull. Presbytery of Barrie. It is recommended that the case be dropped.

(b) New Applications

1. Donald Garth Carson. Presbytery of Ottawa. It is recommended that on the successful completion of four subjects in Arts he be assigned a three year intramural course in Theology with exemption from biblical languages.

[7349]

2. James Beverly Kay, Presbytery of Kamloops. It is recommended that on the successful completion of four subjects in Arts he be assigned a three year intramural course in Theology with exemption from biblical languages.

II. APPLICATIONS FOR RECEPTIONS OF MINISTERS AND LICENTIATES AND FOR PERMISSION TO TAKE ON TRIALS FOR LICENSE.

Note:

1. All recommendations are made in terms of the ruling of the General Assembly that (A. & P. 1957, p. 18): "All ministers from other denominations and Presbyterian Churches outside of Canada who desire to be received into the ministry of our Church, shall be required by the Presbyteries in which they may labour to pass satisfactorily an examination on the History of The Presbyterian Church in Canada and on the Rules and Forms of Procedure; the examination to be taken any time between the time of application for reception and the time the applicant is received; the results of such examination to be sent to the Board of Education before its next regular meeting."
2. Attention is drawn to the Book of Forms, Section 248, subsection XI (a): "No application for the reception of a minister is considered by the General Assembly unless the circular letters giving notice of such application were despatched not less than two clear months previous to the meeting of Assembly."
3. The Board of Education calls attention of Presbyteries to the Book of Forms 248, subsection VII and VIII and asks that Presbyteries emphasize the matters therein and especially the interrogation of applicants on the following points:
 - (1) What course of study has he passed in Arts and Theology?
 - (2) What, where and by whom was he ordained to the Ministry?
 - (3) Has he ever been connected with any other church than that from which he brings documents, and if so, in what capacity?
 - (4) What are his reasons for applying for admission to this Church and what has led to his change of views.
 - (5) How long has he resided within the bounds of the Presbytery?
- (a) New applications — To take on Trials for License
 1. John Chan — (Chan Tak Hong) L.Th. Presbytery of Montreal. It is recommended that permission to take on trials for license be not granted but that he be assigned a year's probationary course under the direction of the Senate of The Presbyterian College at the conclusion of which the Board of Education will give further consideration to the application.
 2. Harry John Klassen, B.D. Presbytery of Guelph-Saugeen. It is recommended that permission to be taken on trials for license be granted.
 3. Larry K. Lin, M.A. Presbytery of Montreal. It is recommended that permission to be taken on trials for license be granted, allowing two clear months for the circularization of Presbyteries and provided no protests are pending.

(b) New Applications — To be received as a minister.

1. Professor the Rev. T. W. Olsen, B.A., B.D., Ph.D. Presbytery of East Toronto. It is recommended that permission to be received as a minister of The Presbyterian Church in Canada be not granted.
2. The Rev. James S. Ruxton, Presbytery of Assiniboia. It is recommended that inasmuch as the applicant did not appear before the Board of Education for interviews as required no action be taken.
3. The Rev. Ernest Richard Doyle, B.A., L.Th. The Presbytery of Calgary-Macleod. That inasmuch as the applicant did not appear before the Board of Education for interview as required no action be taken.
4. The Rev. W. G. S. McDonald, B.A. Presbytery of Montreal. That permission to be received as a minister of The Presbyterian Church in Canada be granted.
5. The Rev. D. J. M. Corbett, B.A., LL.B., B.D., Ph.D. Presbytery of Westminster. That permission to be received as a minister of The Presbyterian Church in Canada be granted allowing two clear months for the circulation of Presbyteries and providing no protests are pending.
6. The Rev. Agnus MacKinnon, M.A. Presbytery of Cape Breton. That permission to be received as a minister of The Presbyterian Church in Canada be granted.
7. The Rev. Stephen Yeongs Chen, B.Th. Presbytery of East Toronto. That permission to be received as a minister of The Presbyterian Church in Canada be not granted.

To Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II

May it please Your Majesty:

The Ninety-Ninth General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, now in Session in Glenview Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Ontario, present to Your Majesty this expression of our love and loyalty.

In these days when change and uncertainty call into question many of the things which we hold as Christians, we are profoundly grateful that in Your high station of great responsibility as our Sovereign Queen You daily set a shining example of Christian conviction and service for Your people in the Commonwealth, and through the influence of Your Gracious Person give encouragement to the principles of peace, goodwill and concord among the nations of the world. We give thanks to Almighty God that by the force of Your character and Your dedication to duty, the state is uplifted by a Monarchy that serves and protects.

We join our fellow Canadians who will be honoured to greet You shortly as You share with them in celebrating events and centennials of national importance and with them assure You of the warmest welcome on Your two visits to Canada this summer.

We pray that Almighty God may abundantly bless Your Majesty, Your Royal Consort Prince Philip and Your Family in health and happiness.

We rejoice with You in the recent engagement of Your daughter, Princess Anne, and express our sincere good wishes that her forthcoming marriage to Lt. Mark Phillips will be filled with the blessings and happiness which You and Your Royal Consort have known.

Your loyal people of The Presbyterian Church in Canada pray constantly that Your Majesty may always know the sustaining power and goodness of God in all the responsibilities and duties of Your noble Office.

Response was made by the Assembly standing and singing "God Save the Queen."

To His Excellency, the Right Honourable Roland C. Michener, C.C., Governor-General of Canada

May it please Your Excellency:

The Ninety-Ninth General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, now in Session in Glenview Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Ontario, wish to express to Your Excellency as the representative of Her Gracious Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, our loyalty and affection.

We rejoice in the high standards of dignity and conduct you set for your fellow citizens of Canada in public service and in private life. We express our deep admiration for the warmth and cordiality of your person in your contacts with all the varied peoples of our beloved country and the countless ways in which you magnify your high office.

We pray that Almighty God may grant you and Mrs. Michener continued health and happiness.

We respectfully request that you forward to Her Majesty, Whom you so admirably represent in our midst, the enclosed expression of our devotion to Her Person and Throne.

To The Right Honourable Pierre Elliott Trudeau, Prime Minister of Canada

Right Honourable Sir:

The Ninety-Ninth General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada now in Session in Glenview Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Ontario, wish to extend to you, your Ministers, and the Parliament of Canada, our most respectful greetings.

It is the fervent prayer of this Assembly that Almighty God may bless you, the Honourable Members of the Senate and the House of Commons, with divine guidance as you wrestle with the many problems of this time. We appreciate the heavy burdens of your office and the grave issues with which you are confronted and assure you of the constant prayers of our Church that our nation be preserved in unity; our citizens be dedicated to that righteousness which exalteth a nation, and that Canada be used of God in the councils of the nations for peace and freedom.

On motion of Dr. MacKay, duly seconded, it was agreed that the addresses to the Governor General and the Prime Minister be adopted and that the address to the Prime Minister be forwarded in French as well as English.

THE FUND FOR MINISTERIAL ASSISTANCE

The Assembly called for the Report of the Appointors of the Fund for Ministerial Assistance which was given in by Dr. H. A. Doig, the Secretary. On motion of Mr. P. B. Reid, duly seconded, the Report was received for information, read, and spread on the Minutes as follows:

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

In 1972 the Appointors distributed $59,020 in gifts to eligible ministers and their children — four quarterly and a special Christmas gift.

During the year an average of 149 ministers and 288 children as being on the minimum or near minimum stipend received the quarterly gifts.

The income of the Fund was $61,130. This is an increase of some $5,400 from 1971 and reflects the conversion of some securities to higher interest rates. Presbyteries are advised regularly of the terms under which ministers are eligible to receive gifts from the Fund. Individual letters are also sent in an effort to keep all who may be eligible aware of the provisions of the Trust under which the Fund operates.

The administrative detail is looked after by the staff of the Comptroller and Board of World Mission.

G. Deane Johnston,
 Chairman.

H. A. Doig,
 Secretary.

RESIGNATION: DR. E. A. THOMSON

Dr. E. A. Thomson presented his resignation which on motion of Mr. Frank Whilsmith was received, ordered to be spread on the Minutes as follows; the Moderator to appoint a Committee to consider the resignation and report to this Assembly. (Continued page 40)

[7363]

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:
 Moderator and Commissioners:

At this time I wish to present my resignation as Principal Clerk of the General Assembly and as one of the Clerks of the General Assembly, effective at the end of the present month.

In so doing I should like to thank the many Assemblies I have served for the confidence they reposed in me. I wish also to record my gratitude to Dr. L. H. Fowler for his great service to the Church in sharing with me the responsibilities of this office. I wish likewise to say that Dr. D. C. MacDonald has displayed an aptitude for Church Law and Government based on his long experience as Clerk of Presbytery. On resigning the Clerkship I am leaving the work in the hands of two capable men.

It is to me a great pleasure publicly to acknowledge the dedication of two members of the Clerks' Staff — Mrs. M. C. Broadbent and Miss M. G. Waterman — who beyond the call of duty have served the Church so well and shown to me so many thoughtful kindnesses along the way.

It is my earnest desire, which I trust the Assembly will respect, that only routine notice will be taken of this resignation, that is, its acceptance and the confirmation of the Senior Deputy Clerk as Principal Clerk. On the occasion of my resignation as Secretary of the Administrative Council, the 92nd General Assembly were so generous in their commendation of my services that nothing further need be said. I wish to say, however, that I shall be available for any help I may be able to provide.

And now, Moderator, as I step down may I pass along a message to our Ministers and others from a message to the Ministers of America penned by Dr. J. H. Jowett as he left the United States to return to Great Britain at the request of the Prime Minister. In part he said:

"My heart is sad as I think of the condition of the world. I'm weary waiting for the reformation of mankind, but I confess before you that I know no other place where we can find hope save in the dynamic reforming energy of the Cross.

"Meditate at the Cross until it becomes meaningful to you. Preach the Cross until it becomes meaningful to others. It is the dynamic of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Toronto, Ontario,
 June 4th, 1973

E. A. Thomson,
 Principal Clerk of Assembly

It was agreed that Dr. Thomson be relieved of full duties at this Assembly. The Assembly rose in spontaneous ovation in honour of Dr. Thomson.

RESIGNATION, DR. ALBERT E. BAILEY

Dr. D. C. MacDonald presented the resignation of Dr. Albert E. Bailey, Senior Educational Consultant for the Board of Christian Education. On motion of Mr. Frank Whilsmith, duly seconded, it was agreed to receive the resignation and that the Moderator appoint a Special Committee to consider it and to report to Assembly. The resignation is as follows: (Continued page 40)

To the Clerks of Assembly.
 Gentlemen:

Would you please present to the 99th General Assembly my resignation as Senior Educational Consultant for the Board of Christian Education.

The Assembly will be aware that my appointment was for an interim period. The length of this period was not specified, it being understood that it would end with the termination of the Board of Christian Education. While this date is set for December 31, 1973, it would appear that it would be better both for myself and the Board of Congregational Life to consider an earlier date. I am therefore proposing September 1, 1973, as the date for my resignation to become effective.

Respectfully,

Albert E. Bailey

ADJOURNMENT

The Assembly adjourned to meet in this place to-morrow, the sixth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three at nine-thirty o'clock morning, of which public intimation was given and this Sederant was closed by the Moderator, with the Benediction.

NOTICE OF MOTION

"I give Notice of Motion that it is my intention to move or cause to be moved that

1. Since — the 99th General Assembly has re-affirmed its concern for the poor and under-privileged of Canada and the world community;
2. Since — Statements of concern are truly effective when supported by action;
3. Since — forced labour is extensively used in the production of coffee in Angola;
4. Since — Canada imports $10.2 million of green robosto coffee (essential for instant coffee) from Angola;
5. Since — 125,000 Africans are forced to work on plantations, and must work there unless they own 5,000 coffee plants;
6. Since — wages of Europeans are $114.00 per month, and African wages are $7.50 per month;
7. Since — each bag of coffee imported from Angola has a 30% defence tax, used to maintain 62,000 Portuguese troops in 1972;
8. Since one-third of Portugal's foreign exchange earnings come from the sale of Angolan coffee;
9. Since — there are alternate sources of supply of green robosto coffee (an essential filler for instant coffee) in areas such as Ivory Coast, Kenya, Uganda etc.,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

- A. That the 99th General Assembly ask all Presbyterians to avoid buying instant coffee brands from the following:
 - (i) Standard Brands, (Chase and Sanborn)
 - (ii) Nestles (Taster's Choice, Nescafe)
 - (iii) General Foods (Maxim, Maxwell House, Yuban, Brim, Sanka)
- B. That this Assembly request that each session express its concern over the Angolan forced-labour situation in writing to their Member of Parliament, and through their local news media.
- C. That materials in support of the United Nations resolutions on Angola, (available through Church sources and community concern groups, such as: "Toronto Committee for the Liberation of Portuguese African Colonies", 121 Avenue Road, Toronto, and "South Africa Information Group", Box 4443, Station E, Ottawa), BE COMPILED by the Board of Evangelism and Social Action, and be circulated to all Sessions along with the study booklet "For Such a Time as This", for use in congregational educational efforts;

- D. That the 99th General Assembly ask their Moderator, together with the Chairman and Secretary of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action, to seek meetings with the Presidents of General Foods, Nestles, and Standard Brands in order to protest the use of Angolan coffee, and to request them to use coffee from other sources;
- E. That this Assembly invite their Moderator to highlight our concern for human justice during his Moderatorial year, and discuss this matter with Church, Business and Government leaders across the nation, using the Angolan coffee example to focus on the practical implications of Christian faith;
- F. That this Assembly ask the Board of Evangelism and Social Action (and or its successor) to identify other specific areas of injustice and oppression, and prepare models for the 100th General Assembly designed for congregational action and education.

DISASSOCIATION

The Clerks of Assembly, for reasons of legal involvement in this Notice of Motion, disassociated themselves in the interim from the Notice of Motion.

NOTICE OF MOTION

"I give Notice of Motion that it is my intention to move or cause to be moved that a study paper be prepared dealing with the Charismatic Movement and its relationship with the members and particularly the youth of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

(Signed) John Barton" (Continued page 72)

NOTICE OF MOTION

"I give Notice of Motion that at a future Sederunt, I will move or cause to be moved that the next $30,000 from Category "B" of the National Development Fund be given to Knox College for necessary repairs to the Knox College property.

(Signed) Allan M. Duncan" (Continued page 66)

ADJOURNMENT

OVERTURE NO. 6, 1973, PRESBYTERY OF MIRAMICHI RE: CONFESSING THE CHRISTIAN FAITH TODAY

Mr. John Posno appeared in support of the Overture.

Mr. R. W. Ross moved in amendment, duly seconded, that Assembly grant the prayer of the Overture,

1. to reaffirm our belief that by the grace of God, the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, as originally given, were not mixed with error; and
2. to assert that the Scriptures have been preserved by God's grace so that the Bible as presently held is sufficiently close to the original text to be dependable as "—the only rule to direct us how we may glorify and enjoy him," and
3. to declare that we are not free to correct scripture in any way, other than in the determination of the original text by good documentary evidence."

The amendment was lost in the voting, and Recommendation 6 was adopted.

RECOMMENDATION 7

Mr. R. W. Ross moved in amendment, duly seconded, that 7(a) be deleted, that (b) become (a) and that (c) be as follows:

- "(b) That Presbyterian ministers and laity rejoice in every opportunity to express their love and concern by sharing informally their historic faith with Roman Catholics and others; and that they be much in prayer for all who are being led to search the Scriptures, that they might discover the fullness of the grace and love of God."

It was moved in amendment to the amendment by Mr. Paul Brown, duly seconded, that (a) being reinserted, the following words be inserted before "every opportunity of sharing", in (c) and begin the Recommendation 7(c):

"That this General Assembly enjoin the Synods, Presbyteries and Sessions of that church to adhere to the spirit of this resolution and not to prohibit Presbyterians from taking".

[7388]

The amendment to the amendment and the amendment were lost in the voting.

Two members called for the dividing of the main motion.

RE: J. B. MACLEAN ESTATE

The above Overture, which had been referred to the Administrative Council, was reported upon by Dr. MacDonald, to the effect that the Management Committee of the Estate be a sub-committee of the Council, and the enlarged Committee another sub-committee.

On motion of Mr. W. C. MacLellan, duly seconded, and with consent of Assembly, it was agreed that Recommendation 2 be reworded "That the Maclean Estate Development Committee be enlarged and be known as the

Maclean Estate Development Committee, a Committee of the Administrative Council. This Committee is to be charged, as far as is practicable, with implementation of Colonel Maclean's will. The research done to date by the Crieff Conference Centre Committee and the Report on Development Opportunities at the Crieff Property, prepared by Professors Wright and Scott of the University of Guelph, is to be handed over to the enlarged Committee for their consideration, and the Committee is to report annually to Assembly through the Administrative Council of progress and for authorizations beyond the competence of the Administrative Council. (The present Maclean Estate Committee to remain a separate sub-Committee of the Administrative Council and to be known as the Maclean Estate Management Committee.)

Recommendations 2 and 3 were adopted.

Recommendation 4 was amended with consent of Assembly to read "That the Crieff Conference Centre Committee be discharged as of August 31st, 1973" and was adopted.

Recommendation 5 was adopted.

On motion of Dr. A. L. MacKay, duly seconded, it was agreed that Overture 17, 1973, is answered in the Report of the Maclean Estate Development Committee.

On motion of Mr. M. S. Reside, duly seconded, the Report as a whole with its Recommendations as amended was adopted.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH BUILDING CORPORATION

The Assembly called for the Report of the above Corporation, which, as printed, (pages 261-264), was handed in by Dr. D. McCullough, in the absence of the Chairman.

On motion of Mr. Malcolm Muth, duly seconded, the Report was received and its recommendations considered.

On motion of Mr. Muth, duly seconded, the Recommendations and the Report as a whole were adopted.

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH WORSHIP

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on Church Worship which, as printed, (pages 288-289), was handed in by Mr. Malcolm Muth, in the absence of the Convener.

On his motion, duly seconded, the Report was received and its recommendations considered seriatim.

Recommendation 1 was adopted.

RECOMMENDATION 2

Mr. F. Whilsmith reported the Administrative Council was not in favour of providing a budget for this purpose.

[7393]

PERMISSION TO SPEAK

It was agreed on motion of Dr. A. L. MacKay, duly seconded, that Dr. H. D. Stewart be given permission to address the Court during the presentation of the Report.

The Recommendation was defeated.

Recommendations 3, 4, and 5 were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Muth, duly seconded, the Report as a whole with its Recommendations as amended was adopted.

COMMITTEE ON CANADIAN FORCES CHAPLAINCY SERVICES

The Assembly called for the Report of the Canadian Forces Chaplaincy Services which, as printed, (pages 314), was handed in by Dr. H. A. Doig, in the absence of the Convener.

On motion of Mr. A. G. Faraday, duly seconded, the Report was received and its recommendation considered.

PERMISSION TO SPEAK

It was agreed on the request of Dr. H. A. Doig that Captain I. Raeburn-Gibson be given permission to address the Court during the presentation of the Report.

Captain Raeburn-Gibson brought greetings from the Chaplains of the Armed Services. He indicated that he has served in several places in Canada. He mentioned that his Service experience had brought to him a greatly increased good opinion of the work of the elders in the congregations. The Chaplains are dealing with young people in the Services and endeavouring to reach them with the message of the Gospel.

On motion of Mr. Faraday, duly seconded, the Report as a whole with its Recommendation was adopted.

COMMITTEE ON INSTITUTIONAL CHAPLAINCIES

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on Institutional Chaplaincies which, as printed, (page 293), was handed in by Mr. R. H. Armstrong, the Chairman, on whose motion, duly seconded, the Report was received and its Recommendation considered.

Recommendation 1 was adopted and so ordered.

On motion of Mr. Armstrong, duly seconded, the Report as a whole with its Recommendation was adopted.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF WORLD MISSION

Consideration of the Report of the Board of World Mission was resumed, Mr. L. L. de Groot, the Chairman, reporting.

On the request of Mr. de Groot, the Assembly granted leave that Dr. E. H. Johnson address the Court on "The Christian Church in the Peoples' Republic of China". Dr. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson had served as missionaries in Manchuria from 1935 to 1941. He was struck by many changes which had taken place in the densely populated country of China. Two buildings in Peking are used as Christian Churches for worship, and the services are largely attended by members of the various diplomatic Corps. Dr. Johnson through an interpreter had addressed one of the services. The Christians are endeavouring to discover how best they may express their witness amid a community such as that of Modern China.

RECOMMENDATION 2

New wording to replace Recommendation 2, Board of World Mission, pages 204 and 205 (Wording accepted in the Fourth Sederunt.)

2. Stipend of Board of World Mission Overseas Missionaries except for Overseas Volunteers and those appointed under special circumstances.
 - (a) That the policy of the General Board of Missions, which was reaffirmed by the 96th General Assembly, that overseas missionaries working for the General Board of Missions be remunerated on a unified stipend scale regardless of training or job assignment, become the policy of the Board of World Mission.
 - (b) That the policy established by the 96th General Assembly to use the marital status of the missionary as the sole factor to determine the stipend of General Board of Missions overseas missionaries, become the policy of the Board of World Mission.
 - (c) That the provision placed upon the stipend payment to single overseas missionaries by the 96th General Assembly, namely that the total of stipend inclusive of all allowances must not fall below minimum stipend, be deleted.
 - (d) That the starting point for calculating the stipend of all Board of World Mission overseas missionaries be the minimum stipend scale, including years of service increments, set by the General Assembly for an ordained minister in the case of a married missionary and for a deaconess in the case of a single missionary.
 - (e) That when stipend and housing factors and changing circumstances overseas necessitate adjustments to the allowances for overseas missionaries, the Board of World Mission is responsible for making these adjustments.
 - (f) That no missionary at present on Board of World Mission overseas staff is to lose financially by changes in the structure. Should application of the new formula result in a reduction in the amount of take-home pay, adjustments will be made to protect the individual missionary.

(g) That the effective date be January 1, 1974.

Recommendation 2 as revised was adopted.
 Recommendations 3, 4 and 5 were adopted.
 Recommendations 6 and 7 were received for information.
 Recommendation 8 (page 398) was adopted.

RE: CATECHISTS

The list of Catechists, (page 398), was received for information.

Overture No. 12, 1973, Presbytery of Algoma and North Bay, Re: Payments of Increments

Mr. G. R. Bell appeared in support of the Overture.
 The Board asked that it be given the opportunity to study this matter further in consultation with the Administrative Council, and the request was approved.

Re: Centennial Celebrations

It is recommended that proper steps be taken to express to the 99th General Assembly that we strongly approve of Overture No. 1, 1972 — Simultaneous Translation Presentations in French for the Centennial General Assembly, etc.

Recommendation adopted.

*Overture No. 24, 1973 — Presbytery of Vancouver Island —
 Re: Feasibility of Moving Expense Fund*

The Board recommended that this Overture be referred to the Board of World Mission Executive and will report to the next General Assembly after consultation with the Administrative Council, and the Recommendation was adopted.

Dr. A. E. Morrison moved, duly seconded, that the following be adopted as an additional recommendation.

"That this General Assembly support the Board of World Mission in giving priority to those areas of Mission relating to the development of people ministry and service rather than property, that is land, buildings or what might be termed real estate."

and the motion carried.

RE: THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH IN CHINA

Mr. Walter McLean moved, duly seconded, a motion that was deleted by the order of Assembly in the Eleventh Sederunt, when another was substituted, all consequent to Mr. Walter Donovan's motion to refer, which follows below.

NOTICE OF MOTION

"I give Notice of Motion that I will move or cause to be moved at a future

[7397]

Sederunt, that the composition of the Board of Ministry be reconsidered that it may be

- (a) Twelve members to be appointed by the General Assembly chosen to ensure regional representation
 - 6 of whom shall be pastoral ministers
 - 2 of whom shall be professional church workers who are not pastoral ministers.
 - 4 of whom shall be laymen or laywomen not employed by the Church.
- (b) as is
- (c) as is
- (d) as is

ADJOURNMENT

The Assembly adjourned to meet in this place, to-morrow, the eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three, at nine-thirty o'clock morning, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed by the Moderator, with the Benediction.

NINTH SEDERUNT

At Toronto, and within Glenview Church there, the General Assembly met pursuant to adjournment on Friday, the eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three, at nine-thirty o'clock morning and was duly constituted by the Moderator, Mr. Walter Donovan leading in prayer at his request.

MINUTES

The Minutes of the Fourth and Fifth Sederunts were presented in printed form and sustained.

NOTICE OF MOTION

"Whereas the matters of time of implementation and regulations concerning the Ordained Missionary appointments were not included in the motion of last evening, I give Notice of Motion that it is my intention to move, or cause to be moved, that these two matters be referred to the Board of World Mission; and this Board, in consultation with Personnel Services and the students of the colleges, report to the 100th General Assembly.

NOTICE OF MOTION

"Since the hour was late for clear thinking on the part of Assembly when we passed a motion and in doing so did injustice to those opposed to the motion to reinstate the appointment system for graduates without allowing them a fair opportunity for debate, I, as one who voted for the motion, and who would do so again, give Notice of Motion that I shall move, or cause to be moved, that the motion on the required appointment of theological students be reconsidered before the close of this Assembly and preferably immediately.

RESIGNATION OF DR. E. A. THOMSON

The Assembly called for the Report of the Special Committee re: Resignation of Dr. E. A. Thomson, which was handed in by Mr. Frank Whilsmith, Chairman, as follows:

1. The Committee reports that with deep regret, we recommend to this General Assembly that Dr. Thomson's resignation as Principal Clerk of Assembly, (in accordance with his wishes and stated desire) be accepted, effective June 30, 1973.
2. In accepting the resignation of Dr. E. A. Thomson as Principal Clerk of Assembly, the 99th General Assembly returns thanks to Almighty God for his outstanding leadership and devoted service to The Presbyterian Church in Canada. His manifold gifts of wisdom, insight and skill; his faithfulness and integrity as Clerk, Secretary and Minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; his example of shining faith; his love and concern for his fellow human beings; and all the superior qualities of mind and heart which are his have gained for him the complete admiration, deep respect, and unstinted love of all his fellows. We thank God for him and pray that God will bless him with many years of happy and healthy retirement.

On Mr. Whilsmith's motion, duly seconded, the Report was adopted, and the Assembly gave a standing ovation to Dr. Thomson.

PRESENTATION

The Moderator presented a bound book to Dr. Thomson, containing over eight hundred signatures of ministers and elders across Canada, this day being his birthday — eighty years.

Dr. Thomson replied in thanks and with felicitous references to his age and years in the Church. The Assembly again gave a standing ovation.

NOTICE OF MOTION

"I give Notice of motion that it is my intention to move or cause to be moved at a future Sederunt that the Assembly confirm Dr. L. H. Fowler, Deputy Clerk, as Principal Clerk of Assembly, as of July 1st, 1973.

RESIGNATION OF DR. A. E. BAILEY

The Assembly called for the Report of the Special Committee re: Resignation of Dr. A. E. Bailey, which was handed in by Dr. A. E. Morrison, the Chairman, as follows:

"Your Committee has met, and after interviewing Dr. Bailey and other interested parties, begs to recommend:

That the resignation be accepted, and that the Executive of the Board of Christian Education be given power to issue as to the date — up to December 31, 1973."

On motion of Dr. Morrison, duly seconded, the Report was received, and adopted.

TRIBUTE TO DR. BAILEY

On motion of Dr. Morrison, seconded by Dr. J. C. McLelland, it was agreed the Clerks prepare and inscribe in these Minutes a tribute to Dr. Bailey. The tribute follows:

As Convener of the Board of Christian Education, and for the past three years as its Senior Educational Consultant, Dr. A. E. Bailey has given the results of his intense training in his chosen field. The Presbyterian Church in Canada records its gratitude to Dr. Bailey for the leadership he has given in a time when the activity of Christian Education had reached a low ebb in the Christian Churches and when our church has been passing through changing structures in this field. It is our hope his talents will continue to be used to enrich our Church in the days ahead.

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on Church Architecture, which, as printed, (page 406), was handed in by Mr. W. A. Donovan in the absence of the Convener.

[7410]

On behalf of G. C. Brett, Mr. Donovan presented the motion of which Mr. Brett had given Notice in the Second Sederunt, namely, that the membership of the Committee on Church Architecture be reviewed.

On motion of Mr. Donovan, duly seconded, the motion to review carried.

On motion of Mr. Donovan, duly seconded, the Recommendation of the Committee on Church Architecture (page 406) was adopted and the Report of the Committee as a whole together with its recommendation was adopted.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE — RE: OVERTURE NO. 28,
 RE: HOUSING FOR RETIRED MINISTERS

The Assembly called for the Report of the above Special Committee which was handed in by Mr. D. S. Jackson, in the absence of the Convener, and on his motion, duly seconded, the Report was received and considered and the Overture referred to the Administrative Council for consideration and report to the General Assembly of 1974.

REPORT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Consideration of the Report of the Administrative Council was resumed, Mr. F. Whilsmith, the Chairman, reporting.

Mr. Whilsmith moved, duly seconded, that Recommendation 8 be approved and it was adopted.

RECOMMENDATION 47

The Chairman reported the Council adheres to the principle of proportionate increases in stipends. The Recommendation had been amended in the Fourth Sederunt that the increase be to all Church Workers.

The amendment was defeated and Recommendation 47 was adopted.

Mr. R. Spencer moved, duly seconded, that a special committee study the whole matter of proportionate increases in the light of the widening gap that this produces in the salaries of church workers whose stipends are already set in a proportionate relationship. The motion was adopted.

The Chairman reported the Council adheres to its Recommendation. Mr. F. Whilsmith, duly seconded, moved the Recommendation of the Administrative Council be adopted and it was so ordered.

The Assembly adjourned to meet in the same place on the same day at seven o'clock evening, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed by the Moderator, with the Benediction.

The attention of the Assembly was drawn to the death of the Reverend J. L. Burgess, M.A., for forty-two years a minister of the Church. The Assembly rose and, at the request of the Moderator Dr. L. H. Fowler led in prayer of thanksgiving for the life of God's servant and for the Divine comfort to be given to the bereaved.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BUSINESS

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on Business which was given in and read by Mr. J. Ferguson, the Convener.

On motion of Mrs. H. Currie, duly seconded, it was received and considered and, being adopted, the business for the evening was ordered accordingly.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE APPOINTED

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly accepted the following Special Committee:

Re: Addition to Recommendation #47 — Administrative Council — proportionate system of increase of stipends for other church workers

Dr. J. H. Williams, Chairman; Mr. E. G. Nelson, Orangeville; Mr. W. G. Thomson, Oakville; Miss Evelyn Murdoch, Hamilton; Mr. Calvin Elder, Toronto; and Mr. James Barbour, Comptroller, Consultant.

YOUTH OBSERVERS

Mr. F. Whilsmith reported that the Council supports Recommendation 1 of the Board of Christian Education as amended with a request that the Board of Congregational Life, in consultation with the Colleges, study the question of representation of youth observers and report to the Administrative Council by March 31st, 1974 with numbers to attend and the method of payment for future Assemblies.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Consideration of the Report of the Board of Christian Education was resumed.

On motion of Mr. P. Walter, duly seconded, the Report as a whole as amended was adopted.

ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Consideration of the Report of the Administrative Council was resumed, Mr. F. Whilsmith, the Chairman, reporting.

OVERTURES NOS. 8 AND 14

Mr. Whilsmith reported that Overtures No. 8, Presbytery of Hamilton and Overture No. 14, Presbytery of Algoma and North Bay are answered by the action on Recommendation 47 of the Administrative Council and on motion of Mr. Whilsmith, duly seconded, this report was adopted.

RECOMMENDATION 40

As a result of action taken by this Assembly, the Gross Authorized Expenditure will now be $3,155,297 for 1973 and $3,319,092 for 1974, and the Recommendation, as amended, was adopted.

RECOMMENDATION 26

Dr. J. C. MacLelland, Chairman of the Committee for Training of Professional Church Workers reported no conflict in his report and this recommendation, and Recommendation 26 was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Whilsmith, duly seconded, the Report of the Administrative Council as a whole as amended was adopted.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF WORLD MISSION

Consideration of the Report of the Board of World Mission was resumed, Mr. L. L. de Groot, the Chairman, reporting.

On motion of Dr. J. C. McLelland, duly seconded, it was agreed to delete the resolution in the Eighth Sederunt and to substitute the following:

Re: The Christian Church in China

Whereas, the Assembly heard with interest the word of hope and promise regarding the people of China contained in the report of Dr. E. H. Johnson, and

Whereas, the Assembly rejoice at the possible opportunities for the re-establishment of communication with China.

Therefore be it resolved:

- (1) that the Assembly ask the Board of World Mission to consider the possibility of holding China Seminars in several Canadian centres during the next year, and
 - (2) that the Board be asked to explore the feasibility of meaningful exchanges and other contacts between representatives of the Churches in Canada and a representative group from China.
- The Resolution was adopted.

BOARD OF KNOX COLLEGE

Consideration of the Report of the Board of Knox College was resumed, Mr. M. Jess reporting in the absence of the Chairman.

On his motion, duly seconded, the Report as a whole with its Recommendations as amended was adopted.

DISSENTS

Dr. L. H. Fowler read the following dissents and it was agreed they be inserted in the minutes.

"Reasons for dissent to the motion of Mr. Paul Brown that the ordained mission year be reinstated in the following terms:

1. It is unfair to the congregations and graduates involved. It is not in the best interests of either. These congregations deserve an experienced man and the graduates deserve experienced congregations.
2. It will perpetuate an unwanted and undesirable situation.

3. I am afraid that it is made more upon the grounds of expediency than from Christian love.
4. It is paternalistic in the worse sense of the word and reveals a condescending attitude towards the graduates many of whom are mature married men.
5. It is selfish. It calls for a sacrifice on the part of the graduates with no corresponding personal sacrifice on the part of the congregations or the rest of the Church.
6. It is illegal, as the Clerks of the General Assembly would need to rule if a student appealed. This in itself should commend caution.
7. It is a simple reply to a complex situation that demands a far more serious reply.
8. It is an avoidance of our responsibility as a Church to seriously and sacrificially serve the needs of all of its members.

(Signed) David Whitehead"

Recommendation 7 (c), p. 353, Committee on Church Doctrine

"Permit me to register my dissent to the action of the 99th General Assembly on Recommendation 7 (c), p. 353:

Jesus said that if we would continue in his word then we would be his disciples indeed.

To this day the doctrine of the Church of Rome includes the infallibility of the pope, the veneration of the virgin Mary and the transubstantiation of the bread and wine in the Mass.

All of these are contrary to the clear teaching of the word of Jesus Christ. A priest as a Roman Catholic priest represents this error.

While I can join with the rest of the General Assembly of our Church in fellowship and worship with those of the Church of Rome on an informal basis, I believe that to officiate in services of worship in any official way would be disloyal to Jesus Christ and misleading to our people.

(Signed) John Allison"

Recommendations #7 (a) and (c) of the Committee on Church Doctrine

"I desire to have my dissent recorded to recommendation #7 (a) and (c) of the Committee on Church Doctrine, because I feel that it undermines all of the work of the Reformation and is a contradiction of our Westminster standards.

(Signed) Clare Martin,
 James Perrie,
 John F. Nute,
 J. M. Grant,
 John P. Posno,
 Merrill Reside."

Recommendation 7 (a) (Page 353) — Committee on Church Doctrine

"I desire to record my dissent to Resolution 7 (a), page 353, on the grounds that any participation in such services might imply a denial of my Ordination vows, on which occasion I pledged adherence to the Word of God; that 'in season and out of season' I would proclaim by Word and Sacrament that Christ's death upon the Cross was 'that perfect redemption, propitiation, and satisfaction, for all the sins of the whole world, both original and actual; and there is none other satisfaction for sin, but that alone'; and that the Mass ceremony is grounded upon no warranty of Scripture.

Further, as my Orders have been declared invalid by the Church of Rome, and, likewise, those of my Presbyterian brother-ministers, any 'joint participation' in such services on my part would be false.

(Signed) H. L. McCall"

Dissent re Recommendation (7) — Church Doctrine

"I wish to register my dissent on the grounds that a show of religious unity with any who acknowledge any other mediator, advocate or sacrifice for sin, than our Lord Jesus Christ and His once-for-all, full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice at Calvary is contrary to Scripture and to the Westminster Standards, both of which I have vowed to uphold.

(Signed) Robt. W. Ross,
 John Fortier"

Recommendation of the Senate of Knox College (A & P 1973, p. 441)

"I dissent from the adoption of the Recommendation of the Senate of Knox College (A & P '73, p. 441) that the representation of each of the Colleges on the Board of Education be increased from one to two members.

The reason being that the Board is already well represented with professors who can judge on academic matters, but it needs a wider representation of pastoral ministers who are working right in the congregations of our Church.

(Signed) Robert Spencer"

COMMITTEE ON TRAINING OF PROFESSIONAL CHURCH WORKERS

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on the Training of Professional Church Workers, which, as printed, (pages 330-335), was handed in by Professor J. C. McLelland, the Chairman.

On motion of Professor McLelland, duly seconded, the Report was received and its Recommendations considered seriatim.

The Recommendations were adopted.

On motion of Professor McLelland, duly seconded, the Report as a whole with its Recommendations was adopted.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF WORLD MISSION

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Board of World Mission reports on the mission work of the Church as directed by the General Assembly. The further stages of integration of the mission work of our church have taken place, with all mission personnel now under the direction of the BWM, and the committees of the Board established and beginning to function.

The appointment of the General Secretary, George A. Malcolm by the 98th Assembly and his commencing duties as of mid-August 1972 was part of the structural process. The BWM appointed in September and they commenced their duties January 1, 1973:

Dr. E. H. Johnson, Secretary for Research and Planning

Dr. H. A. Doig, Secretary for Finance and Administration

Rev. R. M. Ransom, Secretary for Mission Education

Rev. A. F. MacSween, Secretary for Field Operations — Canada Mission Fields

Miss M. E. Whale, Secretary for Field Operations — Mission Personnel & Overseas Scholarships

Miss G. G. Kelly, Secretary for Field Operations — Canada Special Ministries

Rev. E. F. Roberts, Secretary for Field Operations — Overseas Program

A service of recognition and designation was held January 30, 1973 in the Korean Presbyterian Church, Toronto by the Presbytery of East Toronto as instructed by the last General Assembly.

The Board of World Mission records its appreciation for the faithful service of the Secretaries, Superintendents of Missions, Directors of Church Extension, Office Staff, all workers at home and overseas and to the Chairman, Rev. L. L. deGroot, who have served most acceptably to bring honour and glory to our God.

WORK IN CANADA

The detailed accounts in the reports from the Synods of the Church reflect the message and mission that our Church continues to affirm and pursue.

The charges under the care of the Board have continued to be well manned except in those areas where the change in the appointment system of graduating students has had the greatest impact — the three Western Synods. Eleven vacancies in aid-receiving charges in these Synods as against one in the three Synods in Quebec and Ontario speak for themselves.

Intensive study has continued in an effort to keep pace with an unbelievably mobile and constantly urbanizing population. The co-operative planning which was authorized by the ninety-seventh Assembly has continued to expand in particular in the so-called "Golden Horseshoe" in South Western Ontario. Here no less than 30 proposed new communities will have to be considered as opportunities for new congregations in the next decade. Halifax, Edmonton, Victoria, and Calgary are other centres presenting challenges to the church's outreach.

The reports highlight the twentieth anniversary of "La Vie Chretienne" under its founding editor Dr. André Poulain; the St. George's-Tyndale House dedicated in June 1972; the founding of St. Mark's Korean Congregation in London, Ontario; the enlarged area of service through the Kenora Fellowship Centre; the realignment program in the Presbytery of Red Deer.

Among the items which have given grave concern are the continuing rise in the cost of living and the accompanying need to increase the basic stipend to keep up with this rise; the prospect of a change in the income tax regulations which would no longer exempt the living accommodation of ministers from taxation; the possibility of municipal taxes being levied on church properties; the escalating costs of transportation particularly in multi-point charges. The Board is keeping these continually under review. It is noted that an increase in the Basic Stipend of $300 per annum in 1972 and 1973 has been provided through Assembly and Administrative Council action.

The reports are commended to the study of all congregations and Presbyteries of the Church.

WORK IN WORLD MISSION

In early February in New Delhi the Church of North India held a Consultation of members of the Synod with representatives from the 42 related churches and mission agencies. This consultation, which was attended by the Overseas Secretary, formulated plans for CNI work and gave attention to support by personnel and finance from related churches. These were sent on to the official meeting of the CNI Synod for its consideration and action. Our new relationship to the CNI was made real for us by the visits later in the year of Rt. Rev. S. K. Patro, Bishop of Bhopal, the Diocese within which the Bhil work is set, and of Mr. A. C. Dharmaraj, General Secretary of the CNI. The arrival in Canada of Rev. and Mrs. Jalal Masih Daniel in 1972 marked the first persons from the Bhil area to come to Canada for advanced study.

In Taiwan the 100th anniversary of the arrival of George Leslie Mackay was observed by celebrations in May. These were attended by the Moderator, the Rev. Murdo Nicolson, and by Rev. George A. Malcolm, Chairman of the Board of World Mission and Rev. L. L. deGroot, Vice-Chairman.

A unique part of the celebrations was the coming to Canada in October and November of two Taiwanese pastors chosen by the Presbyterian Church in Taiwan, Rev. S. T. Tan, and Rev. J. L. Tsai, as evangelists to the Canadian Church. While the political situation in Taiwan has remained sensitive our missionaries have not had problems. The visit to Canada of Rev. C. M. Kao, General Secretary of the Presbyterian Church in Taiwan, provided an opportunity to talk freely about the basic relationship between our two churches.

In 1972 Malawi began to take an increasing place in our overseas concern with a visit in February by Rev. E. H. Johnson, and a further visit in December by Rev. E. F. Roberts. In these visits and in the visit to Canada of Rev. Tom Colvin, Secretary of the Christian Service Committee of Malawi, and the furlough in Canada of Rev. Brian Crosby and his wife, much was learned about that country. Relations with Malawi were further strengthened when Rev. Saindi Chiphangwi came to Canada for studies at Knox College. In March 1972 the Board of World Mission recorded its readiness to assume increased mission responsibility in Malawi as may be possible.

Through 1972 Nigeria continued on its path of recovery from the problems of war. Oil royalties of more than a billion dollars in 1972 helped the work of economic recovery but led also to wide-spread corruption. The rehabilitation of churches and manses continued. Church Leaders are hopeful that basic problems of the unity of the Church can be reconciled in the Spirit of Christ. Missionary staff are still requested by the Church in Nigeria but anti-expatriate feelings are developing and the place and function of white missionaries from abroad in the coming years needs careful clarification.

The work in Japan was put on a new footing when the 98th General Assembly of our Church approved a new statement of relationship between the Presbyterian Church in Canada and the Korean Christian Church in Japan, which had already been approved by the General Assembly of that Church in 1971. This has given to the Church in Japan a new sense of its responsibilities and has placed all resources of personnel and finance fully under its direction. During 1972 the KCCJ became active in the issue of minority rights and is working with the Japanese Churches to secure non-discrimination against Koreans resident in Japan. It has also taken keen interest in the talks between North and South Korea and hopes to be able to give creative leadership.

Rev. Glen Davis was called to be the minister of the Fukouka congregation, an action approved by the General Assembly of the KCCJ. Exciting developments in the Korean Christian Centre in Osaka has given new stimulus to work throughout Japan and has led to the revitalization of the Osaka congregation now associated with the Centre. Our Board took further steps in a wider involvement in East Asia by appointing Miss Dawn Ross to the KCCJ which then seconded her to work with the Urban Industrial Mission of the East Asia Christian Conference, formerly served part-time by Miss Mavis Hyndman.

The work in the Caribbean is much affected by the strong anti-white sentiments in much of that area. Canadian staff, Rev. and Mrs. Geoffrey Johnston and Miss Joan Buckhurst are working at the United Theological College of the West Indies in Kingston, Jamaica. The UTCWI now has a new President, Dr. Horace Russell, and maintains a strong program. The Guyana Men's Conference was attended by Rev. Zander Dunn and Mr. Roy Hamilton from Canada. The lay-centre at St. Columba House received a special visit from Rev. D. Pitamber, a theological professor from Bangalore, India, now studying in North America.

The development of Special Ministries continued with the setting up of the new overseas volunteer program. Miss Muriel Copeland in Crete and Miss Joan Buckhurst in Jamaica were first year appointments and in 1972 Miss Dawn Ross was appointed to Japan, and Miss Patricia Pooler to Afghanistan.

The Board is mindful of the tremendous challenge to Christian Mission opened by the new relationships with Mainland China. The Canada/China Relations Committee of the Canadian Council of Churches planned the Churchmen's Seminar on International Affairs for 1973 in Ottawa on the theme "Exploring Canada's New Relationship with China in 1973". This made it clear that Canadians need to learn a great deal more about recent developments in China to establish constructive relationships with the people of that land.

The Board continued to participate in the Orientation Course for outgoing missionaries and also in the newly developed course for Incoming Missionaries. The latter, pioneered by the United Church of Canada, was shared by our church in 1971 and is now under the Ecumenical Institute.

The work with overseas students and laymen abroad was carried forward by various experimental programs. Miss Patricia Hanna is Chairman of the Laymen Abroad Committee of the Canadian Council of Churches.

1972 was a year of advance in Leadership Development. The program included persons from Nigeria, India (Bhil), Malawi and Japan, studying mostly in Canada.

The Board notes with regret the resignation from the work of Rev. C. M. Costerus, Miss Diane Petrie, Mrs. Ruth Ann Soden and the completion of a two-year term by Miss Patricia Baker. To these it extends its deep gratitude. The new full term appointee was Miss Ivy Howard to Taiwan.

From the beginning of January '72 we enjoyed the unification of staff in which the various responsibilities of the overseas work were shared by Mary Whale, Earle Roberts and E. H. Johnson.

WORK OF MISSION EDUCATION

Mission Education has received a real impetus through the restructuring of the Board of World Mission. Mr. Remmelt Hummelen, Program Assistant for Communication, has given creative expression to all aspects of the work.

The past year has been one of exceptional deputation activity because of special visitors, additional overseas personnel available and an increased emphasis on making deputation use of persons engaged in missions in Canada. A committee is evaluating the visit of the Taiwan Evangelists and will present a report with recommendations to the executive. It became very evident during the year that deputation procedures need study to re-think both purpose and methods.

A request to find and implement ways of "personalizing missions" so they may be more readily understood and supported, has led to a re-thinking of the basic work of mission education.

An overture to the General Assembly to direct Mission Education to plan and develop a theme such as "The Mission of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, Past, Present and Future" to involve our people more fully in mission at the time of the Centennial Celebrations, has caused the setting up of a Centennial Task Force to work out details of the Board's participation in the Centennial observances of the church.

A chief factor that has forced a re-thinking of the place of mission education within the Board of World Mission and in relation to other program agencies of the church has been the work of Organization and Planning with regard to the newly-established Board of Congregational Life. The Board of World Mission has given much thought to this and has had consultation with representatives of both O & P and BCL. A secretary of information and interpretation is essential to the ongoing life and vigour of the missions of the church, and so must be an integral part of the Board of World Mission, but in its approach to congregations to involve people in mission it must work through some such agency as the Board of Congregational Life.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Increase in Stipends
 THAT the 1973 Assembly authorize the Administrative Council to implement, as funds become available, an increase to the basic stipend of ministers, deaconesses, women church workers, catechists and student ministers, of at least $300 a year in 1974 and 1975, noting with appreciation the implementation of $300 increase in basic stipend in 1973, and recommending the same increase to the basic stipend for deaconesses, women church workers, catechists, and student ministers in 1973 as early as possible.
2. Stipend of BWM Overseas Missionaries except for Overseas Volunteers and those appointed under special circumstances. (See Pg. 59 For New Wording.)
 - (a) THAT the policy of the General Board of Missions, which was re-affirmed by the 96th General Assembly, that overseas missionaries working for the General Board of Missions be remunerated on a single salary scale regardless of training or job assignment, become the policy of the Board of World Mission.
 - (b) THAT the policy established by the 96th General Assembly to distinguish between married and single GBM overseas missionaries in the payment of stipend by paying a single missionary 75% of what a married missionary would receive, become the policy of the BWM.
 - (c) THAT the provision placed upon the stipend payment to single overseas missionaries by the 96th General Assembly, namely that the 75% of married rate inclusive of all allowance must not fall below minimum stipend, be deleted.
 - (d) THAT the starting point for calculating the stipend of BWM overseas missionaries be the minimum stipend rate including years of service increments, set by the General Assembly for an ordained minister.
 - (e) THAT married overseas missionaries receive 100% of the General Assembly's minimum stipend for ordained ministers plus all applicable overseas allowances while single missionaries receive 75% of the married rate and 75% of all applicable overseas allowances.
 - (f) THAT all overseas missionaries be given free accommodation. Overseas the accommodation will be provided with heavy furniture only, while on furlough soft furnishings will also be included.
 - (g) THAT no overseas missionary presently on BWM staff is to lose financially by changes in the structure. Should application of the new formula result in a reduction in the amount of take-home pay, adjustments will be made to protect the individual missionary.

- (h) THAT when salary and housing factors and changing circumstances overseas necessitate adjustments to the allowances for overseas missionaries, the BWM is responsible for making these adjustments.
 - (i) THAT the effective date for these changes be set by the BWM, it being understood that consultation with the Administrative Council is necessary to determine when funds are available.
3. THAT the General Assembly approve the basic material on the theme "Global Consciousness" for prayer and study throughout the Church in 1974-75 and because of our own Church Centennial the Board of World Mission and Women's Missionary Society (W.D.) be asked to prepare suitable supplementary materials to take advantage of the Centennial Celebrations as a special opportunity to call our people to greater concern for and involvement in mission.
 4. Overture #3, 1973, Hamilton and London Synod
 The Board of World Mission carefully considered this Overture and answers that the prayer of the Overture be granted in the following terms:
 "That plans are being developed by the Board of World Mission to stimulate and motivate the Church in Mission during Centennial Year."
 5. Overture #3, 1971
 The Board of World Mission carefully considered this Overture and submits, that the prayer of the Overture be answered in the following terms:
 - (1) Deaconesses at present receive annual increments of $200 to a maximum of $1,000; catechists receive no increments.
 - (2) Catechist salaries are kept under constant review.
 - (3) The General Assembly has approved a travel allowance for deaconesses at the rate of $300 per annum or 7¢ per mile, whichever is greater.
 - (4) That the prayer of section 4 be not granted (that room and board or manse be provided for Deaconesses under appointment).
 6. Minute of Appreciation:
 THE REV. CHRISTIAAN M. COSTERUS
 The Board of World Mission records its deep appreciation for the services of the Rev. C. M. and Mrs. Costerus as overseas missionaries of the Presbyterian Church in Canada working with the Presbyterian Church in Taiwan. Chris and Grace Costerus were appointed by the General Board of Missions in March 1956. After orientation in Canada and the United States they went to Taiwan in September 1957. They spent an initial two years in language study and then Chris was assigned by the Taiwanese Church to work with the tribal people. In 1961 he joined the staff of the Hsin Chu Bible School and taught there until he went on furlough in June 1967. In 1966, on the invitation of the Tainan Theological College he lectured part time at the College while continuing at Hsin Chu. In July 1968, after furlough, he was appointed Associate Professor of New Testament at Tainan and continued there until he completed his service in Taiwan in May 1972.
 Chris was born in China of missionary parents and spent his youth in North China. His early life in China was an asset to him as he undertook his work in Taiwan. As a teacher he was strict, demanding maximum effort from each student, but personally always ready to give of his time and talents to help his students.
 In all his work he was well supported by his wife, Grace, who ably looked after their home and six children. On July 31st, 1972 Mr. Costerus terminated his service as an overseas missionary and accepted an appointment by the Board of World Mission to the church extension charge at Bramalea, Ontario. The Board follows him and his wife with interest and prayers in their new sphere of missionary activity.

7. Note —

The Board of World Mission conveys to the General Assembly its support of the principle that where the amalgamation of inner city congregations is proposed all resources resulting therefrom should be administered so as to provide for viable forms of ministry and outreach.

G. A. MALCOLM,
General Secretary.

L. L. DEGROOT,
Chairman.

FIELD REPORTS

ACROSS THE SYNODS

Synod of the Atlantic Provinces

In this region, the present population distribution is largely the result of past dominance of extractive operations in the economy. It is hoped that the development of growth centres (metro areas) with a manufacturing and service basis will lead to a more urbanized region. The Atlantic Development Council projection is that if proper programs are developed, over 70% of the population will be living in urban centres by 1981. In 1961, only 50% of the population lived in urban centres. Now is the period of planned urbanization e.g. the satellite city of Sackville (Halifax).

Regarding urban/rural distribution of population, it is important for planning to note that in 1961, 50% of the 1,897,400 residents lived in urban areas. By 1966, 54% of 1,974,000 lived in urban areas. Now that the population has passed 2,000,000 this gap has further widened. It is estimated that by 1981, 72% will be urban.

For a Synod that has been largely rural based, the above factors speak loud and clear. A few units of new work in a relatively few growth centres will do little in the next two decades to balance losses in people in the rural and small communities of the Synod. To illustrate the above it can be pointed out that between 1952-1972 households increased in the Synod by 197, while membership declined by 1337. In this same period 7 new congregations were erected and 6 new churches were dedicated.

The Superintendent proposes a review of the present philosophy of mission. "It is clearly evident," he says, "that we should, as concerned Christians, be involved in thinking of new ways of functioning more realistically."

The Presbytery of Cape Breton observed a "Mission Week", May 7-14, with local leadership as well as personnel provided by the National Office. In late fall the Rev. Lee MacNaughton was inducted at Middle River.

Iona, Dartmouth, after a construction period was dedicated by the Presbytery of Halifax and Lunenburg on October 1st. "This was perhaps the highlight event in the area of our mission effort during the year." A student, Miss Elizabeth Posno, worked in the Presbytery during the summer months. At the end of the year the N.S. Housing Commission advertised asking churches and religious bodies who were interested in a campus concept work to make their interest known. Since then a meeting has been held with representatives of the Commission. Mrs. A. O. MacLean continued her invaluable service as hospital visitor in the Halifax area.

In Saint John Presbytery, after a long vacancy the Charlotte County congregations of St. Andrew's, St. Stephen, St. George and Pennfield were consolidated into one charge and settled by the induction of the Rev. B. Isaac in September. The new congregation, Bethel, Riverview, showed steady growth during the year under Rev. B. Lowery, O.M.

Synod of Quebec and Eastern Ontario

32% of Canadians live within the geographical area covered by the Synod. According to the 1971 census, the mother tongue of 20.3% was English and of 73.6% was French. In the Province of Quebec, those reporting English as their mother tongue increased from 697,402 in 1961 to 789,185 in 1971. On a percentage basis, English decreased by .2%, French by .5%, with those of other mother tongues accounting for a .7% increase. This indicates a situation in this Synod different from any other Synod in North America.

"La Vie Chrétienne" last year celebrated its twentieth anniversary still produced by its founding editor, Dr. André Poulain. The vacancy in Eglise des Cantons de l'Est, remains unfilled.

The Chinese Church in Montreal is carrying on under the shadow of expropriation by the Federal Government. The notice of intention was published just as the church was completing an additional storey to the present building, with financial assistance under the Local Initiatives Program from another federal department!

Renovations to the duplex adjoining Tyndale House, the cost of which was shared jointly with the Anglican Church, were completed and what is known as St. George's-Tyndale House was dedicated in June by the Bishop of Montreal and the Moderator of the Presbytery.

Personnel changes during the year saw the Rev. Peter Szabo appointed to the Montreal Hungarian Church, Mr. Donald MacLeod, a Presbyterian College student, to Inverness (co-operative with the United Church), and Mr. Charles Coombs, lay supply, to Leggatt's Point (Presbyterian)-Metis (United) pastoral charge. Five denominations continued their support of the Seaway Community Services Project in the Presbytery of Brockville.

The Synod Mission Committee, in co-operation with Mission Education, Board of World Mission, utilized the services of Mr. Remmelt Hummelen on a shared expense basis, to produce a slide-tape presentation of mission work within the Synod. Well received when presented at the Synod meeting, it is available from Mission Education.

Synod of Toronto and Kingston

This committee followed the pattern of meeting in areas of new work for meetings. Part of the business was to tour the building facilities and hear a description of the work from the local minister. Visits such as this were made to University Church, Toronto; Iona Church, Willowdale; St. Luke's Church, Oshawa; and the Erin Mills Display Centre.

Two new areas of work were begun in 1972. St. Mark's Church, Malton held its first service on Palm Sunday in the Auditorium of one of the Schools with 223 adults and children in attendance. The minister is the Rev. F. Slavik. They now have 75 charter members and have bought property for their own place of worship. This area has a population of 18,000 and is expected to reach 32,000 by 1976.

Erin Mills South is beginning under the direction of the Kirk Session of Erin-dale Church and the Rev. F. Parsons. Their first service was in the High School in October and they are now holding house Church meetings. In this area the population is expected to grow from 4,000 in 1972 to 50,000 in 1980.

The Synod was represented at the Chautauqua Conference on the Church and the World by the convener, Robert Spencer. He reported on the helpful program based on the two study themes, to one presbytery and to the Synod.

Synod of Hamilton and London

Mission Education and Nurture: Follow-up to the World Mission Consultation has taken place in Presbytery, groups of congregations, individual churches and study groups. Rallies were held in Hamilton, Niagara, London, Chatham and Bruce-Maitland Presbyteries.

The itineraries of the Taiwanese evangelist and Bishop Patro of the Church of North India proved of considerable value. The film, "The Cross in the Lotus" was used extensively in connection with the visit of Bishop Patro. The Rev. Jen-Li Tsai spoke with great acceptance, and the suggestion is made that such a visit become a regular part of the mission education program.

Miss E. Murdock, Messrs. W. L. Young and T. M. Bailey and their families participated in the 1972 Chautauqua Conference on the World Mission, an experience shared in part with the Presbytery of Hamilton in December.

This Synod unanimously recorded its support for closer ties by congregations with individual mission programs of the church, both in Canada and overseas, and the Board of World Mission has been asked to facilitate such person-to-person and congregation-to-congregation relationships.

Synod has overtured the General Assembly to develop for Centennial year the mission theme, "The Mission of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, Past, Present, and Future."

The Rev. Jalal Masih Daniel and Mrs. Daniel of the Bhil area in India, currently studying at McMaster, Hamilton, have been most helpful on deputation throughout the Synod.

Attention of congregations was directed to the George Leslie Mackay Centennial co-inciding with month-long celebrations in Taiwan, with special services at Embro, the birthplace of Dr. Mackay.

Summer Mission Programs: As a result of a grant to Project Understanding, thirteen people from this Synod travelled by bus to Indian reservations in the Kenora area at the invitation of Indian Bands. Unique relationships were developed and Synod recommends continuation of this project in 1973.

At Bayfield, the summer project in the Grand Bend area, consisting of both formal and informal Sunday services, church school, day camp program and a coffee house, was carried on by two student workers, L. M. Clifton and D. Allen, under the Presbytery of Stratford-Huron.

Huron Feathers, a day camp, operated during July and August with the last two weeks in July devoted to the Holiday Club program. A coffee house was open four nights a week under the direction of Jim Klassen, with 1500 people in attendance. A total of 445 people used the Youth Hostel. Assisting our staff were workers from the Addiction Research Foundation. Sunday Services were conducted by area ministers in the chapel, blending contemporary and traditional with emphasis on friendship and openness.

Ethnic Emphases: The attendance at the Chinese services in St. Andrew's Windsor, has greatly increased since the arrival of Rev. David Chan, Ph.D. Fellowship periods are held after the Sunday hour of worship, and a group is being prepared for church membership. Dr. Chan reports an emphasis on evangelical outreach as well as a fellowship for Chinese Christians in the community.

The London Korean Christian Church began weekly services at the beginning of 1972 with Mr. Andrew S. Lee, a graduate of Knox College, as supply. By the end of the year fifty people, representing forty families, were attending the Sunday Services. About 400 Korean families are living in London.

The Hungarian Congregation, Windsor, records a continued decline with no new families, no youth work, and gradual assimilation into the English-speaking church. The Mount Bridges Hungarian congregation is now twenty years old, and has marked the anniversary by establishing weekly Hungarian services in the City of London where over one thousand Hungarians live. The minister, the Rev. Louis Vietorisz, edits the Hungarian version of the Upper Room for world distribution.

Extension Programs: The Westmount congregation in London is now in possession of its new building. Trinity, also in London Presbytery, was erected as a congregation in January 1972.

In Hamilton, the North End Ministry, is having greater impact on the community. Property has been procured on Brant Street, Burlington for a new congregation. Presbytery has agreed to accept responsibility in co-operation with other denominations, for residents of the proposed satellite city of Saltfleet — outside Hamilton.

In the Presbytery of Chatham, the Forest Glade Inter-Church project is being recognized as a potent force in this new community. The Rev. A. MacDonald reports marked improvements in the latter part of the year with regular attendance by families.

Synod of Saskatchewan

The Presbytery of Assiniboia experienced a severe loss of ministers in 1972, but is thankful that some vacancies have been filled. The pastoral charge of St. Mark's, Moose Jaw and Knox, Briercrest called the Rev. Lloyd Fournay as pastor, the induction taking place in January, 1973.

The Presbytery appointed Mr. Bob Beverley as married student to Bekevar Church, Kipling, in May and certified him as a student for the Christian Ministry. Mr. Beverley is attending University of Saskatchewan, Regina.

The visit of the Rev. Brian Crosby of Malawi for deputation within the bounds of Synod was a source of encouragement and insight for all who met him. Another able Christian, the Rev. Jen-Li Tsai, of Taipei, addressed the court, and brought greetings from the Presbytery of the Seven Stars in Taiwan.

1972 was encouraging in the area of spiritual witness and commitment in the Presbytery of Northern Saskatchewan. Biggar is settled now with Miss Leslie Landell, ordained 1972 by this Presbytery, — a history making occasion. New signs of life here indicate a revival spirit.

Rev. Raymond Glen has been well accepted at Calvin-Goforth where the cause is showing signs of hope. The Presbyterian Church in Coleville is still open and services are being held on a regular basis from Rosetown.

Rev. Malcolm Muth continues his mission into Northern Saskatchewan. With so many denominations forsaking the outlying areas because of the decreasing population the Convener thinks the Church should seriously consider reviving her pioneer attitude and be governed by the needs of people where they live.

Synod of Alberta

The Synod of Alberta has experienced more changes in personnel during the past year than for some years. Despite the concern generated by these changes the Synod is strong in its witness. Particularly outstanding has been the program of re-alignment within the Presbytery of Red Deer.

The time has now come to recognize that growth in Western Canada is heavily centred in the cities of Calgary and Edmonton. Vast housing developments are located in several areas of both cities. It becomes clear that a policy of waiting to find a nucleus of Presbyterians around which to build a new congregation is not the only possible philosophy of extension that is workable.

In the Presbytery of Peace River, graduate Ian MacPherson reached his field at Whitehorse early in August, and has experienced promising reaction from the congregation, good attendance at services and a growing enthusiasm on the part of both minister and people.

Presbytery granted leave-of-absence for further study to Rev. Willem Janssen of Fort St. John and the Kirk Session will arrange supply in the interval. Dawson Creek, which has been served from Fort St. John for more than a year, had a student for part of the summer, who also supplied at Fort St. John since the latter part of August.

Grande Prairie with about 15,000 people is perhaps the fastest growing community in Western Canada. As a result of civic growth, the congregation may consider relocating. There has been a re-alignment in which Blueberry Mountain has been combined with Wanham. There is great enthusiasm. Mr. Innes serves Brownvale on a monthly basis. Mrs. Kristensen, a former deaconess, now resident in Dixonville, serves this isolated congregation and there is satisfaction with this arrangement.

The Presbytery of Edmonton reports that, responding to the steady ministry of Rev. Noel Gordon, backed up by Mrs. Gordon, a Licentiate of Theology, Brae-side is gathering strength.

Under the veteran leadership of Rev. Gabor Dezse, Calvin, Edmonton has reduced the balance owing on the Church building, re-decorated the Church inside and out, and reduced their grant by some $300 this year. Dayspring is now under the leadership of Rev. Ralph Kendall, and has resolved to build. With the aid of the BWM, the congregation secured a more suitable Manse.

The Presbytery of Red Deer bids fair to be the re-alignment example of the Church. It is the western centre of rural pastorates. The thought behind re-alignment in this Presbytery is to focus the congregations toward the centres of Commerce and Education, linking them with the towns adjacent.

Innisfail, under the ministry of John Calvin Rhoad, has had Penhold and Edwell attached to form a three-point, self-supporting charge. West Park, Red Deer has had Valley Centre and Willowdale attached for a three-point charge under the ministry of newly-appointed Gordon Agar.

In the Presbytery of Calgary-Macleod, St. Paul's, Banff has fallen vacant as of September when Robert Burns returned to the United States for further study. It is now supplied by Rev. J. D. Wilkie.

Calvin, Calgary continues to pay off the indebtedness incurred as a result of the almost complete loss of the Church by fire. Rev. B. D. Nagy, the Minister, has not enjoyed good health but has been faithful in the discharge of his duties. Varsity Acres, Calgary, rejoices in its first year in a new Church. The minister, Charles Scott, was called and inducted in the spring.

In Bethlen, Lethbridge, Rev. George Telcs has completed his first full year after returning to Bethlen. The congregation is moving out into the community beyond ethnic bounds, assisted greatly by a highly successful vacation school. The Rev. Gordon Williams has resigned his charge at Riverside Medicine Hat and is now a Program Co-ordinator with the Department of Manpower and Indian Affairs, Ottawa. There is good spirit within the Synod from Whitehorse to Medicine Hat, reflecting very favourably upon the faithful service of Rev. K. C. Doka, Superintendent, who covers an enormous territory in Alberta and Northern Saskatchewan with unfailing courtesy and good humour.

Synod of British Columbia

The congregations and Presbyteries within the Synod of British Columbia show stability during changes and new emphases in Church administration and structure. The Mission Committees are now part of Congregational Affairs Committees.

There is only one vacant self-supporting congregation (Central Vancouver). Two Aid-Receiving congregations are requesting Ordained Missionaries (Newton, in Westminster Presbytery, and Duncan, in Vancouver Island Presbytery). Dr. W. H. Fuller has been serving temporarily at Duncan under the new "Retired Ministers Plan".

In Kootenay Presbytery, Kinnaird was joined with Trail, and Nelson and Slocan became a Two-Point Charge. Knox Church in Cranbrook is building a new church in the south eastern part of the city. Kamloops Presbytery was saddened by the death of Rev. Howard Kerr, minister of Vernon and Armstrong, on March 19th, 1972. The Rev. Alan Glen is the new minister there. Miss Annabelle Wallace has resigned from the office of Presbytery Deaconess.

In Westminster Presbytery, Coquitlam people and their minister, Rev. Keith Wilcox saw their new building dedicated. Rev. Calvin Chambers is ministering to an independent group of Christians. Rev. Paul Walker is minister of Fairview Church and Rev. William Bell of Ottawa has been called to Knox Sapperton Church, New Westminster. Robertson and Brentwood Churches are being served by Student Pulpit Supply. Dunn Memorial Church was closed during the year. Bradner and Mission City have become a Two-Point Charge.

In Vancouver Island Presbytery Rev. Roy Cunningham is minister of Knox Church, Sooke. Dr. J. L. W. McLean, for many years convener of missions in the Presbytery left St. Andrew's Church, Victoria for Elmira, Ontario.

Miss Brenda Moncrieff is the Educational Resource Person for Synod. Rev. W. Oliver Nugent continues to serve as Superintendent of Mission for Southern Saskatchewan as well as the Synod of British Columbia.

Canada Mission Fields — An Overview

Some congregations have fared badly. St. Paul's, Corner Brook, Newfoundland was finally dissolved in 1972 and the property sold. In Sarnia, the congregation of St. Matthew's divested themselves of their property. The Presbytery of Northern Saskatchewan amalgamated Calvin and Goforth congregations in Saskatoon. The Presbytery of Westminster is supporting the congregation of Brentwood-Parkcrest in Burnaby, B.C. in the hope that the situation may yet be salvaged.

On the happier side, five charges attained self-supporting status: St. Stephen's, Scarborough; Strathcona, Burlington; Innisfail, Alberta; Whalley and White Rock in the Presbytery of Westminster. Southgate, Hamilton may soon take a similar step.

New charges have been established at Malton, and Erin Mills, Ontario. The work at Newton, in the rapidly developing Surrey area between Whalley and White Rock, B.C. might be considered a new start as well.

Six new church buildings have been dedicated in the past 12 months: Iona, Dartmouth; Westmount, London; Dauphin, Manitoba; Varsity Acres, Calgary; Coquitlam, Westminster; and Cranbrook, B.C. A new building is under construction for the Bridlewood Congregation in North York, and construction is expected soon at Parkwood, Ottawa; Strathcona, Kingston; Gateway, Toronto; and Dayspring, Edmonton.

The most notable growth is in the vicinity of Halifax, Ottawa, Toronto (the whole Golden Horseshoe area), Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver. The escalation of land costs forces new congregations to consider sharing ownership of facilities with other denominations. In Toronto, Gateway congregation is planning to build in association with a Roman Catholic congregation, and the Iona congregation shares a building with Anglican and United Church congregations.

The same ability of our congregations to work harmoniously with other denominations is demonstrated at Dublin Shore, N.S., Forest Glade in the Windsor area, Pinawa and the northern construction camps in Manitoba, and Cranberry Portage, where a small Presbyterian congregation has welcomed a devout and co-operative group of Mennonites. These make a strong Christian witness in their communities, without diminishing their identity or sacrificing principles.

The most serious problems we face at the moment is the supply of manpower. At the moment there are some 74 vacant charges scattered across the country, offering a wide variety of opportunities for service. One of the tasks of the Board of World Mission is to supply manpower for the leadership of Aid-receiving Charges.

CHINESE MINISTRIES

The Director of Christian Education of the Chinese Church, Victoria, B.C. reports: "The Chinese School continues with 32 students — Bible Class has 8 people. The Nursery School enrolment totalled 33 for the year conducted in both Chinese and English.

"The Church School at the end of the year had 45 members. The Bright Candle Group, from Grade 2 up, met on Communion Sundays for Mission Study when they learned through pretend T.V. about Nigeria and mission work there. They had stories about George Leslie Mackay in Taiwan, and Sadhu Sundar Singh of India. The Vacation Church School had 32 attend for one week in July. Through art, puppets, music and stories, they learned Bible truths."

Rev. Y. J. Kwan who served as minister of the Chinese Church, Vancouver for eighteen years, passed away on August 25th, 1972. A memorial service was held in the Chinese Presbyterian Church on September 3rd.

Communion services were held in the Chinese Church, Vancouver, five times during the year with an average of 80 to 85 partaking and nine new members being added to the Roll.

Sunday Morning Worship (Chinese and English) and evening worship (Chinese) were held every Sunday and a special Candlelight Service was held on Christmas Eve. The "Church News" was issued quarterly. Prayer meeting and Bible Study were held every Wednesday evening in the church.

Most of the people who came for consultation were new immigrants. Some were members of other denominations and some were non-Christians. Each had different needs and problems, which included certification of proposed marriage for immigration purposes, housing problems, applications for Old Age Pensions and special government grants for child care, employment problems, family problems, assistance in obtaining medical care and depressed individuals who contemplated suicide.

Two new classes were added in September 1972 to the Church School, an adult English Class and a Young Adult discussion group. Sunday School Teacher's Fellowship was held once a month to plan, study, share and pray for a more effective Church School. The church provided the staff for the Junior girls camp of forty girls at Camp Douglas.

The Pui Tak Day Care Centre was open 254 days in the year, five days a week. There were 38 on the Roll with a waiting list of 12. The families of some children have financial difficulties. Without this care, the parents could not both work to support their families. Chinese Bible lessons and hymns are an important part of the curriculum of the Pui Tak Chinese School. Special scholarships are available for children from needy families.

Since September, there has been no organized young people's group. Within the Chinese community, there is not only a generation gap, but also a large cultural gap between the recent Chinese immigrants and the Chinese Canadian who grew up in Canada. The Nursery School, Pui Tak Day Care Centre and Chinese School not only spread the gospel to the children and their families, but also help bridge the cultural and generation gap.

In the Chinese Church, Montreal, Family Meetings are held every second Saturday. The Kindergarten recommenced in January and the Chinese School operated from January to June with 98 students and 6 teachers.

Because the members work from Monday to Friday it is difficult for them to have a chance to meet each other. This is why monthly family meetings are held in different districts.

On October 8th, 1972 more than twenty members of the Mandarin Church transferred their membership to the Chinese Presbyterian Church. Every Sunday at two o'clock they have worship in the church in Mandarin Chinese.

In the past year, many of the goals of the Church School were achieved. The eagerness of the children to participate in events such as: Bible Study Competition, Art Contest, Rally Day, Music Festival and Track Meet, brought many awards and honour. By these activities the children were given the opportunity to broaden their Christian outlook.

In order to reach the children's parents, the Church School and the Women's Missionary Society prepared the "Mothers' Day Dinner" with over 200 in attendance. This project raised over $260.00 for the "Church Building Fund". A Cradle Roll was started to enable mothers to have their children cared for as they attended worship service. Periodically, teachers' training sessions were held to prepare teachers to teach more effectively. The church school staff consists of twenty teachers.

In summer a very successful camp was held in Magog, Quebec, with an attendance of more than 40 young people.

The older Chinese people in Canada are very unresponsive to help because of their shyness. Their way of life and thought is often still in the nineteenth century. They need friendship, common sense knowledge, as well as education. Above all, they need Christian love and guidance to help them to fit into society.

Chinese Church and Community Centre, Toronto: The church is the home of our Father for His children. A house is a place where there always exist some difficulties and problems. Yet it is the place where greatest joy and warmth can be found. For God cares what His children need. "And of His fulness have we all received, and grace for grace." (John 1:16)

The Staff thanks the minister and members of First Church, Brockville, who during the Chinese New Year season provided a chance to serve the Lord among the Chinese families in that area. They helped to gather these families in their church to introduce Jesus Christ to them.

Every Sunday, there is Church School for adults and young people as well as for children. Early in the morning there are fourteen to fifteen people in the youth class. They study the Scriptures in the form of research and discussion.

Nursery school is held for children aging from two and a half to four. Day by day they are taught Bible stories, songs and prayers. This school also proves an advantage to new immigrants. They can leave their children in this school before they go to English class upstairs.

A young people's summer camp was held in August at the McLean Estate. "Abundant Life" was the theme. More than 30 young people gathered together to enjoy the beauty of God and to learn to serve each other.

The 62nd Anniversary of the Church was celebrated on Sunday, October 29. Rev. Jen-Li Tsai, of Chung Shan Church, Taipei was guest preacher.

The normal activities consist of meetings of the Women's Association, the Young Women's Guild, the Young People's Society and prayer meetings, in which members are responsible for preaching by turn.

In the past, only older generations volunteered for visiting the hospitals and homes for the aged. This year, young people also joined in. When they saw the sick and the weak, they learned that what they did was really meaningful.

Miss Margaret Near, deaconess, writes: "During the year I have been involved in the Hydro Block Working Committee, set up to plan the future of the block beside the Church which is in process of being sold by Ontario Hydro to Ontario Housing Corporation. I was interested as a resident of the Block and also felt strongly that the church should be actively concerned. The Chinese tend not to get involved in community planning, so it is easy to misinterpret my involvement. It has been most interesting to get to know the non-Chinese segment of the community. I will certainly maintain my activities, and probably extend them to the South-East Spadina Planning meetings."

CHURCH EXTENSION

Two major priorities were the new work in Malton and Erin Mills respectively. In Malton planning proceeded in co-operation with Rev. Calvin Elder, Synod Director of Church Extension, and the new appointee, Rev. Frank Slavik. The initial worship service was held on March 26. Christian Education planning involved following up new volunteer teachers with a visit and initial orientation to their jobs. Most teachers were eager to learn and to teach well.

The Church at Erin Mills is being formed along with the new town. This means a slower, more gradual beginning. The Erin Mills Church Group being a Campus of about 5 denominations means that meetings are held regularly as a total group of churches to discuss life as a campus and to plan for styles of ministry.

The Presbyterian Group began worship services in the Erindale Secondary School in October. Within a few Sundays it became evident that numbers would be smaller than the survey records showed and other arrangements were made. The idea of a House Church seemed to be a reasonable alternative, and members of the congregation set up the first meeting in one of their homes in late November.

The community resources of library, schools, cable television and other such resources are available for the Christian Education program. New people, new towns and new learning experiences all give a sense of adventure, and of the hard work involved in blazing new trails. In all this newness there is the need of the power of the Holy Spirit to help make dreams become realities.

Urban planning and development has advanced with increasing momentum during the past year. The major factor in this massive urban growth has been the rapidly escalating cost of land.

These highly inflated land costs have proven to be prohibitive for most of the denominations. In an attempt to overcome this very serious problem, the Synod Director of Church Extension consulted with representatives of the other churches in the Toronto area which led to the formation of an Inter-Church Regional Planning Association. This Association has proven beneficial to the denominations. By confronting developers as one body representing some fifteen denominations, it has different needs and problems, which included certification of proposed marriage for immigration purposes, housing problems, applications for Old Age Pensions and special government grants for child care, employment problems, family problems, assistance in obtaining medical care and depressed individuals who contemplated suicide.

Two new classes were added in September 1972 to the Church School, an adult English Class and a Young Adult discussion group. Sunday School Teacher's Fellowship was held once a month to plan, study, share and pray for a more effective Church School. The church provided the staff for the Junior girls camp of forty girls at Camp Douglas.

The Pui Tak Day Care Centre was open 254 days in the year, five days a week. There were 38 on the Roll with a waiting list of 12. The families of some children have financial difficulties. Without this care, the parents could not both work to support their families. Chinese Bible lessons and hymns are an important part of the curriculum of the Pui Tak Chinese School. Special scholarships are available for children from needy families.

Since September, there has been no organized young people's group. Within the Chinese community, there is not only a generation gap, but also a large cultural gap between the recent Chinese immigrants and the Chinese Canadian who grew up in Canada. The Nursery School, Pui Tak Day Care Centre and Chinese School not only spread the gospel to the children and their families, but also help bridge the cultural and generation gap.

In the Chinese Church, Montreal, Family Meetings are held every second Saturday. The Kindergarten recommenced in January and the Chinese School operated from January to June with 98 students and 6 teachers.

Because the members work from Monday to Friday it is difficult for them to have a chance to meet each other. This is why monthly family meetings are held in different districts.

On October 8th, 1972 more than twenty members of the Mandarin Church transferred their membership to the Chinese Presbyterian Church. Every Sunday at two o'clock they have worship in the church in Mandarin Chinese.

In the past year, many of the goals of the Church School were achieved. The eagerness of the children to participate in events such as: Bible Study Competition, Art Contest, Rally Day, Music Festival and Track Meet, brought many awards and honour. By these activities the children were given the opportunity to broaden their Christian outlook.

In order to reach the children's parents, the Church School and the Women's Missionary Society prepared the "Mothers' Day Dinner" with over 200 in attendance. This project raised over $260.00 for the "Church Building Fund". A Cradle Roll was started to enable mothers to have their children cared for as they attended worship service. Periodically, teachers' training sessions were held to prepare teachers to teach more effectively. The church school staff consists of twenty teachers.

In summer a very successful camp was held in Magog, Quebec, with an attendance of more than 40 young people.

The older Chinese people in Canada are very unresponsive to help because of their shyness. Their way of life and thought is often still in the nineteenth century. They need friendship, common sense knowledge, as well as education. Above all, they need Christian love and guidance to help them to fit into society.

Chinese Church and Community Centre, Toronto: The church is the home of our Father for His children. A house is a place where there always exist some difficulties and problems. Yet it is the place where greatest joy and warmth can be found. For God cares what His children need. "And of His fulness have we all received, and grace for grace." (John 1:16)

The Staff thanks the minister and members of First Church, Brockville, who during the Chinese New Year season provided a chance to serve the Lord among the Chinese families in that area. They helped to gather these families in their church to introduce Jesus Christ to them.

Every Sunday, there is Church School for adults and young people as well as for children. Early in the morning there are fourteen to fifteen people in the youth class. They study the Scriptures in the form of research and discussion.

Nursery school is held for children aging from two and a half to four. Day by day they are taught Bible stories, songs and prayers. This school also proves an advantage to new immigrants. They can leave their children in this school before they go to English class upstairs.

A young people's summer camp was held in August at the McLean Estate. "Abundant Life" was the theme. More than 30 young people gathered together to enjoy the beauty of God and to learn to serve each other.

The 62nd Anniversary of the Church was celebrated on Sunday, October 29. Rev. Jen-Li Tsai, of Chung Shan Church, Taipei was guest preacher.

The normal activities consist of meetings of the Women's Association, the Young Women's Guild, the Young People's Society and prayer meetings, in which members are responsible for preaching by turn.

In the past, only older generations volunteered for visiting the hospitals and homes for the aged. This year, young people also joined in. When they saw the sick and the weak, they learned that what they did was really meaningful.

Miss Margaret Near, deaconess, writes: "During the year I have been involved in the Hydro Block Working Committee, set up to plan the future of the block beside the Church which is in process of being sold by Ontario Hydro to Ontario Housing Corporation. I was interested as a resident of the Block and also felt strongly that the church should be actively concerned. The Chinese tend not to get involved in community planning, so it is easy to misinterpret my involvement. It has been most interesting to get to know the non-Chinese segment of the community. I will certainly maintain my activities, and probably extend them to the South-East Spadina Planning meetings."

CHURCH EXTENSION

Two major priorities were the new work in Malton and Erin Mills respectively. In Malton planning proceeded in co-operation with Rev. Calvin Elder, Synod Director of Church Extension, and the new appointee, Rev. Frank Slavik. The initial worship service was held on March 26. Urban planning and development has advanced with increasing momentum during the past year. The major factor in this massive urban growth has been the rapidly escalating cost of land.

These highly inflated land costs have proven to be prohibitive for most of the denominations. In an attempt to overcome this very serious problem, the Synod Director of Church Extension consulted with representatives of the other churches in the Toronto area which led to the formation of an Inter-Church Regional Planning Association. This Association has proven beneficial to the denominations. By confronting developers as one body representing some fifteen denominations, it has been possible to have the cost of land reduced by as much as half. The Association is considering the presentation of a brief to assure that a church site policy is incorporated into the official sub-division plans.

The Toronto-centred Association has some thirteen sub-committees studying new developments from Cobourg to Mississauga. Four other regional associations have been organized, located in Oakville-Burlington, Hamilton, Kitchener-Guelph-Cambridge and Windsor. Interest has been expressed in the formation of a fifth Ontario planning association in the Erie-Lakeshore area.

Another matter under consideration by the Inter-Church Regional Planning Association is the principle of land banking. This would involve the purchase of raw land in areas of anticipated future development to be held by a church or a group of churches until development is planned. A further advantage of this co-operation is that the participating churches in the Association have been able to engage the services of professional consultants at a very nominal cost to each.

The Board of World Mission has entered into comity agreements with other denominations over the years in serving certain communities. Today, economic reasons are forcing churches more and more to co-operate with other church bodies. In the Flemingdon Park area of Toronto, an agreement was signed in 1972 to share a church building with a Roman Catholic congregation. The land on which the church will be erected has been leased from the Borough of North York for $1 per year for 99 years, on the understanding that it will be used as a joint site. Such leasing arrangements are rare.

A feasibility study on the Church Campus Concept was undertaken by Murray Ross, Convener of the Committee on Church Architecture. It proposes a variety of possible arrangements for the sharing of facilities, which will result in a considerable economy in capital funding. The first multiple church campus under this concept is in Erin Mills South, a development of 100,000 people. Four other denominations will share this campus, each paying one fifth of the cost of the campus site.

Calgary East is at present being studied, with plans to secure a suitable site for establishing a congregation in this growing area of over 60,000 people. The Board has also agreed to undertake an outreach program in the Saanich area of Vancouver Island, and to participate in church campuses in the Malvern Development in North Agincourt, in Meadowvale West in Mississauga, and the Lower Sackville area in Nova Scotia.

Superintendents of Missions were invited to share more directly in the planning process. At a meeting of the Church Development Committee the Superintendents and the Directors of Church Extension presented preliminary reports of proposed rapid urban growth in their areas. The result of these presentations is that there are seventy-five areas of potential growth for detailed study in order to assess where a Christian witness should be established within the next few years.

In order to keep abreast of the rapid development, it will be necessary for the Board to begin three new congregations each year. The three areas approved for starting new work in order of priority are Calgary East, Lower Sackville (Halifax area) and Erin Mills South.

Over the years as Canada has developed, it has been the mission of the church to follow people, wherever they settled, so that in all areas of our country a witness would be made to God's love in Jesus Christ. Today, if the church follows people, it is often too late to perform an effective ministry. It must be there in advance, planning carefully with the purpose of establishing a strong, viable Christian community, which in turn will be able to reach out as Christ's witness, and through their gifts make possible the establishment of other similar witnessing communities in areas of need within the nation.

FRENCH MINISTRIES

The French work in Montreal is always a challenge. There are such movements of population, there are so many influences contrary to the Christian faith that we cannot be certain of the future. Being the only French Presbyterian congregation in Montreal, l'Eglise St. Luc, struggles with problems created by the dispersion of members.

In spite of these unfavourable elements the work has gained some stability, not in the number of members which has decreased, but in the sense that there is a strong nucleus of responsible members. There are 214 communicants plus adherents or sympathizers.

The church has many contacts with French Canadians. Every month after the Church Service a fraternal gathering is held with a meal served, followed by a film or an exchange. Last year, the Session introduced a Service with the Lord's Supper twice a month.

Dr. André Poulain's work consists also of witnessing in the Province with invitations to speak on the radio of the French Protestant network, and in Roman Catholic institutions about the faith.

The monthly paper La Vie Chrétienne is a great tool for French work in Quebec and for the spreading of the faith. It also makes it possible to deal with some special problems and to make known the existence of French-speaking Presbyterians. It is like a visit every month to 800 homes.

Dr. Arthur Currie, of Ottawa, took the initiative to put in the book racks of St. Andrew's 12 copies of "La Vie Chrétienne" and he wrote: "I appreciate the copies which you have been sending me and they seem to be picked up quite quickly." Here is an initiative which could be followed by other colleagues in Canada.

"La Vie Chrétienne" is also a link with former members of St. Luc's congregation who have settled elsewhere and who are glad to read articles on Christian faith and life in French.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES

Hospital Visitors

In Halifax-Lunenburg Presbytery the field of labour is within a hospital complex and a medical area which is the largest east of Montreal — five hospitals with a bed capacity of about 1600. Some 75 Presbyterians are admitted to hospital per month, from all four Atlantic Provinces.

For many it is the first time away from home and often their first experience in a hospital. It is in these situations when a patient is troubled physically, mentally and spiritually that a hospital visit can prove to be most valuable. It is the first time for some to have a friendly visit from the Church. Since many of the patients come distances that make it impossible for any of their immediate family or friends to visit them the Church visitor receives a most friendly welcome.

Perhaps the most difficult area to visit, yet where the need is the greatest and appreciated most, is the Rehabilitation Centre. Many are young people who have been there for two years or more. The future for some is not too hopeful.

The hospital visitor for the City of Montreal covers a wide area in making visits that involve some 20 hospitals and other institutions.

Literature continues to play an important and indispensable part in this ministry. Patients are open and receptive to such reading.

An ecumenical group of five Hospital Chaplains representing five denominations — Anglican, Jewish, United Church, Greek Orthodox and Roman Catholic met together with six Hospital officials to discuss possibilities of humanizing hospital services. What can be done in a spiritual and human way, to help the lonesome patient, the suffering patient, the patients' relatives: how the waiting periods could be shortened and made more pleasant in the Out-Patient Department, X-Ray Department and in other hospital services and how help could be given in a human way after the patient has left the hospital.

Opportunities to widen the scope of this work continually present themselves. Follow-up is an important part of the work, keeping in touch with patients after they leave hospital, especially terminal cases or those from mental institutions who are placed by the hospital in Foster Homes. It is a great help and encouragement to them to know that someone is available at all times by telephone, willing to help them in an emergency, to give counsel or just to listen.

In London, Ontario there are nineteen places for hospital visitation including two General Hospitals.

Children at the Children's Psychiatric Research Institute are still enjoying their meetings each Thursday afternoon. They love singing and the Bible stories. The ones who are not able to participate enjoy the atmosphere, one can tell by the expression on their faces. In the past year, 2,034 visits were made in one hundred and ninety-one days by Miss Lily Schneider, the Hospital Visitor.

The Presbytery of Winnipeg this year formulated a job description of hospital visiting that has already gone to the Board. The job description considers Nursing Homes and Senior Citizen Residences in a way that calls for the organization of lay people to visit and then to help in training others. Along with Hospitals and Nursing Homes there are places such as the Convalescent Home and three Municipal Hospitals to be visited.

Supervised Clinical Pastoral Training was offered to the Hospital Visitor through the University of Manitoba at the Winnipeg General Hospital. The course involved twelve hours in Hospital plus four hours a week visitation. Presbytery arranged to have every Hospital Visitor speak in every church at some time during the year. This opportunity was welcomed in those churches which participated.

Nursing Homes, Toronto: The work is carried on in fifteen Nursing Homes and Senior Citizen Lodges. It is both interesting and rewarding. The words of Jesus in Matt. 25:40 "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren; ye have done it unto me;" characterizes the work which touches people in so many categories: reading to the blind; distributing Christian literature to those whose eyesight permits reading; writing letters for people who are not able to do this for themselves; trying to be a good listener. Elderly people feel they are at the "end of the road". It is important to make them feel wanted and more like a person. It is so easy in a Home to begin to feel like a statistic.

As the visitors go about their work, they have an opportunity of conveying an attitude of cheerfulness, understanding and compassion. Miss Lillian Reay the visitor, also conducts services of worship at some of the Nursing Homes.

Many of the ladies in W.M.S. groups help by knitting slippers, socks, knee covers or making bibs and sunbonnets. These are mostly for the welfare Homes. From time to time groups from local churches come into the Homes and sing, while C.G.I.T. and Explorer groups made scrap-books and collected pictorial magazines.

HUNGARIAN MINISTRIES

After 9 months of service in the Hungarian Church at Toronto and Oshawa, Rev. Peter Szabo, assistant minister, was transferred to Montreal. Mr. Szabo's main duties in Toronto, consisted of family visitation, the Church School, and the care of the Oshawa congregation.

His systematic family visitation has had results in the improved attendance at all church functions, and membership has shown a gradual increase in numbers. Average attendance of Sunday Services increased almost 9%.

It is quite encouraging that the young people, who were confirmed within the past three years, have shown greater than usual interest in the Church by constant attendance. Ten to eighteen people attend the weekly Bible study and prayer meetings. The spirit of "diakonia" also improved. The congregation provided an automobile to a minister in Hungary who serves regularly five congregations in various villages. Through voluntary work by the members the church hall was renovated and a new ceiling added.

The past year was a trying period for the Hungarian Church in Welland, Ontario because there was no minister for nine months. Nevertheless, the faithfulness of the people has been demonstrated in all phases of church activities. Mr. Alexander B. Fuleki and his family moved into the Manse in the fall, and Mr.

Fuleki took up his duties as Married Student while he pursued his studies at Knox College in Toronto. During the year a Communion Register was established and the ties with the Presbytery strengthened.

Peace, understanding and Christian fellowship have been with Calvin Church, Edmonton, in 1972. There were 47 services held with the average attendance, 20-22 people. Church School was conducted during the regular worship hours. For the first time in the life of this congregation it has organized a choir.

The congregation has reached the stage when its mortgage debt is down to $1,600. The congregation was also able to raise the minister's stipend and fulfilled the pledge made to NDF of $200.

1972 was a memorable year for the Calvin Hungarian Presbyterian Church of Calgary. The small congregation made a tremendous effort. In a single year with a final payment of $9,200, it repaid both its loans ($20,000 to the Lending Fund and $10,000 to the Bank of Montreal.)

The spirit of devotion is very much in evidence, as shown by the services of the elders, who with the help of the interim-Moderator, Rev. K. Doka, performed regular church services until the sick leave of the minister terminated.

In all other respects the congregation maintained a steady course. Number of members at December 31, 1972 — 139 persons; Saturday School attendance — 32 children.

INDIANS OF CANADA

Lake of the Woods Mission

Work with the Indian people in the Lake of the Woods area is slow. The ministry largely involves regular visitation in hospital, jail and homes. An attempt was made to re-establish church worship but there was virtually no response, as reported by Miss Sheina Smith.

The "Operation Understanding" group spent 2 weeks on each reserve which included one girl at the Centre. They were well accepted on the reserves. The girl at the Centre also worked very well and offered a real service.

Two new Day Care Centres have been added to the reserves. A program of Christian Education is included at Whitefish Bay. A Clothing sale is held monthly on each reserve in co-operation with the Centre. The revenue from this is used for general expenses.

Winnipeg Indian Centre

Mrs. Sandra Munro reports: "For the past eighteen months I've been working in Winnipeg at the Inner City Indian Project. I started off in a team ministry with Rev. Rex Krepps and have worked alone the past year to provide club activities for the young and old on a weekly basis, holding five children's and youth clubs and a women's group.

Church services on Sunday have been directed by Jim Stein (who also helped in the teens club) then Larry Lin, the summer worker, who also was a great help in family counselling and administration; at present there is Jim Jacobsen, a former missionary, studying at the University of Winnipeg.

During the Church Service, Church School is held with classes for 25-35 children. 75% of the School is made up of those picked up by vehicle, through the renting of a van for Sunday. With outings during the week and special activities year round, plus camping, the full time use of a van is necessary.

Camping is the big thing in the summer. It was good to see a staff of 7 Indian and Metis teenagers as counsellors and a couple of mothers occasionally to help with the meal times. Camping seems to be the best method of breaking down barriers and allowing everyone to be themselves. Good relations with families were established through these outings.

The women's Auxiliary, made up of women from Winnipeg churches and a few local ladies, have done an excellent job in raising funds and providing for needs as they arise.

For many years there has been a continuing discussion about the status of the native people in the Dakota Tipi Reserve (formerly Sioux Village), Portage la Prairie. They have been told from time to time that their location was not a reserve and as a result, whatever treatment they received by the Federal Government was a bonus and not a right. This reserve was officially established during 1972 with a Chief and two Councillors elected to represent the people and to give leadership in the administration of the reserve.

The new administration immediately took over. At the present time a recreation program is being carried out by Mr. Stephen Pashe. The church basement is being used for many new activities. There is an excellent relationship with the new administration. Formerly the land on which the Church is located was Federal Government property. Now (or at least as soon as the paper work is completed) the land will be owned and administered by the Chief and council.

Some families from the reserve have moved to the city of Portage la Prairie and at least one has moved to the Dakota Plains Reserve about 15 miles west. At the same time several new families have come to the new reserve. Work with native people by non-native personnel is never easy and that is true for the present.

This newest reserve in Canada needs Christian leadership which will be able to devote sufficient time, talent and patience to help to develop this mission as it should be developed. Services have been conducted each Sunday and a Church School program conducted. There is a very good "handcraft" program which has been well attended and evidently enjoyed by many.

In the City of Portage la Prairie, there is a "Friendship Centre" which caters to the native people as well as to the Metis people. There is an active program being carried out. Plans are for a new building to house all agencies working with these people. This will give added impetus to the work at the reserve which is only about 4 miles from the City Centre.

Oak Lake Reserve, Pipestone

Services of Worship and Church School continue each Sunday. Young People continue to turn out well on Thursday evenings for a time of recreation, fellowship and Bible Study. Average attendance is 15-20. Home Visitation is carried on regularly on Thursday afternoon by the missionary. The people seem to appreciate materials directed to their interest, such as "American Indian Life" paper (news plus Christian writing as well); the "New Life Testament for Indians"; as well as recordings in Sioux. Some jail and hospital visiting is done from time to time.

Mr. Edward Bunn, who has been training at Mokahum Indian Bible School, Cass Lake, Minn., served this reserve as well as the other reserves in the western part of Presbytery. He was able to take several services through the summer, including some of the tent mission services, and there was always a good interest when he was there. It underlines the need to train more Indian pastors and leaders for work among their people.

Total attendance for the year at the Birdtail Sioux Church Sunday services was 649 and the Children's Wednesday Bible School had a regular attendance of 13.

The Rev. George Anderson writes:

"Several packages of Church School literature were sent to us by thoughtful W.M.S. groups, and these have been very useful in our Bible study work. We could handle a good lot more healthy reading material. The young people on the Reserve are cut off from good literature apart from their public school text-books, and we are constantly being asked for something to read."

Good reading is still far superior to flickering T.V. for showing the adolescent on the Reserve the best side of Canadian Social life.

A most important lesson to be learned is that missionaries to the Indians must have very special training.

Mistawasis, Crutwell and Wahpeton

There is an awakening in the native people of the pride of being an Indian. Understandably, this feeling sometimes takes the form of non-tolerance toward things non-Indian. This awakening aided by the backing of the Government has propelled many activities in the reserves and other communities where Indian people may be found and has given the Indian people active roles in the fields of culture, education, vocational training, regional developments, administration and various other fields. The greatest assets of the Indian people are their human resources. Here is an opportunity for the indigenous leadership initially appointed and supported by the Government, to try to direct and harness it to the betterment of the native communities and to society at large.

One lesson the Indian people are beginning to understand is that "might is right." For instance, through the loud protests of the Indian organizations (F.S.I. in Saskatchewan) the Government not only listens but hastens to implement programs or pass legislation to meet their aspirations. The role of the church in the midst of this turmoil is still essential, if humble. The church opens its doors to everyone. The church is available to those in need. It does not have the authority, nor should have, in making policies regarding their destiny. But the Church should be with them. It is here to minister unto.

Drinking for the majority of people is only a minor part of their activities, and for some people, it has no place in their lives. And yet millions of people's lives are wrecked by drink, including many Indian friends.

The Presbyterian Fellowship House is situated in the city of Prince Albert. Here over 10 boys board under the guidance of Dave Harley. The Rev. Gordon Williams, who is now working for the Secretary of State, came and gave valuable advice and counselling.

It was a great loss to the Wahpeton church when Elder H. Buffalo passed away. There is at the present moment no one to replace him. Although there are only 10 families in the reserve, there is a good working relationship among the people. In the poverty stricken area of Crutwell, there is a very happy fellowship in the church with the families who are not all members of the church.

Some Mistawasis people are occupying prominent roles in the Indian people's administration. A few from this reserve are working for the F.S.I. and the Native Alcoholic Centres. The reserve has its own administrative building where there are three members administering welfare and other affairs. The reserve has a population of over 600. There is a health clinic and a nurse's aid from the reserve working fulltime for her own people. There is also a kindergarten with two teachers from the reserve working morning and afternoon shifts. Some people are driving school buses, and all students go to the public and high schools outside of the reserve. Several families are doing farming on a big scale. But the majority of the people are still on welfare. People support the church well except in a financial way.

The Kenora Fellowship Centre

The history of the Kenora Fellowship Centre is fairly well known. It is now in the 12th year of operation. The Centre was established at a time when very little was being done for the Native People and the scope of program needs was very wide. Through the years with the generous funding of the two levels of Government, most of these needs have been met, with most of the participants being paid to acquire the skills needed. At the present time there are more than 30 Agencies, either directly or indirectly working with Native People. With all that is being spent, the plight of the hard core poor, and problem drinker has been changed very little. As a matter of fact drinking on the streets of Kenora is at an all time high. The enormity of the situation is stressed by the fact that 400 people were picked up by the police during January. The ministry of K.F.C. is to these unfortunate people.

With the number of programs and the tremendous amount of public funds expended on the poor, the Kenora Fellowship Centre Board long ago decided that the role of the Centre is one of service rather than programs. With the Centre's comparatively long history in this area, it has a deep-rooted connection with the community and the Native People. Rapport with the various Agencies is excellent and the referral role is most beneficial. There are 150-200 people using the Centre each day. Last year some 28 groups held over 200 meetings in the Centre.

The use of the Centre is offered to groups who plan their own programs with the Centre playing a supporting role. About 80% of the people who use the Centre are transients who are in from the surrounding reserves for short periods of time. The Centre and Hostel provide a meeting and resting place for them and their friends. Any structured program would be of little value to them.

Waywayseecappo, Okanais and Rolling River

The co-operative ministry which includes Argyle, Ekford, Waywayseecappo (Presbyterian); Rosburn United Church; Elphinstone, Okanais, and Rolling River (Presbyterian), was begun in July, 1969 and is now in the fourth year. There are approximately 200 families in the Rosburn Pastoral Charge. The minister has also continued at Elphinstone, Rolling River, as Interim-Moderator.

Weekly worship services have been conducted in the Rosburn United Church at 11:00 a.m., in the Waywayseecappo Presbyterian Church at 3:00 p.m., and in the Elphinstone Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p.m. Regular hospital and home-visitation were also carried on.

At Waywayseecappo there is a weekly worship service with Bible Story and take-home papers for children and youth — held in Band Office in colder weather, an encouraging Vacation School on the reserve — average attendance 45; newsletter periodically to each home; summer-ministry of Mr. Edward Bunn, student for ministry.

At Elphinstone there is a weekly worship service and church school with average attendance 12, and good support from congregation in supplying teachers, materials. Young teen class started in October. A joint Vacation School with Okanais children and youth, in Elementary School — excellent facilities — average attendance 25. Ladies of the Elphinstone congregation provided meals for the workers, and the manse was available for the men to stay in.

At Okanais some home visitation was done by interim-moderator, hospital and jail also. A Church School was begun in October. The New Adult Centre was the meeting place. Newsletter went into every home periodically. Joint Vacation Bible School with Elphinstone in elementary school. Evening services for adults were held in the church.

At Rolling River there was a weekly Church School held in the Band hall with an average attendance of 30, a successful Vacation School in August. The interim-moderator has sensed a growing concern and openness among the families of the reserve for Christian Message and friendship. It would seem that a full-time native worker would be especially well received at this time.

At Argyle few members of this congregation still reside in the district. However, financial support and otherwise has been excellent and the two families who are able to attend services in Rosburn take an active part in the total program. And at Ekford home meetings continued on a monthly basis throughout the year. Attendance and interest in the home services has been good.

Highlights include — five missionary presentations were made in Rosburn, Waywayseecappo, and Elphinstone congregations, with workers from: Japan, Formosa, India, Austria and Panama. Some contact has been kept with these missionaries in past year and donations given for the work.

INNER CITY MINISTRIES

Flora House, Winnipeg

Each year seems to bring a slightly different emphasis to the work at Flora House. This year it was on the Christian in the home. This year there were about fifteen volunteer workers from the various churches in the Presbytery as well as three students from the Winnipeg Bible College.

From previous experience it was found that the Daily Vacation Bible School was not attracting the Junior age children. So an over-night tenting program at Birds Hill Park was introduced with a Bible Story Hour program. Thirty-five children attended.

Residential Camping at the Church camp at Clear Lake came up during August. The boys and girls groups have continued fairly similar to past years in program content. This year, several groups have been combined to form an active and exciting co-ed teens group.

Another new thing done this year is to move the Church School over to Calvin Presbyterian Church. This has increased attendance (approximately 25-35) and aroused more interest. Several teens are starting to attend church for the first time in their lives.

Hamilton

The Inner City work in Hamilton is located in the North end of the city. The church, Calvin Presbyterian, is 2½ blocks from Hamilton Bay. Grace United Church burned down approximately six years ago and since that time the congregation has been worshipping at Calvin Church. In September, the two congregations, rather than having separate services as in the past, voted to have one combined service on Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m. Rev. E. Lloyd Clifton, a Presbyterian minister, serves both congregations.

Since the Urban Renewal Development Project continues to change the area, many of the former residents have moved to other parts of the city. Many houses in the North End, have been demolished and replaced by blocks of Ontario Housing Units for lower income families. There is, therefore, a somewhat transient population. Many of the people in these housing units are on welfare. There are also many complex broken home situations. In one housing block alone there are over 300 children. Near the church, is a large Senior Citizens' apartment building. The opportunities for service are varied and endless.

The Inner City work is growing gradually, but could expand more quickly with more leaders. It is ideal, of course, to find and develop leaders from the area, leaders who will be able to take over the direction of the work themselves. At present there are training programs underway for volunteer leadership with some of the groups.

The groups are taken on many trips and outings and are subjected to as many and varied activities as possible. They have participated in such events as: a trip to the sugar bush, the Science Centre in Toronto, Niagara Falls, camp weekends, snow-mobile outings, skating and swimming parties, picnics and staying on a farm for a week in the summer.

Many of the surrounding Presbyterian churches in Hamilton and in the outlying areas have been a tremendous help in many ways by supplying new and used clothing, knitted mitts and blankets, canned goods, craft supplies and financial assistance.

During July and August "HappyTime" was held every morning from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, Monday to Friday. The program consisted of gospel singing, crafts, games and Bible stories for four age groups. The approximate daily attendance was twenty-five.

NECA (North End Christian Action) organization is made up of two Presbyterian churches, Eastwood Baptist Church and "Welcome Inn", a Mennonite organization. These work together and co-operate in an extensive summer program involving farm-outs, hikes, picnics, day camps, weekend camps, family camps and canoeing trips. Boundless horizons await in this glorious challenge of spreading the Gospel.

Portage La Prairie, North Side Mission

This most interesting mission, has now been functioning for almost 30 years. Services have been held each Sunday through the years. There is an attendance of up to 55 boys and girls. There is a tremendous challenge for youth work, children's work, women's work, one if not two choirs for the children.

The boys and girls attended a week-long camp on the shores of Lake Manitoba at Delta. This is the highlight of the year for many of the Church School family. The Board of World Mission pays for the rental of this Hall used by the Mission at present. First Presbyterian Church, Portage La Prairie provides most of the Church School material. Some of the Church School teachers are now being recruited from among those who earlier attended the Mission.

Verdun Day Care Centre

The Verdun Day Care Centre was in operation for the full twelve months of 1972 which was appreciated by the mothers who are working full time. The program is varied, with much free play when the children choose whatever they want to do. "Together Time" is another important part in the day's program for songs, stories, filmstrips, and other activities. An afternoon rest is a must for the little ones who stay all day. During the warmer weather much time is spent out of doors.

Since the Centre was opened almost three years ago, there have been fifty-five children using its services — 34 girls and 21 boys. The Centre opened with a registration of six.

The children come from all kinds of circumstances. Some from broken homes. Others have individual problems and they have been sent on the recommendation of doctors from either the Montreal Children's Hospital or the Children's department of the Douglas (Mental) Hospital. Over the years the doctors, health nurses and case workers have expressed their gratitude that there is such a place that will have the children.

The local Auxiliaries of the W.M.S. have shown great interest in the Day Care Centre.

Queen Street East, Toronto

The year 1972 was an important one for Queen St. East Church. Thanks to continued support from loyal members and to the help received from the Church at large there were resources which made it possible to strengthen and extend the work. The opportunity for the staff to work in a team situation was challenging and rewarding. The chief deficiency in the Inner City is not people, but leadership.

Much of the time of the deaconess, Miss Charlotte Stuart, is spent in visiting "shut-ins", the sick, and in congregational and out-reach visitation.

It has been possible to start new groups especially for 'Young Mothers' and their pre-school children when church members can offer their services in baby minding while the mothers enjoy fellowship, recreation and teaching in the basics of the faith. Children's and youth work continues with Summer Camps as a highlight of the young peoples' year.

At a convention in November the Riverdale Community Organization reconstituted as "Greater Riverdale Organization". Queen East Church had a delegation of 17 people. People have the opportunity of meeting each other where they are. One is encouraged by the friendly attitude toward the Church. It is interesting to note how overwhelmingly a motion to tax churches was defeated at this Convention.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES

Elizabeth House, Montreal

Elizabeth House, 2131 Marlowe Avenue, Montreal, a home for unmarried mothers, was opened five years ago under the auspices of the Anglican, United and Presbyterian Churches. Admissions last year numbered 68, compared with 64 in 1971. There were 49 Protestants, 15 Roman Catholics and 4 of other religions. 13 were under 16 years of age at admission; 45 were between 16 and 18, and 10 were between the ages of 19 and 21. 15 stayed less than ten weeks; 42 between 10 and 19 weeks, and 11 over 20 weeks.

The Protestant School Board provides a full-time school principal and a half-time commercial teacher. Others on the paid staff include a group therapist, added last year, and an arts and crafts teacher. Elizabeth House received its own code number recognizing it as a school within the school system.

Medical needs are met by the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, located across the street from the home. The Executive director, Mrs. Elsie MacKenzie, M.S.W., a professional social worker, serves under a Board of Directors of twenty persons composed of 5 members appointed by each of the co-operating denominations and the social work community. Dr. Charles Cochrane, minister of Melville Presbyterian Church is the Chairman of the Board.

Because of the strong support of the Department of Health and Social Welfare of the Province of Quebec, no call for financial support from the denominations has been made since the first two years when assistance was needed to get it started.

Presbyterian Fellowship House, Prince Albert

The year was one of transition. On January 1, 1972, the Staff of the W.M.S. (W.D.) was integrated with the Board of World Mission and the direction of the Fellowship House came under the Board at that time. The Advisory Committee was dissolved and a new Board of Managers was appointed by the Presbytery of Northern Saskatchewan. The Rev. Basil and Mrs. Hartley continued as House Parents until the end of June 1972. During that time there were seven boys in residence. Besides providing material necessities of 'home' for the boys, Mr. and Mrs. Hartley tried to give counselling and guidance as required.

Six meetings of the Board of Management were held during the year. In August, Miss Kelly was present for one meeting and helped set up a new staff structure. Replacing the House Parents was to be a Director, a Cook and a helper for cleaning. It was the hope of the Board of Management that more boys could be cared for and that this would enable them to operate the House more economically. When the house was opened for the new school year, the staff was as follows: Director — Mr. David Hartley; Cook — Mrs. B. (Jean) Hogeweide; and Helper — Mrs. D. Nicholet. There are eleven boys at the House now.

There has been much help and co-operation from the Dept. of Indian Affairs. It is this department which places the Indian students in their respective homes. Counsellors speak to the boys about why they need an education and how to budget their time for study. They have also been helpful in setting the boys straight about their conduct.

The cost of keeping students at the House has been increasing each year. This year there was a small raise of $5.00 for those in grade nine whose room and board is paid by Indian Affairs monthly. Some of the boys belong to the Indian-Metis Friendship Centre Youth Club and some of them serve on the executive.

On December 16, 1972, P.F.H. held Open House. A special invitation was sent to the congregation of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church to see the facilities and share a bit of Christmas. About 20 came. The ladies from the three W.M.S. groups donated sandwiches, cookies and cakes.

Through the year, P.F.H. has received offerings and donations. Some people from St. Paul's offered us some of their vegetables from their gardens in the fall. Some have donated furniture and money. P.F.H. was the recipient of White Gifts this year from the congregation of Calvin/Goforth Presbyterian Church in Saskatoon.

Tyndale Congregation and Neighbourhood House

The church has always lived in the tension of a "theology of inner experience" (prayer and worship) and a "theology of social change." In our times, the church needs to grasp anew this tension.

The Tyndale congregation and Executive Committee have responded to this tension by creating a variety of programs that attempt to meet the pluralistic demands and needs of the deprived community of Little Burgundy, Montreal.

The Missional Church: This year the Tyndale congregation has begun to sense that the hope for the future of the congregation and the parish program related to Tyndale Neighbourhood House comes from the experience of concerned Christians responding to the Gospel of Jesus Christ where they are, rather than from charts or writings about experimental ministries.

The Tyndale Congregation realizes that a ministry in a deprived neighbourhood requires being engaged in a joint ministry of mission. Hence, the partnership with St. George's Anglican Church became a reality in June. The local Anglican congregation appointed their assistant rector to work with the Tyndale team, and also allocated a budget for the work that increases yearly over the next five years. This co-operation has enhanced both the religious and social structures necessary to continue the developing ministry.

Support from sister-congregations in the Montreal area continued to supplement the resources of the parish program carried out by the Tyndale team and congregation.

The worship structure of the congregation during the past year has been developing as a corporate expression of the people's involvement in the parish program. Thus worship is no longer the primary activity of the congregation. There is now more of a creative tension between missional parish work and the need to gather together for worship: House Church, Sunday evenings; traditional worship, Sunday mornings; and a study and fellowship group, Thursday evenings, have met the worship needs of the congregation.

Christian Education classes at Tyndale have as their goal and purpose to bring the children and youth of the Little Burgundy community into relationship and dialogue with the Christian community. In the context of a Christian community the children are exposed to the gospel of reconciliation and have the opportunity to decide to embrace the Word and to recognize His presence in their daily lives.

This group is an example of a viable ministry to inner-city youth. This is to say that the teens in this program have been in the afterschool activities at Tyndale for the past few years, and now show real signs of being able to cope as responsible young people with the social process going on in their deprived neighbourhood. Half of this group attends Christian Education classes regularly on Thursday evenings.

Once a month, local teenagers who volunteer their time as leaders in the afterschool parish program meet to plan further activities for their own personal and social development.

In 1972 the university volunteers in the Tyndale program received a grant from the federal government's Opportunities for Youth program. Fourteen volunteers from Tyndale worked with ten other university and high school students to do recreational work in the neighbourhood (a street program). This meant that two English speaking groups and one French speaking group could be organized in the neighbourhood. Nearly two hundred and fifty children were reached by the program.

The Little Burgundy Council stimulates and co-ordinates the concerns and issues arising in the Little Burgundy neighbourhood. Four major 'action' groups research and define problems in different areas simultaneously. The Council attempts to determine courses of action that move toward justice for the people. The Council and its action groups meet monthly in Tyndale Neighbourhood House. The role of the Tyndale team ministry is to act as animators in these action groups: Economics, Education and Recreation. Discussing issues and planning action for the total community are each group's concern.

Throughout the past year approximately twelve teachers and assistants, and seventy children have participated on Thursday evenings from 7 p.m. till 8:30 p.m. in a very active and fruitful experiment in Christian nurture. Seven of our youth are now returning to be assistants in the classrooms, and are continuing their own understanding and growth in separate study.

The "Team" concept continues to be the basis of ministry in both parish work and the congregation, even with the departure of three dedicated team members, Ann Drummond, Doug and Marg Allan. The participation of local citizens on the staff of the neighbourhood house will open up new opportunities for commitment and leadership development in the community and congregation.

The team also acts as an "encounter group" for dealing with specific tensions in the neighbourhood situations.

The volunteers Corps has become necessary in giving leadership in all of the parish programs. Students are recruited from Sir George Williams and McGill universities, and Dawson College, and teenagers from Little Burgundy, work together in the children's programs.

The principle behind the program for leadership development is to hold before its participants an awareness of their need to re-image their lives as experiences in depth (spirit), rather than as surface experiences (emotion). Such a principle demands the expansion of local understanding to the world society. During the year the curriculum has developed the theme "Live it like it ought to be lived". The attempt is to image for the participants, the community of the world as it is to be faced in the local setting.

The Tyndale Congregation has been attempting in the past four years to answer the question: "how can the church serve the gospel in meeting the needs of an English-speaking minority of a deprived neighbourhood?"

The experience of the Tyndale team suggests that well-structured preschool, afterschool and youth/adult programs are necessary. The congregation has also participated in a local neighbourhood council. Both of these structures allow local people to be involved with what it means to look at their life experiences as both spirit and material. The following is a short resume of these structures.

The Preschool Program is designed to serve forty underprivileged children, and is aimed at enabling the child to forge positive life images at an early age, i.e. a free and obedient lifestyle. This program is divided into the Nursery, which prepares three-year-olds for entry into a greater world of individual and group experiences, and the Pre-Kindergarten which prepares four-year-olds to live out of and to cope with life in a structured educational setting.

The Afterschool Program is designed to serve one hundred and twenty inner-city elementary school children with curriculum that serves as leaven in broadening their life experiences. In order to overcome some of the educational, economic and personal problems in the children's lives, the program presents world cultural themes through field trips, craft projects, recreational activities and personal relationships with a group of university volunteers supported by teen leaders from the district.

The Junior Job Corps program is designed to assist high school boys and girls in earning a few dollars each week carrying out daily janitorial services in the Parish House and Neighbourhood House buildings.

A variety of programs is held each night of the week. These programs centre on both community and group needs.

On Monday evenings an organized sports program is held for boys between the ages of nine and eighteen years. Forty boys participate in the indoor program of floor hockey, volleyball, basketball and gymnastics. On Tuesday a Girl Guide troop meets, consisting of fifteen girls led by a team of three volunteers. The leader, who has over thirty years of Guiding experience, works to achieve corporateness and individual achievement among the girls.

On Friday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. the Peacemakers group of forty-four youth, ranging from twelve to fifteen years of age meet for a program that promotes individual development, group decision and leadership growth.

Family-sharing means for children in the Tyndale program an opportunity to enjoy a day with a suburban church family. This cultural exchange has assisted in broadening the social point of view of both the suburban family and the urban children.

A small missional congregation is not only dependent upon its own resources on its doorstep, but must seek resources of both a monetary and personal nature from the Church and society. The fact is that the congregational and missional programs represented a total expenditure of nearly $60,000 and provided some measure of personal care and concern for over five hundred children and adults in 1972.

Armagh

Armagh is a Maternity Home which offers to the girl who seeks help a place where she is able to live and wait for her baby in an atmosphere of understanding and acceptance. A place where a girl can plan for her baby, and her own future, at the same time using the facilities and the benefits of the educational and recreational programs and the counselling services of the Home.

Having been in operation in the present location since 1957, Armagh remains the only Presbyterian Home for unwed mothers in Canada. Owned by The Presbyterian Church, it is subsidized by the Ontario Government and operated by an incorporated independent Board.

Situated in a lovely setting in the town of Clarkson, outside of Toronto, the Home is open to girls of all nationalities, races, or creeds. Programming includes school for the students, various arts and crafts, a recreational program and counselling, either in a group or individually. A social worker is assigned to each girl.

The Staff includes the Director, Mrs. Mary Gordon, who brings with her a varied background and broad experience in social work in the United States and Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Forbes Watson serve as the Building Superintendent and Kitchen Supervisor and live in the home, sharing their many talents with the girls. Mrs. Frances Ribbins, Housemother; Mrs. Louise Stewart, Secretary; Mrs. Joy Anderson, Nurse, and Rev. William Mitchell, Chaplain, plus three evening supervisors make up the rest of the working team. Mrs. Alison Jones comes from the Special Services of the Board of Education in the area to instruct the girls who are students, enabling them to return to their community schools without loss of time in school. The Toronto Western Hospital is used for pre-natal clinic and delivery, with transportation provided by Armagh for the girls to and from the home.

For groups or individuals seeking a home for the pregnant girl who is single, Armagh offers facilities in the present time of rapid social changes. It also welcomes the married mother who needs a temporary home because of special circumstances. There were 95 girls served by Armagh during the year.

KOREAN MINISTRIES

London, Ontario

At the beginning of 1972, the work of the Korean congregation in London, Ontario came under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery of London, which appointed the Rev. T. A. A. Duke as interim Moderator. At the same time Mr. Andrew S. Lee, a graduate of Knox College became resident Minister. During the year a Steering Committee was set up with sub-committees for Education, for Library, for Facilities and for Mission. A special grant was approved by the Board of World Mission.

Church School was organized and a small library started. By the end of 1972 the Church had an average of 50 members gathering every Sunday. These represented 40 families in which there are 45 children. Connected with the Church School there are more than 20 children plus 25 children who are under 3 years of age.

During the year 5 adults and 3 children were baptized and two Communion Services were held. More than 15 persons became new Christians and joined the fellowship.

There are about 400 Koreans (120 families) in London. Most of them work at the Ford Motor Co. in St. Thomas. Others are doctors, teachers, students and technicians. Many of them are not Christians. Some, however, come from Christian families. The most interesting aspect of this congregation's outreach and mission is the social gatherings.

The basic purpose of the social activities is to respond to their need by providing counselling, communicating with others and responding with Christian fellowship. Also the Mission outreach is strengthened by the publication of a monthly Church bulletin "Letter of Visitation", and also "News" published by Korean Society of London.

UKRAINIAN MINISTRIES

Toronto

There are two means in particular that have become of great importance in the spread of the Gospel in our day. These are, the printed word and radio. The active opponents of religion are using both, and not sparing the cost.

Together with other people of goodwill, the Ukrainian Church, Toronto is trying to meet the need at least in part, firstly by printing the "Evangelical Truth". It meets the general approval of its readers and circulates widely, often being passed from one reader to another. The paper is supported by a generous donation from the W.M.S. ($1,500) and by subscriptions.

A very effective way of reaching the people in Ukraine is through radio broadcasts. The CBC International Section is very helpful, but opportunities there are limited by the nature of the organization. During the year three religious broadcasts to the Ukraine were made through the CBC International Section. Listeners in Ukraine let friends in Toronto know that they heard the broadcasts, and asked the CBC not to discontinue them. Ukrainian people in these days are passing through a real spiritual reformation.

Christians in communist countries need all the help and encouragement we can give them, and they ask among other things to increase radio broadcasts.

The Home Mission Committee of Presbytery appointed Rev. Michael Fesenko as a Presbyterian representative to the Inter-Faith Immigration Committee in Toronto. He shares some of the conclusions he has reached in connection with this work: "The immigration rule giving preference to the college-educated should be dropped, and immigration of native professionals should be discouraged. Instead, young people with small children should get priority, irrespective of their educational qualifications. Immigrants coming to Canada should be required to attend special Citizenship Schools organized by the Boards of Education, and any new Canadian applying for citizenship should be required to show a Certificate stating that he had attended such a school. The Inter-Faith Immigration Committee is doing a good work, which could be expanded".

The regular work of the mission was attended to as usual. With the passage of years, pastoral work increases with those who grow old and become disabled.

This year, a joint ecumenical meeting together with other Ukrainian Protestants, was held in Dovercourt Presbyterian Church. It was well attended.

As Ukrainian Church membership becomes widely scattered in Toronto, members, especially those with children, are encouraged to use the facilities of the nearest Presbyterian churches.

Oshawa

The Rev. Walter Kutcher, minister of the Ukrainian Presbyterian Church in Oshawa, Ontario, writes: "The first year of my ministry here has been a year of acquaintance. It was a year of finding out the need of my congregation and of the community, the need of each member and adherent and to try to minister to that need. It was also a year not only of self-examination on my part but also of endeavour to help my people to examine their own lives, goals and responsibilities."

The newly-organized Bible Study and Prayer Group is growing in depth and in number. Some people, for the first time in their lives, have started to read the Scriptures.

The Church School staff has gained three new teachers. Session has kept regular meetings, which is a novelty to the elders, for they haven't had regular meetings for a number of years. The newly organized Finance Committee is beginning to feel its way as it is trying to discover the financial need of the congregation and of the Church at large. In all, 1972 has been a year of reorganization, revitalization and orientation.

Books and Bibles which were sent into the Ukraine in 1972 through Yugoslavia, Poland and Czechoslovakia have brought a lot of blessing to the people there. There have been many letters and cards of thanks.

Mr. Kutcher concludes his report: "We are happy to report that we have met our Budget Allocation and have sent $226.00 to the NDF. Our work here would have never been made possible had we no support, sympathy, understanding and encouragement from Presbytery and from the Board of World Mission. For this we are grateful!"

THE CARIBBEAN

The Caribbean Assembly of Reformed Churches

The Caribbean Assembly of Reformed Churches (CARC) works through three Boards: Theological Education, Christian Education and Mission, Evangelism and Stewardship. Emphasis in 1972 was in the areas of Men's Work, Projects for the Self-Development of Peoples and a Ministry to West Indians in North America.

The Assembly Council met in February in Guyana with all the Constituent Churches represented. It cannot be reported that there is a joint Presbytery or joint witness between the Presbyterian Churches in Guyana. It was reported at the Assembly Council that nearly all the West Indian staff of United Theological College of the West Indies were on study leave. The College was in the Caribbean with a largely non-Caribbean staff. For the 1971/72 academic year there were fifteen Assembly students at the College.

The Assembly expressed its concern at the decline in candidates for the ministry. Few men are offering themselves for the full-time ordained ministry. There is much to be desired in the churches' methods of recruitment. The Assembly's Board of Theological Education has been asked to consider this matter and to recommend to the constituent churches a suitable plan of recruitment.

The Assembly has had preliminary discussions with associated Churches in Canada and in the United States with regards to a ministry to West Indians in Canada. Attention has been focused on the conditions of work of Jamaican farm workers in the sugar area in South Florida. The Board of World Mission, Evangelism and Stewardship following the decision of the 1971 Assembly held a conference for Men in Guyana on the theme "Liberation", using the resource booklets from the November 1971 Consultation on Development. There were fifty-five registrations for the Conference.

During the year the Moderator, Rt. Rev. O. A. Best was granted a scholarship to Princeton Theological Seminary for under-graduate study. On completion of his course, he will take up the post as Minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Georgetown, Guyana, the first Guyanese to do so.

Perhaps the most important question the Assembly will have to face is the future of the Assembly, in view of the coming into being of the Caribbean Conference of Churches. If it is still desirable to have some form of Reformed Church fellowship, what pattern would this take?

Guyana Presbytery

The Guyana Presbyterian Church is divided into ten parishes and distributed within the 10 Parishes are forty-seven (47) congregations with an approximate total membership of two thousand communicants.

In the Upper Corentyne Parish Mr. Joseph Bissessar, who completed a two-year course of study at UTCWI, Jamaica and returned to Guyana in June of this year was inducted minister. Miss Saintalene Chhangur is Deaconess in this Parish. In Lower Corentyne Parish Rev. Harry Sukhu (Retired) was appointed Supply Minister. The New Amsterdam Parish has Rev. G. Kissoon as minister. He is also Moderator of the Guyana Presbytery. West Berbice Parish has Rev. O. B. Singh as minister and Mrs. Noreen Ledra as Deaconess.

The Rev. Oscar Mathura is minister of Mahaica Parish and Mrs. Jean Kartick is Deaconess. Better Hope Parish is served by Rev. Haimdat Sawh. The Georgetown Parish, vacant since April 1972, has called Rev. David Deebrah, Clerk of Presbytery. West Demerara Parish has Rev. Peter J. Sookhai as minister, and Mrs. Ruby Prashad as Deaconess. Rev. George Sukhdeo (Retired) was appointed to assist in the West Demerara Parish.

Essequibo River Parish is served by the Rev. Charles Ramcharran. Rev. A. H. Sohan (Retired) was appointed to serve in Bartica. Mr. Issaac Hansrajsingh, who completed a two-year course of study at UTCWI and returned to Guyana in June of this year, was licenced to preach the Gospel, ordained and inducted as minister to the Essequibo Coast Parish on 19th January, 1973. Mr. Moses Harsham will complete his Lth. Course at UTCWI in June 1973. Mr. Randolph Etwaroo started a four year course at UTCWI in September 1972. He is now doing his Lth and will go on to a B.A. (Theol.) Course in 1973.

Two new church buildings were erected at Devonshire Castle and Better Success on the Essequibo Coast. At the end of December another building was near completion at Huis t'Dieren, Essequibo Coast. Two Youth Camps were held during the year, one in Berbice, another in Demerara. 25 attended the Berbice Camp and 30 the Demerara Camp. Rev. Joseph Samaroo has resigned as a Minister of the Guyana Presbyterian Church and is now attached to the Methodist body.

A National Conference of Men was held at St. Columba's House in April. Mr. Roy Hamilton and Rev. Zander Dunn from Canada, Messers Esau Jebodh and Frank Mohan from Trinidad and approximately forty men from Guyana attended. The Theme of the Conference: "Our Reasonable Service".

United Theological College of the West Indies

Miss Joan Buckhurst, an Overseas Youth Volunteer, working with the Chief Librarian of the UTCWI in Kingston, Jamaica, will complete her two year term of service in the summer of 1973. She has had a busy and useful time at her work and in her extra-curricular activities giving leadership to Girl Guides with polio children and teaching Church School and Literary Classes. She is a member of the University Chapel Choir and the U.T.C. Singers for which she is also guitarist. She has experienced some of the racial tensions that are everywhere in Jamaica — not towards herself as an individual so much as towards white North American Society. This is a fact of life in the Caribbean which it is difficult for many North Americans to understand or accept.

The Rev. Geoffrey Johnston is a member of the faculty of UTCWI in the History Department. He and Mary Lou and their five children complete another term of service in 1973. It has been a busy and productive term. The curriculum at UTCWI has at last come to include studies in West Indian Church History as part of the degree program. John Hoad left for Princeton, and Horace Russell succeeded him as Principal. His first task is to try to meet the serious financial situation in which the College finds itself as a result of general economic conditions in the Caribbean. Geoffrey Johnston will have a number of papers and materials published in 1973: a paper presented to the Fourth Conference of Caribbean Historians, prepared as a teaching tool; a collection of material relevant to Presbyterianism in the Caribbean; a list of archival materials relating to Church History in the West Indies; a text book on West Indian Church History in general (jointly done with a Jesuit historian); and finally, a project of long standing, a study of the Presbyterian Church in Nigeria, finished in 1967, finally cleared for publication in 1971 and now ready to be published. These materials will be welcome additions to their field and will advance the knowledge of the church's outreach in two different parts of the world.

INDIA

Church of North India (Synod)

The Church of North India (CNI) has completed two years. The first year was full of excitement. It has moved forward as a united Church, not sacrificing main objectives — Unity, Witness, Service — while the Dioceses and the Synod kept busy with organizational and structural details.

The February 1972 consultation has been engaging the attention of dioceses. It recognized the need for re-thinking and self-understanding by the Church. It was also recognized that such a re-thinking may mean that Mission Agencies have to think in terms not of phasing out their operations but of re-deployment, even eventually of various societies being related not only to geographical areas but also to functional areas of the CNI's total work.

All dioceses are being persuaded to grasp the concept of mission in six continents and the CNI has budgeted for bearing a share of the financial commitments to send a missionary to the Fiji Islands in participation with a National Christian Council of India project. The CNI has also become a member of the United Mission to Nepal. Similarly all the Dioceses have been requested to contribute their Good Friday collections to support the missionary effort in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. There are a few special areas which may be termed home mission areas where a need is felt for an evangelistic thrust especially in Orissa, Chota-Nagpur and Bihar and the CNI Standing Committee of Mission and Evangelism is going ahead with plans to meet this need. In this evangelical outreach the women's fellowship of Christian Service of the CNI has adopted a project to raise funds to meet the CNI budget for Fiji and the United Mission to Nepal.

The Church of North India, especially through Calcutta Diocese, has been taking a very great share in the relief efforts for Bangladesh. The self-support by 1975 goal accepted by the CNI Synod April, 1971 is making headway.

During 1972 the Orissa Freedom of Religion Act was struck down by the Orissa High Court which has been a great strength to the Christian Churches in India. The CNI has also been in co-operation with the NCCI to do everything possible for a Rural Training Ministry and it is hoped that many from the diocese will come forward to take this training so that Urban and Rural Ministry may be both taken care of.

The CNI Synod endorsed the major policy that as the CNI is one Church the needs of the whole Church must be met by the whole Church and the unit of self-support shall be the whole CNI. In endorsing this the Synod made a major policy decision which was only the continuation and confirmation of the thinking of the various churches which make up the CNI.

One has to admit that there are some tensions between diocesan autonomy and Synodical Centralization and complaints about the top-heavy Synod administration. An official of the NCCI said "There is still need for a Church to Church relationship even at the diocesan level keeping up some of the past historic connections, but for the channeling of resources of personnel and money the CNI should be seen as a Unit. Churches and Mission Boards abroad should accept this necessity, even if this is not what they want and even if this arrangement is a bit impersonal and hence inconvenient at the money raising end." A North American said: "It seems essential in this formative decade to avoid the CNI becoming a loose federation of 21 dioceses, but to become a united Church under a strong Synod that is able to set its own priorities and to re-align resources to meet the needs of the Church which are different from the priorities of the past and separated Churches."

Bhopal Diocese (Bhil Area) Jobat Christian Hospital

Our working load in out-patient, in-patient and theatre has been the same as in the past year; the work in maternity has increased because there is a lady doctor now on staff. In the beginning of the year Dr. J. Chacko and Dr. Daniel, the Medical Superintendent, were alone on the medical staff. From the middle of February a noble and cheerful lady, Dr. N. Aggarwal joined the staff. Dr. J. Chacko is also going to mobile clinic twice weekly at Amkhut and at Mendha. He also teaches anatomy to the nursing students. Dr. Aggarwal is looking after the Women's and Maternity Wards. She has shown great interest in teaching anatomy to first year students.

Dr. Daniel writes:

"I am thankful to God for opening the door for me to start study toward M.S. in General Surgery, at C.M.C., Ludhiana, from January, 1973. If all goes well, I expect to be away for three years and hope to return after completion of my study."

Mendha Rural Health Program

The clinic centres are: Amkhut, Sardi, Barjhar, Devli, Bhabra and Mendha. The Doctor comes every Saturday to Mendha and Thursday to Amkhut and Sardi for clinic. Family Record Cards have been prepared by a survey of Mendha. Antenatal and Well-babies clinics are done in Mendha and Bhabra. Children have been given Tripartite Antizem and Tetanus Toxide to women. Health and Family Planning teaching is also done. Social workers come from Bhabra Government Hospital.

Health Teaching includes malaria, fly, hookworm, T.B., scabies, Tetanus, food cleanliness, good ventilated house with latrine, Family Planning and then pray. In the month of September Miss Humbly came from CIDA and saw Amkhut, Mendha, Sardi Churches and Dispensaries. (Funds were finally received from CIDA to assist in this work.)

One day Camp of Family Planning was held in Mendha. The District Health Officer (Family Planning) attended this Camp and gave necessary instruction. About one hundred and fifty people attended. In October the Mendha Dispensary and Welfare Centre were hooked up to the power lines and are now electrified.

Medical Board decided that there will be a doctor in Mendha or Amkhut from 1973 and also decided that two nurses be appointed for Sardi Clinic to start work from 1973.

Barwani Community Health Program

In the Jalkan area surveys have been finished in two of the three possible villages. Classes for family planning have started. Some have had x-rays and are now coming regularly to chest clinic. Prenatal, post-natal and well-baby clinics have been started. There are regular times set for home visiting and for dispensary hours. Fees have increased. In August they were increased 400% over August of last year. There is a plan for teaching of children at clinic as well as starting in the school which has not been possible up till now. There has been a good response to immunization in both villages.

Abey Memorial Children's Home

There was an addition to the family in 1972, a very sweet, huge-eyed 1-year-old, called Rekha. There have also been some applications. Three children, Iris, Silas and Kamala graduated to the Hostels and seem to have adapted well. In October four of the children left to go to their new homes. Their going left a great gap in the house. But it is good that they have found and been found by loving parents. According to the law, neither Christians nor Muslim can legally adopt children. Only Hindus have this right.

The matter of an Indian Manager has been discussed and the position advertised.

Scholarship Students

Dr. Nirmala Agarwal finished at Ludhiana Medical College early in the year and has been assisting in the Jobat Hospital. Dr. Dabura Tezlo has been interning in Ludhiana this year and will join the staff at Jobat in 1973.

One young man, Henry Abey, a graduate of the M. G. Abey Children's Home completed his B.A. this year. He was employed for a month in Sardi school as a teacher.

All five boys who were finishing Higher Secondary (11th grade) in Rasalpura graduated. Three have gone on to College, one is teaching in a government school and one is taking nursing in the School of Nursing in Jobat. The three girls in 11th class graduated. One is in College and two in the School of Nursing, Jobat.

There is still difficulty regarding getting training for men teachers. But there is a Training School for girls in Khandwa and one girl was granted a scholarship to attend there this year. Wilfrid Abey, another orphan, began the welding course in Rasalpura in July. Three girls have been taking the Auxiliary Nurse Midwife course in government hospitals.

Some employees who are on Study Leave receive some help from the Scholarship Fund. Mr. David Daniel who has been Headmaster of the Middle School in Amkhut is studying for B.Ed. in Indore. Mrs. Chandraprabha Fazal was Associate Director of Nursing Education in the Isabel McConnell School of Nursing in Jobat. She is now working on her B.Sc. in Nursing. Mrs. Tulsi Rufus, staff nurse in Jobat hospital is taking the Post Graduate Ward Sister course in Indore. Mr. R. M. Khunji, Manager of the Economic Development program, has just completed a three-month course at the Indian Social Institute Training Centre in Bangalore.

Amkhut School

In this school boys and girls read up to class eight. Pupils are mostly Christians. Some Hindu and Muslim pupils also read here with vast attention. At present there are 330 pupils on the roll. Fifty per cent are coming from other mission stations and live in the hostels. The rest are from Amkhut and surrounding villages. Some are from Bhil homes also. In addition to the compulsory subjects, optional ones chosen are English, gardening, sewing and making of mats. In the evening, pupils have games under teachers' supervision. English is this year becoming a compulsory subject again.

After passing class eight to get High School Education many students go to mission schools in Indore, Rasalpura or Ratlam. Others go to Government schools near their homes. For this year the Headmaster, Mr. David Daniel, is on study leave and is taking B.Ed. in Indore. Mr. Solomon Guman, who was retired, is teaching for this one year. There are 19 teachers in all. They take much interest in teaching and all other responsibilities such as supervising gardens, games, library.

The school advisor, Miss A. B. Scott, helps by giving advice and instruction in teaching methods, by arranging Teachers' meetings, Teachers' Refresher Courses and Retreat Programs.

Village Schools

There are five centres where the primary education program is carried out. These are Puniyawat, Sardi, Mendha, Mendhar, Jobat, scattered here and there in the Vindhya ranges. The total number of students is 225 and the total number of teachers is ten. All these schools are under a village School Supervisor who is a Bhil Christian.

Amkhut Hostels

The plan for an Indian staff member to be in charge of Hostels has at last come to completion, and Mr. Manbhawan Ver Singh agreed to accept the position of Acting Director of Hostels. He took over as of July 1st, 1972. Mr. Suleman Dhul Singh has been appointed House father in place of Mr. Calvin Jigiyo who now works part time in the Boys' Hostel and is responsible for seeing to the boys' cleanliness and clothing. The girls are well cared for both day and night by Mrs. Lily Mankar, Matron, and Mrs. Sheela Manbhawan.

A new system of fees will be started in July which will prove more equitable and a better source of income for the Hostels. It has also been decided to place all monies pertaining to the children of the Abey family in the M. G. Abey account. There were 153 students in the Hostels in 1971-72.

Economic Development

In 1898 Dr. John Buchanan came to Amkhut with the message of Christ's redeeming love. The Amkhut area was all thick forest with wild animals and "untamed" people. The King of Alirajpur State and the British Agent used to come once or twice a year for hunting. There were no roads and no other communication facilities. Dr. Buchanan had no definite plans for the area, but he had two things in mind: Gospel Preachings and Industry (including farming). The first industry was building. In this he taught people how to make bricks, mix mortar and lay bricks. Daily in the morning and afternoon he used to preach to them. The first converts were notorious dacoits, murderers and the like.

The terrible famine of 1900 to 1902 resulted in the death of $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the people and many of those who survived were utterly destitute. A Committee of Presbytery consisting of Messrs. Buchanan, Campbell, Wilkie, Harcourt, Grant and Lidingham was appointed. One recommendation of the Committee was the excavating and bunding of a Tank at Sardi. Agricultural Land in Sardi was acquired during the famine, and in 1902, Mr. Alex Missal, a young Indian Christian was appointed to manage the Mission Farm. It is recorded that just before harvest time there was a terrible plague of rats that destroyed the crops. There were suddenly millions of them everywhere.

By 1907 the Farm was fully organized and Dr. Buchanan proudly records "The best corn I have seen anywhere in this whole state was on our Sardi Farm". The same year Mr. K. G. Mackay, an Agricultural Graduate arrived to take charge. Unfortunately he was transferred to Rasalpura a year later. The last mention of Sardi Farm is in 1913-1914. Miss Bertha Robson, daughter of a Canadian farmer in Dr. Buchanan's village in Ontario arrived in 1913. She gave her keen mind, loving heart and willing hands to build up in Amkhut, Mendha, Sardi, Jobat and Toran Mal a farm-based Christian Community.

It appears that the Sardi Project was not looked after properly after that and that Christians were allowed to cultivate the land in traditional ways which they are still doing. The great Agricultural Project of Dr. Buchanan thus died out. His Dairy Project too died out. The Cattle Shed of Amkhut bears witness to what Dr. Buchanan actually did and what his plans were. He wanted to teach better farming and dairying to the people.

The long forgotten Project came into existence again in the year 1963 under the able guidance of Mr. W. R. Horrell. The project started with Irrigation and Poultry. Blasting work was started during the drought period of 1966. Since 1968 the work is concentrated in Mendha area where there is a Mango/Cashew Project, a Pilot Irrigation Project (including farming) and a Tractor Project. A seed-multiplication Project and Young Farmers' Clubs are yet to start.

The Pilot Irrigation Project is completed except for installing an electric pump which is to be completed soon. Last winter 29 Kilos of wheat were planted and 950 Kilos harvested. There are now 52 Kilos of wheat planted. By bringing all the land under cultivation the Project will be able to produce 4-6 times more than last year. A strip of land just on the side of the wheat is covered with beautiful "Lady-finger" plants just flowering. The greatest problem of farming here is fencing which is necessary to keep stray cattle away. Fencing is estimated to cost Rs10,000/—. Since this amount is not available the farm has started planting thorny plants, but plants take a few years to grow.

In the Tractor Project there is now only one tractor. A contract is hoped to be completed soon for transporting soil/clay for a dam being constructed for irrigation. The Manager, Mr. R. M. Khunji has been on a three month's training course in Community Development and Community Organization at Bangalore. Some of the techniques of working with Communities may thus be implemented in Mendha also.

LUCKNOW DIOCESE (JHANSI)

Helen MacDonald Memorial School

The aim of the school is to educate the girls and to help them grow spiritually. The girls attend Bible Classes, Sunday School, Christian Endeavour and Church Services regularly. One staff member is their advisor. The courses prepared by the Christian Education Department of E.F.I. are used both for School Bible Classes and Sunday School Classes.

World Sunday School Day was celebrated in the Church and the students presented a play, "Challenge of the Cross", which was appreciated by many people. The girls took part in the District and Regional Rallies and won in many games. One of the girls got the Championship in the District Rally.

Miss S. K. Singh, the School Principal, went to Agra to attend a seminar on slow learners in Primary schools, conducted by the Diocese of Lucknow. Topics that were discussed in the seminar included Aims and Objectives of Christian Education, General and Specific Defects of Children, Teaching and Training Mentally and Physically Handicapped Children and Extremes of Behaviour. Miss Leask and Miss S. K. Singh attended an English Medium Seminar on New Math in St. Francis Convent, Jhansi. Miss S. Lall went to Allahabad to attend the Hindi medium seminar on New Math. The school welcomed Miss Diana Wadsworth back from furlough in February, 1972.

Since July 1972 total enrollment is 191. Out of these 160 are in hostels, 75 are in High School, 70 in Junior High School and 46 in Prep Classes. Forty-four girls appeared for U.P. Board High School exam in March 1972 and two passed in 1st Division. One of these got Distinction in Math and Science and the other in Math. Twenty passed in 2nd Division and nineteen in 3rd and three failed. Twenty-five of these are in intermediate classes, eight are taking nurse's training, three are taking Teacher's Training, one is in Bible Training, one is taking typing and three are teaching. Miss Magee left in August, 1972.

Other special events of the school year have been: 1) A demonstration of Japanese paper cutting and folding; 2) High School girls and staff visited the Mata Tila Dam and saw how electricity is generated and supplied; 3) An Educational trip by the staff to Gwalior to visit Pottery, Rayon and Cotton Mills, and see palace museum and zoo; 4) A special program to celebrate Teachers' Day. Four Junior girls were sent to Bible Camp in Allahabad. Three of them had never been to any other city before. On their return they led the devotions in chapel. At the beginning of November Miss S. K. Singh attended a conference for Principals in Rajpur conducted by the Church of North India. There they discussed the aims and objects of Christian Institutions and spent much time in discussions and Bible study.

One June night the heavy 7½ h.p. pump engine was stolen out of the depths of the well. Therefore a smaller, 5 h.p. pump set was obtained. The present urgent project is to complete the new main line from the hostel storage tank to the bungalow and find a way to provide water to the second and third floor taps. Electric wiring has been put in the library, science and biology rooms upstairs in the school and all the wiring downstairs is badly in need of replacement. The underground rain storage tank in front of the school provides water for washing hair and clothes during much of the school year but because of the frequent shortage of water the building of more such tanks is recommended.

Jhansi Hostel

In the beginning this Institution was started as an orphanage. The children have now grown up and some of them have become leaders. One is a Sunday School Superintendent. Many of the former students have had an opportunity to take nurse's, or medical training with the help of bursaries. They are in positions of leadership, nursing Superintendents, sister tutors or doctors. Some of them have gone to Canada and other countries to work. Others are teachers and principals of schools. A few graduates have attended Seminary.

The hostel can accommodate 160 girls. Some of the girls are from very backward areas or from places where they could not have proper Christian fellowship. Up till this year we had been getting some help from C.A.S.A. but now this has finished. Many things are very expensive. But our God is gracious. We are thankful to have enough water in our wells. This helps us to grow some vegetables to improve the diet.

THE KOREAN CHRISTIAN CHURCH IN JAPAN

From the Moderator:

"I pray that the Grace of God and His peace may be upon you in the new Year, 1973. I give thanks for your prayers and support to our Korean Church."

"The majority of the world's population is facing fear as pollution, population explosion and continuing wars create paralyzing conditions. This is especially so for Koreans who are divided into two ideologically, not only in Japan, but also in Korea. We must take our share of responsibility for the re-unification of Korea. We Christians must work our way step by step through our Christian conscience and responsible actions participating in Christ's Crucifixion and Resurrection. In order to realize the will of God on earth let us share together as brothers, sisters and friends with faith, wisdom and power in our prayers, hopes and endeavours to the end."

Ferment 72

During 1972 many historical events took place — new relations between Canada and China; the United States and China; Japan and China; Reunification talks in Korea. The Church cannot separate itself from historical reality. The KCCJ has a special role influenced by the reality of historical stress. How does the KCCJ define its own identity as Koreans in Japan? As a part of the 50 million Koreans in Korea, or as a part of the oppressed minority in Japan? The mission of the KCCJ is to seek its own identity believing that all history is under God's sovereignty. It must play a special role which neither the Korean Church in Korea nor the Japanese Church in Japan can do.

Divisions and denominational struggles within the Churches in Korea since World War II did not permit good relationships. However, in the past few years a total of six missionaries have been sent from Korea to work with the KCCJ. But the KCCJ must be not only a church that receives but also a sending church.

The Evangelism Department has been active in outreach through the Every Home Crusade. This is a lay movement providing witness to the Gospel. The Dedication of the new church in Hokkaido is fruit of this work. The Education Department provided training in a Laity School in Kansai Presbytery. The Pastor's and Worker's Conference as well as the Youth Conferences declared that the basic mission policy must be made by the KCCJ. A theme of the conference was 'The Mission of Koreans in Japan'. The Social Action Department experienced hope, joy and sorrow. The New Immigration Law was opposed and abolished after visits to members of Parliament. The July 4th talks between the Government Leaders of both North and South Korea gave encouragement. A Christian Rally was held in support of the Reunification of Korea. Funds were sent to the members of two bereaved families. Supplies and funds were sent to victims of floods both in Hiroshima, Japan and Seoul, Korea. The Pension Plan for pastors and workers of the KCCJ is in the process of being established.

The fire that destroyed the inside of the Korean Christian Centre in March was a disaster that turned into a real challenge. The building is refurbished and the programs for community action are under way. Generous gifts from the Presbyterian Church in Canada, German Churches, Japanese Churches and other ecumenical agencies have been most gratefully received. The project is a symbol of the KCCJ but the program is offered to all in the Ikuno community regardless of race, creed or background. The Rev. Jack McIntosh, having recovered from his illness, was welcomed back to the KCC with his strong faith and courage. The decentralization of the finances has proven to be a good step.

The visits of Dr. Murdo Nicolson, Moderator of the General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, Rev. G. Malcolm, General Secretary, and Rev. Louis de Groot, Chairman of the Board of World Mission, were much appreciated. From the Netherland Church the Moderator and other staff members came to share in a consultation for mission. Relations with the Churches in the U.S.A. have deepened in terms of aid to the KCC in Osaka. The forthcoming trip of the team, including KCC personnel, to the U.S.A. will permit them first-hand observation of the community activities and minority groups situation. "Gospel News" is gradually developing to the degree where the local church members are both reading and criticizing it. "ARIRANG" — the English newsletter, edited by Rev. R. K. Anderson, is playing the ecumenical role newswise for the KCCJ.

New General Secretary

At the General Assembly held in Kyoto in October 1972 the KCCJ appointed a successor to the General Secretary, Dr. In Ha Lee, who has resigned after twelve years. His successor will be the Rev. K. S. Cheh. Dr. Lee's resignation becomes effective in October, 1973.

A prominent note in the church life was the increased involvement of the church in Social Action, particularly in the area of minority rights. The rapid growth of the Osaka Korean Church (now meeting in the Korean Christian Centre) was a direct result of the outreach into the community. It will be remembered that when the Decade of Development was launched in 1968, Social Action was high on the list of priorities.

The Korean Christian Centre, Osaka

The 'happening of the year' was undoubtedly the fire in the Centre set by an arsonist-thief in the early hours of March 8th. The immediate shock and subsequent slump soon turned to a significant recommitment and wide-spread response. The blessings in disguise were many: increased awareness of the KCC presence in the Ikuno community, concentration of prayer and financial support in Japan and the world, international visibility of this sign of a minority's calling, minimizing of internal differences in facing the major common issues.

Running With the People — The pieces gathered over the year started to form a pattern in the later months. Opportunities arose for realizing new educational patterns for Korean children attending Japanese schools. Beginnings were made on task forces to deal with Welfare, Human Rights, and Korean Re-unification Issues in terms of the local problems. The question of effective activation of Korean residents' organizations sharpened. Working relations with like-minded Japanese activist groups points to more diversified patterns. Progress was made in co-ordinating a varied program with the Y.M.C.A., The Women's Association and the local churches. More things were left unfinished than finished, and lots of mistakes had been made from which to learn. The last effort of the year, an Ikuno Community Christmas Concert initiated by the Y.M.C.A. and KCC, challenged greater open efforts. More than double the 600 children and parents forecast responded to the invitation to the concert in a Japanese public school. Another sign of the year was the growth by almost 50% of the congregation most closely related to the Centre activities.

Under New Management

The revised statement of relations between the Korean Christian Church in Japan and the Presbyterian Church in Canada, ratified by the two General Assemblies in 1971 and 1972 respectively, to take effect on January 1, 1973, marks the beginning of a new epoch in the church in Japan. There are several points at which the autonomy of the KCCJ is highlighted. In the area of Finance the KCCJ accepts the responsibility for all of the church's operations, requesting aid only when local funds are not adequate or for special undertakings. Financial policy is entirely in the hands of the KCCJ General Assembly and its committees on which there is no mandatory missionary representation. In the area of Personnel, missionaries serving under the KCCJ are incorporated into the personnel structure of the church without special status in respect to work assignments. The Committee on Missionary Personnel has been dismissed and all missionary personnel are now directed by the Personnel Division of the KCCJ. Paragraph 8 under Part I "Personnel" is worth noting: "When the Korean Christian Church in Japan sends a missionary to the Presbyterian Church in Canada these same principles shall apply." A new day in Mission.

1973 promises to be a year of progress and development in the KCCJ, especially in its relations to the field of social issues and co-operation with other Churches. In April, a team of seven Koreans — four pastors and three laymen — will visit the U.S.A. in response to an invitation from a coalition of Churches and ethnic caucuses there, to join in a study of the issues involving the minorities in the United States. Another development in the KCCJ in 1973 will be the participation of the Church in the formation of the Japan-North American Commission on Co-operative Mission, or "JNAC". The KCCJ will enter JNAC as an associate member, and thus re-establish a link with Churches whose missions in Korea and Japan were instrumental in the formation of the KCCJ before the association with the Presbyterian Church in Canada in 1927. It is hoped that the P.C.C. will also join JNAC. The new body will be beneficial to the KCCJ in that it will focus attention on the basic human rights of all minority peoples.

Foreign Personnel

1972 was a year of coming and going among the foreign personnel serving in the KCCJ. First to move was Mrs. Ruth Ann Soden, who returned to Canada for reasons of health in June. In her short time of service, however, she used her writing talents with great effect, and as a result directed the attention of many overseas groups towards the plight of the Korean minority in Japan. Miss Ruth Finley came to work as an English Language specialist for two months during the summer, and was engaged at the Korean Christian Centre in Osaka. Late in October, Miss Dawn Ross arrived from Canada to take up the work of English Language secretary in the East Asia Christian Conference Office. While Dawn is not working under the KCCJ, her work brings her into constant association with the General Affairs Office next door. Mavis Hyndman is now working at the General Affairs Office full time. Jack and Beth McIntosh and their family arrived back from furlough in mid-July, and took up residence in Osaka where Jack is deeply involved with the Korean Christian Centre and the work of the Presbytery generally. Jack's health has shown remarkable improvement, in answer to many prayers. Patricia Baker completed her term of service with the WSCF, and left Japan in December. In addition to her friendly personality, her many hours of 'extra' typing for both the KCCJ and EACC Offices were greatly appreciated. Glen and Joyce Davis and family left for their furlough in mid-November. Upon their return in the Spring, Glen will be inducted as pastor of Fukuoka Korean Church, setting a new precedent for missionary service in the KCCJ. Priscilla and Bob Anderson continue in the Chubu Presbytery, living in Nagoya. Bob is Presbytery Missionary, and works in close association with Pastor Hwang of Nagoya Korean Church.

NIGERIA

The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria

The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria is recovering from the ordeal of the Nigerian Civil War. Physical losses have been enormous. There has been however, both spiritual gain and loss, a greater searching for spiritual reality than ever before, and the determination to come back as a church to the Lord and let His Holy Spirit have His way.

The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria is learning to be the architect of her own plans. It may mean that the Church will soon have a General Assembly and Synods, in addition to six Presbyteries already created and which are functioning. The Synod embarked upon the training of eighteen evangelists for ten weeks at Ikot Obong, Itu, in 1972. There was a quota of four students from each of the five Presbyteries. Among those assisting in the training were Rev. Inya Ude and Miss Dorothy Bulmer.

The Christian sects are now many in Nigeria and appear to be intolerant of one another. The very small sects such as the Jehovah's Witnesses, the Seventh Day Adventists, the Cherubim and Seraphim Order, the Aladura Group, the Apostolic Church, the Brotherhood of the Cross and Star, are openly critical of the major orthodox churches. In the main, the proliferation of sects within the Christian religion represents a movement of indigenization and identification. For over fifty years Nigerians have been questioning certain Christian practices and forms of worship. The Christian religion, as it has been presented in the past, deprecates certain traditional African Societies and customs. This has caused some to break away from the parent bodies to form Christian groups that take account of the indigenous social practices of the African, with such African trappings as the beating of drums and dancing during worship. The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria has embarked on intensive teaching on the doctrine, the practice and procedure of the church which are based on the Bible. Prayer Meetings are planned in the morning and in the evening, and the singing of choruses is popular.

The Church Organizations such as the Youth Fellowship, the Women's Guild, the Men's Association, the Christian Girls' Club, the Boys' Brigade hold meetings for Bible study and social activities. They form the life-wire of the church in all Presbyteries. The Youth Fellowship members hold youth rallies and campaigns which yield good results. Presbyteries hold evangelistic campaigns in districts where the inhabitants still hold old heathen practices. In such areas, more evangelists are posted and there are constant visits by the pastors and other church leaders.

On 1st January, 1970, the Schools and colleges in the East Central State of Nigeria were taken over by the State. This government take-over has created an entirely new situation which is a challenge to the Church. The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria therefore has appointed Chaplains of these institutions.

A reconstituted Church Union Committee has been set up to review the whole idea of Church Union. Fifteen representatives from the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria are on the Church Union Committee. The Presbyterian Church, the Anglican Church, and the Methodist Church all submitted resolutions for the Church Union Committee to consider which include the encouragement of consultations at grass-roots level and a high powered and country-wide evangelization campaign.

The Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria has enjoined every Presbytery to teach Christian Stewardship in the Congregations. Many Presbyterians have organized weekly givings in payment of Church dues. The Holy Spirit is calling the Church to new life, new vision, a new commitment and a new witness. A team was sent out to investigate financial problems in Abakaliki Presbytery where church workers have not been paid for many past months. In Abakaliki, Itu, Aro/Ohafia, and Ogoja Presbyteries, church workers have not been paid their salaries in full for 1970 and 1971. Presbyteries have not paid in full their Synod assessment for 1972. This non-payment of Church dues seriously retards the work.

All Hospitals are in shocking financial difficulties. Government grants are not paid regularly, and the grants that are paid do not cover the deficit after exhausting the resources of the hospitals. Many hospital workers do not receive regular salaries, and there are difficulties in procuring drugs and equipment. It is hoped the situation can be remedied when the government has money.

The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria believes in the totality of the Gospel which concerns the whole life of man, and the goal of the Christian message in the final coming of Christ's Kingdom. Through the Gospel message, Salvation comes to every person who believes in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Port Harcourt Project

1972 has seen the first full year of Project work since the Nigerian Civil War. It has not been an easy one but some real progress has been made. At the beginning of the year, the premises which still remained were in a state of disrepair. Chickens were in every room of the Community Centre, baths, windows, door frames, electric wiring had been looted long since, the few remaining windows were peppered with bullet holes and squatters were firmly entrenched in the flats. To chop out the frame of a door or window for firewood, to tear lengths of electric cable off the walls and remove all the water pipes, this is desperate. By the end of the year, all Project buildings to which we have access have been repaired and are in use. It is the use that matters. The task was made easier by having the assistance of the Works Section of the Christian Council of Nigeria.

In January, the second member of the Project staff, Rev. Donald W. MacKay, a Canadian, arrived to be Presbyterian Minister in Port Harcourt and Social Development Adviser for the Project. Between us we made plans for reactivating the Community Centre and Youth Centre in the Diobu area of Port Harcourt, and christened the whole as Christian Council Communicare Centre of "The Four Seas" in short. The first program was to be a Day Care Centre for 50 under-fives, orphans and children of war widows. After protracted negotiations with the Ministry of Education for permission to open the Day Care Centre, it finally had to be abandoned. This was a disappointment, new plans had to be made for the work at the Four Seas. It was decided to develop a wide range of clubs for different age groups and functions.

The Community Centre now has: Toddlers Club (every morning — 50 children); Women's Cookery and Housecraft club (weekly); 2 young women's sewing clubs (weekly); Adult Literacy Groups (weekly); Free Advice Centre; and a Study and Reading room. The work should flourish in 1973, and a Child Care Advisory Centre is planned to start immediately. The Centre has been asked to take over the Rivers State Child Welfare Department of the Christian Council of Nigeria, which will complement the work well.

At the Youth Centre, clubs are: Atoms (6-9 years); Juniors (9-12 years); Young Stars (12-16 years); International Friendship Association (monthly). These clubs meet weekly, with about 300 members. In addition the Adventure Playground is open all day every day, and used by over 500 children during the week. Activities at present are mainly recreational but it is hoped to broaden the range. In October, Mr. Charles Emezurike joined the staff as Assistant Youth Worker, to work with Rev. D. MacKay, who was and is successfully managing a vast load of work. It was not until October that the flats were ready for habitation. Don MacKay has moved into one of them, another is rented to Mr. & Mrs. Offiong who have agreed to be honorary Wardens of a temporary Students' Hostel which will occupy the ground floor. Mrs. Offiong works in the Government Social Welfare Department.

In September, Canon S. D. J. Manilla was appointed to concentrate on the field of Education following the Government take-over of responsibility. He is planning a scheme of chaplaincy to each school in order to build-up a new relationship between Education and the Church.

This year the Project provided two courses in Urban Industrial Mission for final year theological college students from Immanuel College, Ibadan.

The Project encourages and trains volunteers in all areas of Project work. The response is quite good so far and volunteers work in the Prison and at "the Four Seas." They need encouraging, organizing and co-ordinating and this makes an extra demand on the small staff. It is hoped to cement the work in the community that the Project tries to serve.

Plans are advancing for a Workshop for Disabled people, and a start is expected shortly. Attempts are being made to develop links with Industry in Port Harcourt, but so far time has not been available for starting an industrial mission in earnest. More staff is needed to carry out present plans.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES

International Afghan Mission

Miss Patricia Pooler was appointed by the Board of World Mission to serve as a missionary-nurse with the International Afghan Mission. Miss Pooler will leave in the spring of 1973 for this difficult assignment amid the tensions and isolation of a land that is officially closed to the gospel and the church. Representatives of the Afghan Mission have conferred with the Board and Board officials have visited Afghanistan several times over the past few years in an effort to understand the conditions and challenges of that part of the world. In addition, there are reports from various groups at work there which are available from the Board for those interested and which are very briefly summarized herein.

The Medical Assistance Program (MAP) is based in the hospital at Yakaolang where over 12,000 patients have been treated in the past year. A similar program is carried on at the "satellite station" at Panjao which treated about 11,000 out-patients in the same period. The major activity of MAP in 1972 has been the village survey work to get information about the general health in the two areas already mentioned and statistics about the incidence of TB, leprosy and other diseases.

When it was found that famine conditions prevailed in Ghor Province, "Operation Help" was set up to meet the special needs. A mobile clinic was put into operation and a feeding program for mothers and sick children under the World Food Program known as the 599 Feeding Project. The clinic treated 2500 persons in 2 weeks and about 400 mothers and children were started on the feeding program which continued throughout the winter.

A building program is going on to provide more adequate accommodation for the medical work and training program at several centres. New building methods and materials are being tried to meet climatic conditions and finances. One new clinic was opened in 1972 and another will be ready to open in the Spring of 1973. Priorities for the future are: personnel needs and training of nursing assistants, medical auxiliaries and village health visitors.

The National Organization for Ophthalmic Research (NOOR) has expanded its centre to 48 beds, a staff of four doctors, both foreign and national nurses and a class of about 40 medical students taking special training over 4 month periods. The site of the Herat Ophthalmic Centre was changed and construction has been progressing feverishly by the German construction team in order to complete it by the end of 1972 so that the opening date can be in March 1973. In this area a research project on Trachoma has been completed. Twelve schools have been surveyed, 2200 children examined and 300 treated for trachoma.

The Adult Literacy Training Institute is having problems with government over property and authority to operate, but meanwhile has an ongoing program of 3 Literacy classes, the production of charts, cards, primers and supplementary reading books for use in the classes, a teacher training program and a writer's workshop. A handicrafts school helps in the rehabilitation of students and produces a wide variety of crafts which are sold by Oxfam in Canada, gift shops, department stores and the United Nations Thrift Shop.

Church of Central Africa Presbyterian

Blantyre Synod has risen steadily in the past 4 years from a membership of 100,805 to 129,329, an increase of about 7% per year, more than double the national population growth. The increase is apparent in town congregations as well as in country. There are signs that the Synod's resources for pastoral care and Christian teaching are not adequate for the task. A matter of great concern is the small number of Christian marriages and the breakdown of many marriages contracted.

The Synod also faces serious questions as to whether the Church is doing all it can to help its people adequately face the challenges of the rapidly changing society of Malawi. In face of the rapid and spirit-filled growth of Independent African Churches the church is again being challenged to "express the spirit in the African way, self-reliant, self-propagating and independent" as were the expressed aims of early days.

More teaching, greater pastoral care and deeper spiritual life; these are the aims of the various new institutions of the Synod: A Lay Training Centre, the Likubula Youth Centre, the Women's Centre, Blantyre Hostel (for working men) and the recently opened Grace Bandawe Hostel. Their value is shown by the increased enthusiasm of leaders on returning to their congregations.

Older established institutions continue to play an important part in the life and work of the Church:—Mulanje Hospital with an increased staff, a fine new nurses' hostel and other buildings and a new program of medical care to reach out to the people in the villages; a Teacher Training College and a Secondary School maintaining standards of Christian Education; the recent chaplaincies in University Colleges; the witness of Christian teachers in C.C.A.P. related schools. Women's work has increased. Synod has a poor record of Christian Stewardship. Congregations have a poor sense of responsibility to the Synod as a whole.

To aid the work ministers have been given further training in Africa and Europe. The Rev. Saindi Chipangwi recently graduated with distinction from Chancellor College and has now gone to Knox College, Toronto, for advanced theological studies.

One of the advances of recent years has been increasing co-operation with other Churches, both Protestant and Roman Catholic. The benefits of working together in Christ's name have been evident in the Christian Literature Association in Malawi (C.L.A.I.M.) and even more so in the Christian Service Committee (C.S.C.) and the Private Hospital Association of Malawi (P.H.A.M.).

Likubula House stands on twenty-seven acres of land on the slopes of the 10,000 foot Mulanje Mountain in Malawi. It is easily accessible by two roads from Blantyre. The glorious flower gardens around the house, the swimming pool fed by fresh water channelled from Likubula River and the giant mountain which stands majestically over all makes Likubula House one of the most attractive spots in Malawi. The main house consists of a dining room which can seat up to fifty people, a sitting room, a library, an office for the two Wardens — Rev. Brian Crosby and Rev. Silas Ncozana and a large dormitory. Attached to this house is the flat which is used mainly for guest accommodation. Capacity is fifty. New staff houses have been built in 1972: I) the Deputy Warden's house; II) Two houses for the cook and the driver; and III) the Warden's house which has been built using money from the World Council of Churches and the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Future plans include a multi-function chapel and an additional dormitory block with accommodation for twenty-four in four rooms. In addition, there is a cottage on Lickenya plateau, which is fully equipped and was used by as large groups as 30-47 people. The cottage was reconditioned by money provided by the Christian Service Committee.

Likubula House is a centre for Young People under the auspices of the Synod of Blantyre which has owned the centre since 1965. The year-round program includes the following: Youth Work Camps — during these camps work is confined to the morning hours, and the jobs undertaken include road maintenance, collection of firewood, clearing up of the grounds around the house, maintenance of the swimming pool and work on new buildings. Afternoons are devoted to recreational and sporting activities — team sports, swimming and swimming lessons to beginners, mountain climbing and hikes. During the evenings discussions, concerts, debates, talks, and story-telling are conducted. During a year six to eight Work Camps are held. The aim of these camps is to provide a time which is both enjoyable and constructive within a framework of Christian Worship and Community life. These camps usually last about two weeks and vary in size from 30 to 35. The transport and food plus accommodation is paid for. The house is provided with an annual budget from the Synod, and is also greatly aided by the Christian Service Committee of the Churches in Malawi.

Conferences and retreats are another important part of the program. Groups from Secondary Schools, teacher training colleges and the University of Malawi used Likubula House for weekend retreats during term time and for longer conferences during school holidays. The program is light and simple so as to provide opportunity for knowing one another. The nature of all above mentioned groups who come to Likubula is ecumenical.

Likubula House is also a centre for training. Short courses for Church School teachers and superintendents were held. A three week residential course for Voluntary Youth Leaders was held in May. It aimed at discovering relevant ways of forming and working with Young People in congregations, the adaptation and use of traditional youth structures, music and dance. The Christian Service Committee of the Churches of Malawi held its meeting at Likubula House to discuss the Churches' role in the development program of the Malawi Government.

Overseas Students and Laymen Abroad

In January the BWM Executive approved the setting up of an Emergency Loan Fund for Overseas Students to help alleviate situations of financial distress that overseas students in Canada often experience. It is hoped that ministers encountering overseas students in financial difficulty will consult the guide lines to consider recommendation of a student for a loan.

At a meeting of the Advisory Committee, it was decided that the Director should undertake two pilot projects to investigate and stimulate the possibility of outreach by local congregations to overseas students in Kingston and London, Ontario. Arising out of meetings held in both Kingston and London, projects were proposed to involve congregations in a more conscious way with overseas students. In one case, the proposal was made to the local Ministerial Association and in the other case to Presbytery, but neither of these proposals was taken up. Upon consideration of the report on these two projects the Advisory Committee came to certain conclusions: It is not easy to bring about contacts between overseas students and local congregations. It is not a priority for most church people, even in university areas. There is a reluctance on the part of many overseas students to get involved with churches. It is difficult to work through official Church bodies to promote contact, and so the Committee recommended that the Director seek to locate, encourage and support individual members of congregations who have a real interest in overseas students and a sense of commitment to some involvement with them.

Sherbrooke, Quebec provides an interesting example of what can develop out of a sense of mission and outreach to the student community on the part of concerned Christians. St. Andrew's Church in Sherbrooke set up an Overseas Student Services committee in mid-1971. A Filipino member of the congregation was appointed as the Community Co-ordinator. This committee has developed in 1972 to include other members of the Sherbrooke community, and has been meeting real needs of the overseas students. A host family program has been set up which this year involves over fifty families. St. Andrew's has hosted A Welcome to Canada Night, which has met with an enthusiastic response from the overseas students and which is followed up later on by other activities. Overseas students have seen that the Church cares about them and through this concern they have been brought into contact with church members, the community and other students.

Share Program: Based on the example of a program at the University of Western Ontario, by which overseas students make themselves available as resource persons in elementary and secondary school class-rooms, a similar program was developed by the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education and the North York Board of Education. About twenty-eight visits of overseas students to the school system took place in the fall of 1972. This program provides for overseas students a type of contact with Canadians which is not just on the receiving end of hospitality or service, but where he is giving of himself and sharing with members of the host country.

Some of the overseas students have been asked to meet with teachers of New Canadian children, to provide insight into difficulties arising in the class-room because of a lack of understanding of cultural differences.

Laymen Abroad

The Committee on Laymen Abroad of the Canadian Council of Churches, of which the Director was Chairman in 1972, was involved in the planning of a 1½-day orientation seminar for laymen considering service overseas. This was held at the Scarborough Foreign Mission Society in Toronto with about twenty-seven participants. Some of these participants were overseas students who acted as resource persons helping prepare laymen going abroad.

A travel brochure called "Going Abroad!" was prepared by the Canadian Council of Churches' Committee on Laymen Abroad and sent out by the denominational representatives to their various churches. This brochure encourages persons going abroad to consider the Christian dimension of their presence overseas. As a result of this mailing OSLA has received many more requests for information from laymen going overseas. An interesting development has been in the large number of tourists who have written, obviously wishing to get beyond the superficial level of overseas tours and seeking a more meaningful travel experience. Church contacts overseas have been suggested to them and orientation material sent where possible.

Tourism is the fastest growing world industry and "Christian" tourists from the affluent countries form the bulk of laymen abroad nowadays. Christians in some parts of the world have begun to try to bring the Gospel concern with salvation and righteousness to bear on some of the exploitation and dehumanization resulting from tourism. The Churches of the Caribbean in an open letter to the churches of North America have asked that their sister churches contribute to the better preparation of their laymen travelling to the Caribbean. With these concerns in mind, the Committee on Laymen Abroad of the Canadian Council of Churches is considering holding its next seminar on the theme of "Implications of Tourism and Travel Abroad for the Christian".

There is an openness to receiving help and input from the churches in sensitizing Canadians to international issues and concerns with which the churches are familiar because of their relationships with Christians throughout the world. The wind of the Holy Spirit is moving in new and exciting ways and in many directions.

Overseas Volunteers

The first appointments under the Overseas Volunteer program were made in 1971. At that time Miss Muriel Copeland was seconded to a World Council of Churches Team as a teacher of Home Economics on the island of Crete; Miss Joan Buckhurst was appointed to the United Theological College of the West Indies, Kingston, Jamaica to assist in the Library; and Mrs. Ruth Ann Soden went to Japan to work under the Korean Christian Church in Japan as an English language teacher in a Korean school. In 1972 only two Overseas Volunteer appointments were made. Miss Dawn Ross was appointed to the Korean Christian Church in Japan and assigned by them to the Tokyo office of the Urban and Industrial Affairs Committee of the East Asia Christian Council. Miss Patricia Pooler has been seconded to the International Afghan Mission to work under their Medical Assistance Program as a nurse. First impressions would seem to indicate that the program not only offers a means for meeting a need among some youth within the Canadian Church but is also providing much needed and appreciated assistance to overseas churches and agencies in areas not normally covered by regular missionary appointments. Reports received regarding these Volunteers have all praised their "hard work" and readiness to fit into changing situations.

Program Support

An important aspect of the BWM's overseas program is the studies which the Board supports jointly with other ecumenical bodies. These can be divided into four main categories, each essential to the Board's work.

Research and Consultation carried on by the Canadian Council of Churches' Commission on World Concerns and the area committees of the Department of Overseas Ministries of the National Council of Churches of Christ, U.S.A. Through these associations the BWM staff has access to the knowledge of those whose experience in some areas is much wider than their own, while at the same time sharing with others their particular expertise.

Training Program. The BWM has taken an active part in discussions on the future of the Ecumenical Institute of Canada as the Board looks to the Ecumenical Institute for assistance with orientation programs for both outgoing and incoming missionaries, for research and study facilities in the field of mission, and for stimulation through regular and special lecturers and seminars. In 1972 the BWM made a grant of $1,200 to the general budget of the Institute.

Development Programs: One contribution the World Council of Churches has made to world mission has come through the establishment of joint agencies covering key areas of Christian life and service: (a) The Christian Medical Commission is one of these joint agencies. The activities of the Commission have reached into many countries, among them Taiwan, Nigeria, India, Malawi, and some of its programs are beginning to have a significant effect on the type of health care available to the average citizen. (b) The Theological Education Fund seeks "to help the churches reform the training for the Christian ministry by providing temporary assistance and consultative services to institutions for theological education and other centres of training". The goal of its work is that ministry be undertaken in response to the widespread crisis of faith and the issues of social justice and human development. Thus the questions with which it is dealing are vital for the churches in all six continents. (c) The Education Renewal Fund has as its aim to "help the churches to mobilize and channel ecumenical efforts of educational renewal and reform in the churches and in society. It assists projects of study and research which seek to equip people of all ages with the faith that issues in engagement in the struggles of our time for greater human dignity, justice, peace and freedom."

Joint Work in Mission

At the request of the Board a new grant was inserted in the 1972 budget for the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students. The Assembly instructed that the total grants by the BWM be divided equally between the IFES and WSCF, beginning in 1972. Board estimates for 1973 include grants of $1,000 to each of these two organizations.

Regional Organization: regional councils of churches are encouraged by BWM grants. An example is the all Africa Conference of Churches which is comprised of some 103 member churches and councils in 31 countries, representing some 45 million African Christians.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN TAIWAN

As 1971 came to an end there were many dire predictions concerning what effect the withdrawal of the Republic of China from the United Nations would have on the economy and political future of Taiwan.

During 1972 President Chiang Kai-shek was re-elected to a 5th six-year term and his son, Chiang Ching-kuo, was appointed Prime Minister. In selecting his cabinet the Prime Minister gave the province of Taiwan more representation than had been the case previously. In December, elections were held to increase the number of delegates from Taiwan in the National Assembly and the Legislative Yuan — most of whose members had been elected in 1947 from mainland China.

In this context of economic prosperity and a relative sense of political security the Presbyterian Church pursued its task of making the gospel known through its more than 900 congregations to the approximately 15 million people of this island.

The Faithful Servant Movement adopted by the General Assembly in 1972, as an attempt to bring together pastors and lay people in order to get the involvement of all congregations in local mission and outreach. A program of "each one lead one" is being promoted in order to help Christian witness to others. A booklet for family devotions with practical suggestions for its use has been welcomed by many congregations. A special Assembly Fund has been established to aid new and weaker congregations and to help in overseas relief and has met with a good response.

Another aim of the Faithful Servant Movement was to work out a church structure that would be more effective and more suited to the mission of the church. It will be presented to the General Assembly in April '73. With it goes a proposal that each term of office of the General Secretary be 3 years. The General Secretary's term will expire in 1973 and most Presbyteries have nominated Mr. Kao for a second term. At this Assembly it is also hoped to appoint a Secretary of Evangelism.

In 1972 the Christian Centre for Family Counselling for which funds were given by the Women's Birthday Offering of the Presbyterian Church in the United States began its work in Taipei. A staff has been engaged, an office opened and training sessions begun.

The major administrative problem faced by the Church during the year was that of dissension in Kaohsiung Presbytery, the largest in the Church. In order to resolve the problem a resolution was presented to and passed by the General Assembly that the Presbytery be divided and a new Presbytery — Shou Shan — be set up. The problem was that there was no geographical demarcation possible. Congregations were to be permitted to elect which Presbytery they wished to belong to. After three meetings of the Assembly Executive the new Presbytery was formally set up on the 4th of July with 25 congregations and 18 ministers. Kaohsiung Presbytery opposed this action of the General Assembly and has refused to recognize the new Presbytery. Meetings have been held to try to bring about reconciliation and it is hoped progress may be made by the time of the next General Assembly. The main differences are between a few leading personalities on both sides and there is not any strong division between the people. One effect of the division has been an increased evangelistic outreach and in 6 months Kaohsiung Presbytery started 3 new congregations and 5 were begun in Shou Shan Presbytery. There has also been an increased interest in attendance at several spiritual life conferences for youth, women and laity in both Presbyteries.

One of the highlights of the year was the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the Church in North Taiwan. Representatives from churches in Canada, Europe, America and Asia brought greetings. In addition to large rallies in several centres special evangelistic meetings were held throughout the year. As part of the anniversary celebrations the new Tamsui Branch of Mackay Hospital and the 4-storey building of the Women's Association were dedicated. It was also in commemoration of the arrival of George Leslie Mackay in Tamsui one hundred years earlier that the General Assembly met in that same town in April, 1972.

Proposals to unite the institutions of theological education were brought forward in 1972. A sub-committee was assigned to study the total resources for the two institutions and arrangements were made for students, faculty and board members to meet and study together a plan to improve the program of theological training. The College in the north was very short of adequately trained personnel and was taking steps to add some younger men to the staff. During the year the Rev. C. S. Hwang was installed as Principal and the Rev. B. L. M. Embree as Vice-Principal. In the south Dr. H. D. Beeby, Acting Principal, was compelled to leave Taiwan and the Board nominated Dr. C. E. Hsiao to be Principal and Dr. Peyton Craighill, Vice-Principal. Recently there has been a gradual decrease in the number of young men applying for admission each year.

No statistics of the Presbyterian Church in Taiwan for the year 1972 are available at the time of writing. The trend the past three years has been toward a slight decrease in total membership although there are numbers of new members reported each year. Financially the Church seems to be in very good shape but it continued to be difficult to tap these resources for General Assembly administration and program costs.

In the tribal churches the work continued under the direction of the Secretary, the Rev. C. E. Lin. Development projects funded through CICARWS progressed on the East Coast and on Orchid Island. A new student hostel for primary and high school students was opened in Lotung. The Ilan area Development Project did not move ahead due to the lack of proper leadership. The Rev. William Estell resigned from his position as Vice-Principal at Yu Shan Theological Institute and Mr. C. S. Yang was appointed Acting Principal. The Credit Union Committee continued its work of setting up local credit unions both in the mountains and on the plains.

The program to provide scholarships for tribal youth in high school, college and seminary was continued with funds from CICARWS and special gifts from several churches overseas. CICARWS also provided agriculture scholarships for Yu Shan.

The Service Centres continued to prove very useful in assisting the tribal people who move into urban areas to find work and to adjust to the new situations. A new centre was started in Taichung during the year. Vocational training short courses were given at Presbyterian Bible School to help tribal youth find jobs in the cities.

Changhua Hospital completed another part of its building plans during the year. Mackay Hospital found that its new branch hospital in Tamsui soon had almost 100% occupancy. The problem of the old buildings in Taipei was still unresolved by the end of the year as the Board continued to try to sell part of the land in order to erect a new building. The plan is to sell the section of the land away from the corner, and on the corner lot to erect a multi-storied building to house the out-patient department and the Intensive Care Unit, with most bed patients being cared for in the Tamsui Branch.

Mr. Kao was Chairman of Taiwan Christian Service in 1972 while the Board sought a Director to replace the Rev. W. T. Hwang who resigned early in the year. (Early in 1973 a new Director was appointed). Mr. Kao was the Chairman of the Ecumenical Cooperative Committee the first part of the year and then his place was taken by Bishop Pong of the Episcopal Church.

At the meeting of the General Assembly Executive Committee in December it was agreed to appoint a small committee to explore the matter of the Church rejoining the World Council of Churches from which it withdrew in 1970. Although the way may not be entirely clear it is the conviction of many in the Church that such an action must be taken as a declaration of faith in Jesus Christ the Lord of the Church and of the World.

The Presbyterian Church in Taiwan, while it has over 100 years of history and is the largest denomination in Taiwan, still makes up only a very small percentage of the total population of about 15 million — less than 2%. One might well ask "What are they among so many?" By themselves nothing; but by God's grace and power they may be willing instruments of His purpose that His will may be done and His salvation be made known to all men.

MISSION EDUCATION

Mission Education sees its work as partly the gathering and spreading of information about missions today, and partly the interpretation of the church's call to participate in God's mission in terms of the needs and opportunities of today's world. In 1972 the work was carried out in the following areas:

Deputation

Missioners engaged in deputation, either singly or in teams, numbered 35; of these 11 were representatives of missions in Canada, 13 were overseas personnel, 8 were nationals from abroad and others, 3. Six mission week-ends were conducted and eight summer camps were provided with mission resource persons. This year every presbytery in the church had at least one visit from someone representing Mission Education.

It was a year of unusual deputation activity and some new forms of deputation were attempted. The Rev. Jen-li Tsai and the Rev. Su-ti Tan, both from Taiwan, visited Canada for two months and had extensive itineraries across the church, sponsored jointly by the Board of Evangelism and Social Action and the Board of World Mission.

The visit of Bishop Patro from the Church of North India was conducted as an ecumenical experiment in conjunction with the Anglican and United Churches. Another new emphasis was made by the Rev. Murray Garvin who accepted an appointment to Leaskdale, Ontario for the duration of his furlough in Canada.

Co-Operative Work

Mission Education staff participated in the production of the program planning guide and the bible study workbook on the theme "God is Just Now".

Mission Education is represented in the Committee on Education for Mission of the Canadian Council of Churches and on the Executive of the Commission on World Concerns of the Canadian Council of Churches. Through these relationships the staff took part in a number of ecumenical events, such as the Incoming Missionaries Conference.

Mission Education represents the Church on the Department of Education for Mission of the National Council of the Churches of Christ, U.S.A., and the staff has been active in preparing materials for the mission emphases which are published by Friendship Press. Mr. Ransom was invited to become Church Consultant for the production of a film on the general theme of global consciousness.

Conferences

Mission Education has had a close contact with Summer Mission Conferences sponsored by the DEM/NCCC/USA and the Canadian Council of Churches as training sessions in leadership for the mission study themes each year. Funds are made available to Synods from the Mission Education Committee to assist our people to attend the conference nearest to them. Some were also assisted to attend renewal through mission seminars of the Ecumenical Institute of Chicago and a conference on "Why Missions?" at the Prairie Study Centre at Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan.

Publications

In its on-going task of gathering and disseminating information on the mission of the church, Mission Education provides articles, notes, ads and pictures for the Presbyterian Record, Glad Tidings, the Messenger, and for Stewardship and Budget bulletins as well as for the Presbyterian Prayer Partnership. "Encounter" was published twice during the year and circulated to an extensive mailing list.

Audio-Visuals

At the request of the Synod of Quebec and Eastern Ontario, the staff of Mission Education worked with the Synod Missions Committee in the filming of an audio-visual presentation on the work of that Synod, to be used both as a report to Synod and as a means of spreading information about the mission work of Synod.

A filmstrip entitled "100 Years Until Now" was produced in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the arrival of George Leslie Mackay in Taiwan. The filmstrip has a spoken script on a cassette, the other side of which is a reading entitled "Is Mackay from Canada on Board?"

Copies of a filmstrip produced by the United Presbyterian Church USA entitled "Christ in the Art of India" were purchased and made available for groups studying the India theme.

The film "The Cross in the Lotus" produced by the Broadcasting and Film Commission of the NCCC/USA was purchased and several prints placed in the Audio-Visual Services Library for use in connection with the study on India. The Four Films produced by Mission Education at the close of 1971 based on interviews with overseas personalities attending the Waterloo Consultation were put into circulation through the Audio Visual Services Library in Toronto and also in four other film depots across the country. Several prints were sold to interested groups outside our church and the set was used at missions conferences in Florida and North Carolina.

A number of tape programs were produced from interviews made at the time of the Waterloo Consultation: a series of 8 cassettes produced and programmed by Edutronics Limited for a study of the content of the Consultation (a total of 290 cassettes from this series were purchased during the year); an additional program entitled "Agenda" in both cassette and radio tape form. (This consists of 13 ten-minute programs and two 30-minute programs which are available for congregational use or for radio broadcast purposes.)

A 60-minute cassette, "Sounds of India", was produced, with Margaret Kennedy, Bishop Bhandare, C. I. Itty and Pauline Brown sharing views on India and the Church in India today, interspersed with Indian music.

Mr. Hummelen has been interviewing visitors to Toronto with a view to building up a bank of tapings that can be used in a variety of ways in the future.

Presbyterian Church Calendar

The Calendar operates on a separate budget but is planned and produced by Mission Education. The 1973 Calendar was printed by C. F. Haughton Limited based on the theme "Faith and Justice". Sales were substantially the same as last year (approximately 40,000) and the committee reports an excess of income over expenditures in this year's operation amounting to $411.

Other Program Involvements

Mr. Rummelt Hummelen, Program Assistant, Communications, assisted various groups in audio-visual presentations and has had numerous requests to tape conferences, seminars and board meetings. He has worked very closely with the Audio-Visual Services Committee and did some field work photographing aspects of the work in Iroquois, Ottawa, and Montreal.

Much of the time of the Staff was spent counselling people on matters of education for mission, organizing mission week-ends and setting up mission displays.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WESTERN DIVISION

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Council Executive of the Women's Missionary Society, W.D., respectfully submits the following report of the Society's work for the year 1972.

The year 1972 was the first year of the integration of the Administration of the Overseas and National Mission work, formerly administered by the Women's Missionary Society, W.D., with that of the work formerly under the General Board of Missions, into one administration under the Board of World Mission.

The women of the Society now share in the total mission work of the Church as reported by the Board of World Mission. In 1972 the Women's Missionary Society gave $360,035.00 to the Board of World Mission towards the support of Home and Overseas Missions. Ten representatives of the W.M.S.(W.D.) including the President are members of the Board of World Mission.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The major responsibility of the Women's Missionary Society, W.D. aside from the promised annual financial support to the Board of World Mission is its Educational Programme carried out through staff and programme materials.

The year 1972 brought some changes. The name for this department became Education Department, a more accurate description of the work of the department. The department was expanded to include the Editorial and Book Room Committees as the work of these committees is an important part of the Educational programme of the Society. The office of "Director of Organization" was changed to "Executive Secretary" and the responsibilities of that office expanded to include more general responsibilities as well as those related to the educational work.

Through the year 1972 planning and experimentation continued in an endeavour to place and use the Education Staff more effectively throughout the Church. The plan outlined in the 1971 report has been implemented. Some changes were not made until September 1972 but there appears to be increasing use made of the help which Educational Staff can give. We have been encouraged also by the use of resource materials and the interest in and appreciation of our programme packets shown by other denominations.

Miss Booth and Miss Nutt and their respective Committees, Children's and Adult Work and the Girls' Work Committee with Mrs. Parish as Chairman met regularly to prepare and seek helpful materials for groups. Rev. Donald Powell of the Board of Christian Education assisted the Girls' Work Committee. In the Autumn these Committees were strengthened by the addition of some Area Staff to their membership. Miss Booth and Miss Nutt shared in numerous Leadership Training Events along with other National, Area Staff, Synodical and Presbyterian Officers. They shared in the work of other W.M.S. and Board of Christian Education Committees and the Audio-Visual Committees and attended the Spring meeting of the Department of Education for Mission. Miss Nutt spent some time in the West in late Spring and Summer and has continued to coordinate the work of the Western team. The Executive Secretary, Miss Reith, shared in the work of the various W.M.S. Committees, the Board of Christian Education and its Executive and attended meetings of the Board of World Mission and its Executive. She shared in the work of the BWM Committee on Missionary Education, working with its Director in planning deputation of missionaries.

Area Staff became familiar with their new geographical areas of work and did much to interpret their work to Presbyteries and Presbyterials as well as giving training in leadership to Church School Teachers and leaders of weekday groups and working with Synodical and Presbyterian Officers. In March 1972 we welcomed Miss Brenda Moncrieff to the Area Staff. After her designation Miss Moncrieff went to British Columbia as a member of the Western Team. Miss Annabelle Wallace was granted a leave of absence for one year in April 1972. In August we were happy to welcome Miss Barbara Woodruff back to the Educational Staff. She joined the Western Team in early October. In May we were sorry to accept the resignation of Miss Linda Wood from the Area Staff.

ADULT GROUPS

One Synodical Adult Secretary begins her report by saying "I wish every member could share with me the experience of reading the reports so members could gain a great measure of encouragement." Certainly one is aware of the myriad of ways in which the groups are "serving" through their concern for the sick, the lonely, the retarded, the elderly, the poor and those with other needs.

Groups are using many different resources for study — the India and Africa packets, Glad Tidings, Presbyterian Record, Audio-Visuals, like films, filmstrips, and tapes, Bible Study, plays, Encounter and guest speakers are but a few of those mentioned.

Workshops have been held in Presbyterials and Synodicals to introduce study materials.

Some women in various parts of the country have participated in Equip Workshops during the year.

THE ADULT COMMITTEE

The Adult Committee met faithfully during the year — reading and commenting on manuscripts and programme outlines and revising old and seeking new helpful materials.

FRIENDSHIP AND SERVICE

Friendship and Service continues to be a vital part of the Adult Group life. A Synodical Friendship and Service Secretary who has enjoyed her term of office reminds us that "you can make more friends in two months by becoming interested in other people than you can make in two years by trying to get them interested in you." W.M.S. members must have made many friends as many groups report "all members" involved in Friendship and Service. A wide variety of service is carried out — groups are active in Hospital Visiting, assisting in Children's wards, Nursing Homes, Homes for the Aged, teaching crafts in elderly citizens homes, reading to the blind, transporting people to clinics, church, shopping and taking them for pleasure drives. Many assist in the Meals on Wheels service given in the areas. Group members are very active in both congregational and community projects, visiting newcomers, providing music and programmes in Nursing Homes, visits, phone calls and generally showing Christian love and concern by responding to the need at hand. Such work cannot be measured in statistics nor the results estimated.

CHILDREN'S GROUPS

On studying the reports from the Synodical Children's Work Secretaries, it is evident that children's work, to a large extent, depends on the personal contact of the Synodical and Presbyterian Children's Work Secretaries who are the line of communication to the local congregations. Thanks is due to these faithful women who have served so efficiently during the past year. An important part of the work of Presbyterian Children's Work Secretaries has been the fall workshops which in most instances have been well attended by leaders and counsellors and supported by Presidents of local WMS groups.

The number of groups has decreased during the past year but it is encouraging that there are new Explorer groups, new COC groups and mixed COC and Explorer group. There are community groups sponsored by more than one denomination, groups with names other than COC and Explorers and mission study resources have been used in church schools.

With the opportunity to print the mission stories on the Children's page of The Presbyterian Record, the materials have had a wider audience. As well, the sharing project for Junior Camps and Vacation Schools has given an opportunity for a large number of boys and girls to participate in the support of work for which the Presbyterian Church in Canada has responsibility.

Changes are taking place in week day groups. One congregation, observing that the Explorer group was attracting more boys and girls than the Sunday Church School, agreed to combine Church School and Explorers. Grades 3 and 4 meet on Tuesday and grades 5 and 6 on Wednesday for a two hour period. The curriculum includes both Bible Study and Mission Education. The weekday church school has proved to be an outreach project as approximately 50% of the boys and girls in attendance are from non-church families.

GIRLS' GROUPS

Reports from Synodical Secretaries for Girls' Groups tell of the usual discouraging and encouraging aspects of this work. We hear of groups disbanded and new groups begun. The saddest news is to hear that some were disbanded and some not started because leaders could not be found. A good percentage of groups heard from tell of using "All in an African Lifetime" as their Mission Study. Several "Africa Nights" were planned jointly with COC and Explorers. Most existing groups were very active in assisting in local congregations and community.

In some areas concern was expressed because of the lack of Bible Study and Mission Study in groups. There was also concern as to how to interest and help girls with no previous background in the Church. "How can we make the Church and its work more relevant to girls' own lives?"

The Girls' Work Committee met regularly, to consider suitable programme resources for youth groups. The Mission Resource Packet for 1972-73 "Minitrek to India" contained the book "Mother India's Children" by Edward Rice, a factual booklet on India, published by the Information Service of India, and five suggested outlines for programmes prepared by Mary-Lou Funston, as well as other leaflets. A new Service of Affiliation was prepared by Mrs. G. Phillips of Galt. The Education Committee, the Girls' Committee and the Board of Christian Education all supported "Leadership 72", the national event planned by the National CGIT Committee and held in three regions across the country in the Summer of '72, which an equal number of leaders and senior girls attended. Reports from some areas tell of the assistance given by girls upon their return from the event. Through the years since 1925 the Girls' Work has been sponsored cooperatively by the WMS and the Board of Christian Education. It is the hope of the Girls' Work Committee that a suitable link can be established with the new Board of Congregational Life.

THE GLAD TIDINGS

The Glad Tidings continued to be a major channel through which current information about Mission in general and that of The Presbyterian Church in Canada in particular was spread throughout the Society. A sincere attempt was made to interpret the wider work in which the women of the Society now share through the magazine and two issues of the supplementary leaflet "Alive". This leaflet was well received and within congregations it is being included in Church calendars and delivered to members with communion cards.

In June it was with regret that Council Executive received the resignation of the Editor, Mrs. Helen Young who had served so acceptably for five years. Mrs. Laura Plummer began her duties as Editor in August and was introduced to the members of Council in September.

BOOK ROOM

From the reports from Synodical Literature Secretaries we learn that all the Presbyterian Literature Secretaries displayed literature at Presbyterian Annual Meetings, Executive meetings, Rallies, and individual group meetings. All six Synodical Secretaries displayed and reviewed books at their Synodical Annual Meetings.

Two hundred groups reported that they presented and promoted literature in their groups. Some groups displayed books at meetings of their groups, in book racks in Church lobbies and placed book lists on bulletin boards.

The study packets sold well. The youth study was particularly popular and was used by other denominations as well as our own.

The children's packets were much in demand especially the one entitled "Come Inside India." This is the first year the W.M.S. Book Room has handled a cassette related to the study theme and it has sold well.

As always devotional and inspirational books are popular.

The Book Room is pleased to report that once again it has been possible for it to make a contribution to the General Funds of the Society.

DEPUTATION

During 1972 deputation of missionaries was planned with the Missionary Education Department of the Board of World Mission.

The Education Committee is grateful to all who in National, Synodical and Presbyterian Committees share in the educational task. We appreciate the constant interest and work of the Chairman of the Education Committee Mrs. G. H. Peckover and the Chairmen of the Sub Committees who give so much time and effort to the work of the Department. As plans are developed by the new Board of Congregational Life we hope to have clarified the ways in which the W.M.S. can cooperate in continuing to serve the congregations of our Church.

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The Estimate for Christian Literature in 1972 was $13,825., of which $9,000. was the annual grant from the Legacy Fund. With these annual grants the Women's Missionary Society (W.D.) has been able to assist in production and distribution of Christian literature of all types, including audio visual aids, in many languages and dialects, and sending them into many lands and districts of the world, which rapidly become literate and are at once flooded with communist literature and propaganda. With our grants we have helped also to finance literacy campaigns, train native writers, and subsidize the translation and publication of important Christian books, also the production of Sunday school curricula.

Through special gifts and legacies sent in for Christian literature we have been able to meet emergencies and expand our work to areas beyond the limits of our budget where the need is great, such as the replacement of bibles, hymn books and theological and educational books lost through war, fire and flood, in Nigeria, Canada and the Philippines. In addition we have helped provide material for Indians in the Kenora area; 'large print' magazines and magazines in braille through the John Milton Society for the Blind in Canada; Christian literature for some of the blind in India; projector and slides for use in Japan; assistance to Evangelical Fellowship of India and the Women's Fellowship of North India; Christian literature for distribution by 'Youth Ministries' during the summer months in Central Canada. Without these special gifts these things could not have been accomplished.

SUPPLY

If there is one word that can be used to describe the needs of the Supply Department of our society — it is "changing."

Many of our members and groups are adjusting to the changing needs and are realizing that they can best serve through increased giving through the Supply Fund. However only two of the Synodicals met their allocation which left many needs unprovided for.

The Reports show a kindly concern for many in need — and quantities of gifts were sent to all parts of the world. Our church institutions were the recipients of many of these gifts.

It is gratifying to know of the loving concern on the part of the women and it is to be hoped that these efforts can be channelled in the days ahead:

- (1) to meeting the financial goal set for the synodical in which we work.
- (2) to be very sure that before any materials are sent anywhere that a letter is first written to those who would receive our gift to find out if the need still exists for that type of gift.

Always keeping in mind that we do not begin our "second mile" until we have completed our first.

These are times of tremendous opportunity to serve and also times of great responsibility.

MRS. J. M. BURNETT,
President.

COMMITTEE ON THE ORDER OF DEACONESSSES

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Committee on the Order of Deaconesses begs leave to report as follows:
Your Committee congratulates Miss Margaret Boyd of Ottawa on this the occasion of her twenty-fifth anniversary in the Order of Deaconesses.

The Third Biennial meeting of the Council of the Order of Deaconesses was held in Montreal, August 30-31, 1972. Twenty-three deaconesses from across Canada attended and assured your Committee that it was most rewarding to them. Increase in attendance and also in financial cost, demands that your committee ask for the consideration of an increased grant for the Biennial meeting in 1974.

The Council went on record as being desirous of holding regional conferences during the year between meetings of the Biennial.

Your committee has received and studied the report of the sub-committee and the Diaconate to the Committee on Church Doctrine and are in agreement with its proposals. The effectual work of your committee continues to be a frustrating one, and will continue as such until the Assembly takes a stand and makes its decision in this matter.

Your Committee has been in consultation with the special committee re Agency for Ministry. We are willing to become part of an Assembly Agency for Ministry but we are asking the right of maintaining our separate identity with the agency until such time as the place of the Deaconesses within the church has been clarified. We would, therefore, be agreeable, as an interim measure, to have the Committee on the Order of Deaconesses incorporated within the new agency as a "Task Force concerning Deaconesses" until such time as the issue is resolved.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- (1) THAT the Committee Budget, as follows, be approved:
- | | |
|---|------------|
| A. For the operation of the Committee on the Order of the Deaconesses | $ 700.00 |
| B. For the operation of the Council of the Order of Deaconesses | 600.00 |
| C. For the Biennial meeting of the Deaconess Council in 1974 | 2,100.00 |
| Total | $3,400.00 |
- (2) THAT in addition to the salary and travel expenses a Deaconess receive a housing allowance of up to one hundred and fifty dollars per month.

H. G. LOWRY,
Convener.

THE COMMITTEE ON INTER-CHURCH AID, REFUGEE AND WORLD SERVICE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

In the year 1972 contributions sharply declined to $73,983 from the 1971 figure of $158,672. The Pakistani refugee crisis diminished early in the year, and no other relief need stirred the compassion of our people to a similar extent.

Response to Emergencies

Our committee tried to respond quickly to crises arising out of natural disasters or political upheavals, even though some of these received little media coverage. In the Sudan in Africa the seventeen years of civil war finally ended, and massive aid was needed for the resettlement of refugees. Our committee forwarded $10,000 to the World Council of Churches' Commission on Inter-Church Aid for its program of repairing schools, dispensaries, hospitals, and water-supply facilities.

In India a number of West Bengalese were stricken with paralysis after eating food cooked in adulterated mustard-oil. Our grant of $2,000 supported physiotherapy treatments and rehabilitation. In Japan two young Korean pastors died suddenly and $600 was forwarded to aid their children's education. The needs of Ugandan Asian refugees arriving in Canada were carefully investigated. Since the greatest number were settling in the Toronto area, a letter was written to ministers in the two Presbyteries in Metro Toronto, requesting temporary accommodation, winter clothing and certain household articles. In addition, a grant was made to a Ugandan Asian student refugee. To the new Emergency Loan Fund to assist Overseas Students a grant was made as it was being established by the Board of World Missions.

In Burundi, Africa, after an insurrection and massacre there were about 10,000 refugees. A grant of $1,000 was forwarded to the World Council's program for reconstruction of schools and provision of medical supplies. Small grants were also made toward the restructuring of medical services in Papua-New Guinea and to a conference in the British Solomon Islands rethinking the role of the churches in education.

Near the end of 1972 an earthquake in Nicaragua caused massive damage and disruption. The Inter-Church Consultative Committee on Development and Relief, comprised of representatives of the relief agencies of the Anglican, Lutheran, Roman Catholic and United churches along with our own, had previously set up a joint arrangement under the name, "Church Action For Emergency Aid". Within 24 hours after word came about the earthquake, there was a telephone consultation among contact persons in the five denominations, and an initial commitment of $24,000 in relief was made immediately in the name of the Canadian churches. Included in that amount was a commitment of $2,000 from our funds, and since then a further $3,000 has been forwarded to the World Council's program of providing food, vehicles for distribution and rehabilitation aid.

Toward Meeting Long-Term Needs

Our largest grants in 1972 went to Bangladesh, aiding the resettlement of the Pakistani refugees by house construction, restoration of medical services and rehabilitation of agriculture and trades. In Africa there are presently more than a million refugees, mostly victims of racist oppression, in need of food, medical services, shelter, legal aid, and educational opportunities. In several nations the Christian Institute for Southern Africa has an extensive program, for which we forwarded $3,000 in 1972. In the Middle East, in the tense situation between Israel and the Arab states, we lent our support to the Abie Nathan Peace Ship. Attempting to counterbalance the inflammatory propaganda of much broadcasting in that region, the ship's radio station will be a voice of moderation and reconciliation.

In some parts of the Third World there are indeed hopeful signs of development and self-help. Rehabilitation in Nigeria following the years of civil strife has been remarkably successful. In the economic health of that large nation of 55 million further development is essential. A grant of $9,000 was forwarded to The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria for several development projects that will create employment and assist economic growth. These include a palm-oil processing mill, loans to establish small businesses and to purchase better tools for local industry and an agricultural scheme similar to the Israeli kibbutz operation.

To another part of Africa, Malawi, our committee sent $2,000 to the Christian Service Committee for its agriculture, public health, well-drilling and leadership training programs. Grants totalling $2,000 were made to agricultural development projects in the Philippines and Indonesia and to a program developing community leadership in North African countries.

Another grant of $1,000 went to the YWCA program of Early School Leavers Continuing Education in Georgetown, Guyana. For girls who have been forced by circumstances to leave school at a young age, the vocational courses offer new hope and independence.

An initial commitment of $5,000 has been made to the World Council's Fund for Reconstruction and Reconciliation in Indochina. Actually the Asian Christian Service and Vietnam Christian Service agencies have been at work for several years in all areas including North Vietnam, giving refugee relief and medical help during hostilities. The new needs following establishment of the peace will include aid for resettlement of people including released political prisoners, medical and social welfare assistance and a variety of rehabilitation programs. We will forward further donations as provided by our people, hopefully to the sum of $20,000 at least.

There are serious problems and needs in Canada, too. In congested urban areas and also in some rural areas there are many disadvantaged by physical, educational or geographical factors. A number of citizen groups or development coalitions have emerged across Canada. Three of these in Montreal, Windsor and Eastern Ontario have received sympathetic consideration in our committee, but because of the very few earmarked donations for development in Canada and the reduced donations to our general fund, it has been impossible in 1972 to make any domestic grants. However, the Inter-Church Committee is presently establishing a funding body to be known as "Mustard Seed of Canada", to provide assistance to low income, self-help groups. The five denominations have committed for the first year a total of $200,000, including $5,000 from our committee and a similar amount from the Administrative Council. There is a high probability of substantial funding by the Canadian Government.

Further Work with Others

During 1972 there were two types of projects for which supporting grants were made by CIDA (Canadian International Development Agency). Our I.C. Aid grant of $30,000 to Cathedral Relief Services for Bangladesh refugee resettlement and rehabilitation resulted in a CIDA grant for an additional $50,000 for the work. Through the coordination of the Canadian Council of Churches, the development projects in Malawi, North Africa, Indonesia and the Philippines which we supported along with the four other major denominations were given grants also by CIDA on a matching basis. We are grateful for the increasing program of CIDA in aid to the developing countries. Sometimes in turbulent political climates and with the pride and growing self-consciousness of many new nations it is only the help of the churches and voluntary agencies that seems acceptable. But more often there is a coordination and partnership of gifts from the voluntary sector and from government toward the massive task.

Since we are part of the Presbyterian family of churches throughout the world, we forwarded $7,000 to the aid program of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches, strengthening small churches in Belgium, Spain, Portugal and Iron Curtain countries for their witness and service. Aid was also given toward the medical expenses of Waldensian pastors in Italy and to needy Reformed pastors in a Communist nation.

Our committee also met its annual allocation of $17,000 to the World Council's Commission on Inter-Church Aid regular service program. Its staff, operating out of Geneva, makes necessary initial investigation of each crisis and considers which network of agencies may best administer aid. This sometimes calls for tough decisions concerning the most effective channels but also sensitivity, working if at all possible through local councils of Christian churches and other native leaders, rather than foisting programs upon them. Again in 1972 we made a grant of $3,000 to the World Council's Department of Development. The planning and decision-making concerning its use is left to the local people in the developing nations. Besides coordinating programs in widely publicized crises, the WCC-CICARWS has ongoing aid to refugees in Africa, Palestine and Latin America, and supports scholarship programs, health service development and youth projects.

Education — Motivation

Our committee was authorized by the 98th Assembly to undertake a continuing educational program. We have made a start on a series of informational leaflets. A filmstrip with tape entitled, "The Charred Cross of Bangladesh", describing a relief and rehabilitation program supported by our committee, has been placed in the Audio-Visual library. We have also commenced preparation of a set of slides with cassette on the work supported by Inter-Church Aid. It will be revised from time to time to incorporate new activities.

As part of our educational thrust we participated in the planning of "Ten Days for World Development", an Inter-Church program of development education in March 1973. We have been grateful for the cooperation and participation of Dr. Max Putnam and Dr. Donald MacDonald in the church leaders' tour across Canada. The purposes of the program are:

To create among Canadians an awareness of our collective responsibility towards our neighbours in the Third World through the organization and promotion of events of an educational nature, and

To invite the cooperation and participation of the members of the churches in this task.

Administrative

Our committee has continued to keep promotional and administrative costs at a low figure. We have no paid staff, and in addition to the voluntary service of committee members, much help is received from the Editors of The Presbyterian Record and The Glad Tidings in disseminating information and from the staff of the Board of World Mission and Evangelism and Social Action in research and counsel. We are especially grateful to the Board of Stewardship and Budget for production and distribution of our materials and for much clerical assistance.

Our poster, leaflets, pop-can labels, envelopes and church bulletins supporting our annual appeal are available from the national offices on request. In any congregation finding it impossible to make an appeal during the pre-Easter season an offering at another time is of course acceptable.

"If someone who has the riches of this world sees his brother in need and closes his heart to him, how does the love of God abide in him?"

RECOMMENDATION

That the General Assembly authorize the annual special pre-Easter appeal in 1974 for the work of Inter-Church Aid, Refugee and World Service and request all ministers and Kirk-Sessions to encourage and foster the support of their congregations.

E. F. DUTCHER,
Convener.

Secretary.

THE REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH BUILDING CORPORATION

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Presbyterian Church Building Corporation begs leave to report on its activities for the year ended December 31, 1972.

In the space of a little more than a century, Canada has been transformed from a rural into an urban society. Today it is one of the most urbanized countries in the world. Canadians continue to demonstrate their confidence in their cities by flocking to them in undiminished numbers. In a study entitled "Urban Canada" produced by an agency of the Federal Government it is forecast that by the end of this century nine out of ten Canadians will live in cities and that Canada will be 94.1% urban and 73% of the population will be domiciled in twelve major metropolitan centres. These centres will become the focal point of our national economic, social and religious life.

Each week hundreds of acres of rural land are being developed by the cities of Canada. Every hour during 1972 twenty-two couples were married, thirteen people entered Canada from other lands, seventy-three new cars were purchased and thirty-nine children were born. The population increased by the hundreds of thousand and thousands of new families were formed. While the business world sees in all this growth a huge consumer market, the Church is faced with a tremendous challenge to bring the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ to an ever expanding, shifting yet confined community of people.

The Church lives to communicate the Gospel to itself and to the world. The Corporation is most anxious to be an assistant communicator. It may well be asked, can bricks and mortar, loans and mortgages communicate the Gospel. Obviously, as objects in themselves, they are inert and worthless for such a lofty purpose. The Church is a fellowship of people who look "forward to the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God" (Hebrews 11:10). On the way to that city these people venture forth in faith while living in a secular world. They provide guideposts by building churches in earthly cities.

When a congregation contemplates building a church, it should consider these questions. Should a church be built? Does it belong in the stewardship of the whole Church? Is the purpose of this church building to promote and communicate the Gospel? Should this church be built of such dimension with such a sense of permanence? How long will it be used as a church? How permanent is the community it will serve? Will it become a gymnasium, or a supermarket, or a hollow auditorium? How much multiple use of space is involved? Are funds available to build it? If funds have to be borrowed, is the congregation capable of repaying such funds over a reasonable period of time?

When borrowing capital funds for church building, a congregation should investigate sources of revenue and discuss the terms and details of a loan with the probable lender. The following stages of cash availability should be thoroughly analyzed so that the needed funds will be on hand or arranged before building operations begin.

- 1 — Cash on hand in the building fund
- 2 — Cash from the sale of property (if any)
- 3 — Cash to be raised prior to construction
- 4 — Estimated amount to be borrowed

Declining Membership

We note with regret the declining membership of the Church and the loss of congregations over the last number of years. Between 1952 and 1971 (a twenty year period) 220 congregations were closed or amalgamated and 140 new congregations were established, which is a net loss of 80. Between 1962 and 1972 (a ten year period) 126 congregations were closed or amalgamated and only 26 new congregations were established, which is a net loss of 100. There were 20,000 fewer members of the Presbyterian Church in 1971 than in 1964.

One New Loan

Only one new loan was approved during the year, which was for Westmount Church, London, Ontario in the amount of $30,000. The congregation opened and dedicated its building on January 21, 1973. With the assistance of the Corporation a loan was arranged for Varsity Acres, Calgary, Alberta on the congregation's own credit with the Royal Bank of Canada.

Statement of Mortgages and Loans

Item	Original Amount	Balance at December 31, 1972	Principal Paid 1972
Debenture Principal	$3,384,250	$1,725,000	$244,000
Guaranteed Bank Loans	610,967	271,979	55,606
Unsecured Bank Loans	836,000	584,348	87,100
Special Loans	59,100	59,100	—
	$4,890,217	$2,640,427	$386,706

Six congregations, where two of the Synod Corporations originally issued letters of intent, have now secured the loans on their own credit. The original amount of these loans was $371,500 and is in addition to the above opposite item "unsecured bank loans". These congregations did not require the Corporation's guarantee. We heartily congratulate these congregations on their achievements.

Arrears

At December 31, 1972 fourteen of the 63 borrowing congregations were in arrears on their mortgage payments in a total amount of $260,918. The number of such congregations remained the same as last year but the dollar amount increased by $32,832. These congregations and the amounts of their arrears are listed below.

Congregation	Original Amount of Loan	Principal Outstanding Dec. 31, 1972	Amount of Arrears Dec. 31, 1972
Albion Gardens, Rexdale	$ 70,500	$ 42,750	$ 1,000.00
Chalmers, Calgary	40,000	—	18,000.00
Elliot Lake, Ontario	25,750	14,000	20,182.48
Guildwood, Scarborough	109,000	81,000	14,580.53
Kirk-on-the-Hill, Fonthill	42,500	28,500	7,097.00
Knox, Calgary	150,000	59,000	2,286.25
North Park, Toronto	72,100	34,000	2,875.00
St. Giles, Calgary	75,000	12,000	10,500.00
St. Timothy's, Ajax	36,000	20,000	400.62

St. Timothy's, Ottawa	150,000	91,000	131,756.33
South Gate, Hamilton	112,000	250	14,630.00
Westmount, Edmonton	50,000	—	19,785.26
Westview, Toronto	103,000	55,000	13,825.00
Wexford, Scarborough	178,500	120,000	4,000.00

$260,918.47

Despite the above arrears on the part of the above congregations, the credit of the Church and the Corporations involved has not been impaired because the Corporation paid the amounts of principal and interest required on the due dates. In 1972 the 63 borrowing congregations raised $1,263,657 in envelopes, which is a considerable increase over the previous year. The average weekly envelope contribution increased from $2.52 in 1971 to $2.77 in 1972. These same 63 borrowing congregations raised $2,004,109 for all purposes out of which they paid 31.60% for stipends, 30.96% for operating expenses, 28.64% for debt retirement and 8.80% for the Assembly Budget.

Arrears Reduced

The Directors of the Corporation are pleased to report that five of the borrowing congregations reduced their arrears in 1972. These congregations are St. Timothy's, Ajax by $240, Albion Gardens by $2,190, North Park by $875, Kirk-on-the-Hill by $1,000 and Wexford by $3,000.

Unfortunately, Westview congregation increased its arrears from $4,200 to $13,825. The Presbytery of East Toronto has come to the assistance of Westview and Guildwood congregations. The Presbytery has promised to pay $10,000 against Westview's first mortgage arrears on condition that the congregation will pay $4,000. This $10,000 will come from funds that accrued from the sale of a church building following the dissolution of a congregation. The Presbytery has promised further financial assistance to the Guildwood congregation in 1973. We hereby express our thanks to the Presbytery of East Toronto for its excellent assistance.

The Directors also wish to record their thanks to the Presbytery of Hamilton for its generous gifts to the congregations of South Gate ($48,000) and Eastmount ($50,000) to greatly reduce their burden of debt. This total amount of $98,000 was obtained when the Presbytery cashed a number of its bonds and $50,000 of it came from the sale of a church building of a congregation that ceased to exist. This Presbytery has given very considerable financial assistance to other congregations within its bounds that do not have loans from the Corporation.

We place on record our appreciation for the very substantial financial support the Presbytery of Ottawa has given to the congregation of St. Timothy's in Ottawa for the last several years, which funds came from contributions of several congregations within the bounds of the Presbytery.

Transfer of Assets and Liabilities

The Directors are pleased to report that as of December 31, 1972 the assets and liabilities of the Corporation of the Synod of Hamilton and London and the Corporation of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston were transferred to this Corporation. The Corporation of the Synod of Saskatchewan transferred its assets to the Corporation during the year. The Saskatchewan Corporation has no liabilities.

It had been hoped that the transfer of assets and liabilities of the Synod Corporations of Manitoba, Alberta and the Corporation of the Presbytery of Ottawa would have been completed before the end of the year. Due to certain legal and technical difficulties these transfers have been delayed but it is expected that they will be completed within the next few months.

Assets and Liabilities of the Borrowing Congregations

At December 31, 1972 the assets of the 63 borrowing congregations stood at $12,845,172, the liabilities at $4,280,325 and the congregational equity at $8,564,847.

The Capital Reserve Fund

The total combined capital reserve and guarantee funds for all eight Synod and Presbytery Corporations stood at approximately $869,565 at December 31, 1972.

Self-Support

The Directors of the Corporation hereby express sincere thanks to the Church and the Administrative Council for the financial assistance that both the Committee on Synod Corporations and this Corporation received during the last ten years. The Directors decided that the Corporation become self-supporting and, therefore, commencing January 1, 1973 it will pay its own salaries and expenses. The Corporation plans to continue to be self-supporting from then on unless congregational defaults become of such magnitude that we cannot meet them from our own resources.

Nomination of Directors

The by-laws of the Corporation provide that "Directors shall be elected annually by the General Assembly from nominees of the Directors." We, therefore, recommend in this respect.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That Mr. D. M. Walker, C.A., Vancouver, Dr. G. D. Johnston, M.B.E., Brantford, Mr. Robert Thomson, Montreal and Mr. G. O. Huggan, C.A., Don Mills be re-elected Directors of the Corporation.
2. That the Rev. W. I. McElwain, Toronto and the Rev. A. F. MacSween, Don Mills be elected Directors of the Corporation.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. H. CARLEY,
Chairman.

D. McCULLOUGH,
General Manager.

THE LENDING FUND COMMITTEE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

During 1972 loans were made to ten congregations, six of these were new loans and four were funds to refinance bank loans or other mortgage commitments. The names of the congregations and the amount of the loans are shown on Schedule A. The following is a financial statement of the operations of the fund during 1972:

Year Ended December 31, 1972

INCOME
Interest on loans	$ 14,906
Interest earned on deposits	3,777	$ 18,683

Capital at January 1st, 1972	$1,649,790
Plus transfer of income	18,683	$1,668,473
REPRESENTED BY
Loans to congregations	$1,552,448
Cash	8,025
Bank Time Deposits	108,000	$1,668,473
CAPITAL GRANTS FROM FUNDS MADE AVAILABLE FROM NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND
University Church, Toronto	$ 10,000
Varsity Acres, Church, Calgary	10,000
Coquitlam Church, B.C.	10,000
Iona Church, Dartmouth	10,000
Westmount, London	10,000	$ 50,000

A statement of outstanding loans by congregations at December 31st, 1972 is available for the information of any commissioner who wishes to have this. There were 109 loans outstanding at December 31st, 1972.

General Assembly has asked Presbyteries to assign supervision of capital borrowing to a standing committee. In those Presbyteries where this has been done the work of these committees has proved to be of value. The Lending Fund Committee would therefore urge all Presbyteries to assign the supervision of borrowing to an appropriate committee.

A. R. G. AMENT,
Chairman.

J. B. BARBOUR,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM AND SOCIAL ACTION

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

This is the final report of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action as presently constituted, to the General Assembly. However, as long as the Church remains faithful to her Lord's mandate to "Go and make disciples of all nations"; as long as the Church endeavours to carry out her Christ-given commission which states, "You shall be My witnesses"; as long as the Church involves herself in the life of the community and the nation, so long will reports be made to the General Assembly on the never-to-be-separated matters of evangelism and social action which stand at the very heart of the Church's life and work.

Now that the present Board is to die only to rise again phoenix-like under the umbrella of the Board of Congregational Life, it is our hope that this resurrection will result in an even greater involvement, at the grass roots level, in evangelism and social action.

This Board has travelled a long way since its humble beginnings when it struggled for recognition in the Church. Today, with 'a new wind blowing' across the face of this continent, this Board has a credibility and image which reflects the changing attitude towards evangelism. This new image is due in large measure to the persons, both lay and clergy, who have served on this Board with distinction and dedication. It is not possible to record the names of all who made marked contributions to the Board's work, but tribute must be paid to two men who did much to mould and shape the life and work of this Board. These two men are, former secretary, Dr. Arthur Gowland, and the present secretary, the Rev. Wayne Smith. The growing concern and interest in evangelism and social action in our Church is due in no small measure to the untiring efforts of these two men with whom it has been a privilege to work.

This past year has witnessed an upsurge in the work of evangelism with both our present secretaries providing leadership in workshops in evangelism in congregations as well as in Presbyteries and Synods. Wherever help has been asked for the Board has sought to provide resource people to train our members in evangelism.

We present this final report of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action in the confident hope that the Sovereign Triune God who called us to preach the Gospel to every creature, will continue to use this Church to reach out to win men and women to a life of consecrated discipleship under our only King and Head, Jesus Christ.

KEY '73

By action of the Executive of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action on March 29, 1972 the Board of Evangelism and Social Action of The Presbyterian Church in Canada affiliated itself with Key '73. Key '73 is an attempt to mobilize all the resources of all the denominations and Christian groups in North America for a concerted effort in Evangelism for the year 1973. The emphasis must be at the congregational level because this is where evangelism must take place to be effective and lasting. Some 150 denominations and groups have banded together in this ecumenical effort with its focus upon sharing of the "Good News".

There has been some exposure through radio and television. The launch event which introduced Key '73 to the public through the showing of the film "Faith in Action" was well received. The problem was, however, that little publicity preceded the showing and thus many congregations missed it altogether.

In an effort to stimulate our congregations the Board has purchased not only "Faith in Action" but also "There's A New Wind Blowing" and made these available to our people. Wherever "There's A New Wind Blowing" has been shown, a new interest has been shown in the area of Evangelism and Social Action. The Key '73 filmstrip has been circulated widely through our conveners.

A difficulty was apparent from the beginning and it has continued to plague us throughout the year. Simply put it is this: where denominations have links with the U.S.A., resource materials have been no problem; where denominations have not had the benefit of that link, materials have been hard to come by. Our Board has had much catching up to do as a result. Through the co-operation of other denominational agencies, the Bible Society, and Presbyterian Publications, this is less a problem than it was a few months ago.

Many of our congregations have launched programmes of Evangelism as a result of Key '73. Some have introduced friendship visitation or the Coral Ridge outreach plan. Others have planned preaching missions under the Board's Evangelists-at-large programme. Still others have brought the various programmes now being undertaken in their communities within the fold of Key '73.

Two important results are already evident. First, Key '73 is acting as a catalyst in many areas of Canada to focus attention upon the subject of evangelism. This should augur well for the future, especially as we contemplate our Centennial Celebrations in 1975. Second, Key '73 is providing a vehicle for denominations to join hands for a concerted effort at sharing the gospel. This, too, gives hope for the years ahead, since this emphasis should not be limited to 1973 but should be looked upon as the ongoing work of the church.

THE CORAL RIDGE PROGRAM

Within The Presbyterian Church in Canada, the Coral Ridge Program of Lay Witness Training has been in effect for almost a year. Twenty-five ministers of our denomination took the course offered by Dr. James Kennedy in Toronto in June of 1971. Others came into the program through the influence of clinics or seminars conducted by those who attended the course or through contact with the Board of Evangelism and Social Action. Some ministers have started the training without recourse to the Board or to Dr. Kennedy. They have simply taken the manual, gathered a few people around them and begun to train.

What has happened? Probably the most encouraging results lie within the groups of people who have been trained. Quite apart from the numbers who have been reached for Jesus Christ it is significant to see members of Presbyterian Churches able to articulate their faith in a clear concise manner. One elder of long standing told how he was now able to express himself to his fellow school teachers. Another young woman told of being able to share her faith in very informal ways because she took the training. Again and again, folk have remarked about the warmth of fellowship they have enjoyed and the openness to the Holy Spirit's leading and enabling power. Coupled with all of this is the sheer joy and excitement one encounters in a group where the focus is upon visitation evangelism.

There is also a wholesome effect upon the congregations involved in the program. Where churches have stressed a follow-up procedure for nurturing the new believers in the fellowship, a freshness of life has manifested itself throughout the total church. Young converts, finding their way into small discussion and Bible study groups bring with them zeal and enthusiasm which acts as a stimulus to other Christians. One congregation is experiencing a modern revival through the use of the small group as a follow-up method to their outreach program in evangelism. This could well be the direction churches ought to examine as a means of shepherding those who have come to faith in Jesus Christ for the first time. There is no questioning the fact that many people are reluctant to associate themselves with a certain congregation or a certain denominational persuasion. It is through the support and encouragement of a small group that these folk are brought into the larger family of God and church membership.

Probably the greatest source of encouragement since the introduction of the Coral Ridge Program of Lay Witness Training has come from those congregations that are reporting increased numbers attending the worship services and an increased number of professions of faith. In a day of declining church membership and attendance at public worship, it is true to say that most churches involved in this kind of outreach are at least keeping a stable membership or are experiencing growth. Three churches particularly report steady increase in church membership. One congregation reported 31 new members and another 66 — in less than a year's activity in the program.

Some congregations are having difficulty with the program. Where problems have arisen, usually there has been an absence of adequate preparation and planning. Some ministers have distributed the manual "Evangelism Explosion" to their people without explaining that "Evangelism Explosion" is not a book to read and debate but a training manual. A reading of the manual may acquaint one with the program but what is really needed is to become involved in a whole training course. Others, in their enthusiasm to get something going have forced this emphasis upon their people as the only way to do the work of evangelism. This has had unfortunate results in some churches where a resentment has developed causing a division between those who feel they have "arrived" as Christians while others feel that they are "second class".

It is therefore necessary to stress that the Coral Ridge Program is not the only way of making one's witness felt. There are other choices available which are viable and effective and these should be stressed as live options to those who cannot find their way in such a program as this. It is also of paramount importance to underline the necessity of our churches being open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. There is a real need to allow for the divergence of the gifts of ministry within the fellowship. A spirit of love and understanding ought to prevail in order that the Holy Spirit may develop His varying gifts throughout the church.

EVANGELISTS-AT-LARGE

The Evangelists-at-large programme has been in effect for almost two years and the response from the Church to the plan has been most encouraging both from the point of view of the number of churches participating and the glowing testimonials as to what has been accomplished.

Six ministers of our church have been involved from the outset of the programme in conducting preaching missions that have taken them into nearly all the provinces, and an additional three men have recently joined them. These nine evangelists-at-large are willing to accept invitations from sessions, presbyteries or ministerial groups to conduct preaching missions or other projects in evangelism. They are:

Rev. Donald Campbell, 1162 Portland Ave., Sherbrooke, Quebec
 Rev. Robert A. Crooks, 4 Bayview Rd., Parry Sound, Ontario
 Rev. Dr. Mariano DiGangi, 33 Grangemill Cres., Don Mills, Ont.
 Rev. Dr. Wm. Fitch, 8 Glen Arthur Dr., Toronto, Ont.
 Rev. Robert Little, 278 Fifth St., Midland, Ontario
 Rev. Gordon Matheson, Box 98, Tatamagouche, N.S.
 Rev. Dr. Max Putnam, 146 Clergy St., Kingston, Ont.
 Rev. Dr. Ian Rennie, 577 West 27th Ave., Vancouver, B.C.
 Rev. Dr. Walter Welch, 1579 Royal York Rd., Toronto, Ont.

RADIO AND TV MINISTRIES

The committee on Evangelism has been active in radio and television over this past year. Two broadcasts were prepared for C.F.R.B., Toronto. The first dealt with Explo '72 and its implications for our church with particular emphasis upon youth. The second broadcast concerned the place of the Christian man in the business and political world, and a Presbyterian Men's chorus was featured. In the main the broadcasts were well received.

In the area of television, a break-through has occurred. Under the joint sponsorship of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action and Scripture Union of Canada, a children's television series "Nuts 'n Bolts n' Things" is being produced for Cable T.V. Thirteen 30 minute programs will comprise the series which will be made available across our Church for local presentation. The National Development Fund has provided $10,000 for the production of the series.

OVERTURE 28/72 RE: MARRIAGE GUIDELINES

This overture referred to several problems which arise when people who are not Christian and do not participate in the community of Christ's Body request to be married by a minister of our church. The prayer of the overture asked for three things which are here reported upon separately:

I. Study of present ministerial practices in regard to performing marriages

About fifty ministers responded to a questionnaire which was sent out on this subject and many of the replies indicated that the issue is one of great interest and concern to our ministers. Here are the questions and a sample of the answers.

(a) "Should a minister refuse to marry any couple who come to him and if so on what grounds?"

Eighty percent answered in the affirmative. A few restricted the grounds for any refusal to the legal impediments of bigamy, impairment or the lack of parental consent in cases of minors. There was a wide range of other conditions under which ministers claimed that they would not officiate. Heading the list at about thirty percent of the replies was the denial of the Christian faith by the couple and evidence that their lives and values are incompatible with the vows in the Christian marriage service. A similar number listed lack of understanding of what marriage involves or immaturity of the applicants or where the marriage seemed to have poor prospects of success.

Other ministers stated that they would refuse to marry a couple where the church or its ministry were being used merely as conveniences and where there is insincerity or hypocrisy toward the meaning of the Christian marriage service. About fifteen percent mentioned a refusal to accept counselling, or those who give too short notice or who are not known to the minister. Several others mentioned the unequal yoke of Christians and non-Christians, immorality, a lack of commitment to marriage as a life long relationship, divorce by one of the parties and duress as additional grounds for refusal.

Several ministers — about eight percent — regarded it as their duty to marry all applicants either in order to demonstrate Christian tolerance or because they regard themselves as servants of society and the community. When non-Christians apply to these ministers, they use a civil form of marriage.

The tenor of the replies would indicate that most ministers shun the role of "marrying Sams" and tend to avoid giving the impression that they will automatically marry all comers. On the other hand, most refrain from automatically declining their services to non-members and strangers. Most seem prepared to counsel with applicants (a few stated that they regard these as good opportunities for evangelism and help) and reserve the right to refuse if the situation is unsatisfactory.

(b) "Should a minister depart from using a religious form of marriage service and substitute some other ceremony and if so on what grounds?"

About twenty percent of the respondents believe there are occasions when it would be proper for a minister to use a civil form of marriage conducted elsewhere than in the church; most of these would resort to this method only after counselling the couple and reaching the conclusion that it would be hypocritical on their part to have a Christian service.

Forty percent replied that they are prepared to modify the service set forth in the Book of Common Order so long as it remains a Christian service. The remaining replies were either a flat "no" to the question or indicated close adherence to the service in the Book of Common Order.

In stating why they would not use a civil or secular form of service, representatives of the majority view said, "the minister while performing a function on behalf of the state, is primarily a servant of God." "He is not a minister because the government has licensed him; he has been licensed because he is a minister. In other words, his license is set in the context of his ministry." "His civil role is conferred in virtue of his appointment as a leader of religious community and should only be exercised in a way consistent with the faith of that community."

Some are in favour of encouraging the civil magistrate to improve the facilities for civil marriages to overcome the hypocrisy of non-Christians who now seek a religious ceremony: "The government ought to provide more flexible arrangements than those available at present."

(c) "Should a Presbyterian minister participate in a marriage ceremony with a clergyman of another faith, and if so under what conditions?"

This question was answered in the affirmative by about eighty percent of the respondents, but many mentioned reservations. Many of these would restrict themselves to participation with other Christian clergymen, and a few said they would not participate with a Roman Catholic.

II. The Overture asked in the second place for a "positional statement on the meaning of Christian marriage service."

The 98th General Assembly approved "A Statement on Marriage and Divorce" (A & P 1972 pages 293-296) as a study document, and this Board is of the view that it is relevant to the present discussions. However, there are certain issues which are mentioned in the overture and in the replies to the questionnaire which are of great interest to many ministers and which this General Assembly may wish to explore. We are therefore presenting a recommendation for a joint exploration of several of these items with the committee on Church Doctrine.

III. "To suggest guidelines to bring about a more consistent practice throughout the church."

In order to discover whether there was some general desire for these marriage guidelines as suggested by the overture, the questionnaire asked, "Should the courts of the church lay down guidelines on any of the above matters?" About sixty percent of the respondents replied yes. However, there was a variety of views whether these guidelines should be set by General Assembly, the presbytery or — in one or two cases — the sessions. There was also a division between those who favour regulations that should be enforced and those who favoured suggestions for the minister to follow according to his conscience. Some regard guidelines as particularly helpful for younger ministers or to overcome the difficulty of inconsistency in the practices of ministers in the same presbytery.

Should our recommendations be adopted, the continuing study of this matter could include the consideration of standardizing the response of ministers to requests for marriage by divorcees, inter-faith couples and non-church members. (Recommendation 1)

A THEOLOGY OF ECOLOGY

The Biblical injunction that man should "subdue the earth and rule over . . . every living thing" (Gen. 1:28) is receiving much blame these days for the rape of the environment.

It is proposed here to examine the meaning of this injunction as it appears above, and in Ps. 8: "What is man that thou shouldst remember him. . . . Thou makest him master over all thy creatures; thou hast put everything under his feet."

Let us look first at the immediate context of these passages. The immediately preceding verse in Ps. 8 says "Thou hast made him little less than a god (literally 'a little less than God') crowning him with glory and honour." In other words, the statement about man's mastery in nature is linked directly to his uniquely divine origin and nature.

Interestingly this is paralleled in the Genesis passage in which the verse immediately ahead of the passage quoted above states "So God created man in his own image; in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them."

It is surely no accident that the two explicit passages about man's dominion in nature follow on statements of his unique God-like nature. So it is not a merely human or natural dominion over nature that mankind is commissioned to exercise. Rather it participates in the rule and dominion of the Creator after whom man is patterned. God's redemptive and creative rule over us, therefore must define man's dominion in nature. God's creative activity cannot be separated from his redemptive activity. Just as man may share in the latter, so he is called upon to share in the former. The image of the Creator God in man means that man's dominion must be creative.

The picture is that of man being the creative intelligence of nature with responsibility for its well being. Unfortunately, of course, the image of God in man is badly distorted because of sin. Another kind of dominion, which is a perversion of man's true role, is prevalent in the world. It is a destructive dominion which uses nature for short and long term benefits to man, but with no regard for the wellbeing of nature of which man is a part. The commission of God to man requires a patient, up-building, gentle and creative attitude to nature. But greed has produced an impatient, tearing-down, violent, destructive attitude to nature. Ralph Nader in his introduction to Ecotactics makes the point that the violence done by industry through pollution and destruction of nature is greater than the violence on the streets of the U.S.A. (1969).

A violent dominion over nature would be appropriate if man were only a creature of nature, just as it is appropriate for one species of animal to prey indiscriminately on others without rational concern for the overall effects. It is the prevalence of this low and skeptical view of man which has within it the seeds of the destruction of nature and man. If the Church does not declare to the world with authority that man's nature demands a creative role and rule in nature, no one else can. God's purpose in creating man includes the care of the environment, and is thus part of the gospel of hope for all creation. Salvation should be seen in its full cosmic context. Man's failure in this realm is so widely recognized today, it is not difficult to believe that he has fallen from his original purpose, and is in fact not fulfilling his destiny because he is not free, in rebellion against God, and wanting no part of Him or His plans.

The church must relate man's redemption through Christ to the redemption of all creation, as does St. Paul in Romans 8:19-21.

For, the created universe waits with eager expectation for God's sons to be revealed. It was made the victim of frustration, not by its own choice, but because of him who made it so; yet always there was hope, because the universe itself is to be freed from the shackles of mortality and enter upon the liberty and splendour of the children of God.

Freed from the need for violence, man can recover his divine role in nature. Obviously the church must show the way.

There is an interesting parallel in the New Testament to what has been said above about the Old Testament doctrine of man's relation to nature. It is the nature of Christian love. Jesus is quoted in John 15:12 "This is my commandment: love one another, as I have loved you." Jesus is differentiating the kind of love we ought to have from other kinds of love. Consider our love of machines — the perfect slaves. We taste unrestrained power over machines every day, and when they have served us we cast them aside. This attitude spills over into our attitude to people. We love people for our sakes, and expect them to serve our needs. But Jesus defined a unique unnatural love — his kind, that does not feed on the beloved, that loves for the sake of the other, to build the other up. It is a creative sacrificing love, as opposed to a destructive, self-serving love.

Have we concentrated in the Church on interpersonal relationships and neglected to see that our attitude to people must be part and parcel of our attitude to all living things? Our mandate of dominion is a mandate of caring. When this is a living issue in the church, only then can it become the ecological imperative the uneasy world is looking for.

The context of man's role in nature as alluded to earlier is the biblical doctrine of creation. The Creation narrative in Genesis is the beginning of the story of redemption. Chaos with its pictorial representation as "the deep" is a symbol of evil in the Scriptures (see especially the symbolism in Jonah, the story of Jesus walking on water, stilling the storm, and the vision in Revelation of the new heaven and the new earth in which "there was no longer any sea").

The appearance of dry land was order coming out of chaos and it was very good in God's eyes. Man's creative role in nature is to continue this process of bringing order out of chaos. Where the ecology of a geographical region, or of a backyard plot has been destroyed, a healthy balance of nature can again be achieved, for the benefit of nature and man. Selective breeding of domestic animals and hybrid crops are other forms of this creative, redemptive activity.

As mentioned above, Christian love is part of the same activity. It can exercise the forces of chaos in a human life and bring the salvation of order and peace.

Let us examine some of the reasons the cosmic dimension of redemption has not been clearly proclaimed by the church. First is the persistence of a sub-Christian kind of apocalypticism which attracts many Christians. Jewish apocalypticism was centred on past and future divine interventions, which conveniently lifted responsibility for the world in the present. Even today there are Christians who are prepared to write off history in the interests of a future ethereal salvation.

This non-historical kind of Christianity has been aided and abetted by a philosophy in some ways opposite to apocalypticism. Existentialism emphasizes the present at the expense of the past and future — and so-called Christian Existentialism can contribute to a general down-grading of the Church's concern for history and where it is going.

Then again the notion of many theologians that 19th century biblical criticism destroyed the historical basis of Christianity led to many 20th century attempts to place it on some other basis, eg., values, ideas, correct theology, apocalypticism, existentialism, or religious experientialism depending on one's inclination. But Christianity can have no other basis than a historical basis. Surely the incarnation means this at least.

The New Testament Christians had cause to write off history since they expected the imminent return of Christ and the end of history. But they did not. Jesus discouraged that kind of thinking by saying "First you must witness to me to . . . the uttermost parts of the earth." Paul's eschatology allows for the fullness of the gentiles being brought into Christ's fold before the end. It was the urgency of the World Mission of the Church which kept the door open to history in the New Testament. The Word Mission of the Church lies along the path to the Parousia.

To understand Christianity as primarily a historical religion (uniquely so among the world's religions) means that we recognize the world of cause and effect. Past, present, and future are all taken seriously. History had a beginning and will have an end, hence the urgency of our mission.

The New Testament does not hesitate to link Jesus Christ to God's creative activity as part of his redemptive activity.

"He is the image of the invisible God; his is the primacy over all created things. In him everything in heaven and on earth was created, not only things visible, but also the invisible orders of thrones, sovereignties, authorities, and powers; the whole universe has been created through him and for him. And he exists before everything, and all things are held together in him. He is moreover, the head of the body, the church. He is its origin, the first to return from the dead, to be in all things alone supreme. For in him the complete being of God, by God's own choice, came to dwell. Through him God chose to reconcile the whole universe to himself, making peace through the shedding of his blood upon the cross — to reconcile all things, whether on earth or in heaven, through him alone." Col. 1:15-20.

Conversion through Jesus Christ must include conversion of our attitude to our total environment. Love for our brethren must concern itself with concern for their environment. Whatsoever mankind sows ecologically that will he also reap. Our Mission is nothing less than the restoration and redemption of all creation.

Policy Statement

The 99th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada affirms:

1. Christians are free in Christ but have frequently misused their freedom. As a rule they have not proved to be much different from their non-Christian neighbours in being too ready to claim their right to as high a standard of living as their money will buy and too little prepared to be good stewards of the earth. Christians have the responsibility to witness to the world their devotion to the creator and their respect for his creation because

a) "Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet" is not license today to do what we like with nature with no thought of the morrow.

b) "Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth and subdue it" was a necessary command when the world was underpopulated. In today's world it is not a license for unrestrained procreation.

c) "Have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth" is not a license to destroy wildlife or insatiably consume the earth's resources.

2. That technology can and should be harnessed to conserve the environment, but can not be relied upon to do so by itself because:

a) technology's solutions to problems can initiate fresh problems for man and his environment.

b) technology of itself can never bring about social justice or the redemption of mankind and creation to which Romans 8 witnesses.

c) the prevention of environmental calamity depends upon man's rule altered by the grace of God, and transformation of his values and priorities.

3. That Christians should stand with all people of good will in conserving the environment and therefore this General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada supports the declaration on the Human Environment passed at the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment at Stockholm in June, 1972, the twenty-six principles recited in the Declaration, and the recommendations set out in the Action Plan approved by this conference.

The General Assembly further supports and endorses the following principles which were stated in THE STATEMENT OF THE NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS TO THE PLENARY SESSION OF THE UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON THE HUMAN ENVIRONMENT, JUNE 12, 1972.

"We accept the principle that our Planet's resources are limited, that its life support systems are vulnerable, that the combined effect of modern technology, consumption, and population growth can place our whole planetary life at risk.

"We accept the need for economic systems which do not exceed renewable resources and the carrying capacity of the environment. We accept social systems which are based upon the fair and equal sharing of material goods and of services and upon the pursuits of exponential growth where it alone is possible — in the goods of the mind and spirit. We accept political systems which see the Planet itself as a centre of loyalty and renounce racial and political oppression, economic exploitation and the final environmental insult of war.

"We believe that the Stockholm Conference marks the beginning of a new international understanding of our planetary life. Men have thought of the Planet as a place with unlimited resources to exploit, unlimited energies to manipulate, unlimited lands to develop and settle, and unlimited air and water to cleanse the world of the wastes produced by man. Now we realize that not one of these propositions is true. So great has been the technological thrust of our science and energy, so rapacious our consumption of non-renewable resources, so rapid our growth in numbers, so heavy the load we place on our life-supporting systems that we begin to perceive the finite qualities of the biosphere of soil, air and water which make up the environment of all living things in our planetary home.

"This is a revolution in thought fully comparable to the Copernican revolution by which, four centuries ago, men were compelled to revise their whole sense of the Earth's place in the Cosmos. Today we are challenged to recognize as great a change in our concept of man's place in the biosphere. Our survival in a world that continues to be worth inhabiting depends upon translating this new perception into relevant principles and concrete action.

"The following principles seem to us to flow from our new perception of the vulnerability of Planet Earth:

1. "The main focus of the master force of the modern world — science and its applications in technology — must be shifted to a new and sensitive appreciation of the delicate interdependences between all forms of planetary existence and to scientifically sound management of the habitats and ecosystems upon which all life depends.

2. "We must accept new economic perspectives. Developed economies which have tended increasingly to stress the highest production and consumption of material goods as the chief index of prosperity, must be redirected towards a more careful recycling of materials, use of energy and disposal of wastes and towards a greater emphasis on non-material satisfactions — services, recreation, art, knowledge, civic amenity and, above all, altruism in the pursuit of the common good. At the same time the fundamental material needs of developing lands must take priority over high consumption standards in developed economies and physical consumption in the world economy must come to be in balance with the environmental carrying capacity. Exponential growth is possible only in the realm of the mind and spirit. Equally, by means conforming to differing cultures, traditions and levels of population pressure, the world's peoples need to accept the aim of achieving levels of population which do not surpass the dependable productivity of natural resources.

3. "Such a balance can be achieved only if we face honestly the problem of social justice and redistribution. Since endless economic growth for rapidly rising populations is not conceivable, resources which are basically limited have to be submitted to some principle of sharing and quality. In the Planet at large, it is unacceptable that the third of the people who are technologically developed should continue to command three-quarters of the world's wealth. It is equally unacceptable within each society that a rich minority should enjoy a very large percentage of the society's material resources.

4. "In our political systems, inescapable interdependence in our shared biosphere has to be matched by a new dimension of planetary loyalty. Nations, races and cultures give the world its much-prized richness and diversity. But they can no longer be sources of aggression and destructive competition. We pledge ourselves to the support and improvement of the international institutions already established in the United Nations system. We look to further development of powerful and representative institutions to express our common political life at the regional and global levels. We reject all forms of racial oppression or political enslavement. Above all, we see in war the ultimate misuse of science, the baleful destroyer of all economic and social benefit and final betrayal of our common humanity."

The General Assembly commits itself and endorses that all Canadians spiritually commit themselves to the acceptance of the principles set out in the final paragraph of the N.G.O. Statement as follows:

"WE PLEDGE ourselves, in our work, our loyalties, our contacts and our styles of life, to try to live as citizens of a loved yet endangered Planet and to share our common heritage with respect for all living things and in justice and amity with the people of Planet Earth."

The General Assembly recognizes that Canada has long enjoyed the use and consumption of a disproportionate share of material and energy resources. We recognize this cannot much longer be continued and that the Canadian society must move with reasonable speed towards the stabilization of its consumption of these resources. In so doing, we endorse the principle that there must be an equitable distribution for consumption of these resources, within the Canadian society. The production or processing of these resources for consumption must also reflect equity in the employment of Canada's work force. We must further acknowledge Canada's continuing responsibility to contribute to international development funds so that people in the under-developed parts of the world may start to enjoy an advancing standard of living.

The General Assembly favours the development of a plan setting out the specific issues Canadian society has and their conservation, and the relationship of resource management to population and the environment. (Recommendation 2).

POVERTY AND DEVELOPMENT

The Meaning of Poverty

Poverty means different things to different people. To the poor it is their familiar way of life. To the affluent it is a troublesome word to which one may respond sympathetically or with a shrug of the shoulders. Jesus' comment, "You always have the poor with you" will be regarded either as an inevitable fact about which little can be done or a constant summons to action.

We believe the church is called to combat poverty, noting that our Lord's words were uttered in the home of a cured leper and follow hard upon his teaching in Matthew 25: 31-46.

Poverty has to be experienced to be understood. It is a destructive condition — financially to be sure, but also in terms of self-worth, physical, mental and emotional health, and attended all too often by one of the most dreadful conditions of all, hopelessness. Lack of money, then, is the most dramatic symptom of poverty and quickly leads to these other manifestations. The economically poor soon become locked into systems which neglect and impoverish them by providing inadequate education, stores, and public service.

There are other less evident forces of poverty, working more slowly but just as surely, in the lives of many people who are not badly off financially. Rapid social change, high mobility, and the tensions, pressures and alienations of our world tend to impoverish the lives of individuals and families. There is an impoverishment of the spirit which affects the person of modest means and the prosperous alike. It comes from a lack of proper sense of values and the emptiness of meaning, and so it is a spiritual, a theological problem.

Its only solution is conversion — a turning away from selfishness and idolry and a turning to Jesus Christ of whom it is written, "for you know the Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich" (II Corinthians 8:9). Here is the point of intersection between evangelism and social action, where we are called upon to call people from their poverty of spirit to the riches of Christ, and to work for the release of all people from those external powers that bind them. "Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'" (John 11:44)

Economic Transfer

We return to our consideration of financial poverty, that condition which so often triggers or worsens other ills to which we have referred.

The Task Force on Poverty which was set up by order of the 97th General Assembly with representatives from the Boards of Evangelism and Social Action, Christian Education, Stewardship and Budget and World Mission has given consideration to the matter of economic transfer. Economic transfer is a problem which can be phrased in the form of the question, how can money, and the goods and services it can purchase, be distributed so as to improve the lot of the poor members of society?

The task force on poverty feels it would be easy to make a serious mistake at this point. The usual way of prescribing an antidote for poverty is to provide more money and more consumer goods. But we may be now entering an era when all of us should be eating and consuming less for our own good and for the sake of the environment. It may be that the style of life now lived by the poor people in our society resembles the pattern the rest of us may be compelled to follow in the future. In fact, leisure is a way of life which may be forced upon many more people as time goes on. Unfortunately, most people do not know how to handle leisure; they seldom have the financial resources to tide them over until they can find other means of supporting themselves. Nor do many people have the flexibility or capability to adapt themselves to other means of livelihood, particularly those that are held in generally low esteem.

We believe that society should begin to recognize as legitimate vocations certain types of work that at the moment do not produce wages and salaries. Among these is the role of the housewife or the volunteer person who works with neighbourhood or community groups. The National Council of Welfare in an article on "Guaranteed Incomes and Guaranteed Jobs", took this approach in its concluding paragraph:

"The National Council of Welfare believes that there is a great deal of work to be done in this Canadian society. It believes that the forms of activity of social benefit to communities should be defined by those communities. It believes that all should be enabled to contribute their views to the design of what is to be done and their skills to the doing of it. It believes that all should be remunerated for their contributions and that all should receive a sufficient share of the nation's collective wealth that none among us is forced to live as less than a full and equal member of the Canadian society. It believes that a program of guaranteed jobs based on the definition of community needs by communities themselves, together with a program of income guarantees can lead us to that end. The two programs are not alternates; rationally and equitably they are complements. Together they can ensure both income and opportunity for all."

Nonetheless, a guaranteed annual income is seen as an important factor in alleviating the acute financial inadequacy suffered by many people. The National Council of Welfare argues, "Some form of guaranteed income will still be required by those unable (whether for physical or psychological reasons) to engage in any form of work and those whose family or personal needs exceed their income from employment." We believe the guaranteed annual income is one necessary factor in economic transfer but it is by itself not a solution to poverty. In the first place, this may simply encourage the notion that a financial hand-out is the way to combat poverty. In the second place, it is not a good idea to encourage government to be cast in the role of the employer of the poor.

What is a Guaranteed Annual Income?

The purpose of a guaranteed annual income is, as the term indicates, an assured minimum income. Its purpose is to prevent any family's annual income from dropping below a determined level.

Various proposals have been offered for the best way to achieve a GAI programme, and some of these are listed in the "Croll Report" — the report of the special Senate committee on "Poverty in Canada". The first possibility, one which the Croll Committee rejected as impracticable, was by a reform and expansion of existing income maintenance programs. The second possibility is the so-called "demogrant" — a payment of flat-rate subsidies to all citizens meeting simple demographic criteria similar to those of existing programs like the Old Age Security and Family Allowance Plans. But this method would not guarantee that grants would go only to the people who really need them, many would obviously go to non-poor people.

The third method, which was favoured by the Croll Committee and recommended by them, is the negative income tax in which benefits are payable only to those in need as established by a simple declaration or statement of income.

Community Self-Development

The task force on poverty believes that the community self-development approach is an effective way to combat poverty. At the present time, low-income/self-help groups have sprung up across Canada. Some of these are short lived and some do not accurately reflect the needs and interests of the neighbourhood. The best of them, however, fulfil one or more of the purposes which in the estimation of the task force on poverty ought to govern the activity of these citizen-based organizations:

1. to stimulate public interest in the role of neighbourhood services and community problems.
2. to serve as spokesman for citizens and neighbourhood services on matters of national concern.
3. to serve as a medium for the exchange of information and ideas regarding local and international development.
4. to co-ordinate neighbourhood services and citizens' projects locally and nationally.
5. to encourage the development of neighbourhood services and citizens' projects with special emphasis on areas not being served by other agencies.

6. to sponsor leadership training courses for citizens enabling them to serve their communities more effectively.

Such groups as these could hold the key to economic transfer by informing the government how its money can be invested in the most effective ways and by enabling citizens and citizens' groups to use their resources in the most effective way. These councils bear a heavy responsibility: to understand and interpret the needs of the people in their neighbourhood and help the neighbourhood establish its own goals and objectives. If they are to gain the trust and respect of government and persuade government to allow them to make decisions affecting the life of their communities, they must have a clear statement of goals, have a strong base of support within the community itself and clear estimates of the number of people that will be helped by their projects.

A member of the task force says, "Citizens' groups are now emphasizing the need not for more money and goods but for a realistic understanding of the possible styles of life which can be achieved in their own neighbourhoods."

All this indicates a shift in attitude away from the bandaid approach to poverty of doling out money and charity to enabling the poor themselves to take shared responsibility for the use of the resources they have and shaping the future of their own communities.

The place of the Church

How is the church to respond to this recent trend toward community self-development? To those who are inclined to resist the trend because of human sins it must be said that governments, systems and structures that have traditionally determined the fate of the poor are also populated by sinful folk. To all people the church has a prophetic responsibility and further responsibilities of reconciliation and healing.

There are specific ways in which the church can minister in this new setting:

1. by mediating between the "principalities and powers" on the one hand and the poor on the other, interpreting each to the other.
2. by participation in the quest for social justice.
3. by shaping the attitudes of the church's own membership and society at large.
4. by recognizing and ministering to the spiritual and moral needs of the poor as well as their economic needs.
5. by informing the poor, the aged, the distressed how to obtain the financial assistance or social services they may require.
6. by helping citizen leaders to get the training that they require for their responsibilities.

Achievements in Poverty and Development:

The task force has received information about the work of several community councils and their achievements. They differ markedly from each other in projects undertaken and style of operation. Some are very closely linked with the churches and the clergy have some times taken the lead at least in the initial stages of their work. Most of them, however, see the importance of encouraging citizens in the neighbourhoods being served to take the responsibilities of leadership.

There is activity at other levels which should be reported. The Canadian Coalition for Development which was established following the Montreal conference on Poverty in 1968 is still surviving but has had difficulty in finding its way. It is desirable that our church continue to identify itself with the coalition in its attempt to become a useful agency.

An Ecumenical Funding Body is in the process of being established. Tentatively named "mustard seed" it will receive contributions from church denominations, the government of Canada and other donors and make these funds available to low-income, self-help groups. The directors of this fund will be composed of denominational representatives and representatives of the poor. A constitution and by-laws for the fund, including the criteria for the distribution of funds, are now being prepared.

The committee on Inter-Church Aid, Refugee and World Service of The Presbyterian Church in Canada is authorized to receive contributions for domestic poverty and development if they are earmarked for this purpose.

The future of the task force on Poverty

Since its inception in the fall of 1971, the task force on Poverty has achieved several things. It has helped in the preparation of a brief to the Administrative Council regarding the council's participation in the Ecumenical Funding Body. It has provided a forum of discussion for representatives of the four Boards and people from a successful community council, The Little Burgundy Community Council of Montreal. It has discussed the need for publicizing the activities of councils like Little Burgundy and for drawing attention to some of the poverty issues mentioned in this report, and has presented a recommendation to the Board of Evangelism and Social Action in this regard. It has attempted to follow its terms of reference as adopted by the Board of Evangelism and Social Action a year ago and has given thought to the tasks that should be undertaken in the future. To this end the following goals and objectives of the task force have been approved by the Board of Evangelism and Social Action.

Goal 1: A trained competent body of local leaders.

Objective 1: develop a model that will bring citizens into a comprehensive training program for neighbourhood councils, organizations and citizens' groups.

Objective 2: develop a story which will recruit wider church board support and participation on the task force.

Goal 2: A network of information/communication/resource within the Presbyterian Church in Canada on the subject of poverty/development.

Objective 1: set up a plan to recruit and implement national citizens' groups for reporting to a central body, on issues related to poverty in their sector of the country.

Objective 2: prepare a comprehensive plan in which publicity on poverty issues reaches the grass-roots of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Goal 3: A redefined set of terms of reference of the task force.

Objective 1: redefine the terms of reference of the task force in view of these imperatives.

Objective 2: set up internal structures, i.e. time line, planning schedule and duties of the committee re: these imperatives.

Objective 3: define terms of reference in relationship to proposed goals.

Goal 4: a strong, clear set of relationships with other bodies.

Objective 1: formulate plans to solicit funds from Inter-Church Aid, Refugee and World Service, the Ecumenical Funding Body, etc.

Objective 2: clarify and pursue our role in the Canadian Coalition for Development.

Objective 3: pressure National Funding Bodies re: our insights as to disbursement of monies to local citizens' groups. (Recommendation 3)

TRENDS IN PENAL REFORM

Many experiments are being undertaken in the field of correction. The whole emphasis is directed toward remedial ends.

Specifically, we would point to the following:

1. The Bail Reform Bill has enabled the accused to remain in employment until the date of summons.

2. The Criminal Records Act seals off the record of an ex-offender after five years without a conviction.

3. Legal Aid services have been developed for the defense of those who are unable to pay an attorney.

4. Correction and After Care Services are being improved.

5. A task force from the Solicitor General's Department is studying the program and designs of institutions and has come out in favour of smaller institutions orientated toward treatment.

6. Plans are being made for a larger number of half-way houses.

7. Ex-offenders are being employed in correctional agencies.

8. After-care agencies have continued to concern themselves with such matters as bonding, criminal records, services for offenders in the Northern Territories and employment services.

9. A temporary absence Program is being developed provincially and federally. In 99% of the cases, these have come to a successful conclusion.

10. A number of significant changes have been made in the penitentiary services including the abolition of censorship of mail to the Solicitor General, the Commissioner and Members of Parliament. Numbers have been abolished and changes made in prisoners' clothing, visiting regulations, etc.

11. The use of corporal punishment is practically abolished.

12. Better and more informed leadership in the correctional system is being arranged.

Altogether these reforms and modifications in the law support the position that none is beyond redemption and every effort should be made to assist those who have fallen to rise again. (Recommendation 6)

OVERTURE 3/72 RE: SENIOR CITIZENS' HOUSING

This overture from the Presbytery of Brandon was as follows:
"To the Venerable the 98th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, there is an ever increasing percentage of the population in Canada in what is generally considered as the Senior Citizen category, and

WHEREAS, there is an urgent need and a continuing demand for housing for the said Senior Citizens, and

WHEREAS, The Presbyterian Church in Canada has always had a concern for the well-being of all its citizens,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Brandon humbly overtures the Venerable, the General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada to expand our participation in the Senior Citizen Housing field, or to do otherwise for this object what to their wisdom may seem best."

The overture was referred to the Board of Evangelism and Social Action and a task force of the board set to work to ascertain the extent of the need for senior citizens' housing and the degree of involvement by the churches of Canada in meeting this need. A comprehensive report was prepared describing the situation and drawing the conclusion that, with a few notable exceptions, the presbyteries and congregations of our church have been much slower getting into this field than other churches. A large need remains to be met.

The full report is available from the board in mimeographed form at 25¢. (Recommendation 7)

THE CRY FOR JUSTICE

The following is a statement which argues the case for personal involvement in issues of social justice (local, national, international) as the logical outcome of one's experience of the Christian Faith.

1. Justice in the Old Testament

Even a casual reading of the Old Testament leaves one with the distinct impression that one of the immediate results of their experience of God was a great concern for justice, not only among people of faith, but between them and strangers. There are many such references one might quote. Perhaps to pick some of the more obvious at random will suffice for the present.

Jeremiah 7:5-7; Amos 8:4-6; Micah 6:8

2. The Ministry of Jesus and the New Testament Church

It is interesting to note that the word "justice" is not used once in the New Testament, although it appears many times in the Old Testament. Nevertheless, it is apparent that the cry for justice in the Old Testament is answered in new humanity of the New Testament; that in Jesus Christ men become doers of justice and lovers of mercy, and their concern was not just for their own immediate group, but for all men. Of course not everyone saw that justice was for all men, but the great weight of witness in the New Testament (not to mention the prophecies of the O.T.) is to claim that Christ came for all people, and that his people therefore, should be concerned for all.

In Matthew chapter 5 we find Jesus saying he came "not to destroy the law but to fulfil it." "Not one jot or one tittle shall in any way pass from the law until all be fulfilled." The law is summed up in loving God and one's fellow men. Matt. 22:37-40. The parable of the good Samaritan was given to be a commentary on "Who is my neighbour?" The "Great Commission", Matt. 28:18-20, is about as clear a declaration as any of the fact that the gospel and its benefits is intended for the whole world.

The history of the New Testament church makes it clear that they so understood the message and ministry of Jesus — that he came for all people and that he sent them to all people. Again, the quality of their life as recorded in the Acts of the Apostles indicates their concern for justice and mercy and fair play for all. Dishonesty and exploitation were dealt with as severely in those days as they were in the days of the Old Testament prophets. Acts 2:45; 5:1-11. Their new life in Christ was characterized by honesty, integrity and a loving concern for the welfare of their fellow human beings. They cared because they understood Christ cared.

3. The Thrust of the Reformed Faith

Historically, the Protestant Reformation brought people back to a concern for justice as the outcome of their faith. This concern had been almost forgotten during the Middle Ages. There was little connection between religious observance and moral conduct. But with the opening of the Scriptures to the common man and the proclamation of the gospel by the Reformers, a new day dawned. It was a day characterized by the zeal and concern of the Modern Missionary Movement, which sought to claim all men for Christ and his kingdom, and proclaimed truth and justice as the necessary outcome of faith in Christ. One only needs to recall how John Calvin's strong personality and fearless preaching brought about a new standard of morality in personal conduct and community life in Geneva.

4. The Present Scene and Some Examples of Personal or Congregational Involvement

Throughout the world today there is a cry for justice. Not only is it a cry from the impoverished and those who are discriminated against, but also a cry from thoughtful people the world over who know and believe that things should not be as they are. And it is not just Christians who thus cry out. Sometimes it is from those who make little or no profession of the Christian faith that the greatest protest against injustice is heard. Let us rejoice in their concern, but let those who call themselves Christians be no less fervent in our desire to see justice done in the earth. After all, it is the logical and practical result of an intelligent and well-reasoned faith in the living God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, that we should not rest while injustice remains to be overcome.

The nagging question is how can injustice be overcome? The wealthy nations are in control of the vast majority of the world's known resources. The necessary capital and the technology required for development are controlled by these nations. Some large corporations within wealthy nations open subsidiaries in under-developed countries in order to exploit cheap labour and to obtain raw materials at a lower cost. The result is the rich nations and their corporations become richer on the labour and resources of the poorer nations, and the poor nations remain poor and there is nothing their people can do about it.

Here are a few suggestions:

1. Plan to boycott products of companies whose labour policies are known to exploit cheap labour and discriminate against the poor of the Third World.
2. Write to representatives of governments at the appropriate level to commend legislation which aids developing countries or provides a better deal for the poor in our own country, and to condemn those policies which allow the poor to be exploited either by rich corporations or by greedy landlords.
3. Organize protest rallies (non-violent!) to draw public attention to injustice wherever it is found.
4. Hold public meetings which will expose unjust practices in the community or the nation.
5. Seek for the re-allocation of industrial capital and technological expansion so that developing countries may come to have the benefit of a fair share of the world's natural resources and industrial wealth.
6. Set personal standards of modesty and restraint in spending habits in order to ease the pressure on the demand for consumer goods, and in order to have more to give or invest in those areas of the economy which are actually helping the poor to help themselves. (Recommendation 10)

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Re: Overture 28/72: "Marriage Guidelines"
 - (a) That the Board of Evangelism and Social Action or its successor and the committee on Church Doctrine be directed to study the meaning of Christian marriage service, bearing in mind the following subjects: the obligation of a minister to officiate at the marriage of divorcees, inter-faith couples, non-church members, and non-Christians; the guidelines on marriage practices which it would be competent for General Assembly to enact.
 - (b) That in the interim this General Assembly recommends the following guidelines to the ministers of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.
 - (i) ministers are servants of the gospel of Jesus Christ and may refuse to officiate at a marriage if they consider there is good and sufficient reason,
 - (ii) The minister should counsel all those who apply to him for marriage as carefully as necessary, teaching them the meaning of Christian marriage service and vows, showing them the importance and blessing of Christian living, and helping them to develop a mature relationship.
 - (iii) A minister should not proceed to officiate at a marriage of persons who have been counselled by another minister without first consulting that minister, unless it is impossible to do so.
 - (c) That overture 28/72 re: Marriage Guidelines be granted in terms of the report.
2. Re: Ecology
 - (a) that the paper "A Theology of Ecology" be approved as a study document and commended to presbyteries and congregations throughout the church.
 - (b) That the General Assembly adopt the "Policy Statement" on Ecology.
 - (c) That the General Assembly encourage each congregation to initiate within its own community an environmental chapter which will examine the social and spiritual considerations to accommodate the kinds of change

- which must be brought about to provide a lasting legacy for succeeding generations.
- (d) That the General Assembly, aware of dangers to the environment and the quality of human life caused by over-population declares itself in favour of family planning in order to limit population growth in Canada and the rest of the world.
 - (e) That the General Assembly, aware of the dangers to the environment caused by pollution of air, water and land, and affirming that the earth is the Lord's and mankind its steward
 - (i) urge our people to take the steps that lie within their power individually and corporately to combat pollution even though such steps may be expensive in the short run, and
 - (ii) commend the Canadian Council of Resource and Environment Ministries, Environment Canada and the governments they represent in their quest for sound national energy and resource policies.
 - (f) That the General Assembly, aware of the dangers to the environment caused by extravagant productivity and consumerism in the affluent nations of the earth including Canada, urge our people to exercise restraint in their buying habits even though such a step may be disadvantageous to the economy in the short run, and encourage them to support policies and practices which further social justice and an improved standard of living among the poor of the earth.
3. Re: Poverty and Development
 - (a) That the General Assembly approve the participation of The Presbyterian Church in Canada in the ecumenical funding body for low-income/self-help groups.
 - (b) That the General Assembly inform the government of Canada that it is in favour of the establishment of a guaranteed annual income as a necessary component in the alleviation of poverty.
 - (c) That the General Assembly encourage sessions and congregations to give what assistance they can to low-income/self-help groups in their communities in accordance with the suggestions in the section of this report entitled "Place of the Church".
 4. Overture 5/73: "Re: Prohibiting Advertising of Alcoholic Beverages", — The Presbytery of Lindsay-Peterborough
That the prayer of the overture be granted.
 5. Re: Profanity and Exploitation of Sex and Violence in Television and Radio
 - (a) WHEREAS, the Criminal Code of Canada, section 150 reads in part as follows:
 "(1) Everyone commits an offence who (A) makes, permits, publishes, distributes, circulates, or has in his possession for the purpose of publication, distribution or circulation any obscene written matter, picture, model, phonograph or other thing whatsoever, or (B) . . . crime comic.
 "(8) For the purposes of this Act, any publication a dominant characteristic of which is the undue exploitation of sex, or of sex and any one or more of the following subjects; namely, crime, horror, cruelty, and violence, shall be deemed obscene," and
 WHEREAS, there is nonetheless a trend toward the increased use of profanity on Canadian radio and television, and
 WHEREAS, there is also a trend toward the exploitation of sex in the media, where sex is frequently an object of humour, and promiscuity, adultery and homosexuality are frequent themes.
 THEREFORE, the General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada calls upon the Canadian Radio and Television Commission and the Federal

- Minister of Communications to halt these trends, since they do not encourage the development of good quality of life and are distasteful to many Canadians.
- (b) That presbyteries and sessions be urged to encourage the establishment of groups to monitor the media and convey their criticisms and appreciations to the appropriate people in the television and radio industry, and their sponsors.
 - (c) That the Canadian Council of Churches and the Canadian Catholic Conference be informed of our action and they be asked to take similar steps if they have not done so in order to act in a concerted way.
6. Trends in Penal Reform
That the General Assembly adopt and communicate the following recommendation to the Solicitor-General of Canada and to the Minister of Justice:
 - (a) The most careful scrutiny should be made in cases of release by temporary absence, day parole and parole and those being considered for bail, so that the public safety is protected against the repetition of criminal activity and further that the state provide adequate compensation for the victims of violent crime or their survivors;
 - (b) and that the government of Canada impose much more strict regulations and control of firearms.
 7. Overture 3/72 re: Senior Citizen's Housing
 - (a) That item D6 of the Administrative Council's report to the 1969 General Assembly which reads as follows: "That the General Assembly authorize the investment of 25% of the liquid assets of The Presbyterian Church in Canada in residential mortgages and housing development, and that part of the NDF be so invested to whatever extent may be feasible," be reviewed by the finance committee of the Administrative Council with a view to its implementation, bearing in mind that despite the fact this will mean possibly reduced financial yield, this will be in line with the Church's mission to people to meet the needs of those in all financial situations.
 - (b) It is recommended that the General Assembly urge Presbyteries and Congregations to become more involved in housing projects for Senior Citizens, such as St. Andrew's Homes in Montreal, and take advantage of whatever government grants are available to finance these projects.
 - (c) It is recommended that the General Assembly urge Presbyteries and Congregations to co-operate with other churches in local and regional Senior Citizen's Housing projects.
 - (d) That where Senior Citizen's Housing already exists congregations and/or clusters of congregations be encouraged to provide a ministry to the social and spiritual needs of residents by arranging bus tours and other recreational events, and by making available cassette tapes of worship services, devotional programs and denominational services that residents may have opportunity to share in worship services of their choice.
 - (e) That overture 3, 1972 be granted in terms of the above report.
 8. Re: Grey Cup Game on Sunday
 WHEREAS, Grey Cup Day is a notable national event which attracts a great deal of attention and interest all across Canada and,
 WHEREAS, the game is frequently played in the eastern part of the country and because of the difference in time zones across Canada, conflicts with the regular hours of worship in the western provinces and,
 WHEREAS, a great many people are required to provide essential services in the city where the Grey Cup Game is being played (e.g. police, transportation, restaurants, hotels), and this has the effect of depriving them of the opportunity of attending public worship on that day,

It is therefore recommended that the General Assembly request the Canadian Football League to arrange for the Grey Cup Game to be played on a day other than Sunday, and that copies of this request be sent to the Lord's Day Alliance and the Canadian Council of Churches for their information.

9. Overture 4/73: "Re: Abortion" — the Presbytery of Temiskaming
We recommend that the prayer of the overture be not granted by the General Assembly because the stand of the 93rd General Assembly (1967) regarding abortion is as follows: "To make therapeutic abortion lawful when the continuance of a pregnancy endangers the mother's life or is likely seriously to impair her physical or mental health, when authorized by a panel of qualified medical authorities" while the position of the Alliance for Life is totally anti-abortion.
10. "The Cry for Justice"
That the article "The Cry for Justice" be approved and commended to presbyteries and congregations for study and action.
11. Overture 18/73: Re: "Wine at General Assembly Sacraments" — the Presbytery of Cape Breton
That the prayer of the overture be granted.

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF PRESBYTERIAN MEN

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

1972 has been a year of analysis in the Men's Movement as we have considered where the Spirit is leading us to go. To seek this guidance, a committee on "The Future Shape of Men's Work in the Church" was appointed and many of their recommendations have been implemented.

Consideration of our relationship to the new Board of Congregational Life has absorbed a considerable amount of our attention. A copy of our report on the Future Shape of Men's Work was given to the members of that Board. It is the firm conviction of the National Committee of Presbyterian Men that there is a continuing need for a strong special ministry required to reach men for Jesus Christ.

"Key 73"

The emphasis of "Calling our Continent to Christ", which is the theme of "Key 73", has been incorporated in all our efforts for outreach. This will be given expression in our conference, breakfast and training programs in 1973.

Training for Lay Witness

The Directors have promoted the involvement of the men in the Coral Ridge Program for Lay Witness at every opportunity as one means of implementing "Key 73". Two audio-visual resources for training in the Coral Ridge program are a series of four cassette tapes entitled Kennedy Cassettes on Lay Evangelism and four training films on Lay Witnessing by Dr. James Kennedy. Arrangements were made whereby the distributors, Gospel Films, would extend a 20% discount to Presbyterian congregations using these films. A special promotional folder was produced by the committee and mailed to all congregations.

Radio

The committee was given the opportunity of providing material for two 20-minute radio programs on Station CFRB Toronto. This was done in collaboration with the secretaries of E&SA and was recorded by the Communications Consultant of our church. The first was an interview with two young people who had attended the Explo 72 Rally at Dallas, Texas, and one who had participated in a Canadian Youth Evangelism project in Eastern Canada. The second program featured the newly formed Presbyterian Men's Chorus and interviews with three laymen on the subject of relating their faith to their particular vocations as Banker, Traffic Manager and Mayor of a Municipality. It is our hope that further programs can be produced featuring the men's chorus and special speakers, which can be sponsored by local groups for broadcast in their own areas.

National Conferences

The 1972 Conferences were again a highlight of the year's activity among men. The theme "Restless Youth — Seeking a Faith" was well received at Truro, where Dr. Mariano DiGangi was the speaker; at Ottawa and London, where the team of Rev. Paul Scott, Dr. Dillwyn Evans, Mr. Doug Stephens and Mr. Doug Johns dealt with the subject. They were supported by the Youth Ensemble of St. Andrew's Church, Islington, and a musical group at Ottawa. The Banff Conference was a family affair and was led by Rev. and Mrs. Dennis Clark, Rev. Harold Morris and Mr. Peter Russell. Young people took a prominent part in the discussion. The participation of ladies as well as men and youth, has been a feature of the Banff Conference for several years and a growing number has attended. Nearly half of those attending were ladies at the 1972 conference.

In view of the experience at the Western Conferences, the committee decided at its annual meeting in November, to include men, women and youth in the 1973 Central Conferences. It was not considered advisable to include other than men at the Eastern Canada Conference. The theme chosen is "Power for Life". Rev. Donald Campbell of Sherbrooke, Que. will be the speaker at Truro, N.S., May 4, 5 and 6. Rev. Dr. Edward McKinlay will be the speaker at London, May 11 and 12, at Ottawa, May 25 and 26, also at Banff, September 28, 29 and 30.

Appraisal of Training Material

As reported last year, the committee participated with the Board of E&SA in the engagement of Robert Kendall to make an appraisal of our training materials. The members have been asked to comment both on the report which we received concerning our material and the proposal for a "Men in Mission" plan. These comments are being studied by our sub-executive with a view to making a recommendation at the next annual meeting of the full committee.

Field Work

The Directors met with the Men's Work Committees in every Synod throughout the year to discuss local plans and encourage outreach to other men through conferences, rallies, breakfast and dinner meetings. They also encouraged participation in training opportunities for lay witness and discussion leadership. A two-day Church Office-Bearers' Seminar was held in June at Ewart College in which 24 laymen and ministers in the central area participated. Mr. Richard Brown, Secretary for Officer Development in the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. was the guest speaker. As a follow-up to this, Eldership Training Tape Recordings are being prepared for local use.

Committee Structure

It was decided at our annual meeting that the membership on the committee should be on a 3-year basis. Six new members have been named to the committee replacing members who have retired. The need was felt to have a closer relationship with the other program boards of the church and so we have included the secretaries on the sub-executive as voting members instead of by correspondence. For the second time since the committee was formed in 1956, the National Chairman has been chosen to be the Chairman of the Administrative Council of our church. It is a source of satisfaction that these outstanding laymen, Mr. Wm. B. Cross and Mr. Frank J. Whilsmith have been selected for such a responsible position in our church. In seeking a new chairman the committee after much prayerful consideration was led to nominate the youngest member of our committee, Mr. Douglas A. Stephens.

For the past several years the committee has been emphasizing our responsibility to reach the young men of our church and we rejoice in the fact that we have a young man to carry on the leadership and build on the foundation which has been laid.

The following is the present membership:

Honourary Chairman	W. B. Cross, Nobleton, Ont.
Chairman	Douglas A. Stephens, Willowdale, Ont.
Synod of Atlantic Provinces	Hubert C. Archibald, Moncton, N.B.
Synod of Montreal-Ottawa	Rodger Hooper, Ottawa, Ont.
	Douglas MacCready, Deep River, Ont.
Synod of Toronto-Kingston	Chuck Congram, Belle River, Ont.
	J. Clarke Moon, Etobicoke, Ont.
	Bruce B. Upshall, Scarborough, Ont.
Synod of Hamilton-London	H. Penman Smith, Burlington, Ont.
	Ted Smith, London, Ont.
	George W. Stutt, Dundas, Ont.
	James G. Laing (Member at Large)
Synod of Manitoba & N.W. Ontario	Dr. John D. Mundie, Winnipeg, Man.
Synod of Saskatchewan	Llew Codling, Saskatoon, Sask.
Synod of Alberta	Walter E. Buchan, Calgary, Alta.
Synod of British Columbia	Henry Romain, North Vancouver, B.C.
Board of E&SA	Chairman and Secretaries
Board of Christian Education	Rev. Dr. Albert Bailey
Board of Stewardship & Budget	Rev. James W. Hutchison, Streetsville, Ont.
Board of World Mission	Rev. George Malcolm

Members of Correspondence — Synod E&SA Conveners; Synod Men's Work Committee Chairmen; Representatives of The Presbyterian Record; Audio-Visual Committee; Secretary of the Administrative Council.

Staff Members — Director — Roy A. Hamilton; Assistant — George Fernie; Office Secretary — Herman R. McLean.

Special Conference Account

Balance as of December 31, 1972, $1,027.34. This has been audited and a copy of the audit has been presented to the Comptroller.

Laity Sunday

As approved by the General Assembly, October 15, 1972, was observed as Laity Sunday in many congregations across the church. Many others have held Laity Sundays at times more convenient to their needs. Material on the theme was prepared by a special committee based on the theme "Restless People — Seeking a Faith." Tape recordings of the addresses given at the conferences were also made available for use in study groups and at Laity Sunday observances.

Appointment of Assistant Director

Very few replies were received from Presbyteries in answer to our request for nominations for the position of Assistant Director. In view of the uncertainty regarding the relationship of the National Committee of Presbyterian Men to the new Board of Congregational Life, it was decided to ask Mr. George Fernie to continue as Assistant Director until the matter has been clarified. In the meantime, the committee is considering several men regarding the position and we are continuing our search for a suitable man. It is considered important that such an appointment be made as early as possible in preparation for the retirement of the Director in March 1974.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. As Men's Work is involved in all of the emphases of the Board of Congregational Life, the National Committee of Presbyterian Men recommends that it remain as a distinctive committee relating to all phases of the Board of Congregational Life through the General Secretary.

2. That Laity Sunday be observed October 21st or some other Sunday if this date conflicts with local plans and that the theme be "Power for Life".
3. That Presbyteries and Sessions stress the need for continuing the emphasis on the training for Lay Witness.
4. That Presbyteries and congregations be urged to use the resources of the National Committee of Presbyterian Men to assist in developing leadership in the areas of evangelism and social action.

DOUGLAS A. STEPHENS,
Chairman.

ROY A. HAMILTON,
Director.

THE PRESBYTERIAN RECORD

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

At a time when many publications are struggling to exist, The Record is pleased to report another increase in circulation. The number of paid subscribers stood at 88,634 on March 31, an increase of 439 over the same date last year.

However most of the increase in recent years has been through the Every Home Plan, which is offered at one dollar per subscription. The steady rise in production printing and paper costs means that a one dollar subscription must be subsidized. It costs $1.11½ to produce and mail The Record to each subscriber for the year, and another 10¢ to place his name on the computerized mailing list.

So The Record has financial problems, despite the fact that staff has been reduced and every means of economy explored. For example, to combat the higher cost of paper we have been using a lighter weight of stock in The Record since February of this year.

The Assembly's Committee on The Presbyterian Record has debated the possibility of increasing subscription rates, but we know from experience that such a move would result in fewer subscribers, particularly on the Every Home Plan. The alternative is a larger allocation from budget funds, and we have appealed to the Administrative Council to provide this in 1974 so that The Record may continue to reach the majority of Presbyterian homes.

We were pleased to receive suggestions re content from three of the Synods in 1972, and we are always open to suggestions and comment from our readers. Your committee devoted much of its annual meeting to a discussion of the magazine, and suggestions were made which will be followed through. For example, we have invited an eminent Canadian to write on national and international affairs from a Christian perspective. We shall carry a number of features related to the centennial of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Our business manager has consulted frequently with post office officials in Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto in an effort to speed up delivery, which in 1972 was lamentably slow. There has been improvement in postal service in March and April of this year.

The Record has no reporting staff, and the lack of funds for travel makes it difficult for the editor or assistant editor to get out to the church as they would like to. We depend upon local people to keep us posted, not only on news of general interest, but ideas for feature articles. We thank those who have responded, and all those who have served as Record secretaries in congregations. We owe much to voluntary help.

While no formal recommendations are appended to this report, we hope that commissioners to this General Assembly will endorse the Every Home Plan as the best means of placing the magazine in the majority of Presbyterian homes.

HELEN ALLEN,
Convener.

Editor.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH WORSHIP

The Book of Praise (revised 1972)

The Book of Praise (revised 1972) became available for use throughout the Church in November, 1972; the Committee on Church Worship rejoices in its quality and in its wide acceptance throughout the Church. A number of "Sing-Ins", for the purpose of introducing the revised Book of Praise to congregations and presbyteries, have been held since November and the enthusiasm with which these have been received has been encouraging. It is our desire that the revised Book of Praise become even more widespread in use, and find its way into the homes of our people, both for devotional purposes and for the musical education and training of those who play the piano. We record our deepest gratitude to the Revision Committee whose meticulous work has given to The Presbyterian Church in Canada "a Hymn Book that is unexcelled in the whole library of Church Hymnaries."

The Report of the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Praise adopted by the 98th General Assembly recommended that the Church Worship Committee become the custodian of the Book of Praise. Both the Revision Committee and the Church Worship Committee, however, have come to realize that such custody will involve a considerable amount of work that could be done better if put into the hands of one person on a continuing basis. The personnel of the Church Worship Committee changes regularly, whereas the custody of the Book of Praise will involve ongoing work for some time. New hymn books invariably generate considerable correspondence from other compilers, hymnologists, librarians, theological colleges, publishers, etc., concerning sources used, authors' and composers' addresses, copyright, availability of material, etc.; and it would be of considerable service to have one person who would co-ordinate all of this information.

The Committee on Church Worship is thus recommending the appointment of a Praise Consultant for the continued promotion, in congregations and the homes of our people, of the revised Book of Praise and for the broadening of the spectrum of congregational praise. The leadership of the Praise Consultant would be available to congregational and regional services of praise.

Contemporary Forms in Public Worship

This Committee recognizes that our traditional patterns of worship are in large measure acceptable and satisfying to many within our congregations. We also recognize, however, that many people would appreciate some experimentation with new and contemporary forms of worship, so that there can be an even greater conscious sense of participation on the part of the whole congregation. With regard to praise, there is now the revised Book of Praise and we look forward to the Supplement to be produced by a special committee of Assembly.

In order to assist ministers and kirk sessions in their desire to experiment with contemporary forms of public worship, the Committee on Church Worship is including in its report a list of resources (by no means complete), as follows:

CELEBRATION: CATALOGUE OF RESOURCES, 117 Bloor St. East, Toronto, Ontario.

Micklem, Caryl, CONTEMPORARY PRAYERS FOR PUBLIC WORSHIP, Eerdmans, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 1967.

Micklem, Caryl, MORE CONTEMPORARY PRAYERS, SCM Press, London, 1970.

Randolph, D. J., VENTURES IN WORSHIP, Abingdon, New York, 1969.

Available: SCM Book Room, 333 Bloor St. West, Toronto.

Randolph, D. J., VENTURES IN WORSHIP II, 1970.

Randolph, D. J., VENTURES IN SONG, 1972.

(Further resource lists may be found in VENTURES IN WORSHIP.)

Schlegel, R. J., BALLOONS, ANCHORS AND GRAPPLING HOOKS, Resources for Youth Ministry, Vol. 3, #4, 1971. Published by the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod. Available: Youth Ministry Materials, P.O. Box 14325, St. Louis, Missouri, 63178.

In offering the preceding list, the Committee would also remind those responsible for public worship that, whatever forms are used, care should be taken to present all aspects of worship decently and in order, so that the basic principles of Christian Worship — dignity, simplicity and reverence — will be maintained. We would remind you of the paragraph in this Committee's report to the 95th General Assembly, as follows: "Finally we would observe that the historic elements of worship are prayer, praise, preaching, the Holy Scriptures, and the Sacraments. While these have come down to us with scriptural authority and have been tested and proven through almost 2000 years of Christian experience, they would also seem to be indispensable. Their indispensability, however, should not preclude the advisability of experimenting with them in order to realize such variations of worship expression as will be more sensitive and responsive to the spiritual needs of our day."

Supplementary Material for Book of Common Order

In recent years the General Assembly has amended portions of the Book of Forms which in some cases has also resulted in changes in the Book of Common Order, for use in Acts of Public Worship. These changes have appeared each year as an appendix to the Acts and Proceedings and have to be clipped, trimmed and placed in the appropriate place in the Book of Common Order. The Committee on Church Worship feels that a more worthy form of such changes should be reproduced as a supplement to the Book of Common Order and is making a recommendation in this vein.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the 99th General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada record its gratitude to the Committee on the Revision of The Book of Praise for providing for the Church a hymn book of such excellent quality.
2. (a) That a Praise Consultant be appointed for an initial period of three years, for the cultivation in the Church of a widespread appreciation of The Book of Praise and to elevate and to broaden the whole spectrum of congregational praise.
(b) That Mr. Alan Cowle, who has been an active member of the Revision Committee and in fact wrote and edited the manuscript and who, since publication of the Book of Praise, has already been in widespread demand as conductor and speaker to introduce the Book of Praise to congregations, presbyteries, camps, etc., with marked success, be appointed Praise Consultant.
(c) That the Administrative Council be requested to make available a remuneration of $5000.00 annually for Mr. Cowle's services as Praise Consultant; that Mr. Cowle's expenses for travel and hospitality be submitted to the Comptroller of the Church for payment, and that all congregations, presbyteries, synods, camps, etc., who have availed themselves of the Praise Consultant's leadership be urged to reimburse the Comptroller accordingly.
3. That ministers and kirk sessions make every effort to preserve the best of the past in the use of forms for public worship and also experiment with new and contemporary forms.
4. That the Committee on Church Worship be authorized to prepare necessary supplementary material for the Book of Common Order which would incorporate these changes which the General Assembly has adopted in recent years.
5. That the General Assembly authorize the allocation of $1500.00 for the work of the Church Worship Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

HOMER W. McAVOY, Convener.

The Book of Praise (revised 1972) became available for use throughout the Church in November, 1972; the Committee on Church Worship rejoices in its quality and in its wide acceptance throughout the Church. A number of "Sing-Ins", for the purpose of introducing the revised Book of Praise to congregations and presbyteries, have been held since November and the enthusiasm with which these have been received has been encouraging. It is our desire that the revised Book of Praise become even more widespread in use, and find its way into the homes of our people, both for devotional purposes and for the musical education and training of those who play the piano. We record our deepest gratitude to the Revision Committee whose meticulous work has given to The Presbyterian Church in Canada "a Hymn Book that is unexcelled in the whole library of Church Hymnaries."

The Report of the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Praise adopted by the 98th General Assembly recommended that the Church Worship Committee become the custodian of the Book of Praise. Both the Revision Committee and the Church Worship Committee, however, have come to realize that such custody will involve a considerable amount of work that could be done better if put into the hands of one person on a continuing basis. The personnel of the Church Worship Committee changes regularly, whereas the custody of the Book of Praise will involve ongoing work for some time. New hymn books invariably generate considerable correspondence from other compilers, hymnologists, librarians, theological colleges, publishers, etc., concerning sources used, authors' and composers' addresses, copyright, availability of material, etc.; and it would be of considerable service to have one person who would co-ordinate all of this information.

The Committee on Church Worship is thus recommending the appointment of a Praise Consultant for the continued promotion, in congregations and the homes of our people, of the revised Book of Praise and for the broadening of the spectrum of congregational praise. The leadership of the Praise Consultant would be available to congregational and regional services of praise.

Contemporary Forms in Public Worship

This Committee recognizes that our traditional patterns of worship are in large measure acceptable and satisfying to many within our congregations. We also recognize, however, that many people would appreciate some experimentation with new and contemporary forms of worship, so that there can be an even greater conscious sense of participation on the part of the whole congregation. With regard to praise, there is now the revised Book of Praise and we look forward to the Supplement to be produced by a special committee of Assembly.

In order to assist ministers and kirk sessions in their desire to experiment with contemporary forms of public worship, the Committee on Church Worship is including in its report a list of resources (by no means complete), as follows:

CELEBRATION: CATALOGUE OF RESOURCES, 117 Bloor St. East, Toronto, Ontario.

Micklem, Caryl, CONTEMPORARY PRAYERS FOR PUBLIC WORSHIP, Eerdmans, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 1967.

Micklem, Caryl, MORE CONTEMPORARY PRAYERS, SCM Press, London, 1970.

Randolph, D. J., VENTURES IN WORSHIP, Abingdon, New York, 1969. Available: SCM Book Room, 333 Bloor St. West, Toronto.

Randolph, D. J., VENTURES IN WORSHIP II, 1970.

Randolph, D. J., VENTURES IN SONG, 1972.

(Further resource lists may be found in VENTURES IN WORSHIP.)

Schlegel, R. J., BALLOONS, ANCHORS AND GRAPPLING HOOKS, Resources for Youth Ministry, Vol. 3, #4, 1971. Published by the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod. Available: Youth Ministry Materials, P.O. Box 14325, St. Louis, Missouri, 63178.

In offering the preceding list, the Committee would also remind those responsible for public worship that, whatever forms are used, care should be taken to present all aspects of worship decently and in order, so that the basic principles of Christian Worship — dignity, simplicity and reverence — will be maintained. We would remind you of the paragraph in this Committee's report to the 95th General Assembly, as follows: "Finally we would observe that the historic elements of worship are prayer, praise, preaching, the Holy Scriptures, and the Sacraments. While these have come down to us with scriptural authority and have been tested and proven through almost 2000 years of Christian experience, they would also seem to be indispensable. Their indispensability, however, should not preclude the advisability of experimenting with them in order to realize such variations of worship expression as will be more sensitive and responsive to the spiritual needs of our day."

Supplementary Material for Book of Common Order

In recent years the General Assembly has amended portions of the Book of Forms which in some cases has also resulted in changes in the Book of Common Order, for use in Acts of Public Worship. These changes have appeared each year as an appendix to the Acts and Proceedings and have to be clipped, trimmed and placed in the appropriate place in the Book of Common Order. The Committee on Church Worship feels that a more worthy form of such changes should be reproduced as a supplement to the Book of Common Order and is making a recommendation in this vein.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the 99th General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada record its gratitude to the Committee on the Revision of The Book of Praise for providing for the Church a hymn book of such excellent quality.
2. (a) That a Praise Consultant be appointed for an initial period of three years, for the cultivation in the Church of a widespread appreciation of The Book of Praise and to elevate and to broaden the whole spectrum of congregational praise.
(b) That Mr. Alan Cowle, who has been an active member of the Revision Committee and in fact wrote and edited the manuscript and who, since publication of the Book of Praise, has already been in widespread demand as conductor and speaker to introduce the Book of Praise to congregations, presbyteries, camps, etc., with marked success, be appointed Praise Consultant.
(c) That the Administrative Council be requested to make available a remuneration of $5000.00 annually for Mr. Cowle's services as Praise Consultant; that Mr. Cowle's expenses for travel and hospitality be submitted to the Comptroller of the Church for payment, and that all congregations, presbyteries, synods, camps, etc., who have availed themselves of the Praise Consultant's leadership be urged to reimburse the Comptroller accordingly.
3. That ministers and kirk sessions make every effort to preserve the best of the past in the use of forms for public worship and also experiment with new and contemporary forms.
4. That the Committee on Church Worship be authorized to prepare necessary supplementary material for the Book of Common Order which would incorporate these changes which the General Assembly has adopted in recent years.
5. That the General Assembly authorize the allocation of $1500.00 for the work of the Church Worship Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

HOMER W. McAVOY, Convener.

PERSONNEL SERVICES COMMITTEE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

Personnel Services came of age in 1972. After a year and a half of valuable service, Dr. W. H. Fuller retired in mid-year as acting-director on a part-time basis. Since then he has undertaken care of the parish of St. Andrew's, Duncan, British Columbia, for an interim period, and the committee wishes him well. The Church owes Dr. Fuller a great debt of gratitude for outstanding service in a varied career.

The 1972 General Assembly enlarged the committee from 9 to 12 members, and for the first time made it broadly representative of the nation-wide church.

As of this General Assembly the committee has had a full-time director for almost a year. The appointment of the Rev. J. Cooper is subject to a review of the staff needs of the committee in three years' time. In the meantime, however, last year's General Assembly approved the establishment of a Board of Ministry of which the Personnel Services Committee would be an integral part. Consultations have been held with the Organization and Planning Committee on the structure of the Board and the timing of its commencement.

About 98% of all interim moderators of vacant charges are availing themselves of the profile forms of ministers and deaconesses willing to consider relocation. Excellent comments have been received concerning the value of this service. In all, 442 copies of profile forms of 144 ministers were sent to 71 interim moderators in 1972. This is an average of about six profiles sent to each interim moderator. At the time of writing there are 65 vacancies, many of which are carried over from 1972. Eleven ministers whose profiles were sent to interim moderators in 1972 were ultimately called and inducted into those charges. The total number of individual profile forms on file now stands at 475 out of a possible 866 ministers, 42 deaconesses and 12 catechists.

In addition, 198 congregations have sent in congregational profile forms out of a possible 1,021 congregations. These are available for examination by prospective candidates, when the field becomes vacant. So far it has been mostly the vacant congregations that have sent in the completed forms.

The N.D.F. made available $25,000. known as the N.D.F. Support for Continuing Education. The committee sent out grants totalling $3,782.50 up to December 31, 1972. These grants are intended to encourage the up-grading of professional qualifications of full-time church workers. Information on available courses is also provided.

Since its inception, the Personnel Services Committee has consistently placed a high priority on career evaluation and counselling in order to help church-employed people to understand their own strengths and weaknesses. The purpose of such a program is to help those employed by the church to make realistic career plans in terms of their gifts and the openings that may exist. Career evaluation frequently reveals the areas in which future study could most fruitfully be pursued. To date eleven professional church workers have been financially assisted to participate in programs of career evaluation at various church-career centers or workshops. So far the evaluation of the programs by the participants has been good. An ecumenical committee in Vancouver is proposing a similar workshop there later in 1973. Interest has also been expressed in Winnipeg for a career evaluation event for church-employed workers.

The possibility of establishing Canadian facilities for church-career counselling is still being actively explored. But whether Canadian or American facilities are used, funds will be required if the benefits of such a program are to be realized.

An experiment in camp staff recruitment was undertaken during the winter and spring. Staff was recruited for 14 Presbyterian summer youth camps through a central clearing house provided for applicants and camp boards by the Committee.

At the request of the Office and Property Committee, Personnel Services is now doing the recruiting and screening of applicants for clerical positions in the church offices. With the restructuring that has been going on, this has involved a good deal of advertising, interviewing and testing.

The Personnel Services Committee has been asked to make a study of the categories and salary ranges of the clerical staff of the church offices this year as part of a general up-dating of employment standards in the offices.

Research in Personnel matters has begun. Pensions, stipends, other fringe benefits, and procedures for filling vacancies are among the ongoing studies of the committee. The committee hopes to review annually the church's basic stipend and salary structures with a view to recommending adjustments upwards or downwards as necessary in order to keep them in a stable relationship to the cost-of-living index.

The Committee on Personnel Services sees its purpose as one of assisting the Church to staff its many-faceted mission and to help such staff to function effectively in the performance of that mission.

W. E. STANLEY,
Chairman.

J. C. COOPER,
Director.

REPORT OF AUDIO-VISUAL SERVICES COMMITTEE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

Evidence of change is found in all the reports to assembly this year. This report is no exception. It also ought to be no surprise. Over the last two or three years, we have been struggling to alert the Church to the challenge and opportunities that face us in the communication of the gospel because of the rapid changes and astounding advances that have been made, and are continuing to be made in the whole communications field.

The appointment of a Communication Consultant last year was a key step. Since beginning his work last August, the Rev. Harry Crawford has been working to make contacts, establish priorities, and begin the task of education. This is so basic to our Church's response to and participation in this field.

It is an indication of our neglect that very few Presbyteries have A/V Committees or Broadcasting Committees, or Media Committees. Most of those who have been attempting to make use of the opportunities that are given to them to participate in radio or television, have found their support from other sources or have worked on their own. In a similar way, those who are making a creative use of A/V resources in their congregations are doing so in isolation or with contact outside the Presbyterian Church.

It was in recognition of this need that this committee could summarize its goals in these terms last year:

"The Audio Visual Committee, fascinated both by the possibilities of the communication media and the redemptive promises of God, seeks to engage the Presbyterian Church in Canada in a ministry to and through the communication media."

"We think it important, that the Presbyterian Church be aware of the media's potential for education as well as mission. We also think it important that we minister to those who are engaged in communications."

The work of the Consultant was outlined in these terms:

"To assist the Boards of the Church, Congregations and communities to understand media, their influence on man and their possible contribution to mission and education."

Mr. Crawford has conducted and/or participated in a great number of workshops, made presentations, conducted seminars relating to both Broadcasting and Audio Visuals, as well as basic communication theory for interdenominational Presbyteries, congregations, and for Knox and Presbyterian Colleges. Many more are being scheduled as invitations are received.

Two years ago, the Committee drafted a proposal for the Local Utilization of Media Project. It received the enthusiastic support of Assembly but unfortunately it was responsible to find the necessary funds ($20,000). Enough money has now been found to permit the first pilot in this project, and it is hoped that it will take place in the fall. We feel that in order to realize the major objectives for this project, an extensive program with adequate follow-up is needed. The objectives are as follows:

1. To recognize and use — existing opportunities in the media and to develop new ones.
2. To engage in a program of training to equip church people to participate in and to encourage both religious programs and community programs for all media.
3. To establish meaningful supportive relationships with the media.
4. To engage in a program of training to develop an informed, supportive and critical audience/reader participation within the community.
5. To develop the use of A/V resources in the programs of the church and to engage in creative production of resources that are appropriate to each situation.

We are now establishing a role as active participants in such organizations as Interchurch Broadcasting, Religious Television Associates and the World Association for Christian Communication.

In association with the R.T.A. we are engaged in a study which will determine the feasibility and perhaps the development of a good religious T.V. program for children which will have either network release or widespread syndication. We are also to be involved in a series of interview programs that will be produced in the west, for syndication nationally.

We are also represented on the National Religious Advisory Council of the C.B.C. and involved in their new production of Sunday Worship Services on the national network, as well as other matters related to religious programming.

It was against this background that this Committee entered into consultation with the Organization and Planning committee. We have welcomed their interest and found the discussion helpful and supportive of our concerns. They will present some recommendations relative to this committee which we heartily endorse.

During the year two long term employees of the department, Miss B. Seeley and Mrs. Judy Train left. To find and establish adequate replacements involved a very difficult period. We are pleased to say that our library service is now once again offering an efficient service with Mrs. Joyce Grottick in charge assisted by Miss Ruth Cestnick. We do have a continuing problem due to unreliability of the postal service. We have been forced to increase the time we must allow for delivery, to such a degree that it severely restricts the number of uses for popular items.

In fact there are many aspects of the operation of such a resource centre that must become the subject of discussion for the interested Boards in the near future. The Organization and Planning Committee are presenting a recommendation in this regard.

It is our purpose to offer an acceptable service to the church in this very important field. We invite suggestions, comments, and offers of co-operation and participation from all levels of the church.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the name of the Committee be changed to "The Communication Services Committee."
 2. That the budget of the Committee be increased to $40,350 for 1974 and to $51,350 for 1975.
 3. That the membership of the Committee be:
 - two representatives from the B.W.M.
 - two representatives from the B.C.L.
 - three representatives from the W.M.S., Western Division 2
 - Eastern Division 1 by correspondence
 - two representatives from the Record Committee
 - two representatives on the N.R.A.C. of the C.B.C.
- In addition, members not to exceed six selected by the committee on a basis of their interest and/or expertise in the fields related to the concerns of the committee.
- The committee will appoint its own chairman.

The Church Treasurer, ex-officio.

4. That Synods, Presbyteries and Congregations be encouraged to inform the committee of their involvement in projects and events related to the concerns of the committee, to inform the committee of Presbyterian people involved in the public media, and to use the consultative services of the committee whenever appropriate.

R. F. G. CAMPBELL,
Chairman.

H. A. CRAWFORD,
Communication Consultant.

COMMITTEE ON INSTITUTIONAL CHAPLAINCIES

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

Over the past year, the Committee on Institutional Chaplaincies has continued in its efforts to support Presbyterian ministers working as institutional chaplains and, through our Church's personnel office, to keep ministers informed about vacancies in chaplaincy service as they occur.

An important part of the Committee's work is its membership on three ecumenical committees: the Ontario Inter-Faith Committee on Chaplaincy, the Inter-Faith Committee on Chaplaincy in the Canadian Penitentiary Service, and, the Canadian Council of Churches Committee on the Certification of Chaplains. By participating in the first two committees, the Church is responding to government invitations to assist in the advertising for, procuring and screening of, candidates for chaplaincy positions, and to share in the assessment or evaluation of the chaplain's ministry. These committees, being ecumenical, are bodies which government departments can and will approach with ideas, suggestions or requests regarding chaplaincy matters. These committees, functioning well, can be encouraging to and supportive of chaplains in their ministries. The Church can speak with a united voice through these committees to government ministers and departmental officials on issues pertaining to the well-being of chaplains and the satisfactory fulfilment of their responsibilities as servants of God first and foremost.

Our membership on the Certification Committee of the Canadian Council of Churches, gives us a voice in the process whereby ministers are judged to be competent for service as institutional chaplains. In addition to meeting certain set standards of specialized training, applicants for certification are expected both to have the endorsement of their denomination and to appear before the certification committee.

In May of this year, a conference was held to enable your Committee to meet with several Presbyterians working as institutional chaplains. It is hoped that these conversations will lead to a closer relationship between our Church and its ministers who are engaged in this specialized ministry.

The Committee on Institutional Chaplains, after consulting with the Clerks of Assembly, recommends in response to Overture 19 to the 98th General Assembly that steps be taken to include institutional chaplains on the constituent roll of Presbytery.

RECOMMENDATION

1. That a remit be sent down under the Barrier Act amending section 176 of the Book of Forms by adding the following: "(g) ordained ministers who are institutional chaplains in full-time employment as such, appointed for not less than one year with the approval of the responsible committee of the General Assembly."

R. H. ARMSTRONG,
Chairman.

R. D. MULCHEY,
Secretary.

THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, MONTREAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT 1972-1973

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Board of Management of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, report another year of substantial progress.

Sixteen students are enrolled this Session in the various years leading to either the B.Th. or the M.A. Degree in the Faculty of Religious Studies of McGill University. These in addition to a number of students completing their studies in Arts in preparation for Theological studies. Our affiliation with the Faculty of Religious Studies has resulted in an increased enrolment, providing as it does an enlarged curriculum and superior tuition.

Our programme of Continuing Education for Ministers continues to attract an increasing number of Ministers from all parts of Canada. Many of these men express enthusiasm for the courses offered and for the experience of returning to academic studies.

The L. W. Anderson Lectures were given this year by Professor Joseph Sittler, of Bryn Mawr College, Pennsylvania. These lectures have been given at the Presbyterian College since nineteen forty-nine, through the generosity of the late Mr. L. W. Anderson, a benefactor of the College across the years.

As in other years, we have received many expressions of interest in the work of the College in the form of bursaries, scholarships, prizes and donations for our general expenses. To these generous donors and to all our friends who have encouraged and supported us, we would extend our gratitude.

This year we have carried out, in conjunction with the Senate of the College, a review of our governing structures. This was suggested because of the proposed reduction of appointments by General Assembly to all Boards and Committees and because our affiliation with the Faculty of Religious Studies, McGill University, has curtailed the traditional functions of the Senate. After due deliberation it was unanimously agreed that, as the administration of the College is of common interest to Board and Senate, and as other educational institutions are moving to a unicameral government, steps should be taken to unify both bodies in a new Senate. The working parts of the Senate shall be an Executive Committee, Academic Committee, Property and Purchasing Committee and Finance Committee. Such a change would not require any alteration to our Provincial Charter.

The work of the Acting Principal and all members of the Faculty of the College is worthy of our sincere appreciation.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Board of The Presbyterian College be permitted to renew the appointment of the Reverend Dr. C. Ritchie Bell as Acting Principal for a further year.
2. That General Assembly authorize the unifying of the Board of Management and the Senate into a new Council called the Senate, to take effect as of June 20th, 1973.

JOHN A. SIMMS,

Chairman.

JOHN R. MCCALLUM,

Hon. Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SENATE OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, MONTREAL FOR THE SESSION 1972-1973

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

There were sixteen students enrolled for the academic session of 1972-73, being classified as follows:

Professional Year — Derek Balmer; N. E. Ted Thompson, B.A.

M.A. 2 — Mrs. Maureen Finlayson, B.Sc., B.Ed.; Larry K. T. Lin, B.D.; Harvey J. Reichelt, B.A.

M.A. 1 — Mrs. Janice Aicken, B.A.; David J. Shawver, B.A.

B.Th. 3 — John A. Finlayson; L. George MacDonald, B.A.; Telford E. Penfold, B.A.

B.Th. 2 — Linda Corry; Lloyd A. Henry, B.A.; Donald E. MacLeod; Diane Tait; Andrew Turnbull (Assembly).

B.Th. 1 — Keith Humphrey.

The Reverend Dr. C. Ritchie Bell again served as Acting Principal, as well as teaching in the professional year and assuming major responsibility for the supervision of three highly successful programs in Continuing Education. We acknowledge with gratitude the participation of the Reverend Dr. R. J. Berlis of the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, Montreal, in the professional year program. The Library remained under the competent direction of Mrs. Scarth Macdonnell.

The L. W. Anderson Lectures for 1973 were presented on February 21-22 by Professor Joseph Sittler of the Divinity School, the University of Chicago, on the theme: "Mystery and Grace — Three Unaccredited Witnesses".

The changes in the functions of the Senate resulting from the College's association with the McGill University Faculty of Religious Studies, and the existence of several overlapping jurisdictions, has led us in the past year to re-examine our administrative structures. A careful study of our situation has convinced us that the interests of efficiency would best be served by a unicameral body which would combine the present functions of both Senate and Board of Management. A recommendation to this effect is contained in the Board's Report, and has the complete support of the Senate.

At the one hundred and fifth annual Convocation held on May 3rd, 1972, the following diplomas, certificates, scholarships and prizes were awarded:

Diplomas — Edgar Foote Dewar, B.A.; Gordon Clair MacLeod, B.A.

Certificates — Lawrence John Cowper; Waldon Britten Moase; Allison James Ramsay.

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS:

The Cornelia Jane Parker MacMillan — Robert Calder, John Fraser, Lloyd A. Henry, Kenneth S. Morrison.

The Donald Alexander Smith Bell — Alan Hardiman, Brian Rees.

The McCorkill — Linda Corry.

ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIPS:

The McCorkill — Maureen Finlayson, B.Sc., B.Ed.; L. George MacDonald, B.A.; Telford E. Penfold, B.A.; Harvey J. Reichelt, B.A.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOLARSHIPS:

The McCorkill Scholarship in B.Th. 3 — N. E. Ted Thompson, B.A.

The McCorkill Scholarship in B.Th. 2 — Telford E. Penfold, B.A.

The McCorkill Scholarship in M.A. 2 — G. Clair MacLeod, B.A.

The David J. Thompson Scholarship in M.A. 1 — Maureen Finlayson, B.Sc., B.Ed.

The Duncan Gordon Scholarship in M.A. 1 — Harvey J. Reichelt, B.A.

PRIZES:

The Canadian Bible Society Prize (Public Reading of the Scriptures) — Lawrence J. Cowper.

The Reverend John S. McBride Prize in Old Testament — N. E. Ted Thompson, B.A.

The Hilton P. M. Carter Prize in New Testament — L. George MacDonald, B.A.

The Reverend Gordon R. Taylor Prize in Church History — Telford E. Penfold, B.A.

The James Sinclair Prize in Philosophy of Religion — N. E. Ted Thompson, B.A.
 The Dr. O. C. Sprott Prize in Westminster Standards — Lawrence J. Cowper.
 The Reverend Allan S. Reid Prize in Church Government — Edgar F. Dewar, B.A.
 The Joseph Anderson Prize in English Bible — Ann Drummond.
 The George McLellan Prize in Pastoral Theology — Edgar F. Dewar, B.A.
 The C. Ritchie Bell Prize in Pastoral Theology — Lawrence J. Cowper; Waldon B. Moase.
 The Marion S. Campbell Prize in Pastoral Theology — Waldon B. Moase.
 The Raymond T. Nettleship Prize in Pastoral Theology — Allison J. Ramsay.
 The Charlotte Agnes McAllister Prize in Pastoral Theology (Clinical Pastoral Education) — Waldon B. Moase.
 The James C. MacIver Prize for Preaching — Lawrence J. Cowper; Allison J. Ramsay.
 The Archibald Duncan McAllister Prize in Pastoral Theology (Oral English) — Lawrence J. Cowper.
 The Alumni Association Prize for Outstanding Contribution to the Life of the College — Lawrence J. Cowper; Harvey J. Reichelt, B.A.

The one hundred and sixth annual Convocation is to be held on May 9th, 1973. The degree of Doctor of Divinity, honoris causa, will be conferred upon Professor Allan L. Farris, M.A., B.D., M.Th.; the Reverend Iver D. MacIver; and the Reverend C. M. Kao. The Convocation speaker is to be William Stringfellow.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. KEITH MARKELL,
Secretary.

THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, MONTREAL 1972 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Management
 The Presbyterian College, Montreal.

We have examined the balance sheet of The Presbyterian College, Montreal, as at December 31, 1972 and the statement of income and expenditure for the year then ended. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the College as at December 31, 1972 and the results of its operations for the year then ended and have been prepared on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Secretary.

REPORT OF ST. ANDREW'S HALL, VANCOUVER, B.C.

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

Attached is the audited Statement of Accounts for our fiscal year ending August 31, 1972. We have enjoyed another good year. The August 31st, 1973 figures will show the final "draw down" of $5,500.00 was not necessary, resulting from full summer occupancy by the Language Workshop Program of the Continuing Education Department. We are hopeful of repeating the same this year. Inflation, salary increases, major repairs completed, and others soon to be undertaken indicate that our request for the operating grant is realistic.

A most useful meeting was held with Rev. R. Mulchey, Consultant for Higher Learning discussing the contribution our Church's residences can make to Church and University Life.

We are in consultation with the General Assembly's Committee regarding our relationship with the Vancouver School of Theology. While the whole question is under sympathetic consideration we would not consider merging our physical assets with those of VST.

St. Andrew's Hall continues to be a fine witness of The Presbyterian Church in Canada on the Campus of UBC. Dean Ross is encouraged by a growing interest throughout the campus in the witness of the Christian Church.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HARRY LENNOX,
Chairman.

H. LYLE JESTLEY,
Secretary.

ST. ANDREW'S HALL
STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS
As at 31st August 1972

REPORT by BUTTAR AND CHIENE, Chartered Accountants, Vancouver, B.C. upon the accounts of
as at 31st August 1972

We have examined the Balance Sheet of St. Andrew's Hall as at 31st August 1972 and the Statement of Operations for the year ended on that date, and have received all the information and explanations required by us. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

No provision has been made in the accounts for depreciation on the Dean's Residence or on the Chapel and Dormitory.

In our opinion, the accompanying Balance Sheet and Statement of Operations present fairly the financial position of the Hall as at 31st August 1972 and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Reported by,
Vancouver, B.C.

THE PRESBYTERIAN RESIDENCE
SASKATOON, SASK.

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

1972 should be remembered in the records of the Presbyterian Residence as a special historical milestone, since the plan suggested in our report of last year became a reality. The donors to the "New Residence Campaign" to build Pres Res on campus, responded with their permission to allow us the use of their gifts to renovate the Presbyterian Residence.

We are grateful to the Administrative Council for sharing our point of view and granting us permission as a Board to use the funds on hand for renovation purposes.

The renovations inside were completed by December 31st. While we are still below the approximated figure given in last year's report of $50,000, spring weather will find us turning our attention to the grounds and the outside of the building, where a number of improvements are still to be completed.

As the renovations proceeded in the fall term, a suggestion which had been projected earlier in the year saw the plans finalized, that is: a small addition to provide a games room on the basement level, a library on the main level and four new bedrooms on the top level. For the cost of the addition we are grateful to the Administrative Council and the National Development Fund, who have granted us up to $38,000 to carry out the project. At the time of writing the project has been completed. The boys at Pres Res and the members of the Board are excited about the total new look at Pres Res.

The official opening will take place towards the end of May or early June, giving all interested parties an opportunity to come and share in the celebrations. The event will find us paying tribute to those many generous people who were involved in donating funds for the Building Campaign and the National Development Fund; allowing our Church to render a special service to all who will live in Pres Res over the course of the years to come, and respect the long line of interested folk, whose lives feature in the story of Pres Res since it was built in the mid-twenties.

In spite of renovation confusion, the fall term 1972 found us refusing applicants because all our rooms were filled. Thanks to the co-operation of the boys, we were able to operate with a staff of two, with additional help from time to time. In keeping with the times, we have tried to give the boys special responsibility in maintaining the atmosphere, described by a number when they say, "This is our home".

Pres Res continues to be the home of such annual events as the Ministers' Conference and the Synod Youth Conference.

R. A. DAVIDSON,
Chairman.

JACK WELLS,
Secretary.

AUDITORS' REPORT

We have examined the balance sheet of the Presbyterian Residence as at December 31, 1972, the statement of revenue and expenses and statement of receipts and payments-trust funds, for the year ended on that date. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we consider necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Residence at December 31, 1972, and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

THE COMMITTEE ON HOME RELIGION

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

During 1972 your Committee continued to work with the Editorial Board of THESE DAYS in the production of this devotional guide. We were ably represented on the Editorial Board by our Chairman, the Reverend John Forbes. We cannot speak too highly of the courtesy and cooperation accorded us by the other partners in the enterprise. Within our Church Mr. Ian MacEachern of Presbyterian Publications undertakes the exacting task of distribution of THESE DAYS and we take this opportunity of thanking him for his valuable services and advice.

The Committee are grateful to Dr. H. F. Davidson, Secretary of the Board of Stewardship and Budget, for assigning a stewardship calendar for a message on Home Religion. The message "Spiritual Tone" was written by our new Chairman, Mrs. G. H. Peckover. We also thank Dr. DeC. H. Rayner, Editor of The Presbyterian Record, for including in the Record a list of scripture passages month by month.

During 1972 the circulation of THESE DAYS in Canada was January-February 9,229; March-April 8,937; May-June 8,638; July-August 8,562; September-October 8,291; November-December 8,324; representing an average of approximately 8,663 per bi-monthly period.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Your Committee crave leave to present six recommendations as follows:

1. That in view of the concern for the welfare of the Home, the Church and the Nation in these times and the need for deepening the spiritual life of our people, each Kirk-Session of the Church which has not already done so be urged to appoint one of its members or other interested person to promote the use of THESE DAYS within the congregation.
2. That the congregations of the Church be asked to consider placing copies of THESE DAYS in hospitals, homes and other institutions within the community they serve for the use of patients and others.
3. That Kirk-Sessions be requested to present a copy of THESE DAYS to each person uniting with the Church on profession of faith or by certificate; and on such other occasions as baptism (to the parents) and marriage (to the young people about to establish a home) and to make copies available by way of a rack or otherwise in the vestibule of the church for the members and adherents of the congregation.
4. That the Kirk-Session or some other body within the congregation be requested to provide the minister with sufficient copies of THESE DAYS to assist him in making Recommendation 3 effective and also for his use in his visitation of the congregation.

5. That this Assembly invite the Presbyteries of the Church to set aside a period of time at one of their meetings during the year for the purpose of discussion and instituting methods of promoting the use of THESE DAYS as a devotional guide among the congregations within their bounds.
6. That the membership of the Committee remain at eight members.
All of which is respectfully submitted.

MRS. G. H. PECKOVER,
Chairman.

E. A. THOMSON,
Secretary.

CANADIAN FORCES CHAPLAINCY SERVICES

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

Your Committee met in March 1973.

There are no Presbyterian vacancies in the Armed Forces Chaplains ranks so no recommendations for appointment were received. It is not expected that any requirement will be forthcoming before 1975.

The Convener of the Committee has represented The Presbyterian Church in Canada on the Canadian Council of Churches Committee on the Armed Forces Chaplaincy. He also attended the Chaplain's Conference held at Royal Military College, Kingston in June 1972. The usual meeting of all Presbyterian Chaplains was held at that time.

The following chaplains are serving in the Regular Forces: Captain L. T. Barclay, C.D.; Major W. J. Graham; Captain W. J. O. Isaac; Captain R. A. B. MacLean; Captain I. Raeburn-Gibson; Major R. J. G. Ritchie, C.D.; Major P. L. Sams, C.D.; Captain S. D. Self.

The chaplains serving in the Reserve Forces as reported by the Director of Chaplain Administration (P) NDHQ is as follows: Major (SR) B. J. Molloy; Captain (SR) D. J. Crawford; Captain I. C. Glass; Captain S. A. Hayes; Major H. MacDonald; Major D. C. Wotherspoon; Major J. D. C. Jack; Major D. R. McKilligan; Major A. L. MacKay; Captain I. S. Wishart; Captain R. W. Maddock; Captain G. R. Bell; Captain C. A. Dunn; Captain G. G. Hastings; Captain R. J. Foulis.

In 1972 the chapels in the Armed Forces in Canada and in Europe contributed $2,669.00 to the Budget. In addition a Scholarship of $2,500.00 was given to The Presbyterian College, Montreal. The chapels have taken a particular interest in the work at Kenora Fellowship Centre and Sioux Village Congregation.

The Presbyterian Record is supplied by your Committee to Chapels and Chaplains in Canadian Forces Bases at home and abroad.

RECOMMENDATION

That this General Assembly assure the Director of Chaplain Administration (P) and all our ministers and members serving in the Armed Forces of our prayers and our continued interest.

E. G. B. FOOTE,
Chairman.

H. A. DOIG,
Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON INTER-CHURCH RELATIONS

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

We beg to report of some of the activities that have come under our purview during the past year.

TALKS WITH OTHER CHURCHES

As mentioned last year conversations had been initiated with the Christian Reformed Church in an attempt to understand and know each other better. No meetings have been held during the past twelve months, and the Committee has agreed that we should endeavour to have these talks continue.

A fruitful conversation is taking place with the United and Lutheran Churches in Canada. Our representatives are Dr. James Smart and Dr. Charles Hay. These talks are being financed by the North American Area Council of the World Alliance of the Reformed Churches. Similar talks are taking place in the United States. We hope by next year to have a fuller report about these talks.

Some years ago the General Assembly appointed "Observers-Consultants" to the meetings being held by the Anglican and United Churches to negotiate union between these two bodies. Our contacts have become less in recent years, and the Committee concluded it might be wise to re-constitute our Committee. The Committee appointed was any two of Dr. G. D. Johnston, Dr. A. L. MacKay, and Dr. D. G. M. Herron.

EXCHANGES WITH REFORMED CHURCHES IN HUNGARY AND RUMANIA

Avenues are being explored to discover how we might enter into some helpful relationship with our brethren in these two countries.

5TH ASSEMBLY OF THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The 5th Assembly of the World Council of Churches will be held in Jakarta in 1975. We are permitted to name one clerical and one lay delegate, and the names must be submitted by November 15th, 1973.

NORTH AMERICAN AREA COUNCIL, WORLD ALLIANCE OF REFORMED CHURCHES

The annual meeting of the North American Area Council of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches was held at the Sheraton Seaside Motel and Tower, Atlantic City, New Jersey from Tuesday, January 9th to Thursday, January 11th, 1973. Our Church was represented by the following five delegates: Mr. Kenneth D. Hall, Rev. Dr. William Klempa, Rev. Dr. Donald C. MacDonald, Rev. Dr. DeCourcy H. Rayner and Mrs. Ron Willson.

A highlight of the meeting was an address by Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, former General Secretary of the World Council of Churches on the subject, "In One Boat: the Ecumenical Crew and the Storms We Face." Dr. Blake based his address on the symbol of the boat and the cross of the World Council of Churches. He began by considering the crew. Not only are they very diverse but they do not fully trust one another. Dr. Blake listed a number of points that a good crew member needs to remember and practice: listening to what others are saying, stopping the habit of labelling one another, and learning to live together in love. Yet the most important quality of a crew member is loyalty and obedience to the Captain. The ecumenical movement must be Christocentric for there is no substitute for obedience to Christ. He spoke also of the storms which the World Church is facing: modern relativism, communism, materialism and the danger of a proud, successful and materialistic Church. Finally Dr. Blake referred to some of the fixed points according to which the ecumenical ship must steer her course: faith in Almighty God, a thorough Biblical and theological knowledge, and a true understanding of her history rather than some of the separatist myths on which we have all been brought up.

Another interesting and worthwhile session was a panel discussion on "Women in the Church." The two speakers were Mrs. Margrethe B. J. Brown and Sister Anne Dunn, both of whom are members of the Roman Catholic/Reformed and Presbyterian Consultation. They both made a strong plea that the Churches permit women to exercise fully their rightful role.

An informative and helpful address on "The Eldership in Reformed and Presbyterian Churches" was given by the Reverend Dr. Robert W. Henderson of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The standing Committee on Civil and Religious Liberty recommended that a communication be sent to President Richard M. Nixon in the following terms: "We share the outrage and shock of free governments, church bodies, and millions of individuals throughout the world at the unprecedented bombing of heavily populated areas of North Vietnam during the period of December 18-29, 1972, and continued heavy bombing in the southern part of North Vietnam." The Committee also called upon President Nixon to end the war immediately. Both resolutions were passed unanimously by the Area Council.

The Reverend Richmond Smith, the Theological Secretary of the World Alliance spoke on the subject "The Theological Work of the Alliance in an Ecumenical Context." He outlined the three areas of theological study being pursued at present by the Alliance: first, how to do theology; secondly, the theological basis of human rights and a theology of liberation; and thirdly, the participation of the laity in Church, Society, and Politics. The Theological Committee of the North American Area meets twice annually, once at the time of the Area Council and once in the fall. Our Church is represented on this committee by Professor Allan L. Farris and Rev. William Klempa.

The North American Area Council is participating in a number of Inter-Confessional dialogues with the Roman Catholic, Lutheran and Orthodox Churches. Professor J. C. McLelland of McGill University is chairman of the Orthodox-Reformed Conversations. Dr. James D. Smart and Professor J. Charles Hay represent our Church on the Lutheran-Reformed Conversations in Canada.

The officers of the North American Area Council for this year are: Chairman: Principal Samuel Meighlal, Trinidad; Vice-Chairman: Dr. DeCourcy H. Rayner; Recording Clerk: Dr. William Klempa; Director of Information: Dr. Frank H. Heinze. President James I. McCord of Princeton Theological Seminary is North American Area Secretary. Dr. William P. Thompson, Stated Clerk of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. is President of the World Alliance. The next Area Council will meet in January, 1974.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM KLEMPA,
Convener.

TRIENNIAL ASSEMBLY OF THE CANADIAN COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Rev. M. Roy Gellatly, convener, reports that the format of the Triennial Assembly of the C.C.C. held in Winnipeg, November 27-30, 1972, was that of a study conference followed by a consultation between representatives of the Churches. The business was almost an incidental matter, dealt with in the main by the Central and Executive Committees. The role of the Council, therefore, is clearly not legislative but rather inspirational and provocative, providing a forum for the exchange of ideas and concerns, hopefully leading to co-operative action.

The theme speaker for the study conference was the newly-elected General Secretary of the World Council of Churches, the Rev. Dr. Philip Potter. He expounded the Biblical basis of the theme "Salvation Today", a theme under study for two decades by the International Missionary Council, now merged into the W.C.C. as the Department of Evangelism and Mission. Dr. Potter developed this theme by examining Humanization, Social Justice, and Hope as three dimensions of Salvation with applications in today's world. What it means for all men under God to be truly human was the point he was exploring.

Seven study groups considered this basic question in terms of six areas of concern: Economic Justice in Canada, Global Economic Justice, Ecology, French/English Relations in Canada, Native Peoples of Canada, and Religious Diversity and Christian Mission. Visitors and observers from the Roman Catholic Church (a delegation of 11 appointed from the Canadian Synod of Bishops), the National Indian Brotherhood, the National Black Coalition, and various other organizations provided a wide spectrum of interests.

Issue Groups: The study group on Native Peoples was able to gain a first-hand understanding of some of the problems and projects of the National Indian Brotherhood, with the result that a number of resolutions were formulated indicating ways the Churches could identify with the native peoples of Canada in their stance of an oppressed minority with little power. Northern Development was a major theme since development is carried out without consulting the people affected in the areas. In all dealings with the federal government, "Aboriginal Title" to the land is an important concept as a basis of negotiation for native peoples, yet the legal status of this claim will need to be clearly defined. A rather nebulous proposal to call together a world-wide International Aboriginal Peoples' Conference to further the search for dignity and social justice was endorsed in principle and financial requests will be forthcoming.

One of our own delegation, the Rev. Jean Porret of Montreal, the only Protestant delegate there whose first tongue is French, explained to the Council that the Churches were doing little to bridge the French-English gulf in Canada. In fact, the Council's ignoring of French was typical of the Churches. Other areas of disadvantage in the economic and political life of Canada forces French-Canadians to go it alone. In response the Council passed some legislation to set its own house in order, making bilingualism a reality in future by building this into the structures, and making French-English relations a continuing study in order to promote and sustain understanding and closer ties. This response was then suggested as an example to all the member Churches.

Dr. Eoin S. MacKay of our Church, now on the staff of the C.C.C., had just returned from the Far East where he had visited South Vietnam. He vividly described the situation there in terms of the effect on the country and on the Christian Churches there. He pointed to some of the immediate needs that would be faced in the light of a ceasefire. The position of the Canadian Government was considered both as a supplier of materials for war and as a potential peacemaker. An important statement was issued as a resolution of the Council to be forwarded to the Government as the mind of the Council and to the member Churches for their own action as they deemed appropriate.

The issue group on "Economic Justice — Redistribution of Income, Global" had three younger members of our delegation involved (Brian Ruttan, Nick Vandermay, Kathleen Hummelen). The report made by this group to the Assembly was "based on the premise that liberation means the opportunity for the world's peoples to become fully human, and that we ourselves need to be liberated from the present structures from which we, as a whole, benefit, but from which most people do not." While the discussion brought out many concerns such as the non-action on resolutions passed in world meetings (e.g. U.N.C.T.A.D.) and the Churches not using its available resources (e.g. church members at shareholders' meeting) the talk returned many times to the need for education of the "grass-roots".

The two groups considering "Religious Diversity and Christian Mission" (this had proven to be the most popular choice of delegates hence the two groups) each took completely different lines. One group began by asking what is distinctive about the Christian faith and this led into our Christian ambitions for the non-Christian. The second group had the benefit of a Jewish rabbi for one session in small groups and the discussion was then gathered together in a statement considering the missions of Christians and non-Christians, dialogue for understanding and co-operation in facing issues, and ways of effecting change:

1. Mission. The Christian witness to the Lordship of Christ and the full and unique revelation of God through His Son by His Spirit compels us to share a wide basis of understanding with other religions of what is involved in authentic human existence. Other religions under God share with Christianity a sense of mission to the world. Judaism, for example, though striving for peaceful co-existence with all men, nevertheless, is under the obligation of teaching and embodying the Law of God with its ethical and charitable demands on all humanity.

2. Dialogue. Christian commitment to teaching the love of God as the content of the faith underlines the urgency of seeking deep understanding and sharing with all those who likewise are in God's mission to liberate from all that dehumanizes man. How can each religious man and group be God's servant in this task? Our varying stances require that meaningful dialogue takes place, speaking from faith to faith, sharing attitudes and life as well as ideas, experiencing inter-cultural and inter-faith understanding so that our common task of service might be undertaken as neighbours in one global village, reflecting both diversity and unity.

Meaningful dialogue requires a listening attitude which goes far beyond polite acceptance, but to be mutually honest will involve the freedom of share deep experience and challenge differences at points of tension. Facing issues together in an atmosphere of mutual respect delivers all sides from arrogance, propaganda, or competitive proselytizing. Power must be sacrificed and service to man under God made the focus of concern. Rather than seeking a lowest common denominator, dialogue ensures that each religious man is free to be himself and to make his full contribution in witness and service.

3. Change. Sharing through dialogue brings out areas of long-standing grievance and, therefore, guilt must be dealt with. Until understanding proceeds to the point of confrontation whereby guilt might be dealt with and past wrongs redressed or forgiven no real change can be effected. Flagellation is not the purpose or end of the dialogue, yet this can become a major pitfall inhibiting change.

Does change in a radical or revolutionary sense involve violence? The world at present is tied by systems, inherited from a violent past, which have violence implicit in them. Future-directed religious men, guided by hope, seeking peace and understanding, must wrestle with ways of effecting change (including the use of violence). Religious man has faith, however, that God is active in the world and leads us into the future."

ACTIONS OF THE ASSEMBLY:

1. Adoption of revised constitution

One of the most important actions of the 1972 Triennial Assembly was the adoption of a revised constitution on which the Council has been working for many years. It is interesting to note that the basis and the purposes remain the same while the statement of functions has been changed.

The basis of the Council is still "the Canadian Council of Churches is a fellowship of churches which confess the Lord Jesus Christ as God and Saviour according to the scriptures and therefore seek to fulfil together their common calling to the glory of the one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit".

The purpose contained in the following six paragraphs were reaffirmed:

1. To engage in ecumenical education, training and action by which God's mission may be served and the life of the Church may be renewed;
2. To study, speak and act on conditions in the nation and in the world which involve moral, and spiritual principles inherent in the Christian Gospel, particularly when issues of justice, liberty, peace and war, and human rights and relationships are of urgent concern;
3. To challenge the member churches in matters of common concern which may require statement or action on their part;
4. To bring the member churches into living encounter with one another, and to promote understanding and helpful relationships among them and with other Canadian churches and religious bodies in Canada;
5. To assist the churches in the examination of their witness and service in accordance with their understanding of the purpose of God to bring all things on earth and in heaven into unity in Jesus Christ;

6. To respond creatively to social change and, in the name of Jesus Christ, to influence directly or indirectly the process of change in the movements of Canadian history.

The major changes were in the statements of functions and in some streamlining of structure. The Council now states explicitly as its first function:

"To provide a central co-ordinating service through which member churches and agencies can share their individual and collective resources (e.g. manpower, finances, research, planning, etc.) for application towards activities in which all or any members wish to participate".

The other functions are now stated:

2. To gather information and share it with member churches and agencies.
3. To carry out experimental, innovative programs arising from the request of a church or group of churches or in response to a specific opportunity, approved by the Executive and funded by participating members or from extra-budgetary sources.
4. To provide a co-ordinating service at the request of the member churches and related agencies for the preparation and submission of briefs and statements to all levels of government, other organizations and the public. From time to time the Council may suggest to the churches and related agencies concerns and issues which ought to be the subject of such briefs and statements.
5. To be a vehicle through which member churches, related agencies and other interested parties can come together to discuss, study and act on basic issues of mutual concern in faith and worship, witness and service.
6. To assist the member churches, related organizations and other interested bodies, in their response to ecumenical initiatives and activity such as those represented by the World Council of Churches; and to aid in the development of ecumenism in Canada through assistance, when required, to local and regional ecumenical groups.

The Council sees itself not as an additional instrument paralleling the churches but rather as an instrument formed by the churches so that their common strength of one or more of the member churches can be joined in almost any type of combined effort in Christian Witness. The Council provides an agency through which the Christian community can rally its full strength for the service of Christ in particular needs and objects.

2. The Ecumenical Institute of Canada

The Council approved plans for a more competent study of the future development of the Ecumenical Institute of Canada. After two years of study it has become apparent that this institute is paralleled in theological training of the laity as well as non-theological college courses for ordained workers in special areas by a number of institutes carried on separately by denominations. An exploratory process has been done to see if the work and resources of the Centre for Christian Studies carried on by the Anglican and United Churches, Ewart College, the Baptist Lay Training Centre, the Scarboro Seminary, might be co-ordinated for a very effective witness as a cluster of Christian Training Centres at the non-theological college level, similar to the Toronto School of Theology at the theological college standard. In these separate schools tremendous resources are available but most of them are suffering considerable frustration and spending large sums of money to produce very small result. The Council through its Executive Committee has authorized the use of a consultant to do an in-depth study of ways by which the work and resources of these various separate centres may be integrated into a pioneer program of training for the laity in the mission of the church, both in Canada and around the world, in a co-ordinated way. This could be a very exciting and creative move in an area where all engaged in study of theological institutions feel new and different steps must be taken, i.e. in the theological training of the laity.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the General Assembly name two observers-consultants to represent us on invitation at the consultations of the Anglican-United General Commission on Church Union.
2. That the Committee on Inter-Church Relations be given authority to name two delegates to the 5th Assembly of the World Council of Churches meeting in 1975.

Convener.

Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

DECENTRALIZED SUPPORT

In reports from the Synods it would appear that the most helpful policy of the Board of Christian Education has been the decentralization of support and resources. This has taken the form of making available substantial grants through Synod committees for the development of leadership and the hiring of part-time consultants for service within the Presbyteries, and a regional deployment of Educational Resource Persons.

For such a policy of decentralization to be effective there must be a greater executive capacity within Synods and Presbyteries, together with effective support structures for church education by which the needs of congregations are clearly known by Presbytery committees. Between now and the end of December, 1973, the Board will be working on these matters in a two-fold approach. It will be exploring ways in which national staff can strengthen the executive capacity of Synods and Areas. It will be encouraging the appointment and training of Congregational Liaison Persons to provide Presbytery committees with the direct contact they need with each congregation within their bounds.

STRATEGIES FOR LEADERSHIP

The area of greatest need which "support for church education" is intended to serve is the development of effective leadership. The Synods have urged continuing support for the personal development of leaders and for developing their leadership skills and abilities. Along with this, is the need for the listing and making available of a variety of approaches, designs, and adaptations of resources for leadership development.

The above concerns come together when Synods or Presbyteries are identifying their leadership needs and planning to meet them. To assist in this process, the Board has introduced an approach to developing strategies by which needs can be more accurately identified and resources can be brought to bear more effectively in both long and short range plans. This approach to "strategizing" has been introduced in some Presbyteries and is being carefully evaluated and developed so that it may be increasingly useful for other Presbyteries.

BOARD OF CONGREGATIONAL LIFE

The Board of Christian Education has submitted an assessment of the functions it serves to a task group of the Board of Congregational Life. It has received from the Board of Congregational Life a draft proposal of the possible structuring of the B.C.L. so that these functions and those presently carried out by other boards and committees serving congregational life might be unified. It has submitted its critique of this proposal to the Board of Congregational Life and anticipates continuing discussion as the final proposal is drafted for this General Assembly. Every co-operation will be given to the B.C.L. and the Organization and Planning Committee in carrying through the co-ordination of services as helpfully as possible.

BOYS' WORK

In assessing what has been done in church education, Boys' Work has been a major area of neglect. The Synod of the Atlantic Provinces has been an exception, drawing from grants available to them to provide leadership in Boys' Work. In 1971, through these small grants, a pastor was released from his congregation for periods of time in order to train and encourage leaders in Boys' Work in other areas of the Synod. This was so successful that additional amounts were used in 1972 to enable two pastors to carry out this development. In 1973 the Synod will be using a grant for a Consultant in Education to hire a retired Boys' Work leader for a limited period of time for further training of leaders and development of Boys' Work within the Synod.

This is an example that might well be followed in other areas. It should also be noted that organizations such as the Boys' Brigade and the Scouting movement have persons available for the training of leaders and are happy to co-operate with churches in developing training programs.

CENTENNIAL

The Board of Christian Education will be co-operating with other boards and committees in assisting in the celebration of our Church's Centennial. It is proposed that there should be supplementary material for use in church education dealing with the history and mission of The Presbyterian Church in Canada. It is also being recommended to camp committees that during Centennial Year a "Family/Leadership" Camp might be held which would combine the development of leadership abilities with the cultivation of family living.

CHURCH AND UNIVERSITY

Twenty-four persons working as either full-time ecumenically appointed university chaplains or part-time denominational chaplains are ministering on 19 university campuses across Canada on behalf of the Presbyterian Church. There are also new possibilities on the horizon for ministry among French-speaking students in the province of Quebec. In addition, many Presbyterians continue to relate either as student participants or staff members to the Inter Varsity Christian Fellowship and the Student Christian Movement. The Committee on the Church and the University is encouraged to see this level of interest in ministries in higher education.

During the progress towards a Board of Congregational Life the Committee on the Church and the University has been posed with the question as to whether it would relate best to that new Board or might come under some other agency. After much deliberation their decision was that they would like to explore the possibility of being related to the Board of World Mission. The Board of Christian Education has given its encouragement to the Committee on the Church and the University to explore that possibility in consultation with the Organization and Planning Committee.

CHURCH SCHOOL MATERIALS

Most persons are aware that recommended resources for use in the Nursery through Grade 6 in our church include the Christian Faith and Action resources or the Covenant Life Curriculum resources. Many seem not to know, however, that there are other recommended resources for church schools which find it impossible to use these materials. For the smaller schools where grading is difficult there are the Uniform Co-operative Lessons Series. These do not provide the same scope for educational procedures that is possible by using more sophisticated materials but they provide good Bible teaching and are solidly within our Presbyterian tradition.

In classes and groups beyond Grade 6 it is expected that planning will be done co-operatively by leader and students and that selection of resources will be made from the Catalogue of Resources for Ministry with Youth and Young Adults or from the Programming Guide for Christian Action for adults. There is also a slim catalogue of Resources for Adult Study available from this Board.

YOUNG ADULT OBSERVERS

For the past few years successive General Assemblies have asked the Board of Christian Education to arrange for Young Adult Observers to share in the proceedings of the following General Assembly. There have been problems in the selecting of these young people and in making use of the experience which they have gained when they returned to their Presbyteries.

The Board has made careful study of this practice over the past few years and is offering recommendations to this General Assembly which it feels will make this practice more effective. Specifically, it is recommending that approximately one half of the Presbyteries each year, on an alternating basis, should be invited to nominate a young person who shall become a Youth Delegate to the General Assembly. These young people will then be delegates from their respective Presbyteries and responsible for reporting back to those Presbyteries and to as many youth as possible within the bounds of the Presbytery.

The Board of Congregational Life should continue to supervise this procedure and should ensure that each National Co-ordinating Body representative has an opportunity of being a Youth Delegate to the General Assembly some time during their period of office.

TEAM FOR YOUTH MINISTRY

On instruction from the 96th General Assembly, the Board of Christian Education brought forward to the National Development Fund Allocations Committee a proposal for a Team for Youth Ministry project for three years. The funds that could be made available at that time were just sufficient for two years, after which the project was to be reviewed as to the value of its continuance for the third year.

The Board of Christian Education and the young people in the Synods have been disappointed that we have not been able to fully staff the project as was intended from the beginning. This has been largely due to the difficulty in obtaining top quality persons for very short time employment. However, we have been very pleased with the impact which the Co-ordinator of the Team for Youth Ministry, the Rev. Ted Sivers, has been able to make upon youth and youth ministry throughout our church. Through a great variety of workshops, seminars, conferences, a great deal of personal contact and working with committees he has helped to clarify an understanding of youth ministry and develop skills for youth ministry among many throughout the church. In addition, a new awareness as to the great variety of resources available for youth ministry has been created.

The Board of Christian Education has recommended that funds be made available to ensure the completion of the three-year period for this project. It is hoped that funds for this will be included in recommendations to this General Assembly. The major focus in the final year of the project will be in developing within each of the Synods of our church persons who will have special knowledge and skills to be resource persons for training and supporting leaders in youth ministry within their Synod.

NATIONAL CO-ORDINATING BODY

The 96th General Assembly also instructed the Board of Christian Education to call together a representative group of youth and young adults from throughout the church to provide counsel regarding new directions in youth and young adult ministry. The result of this consultation held in the Fall of 1971 was the proposal of a National Co-ordinating Body for Co-educational Youth Groups in The Presbyterian Church in Canada. This proposal, along with Guidelines for the functioning of the body, were approved by the 98th General Assembly.

The Guidelines were to be reviewed following a year of experience with recommendations to this General Assembly. The Board of Christian Education, with its Team for Youth Ministry consultant and the National Co-ordinating Body itself, have reviewed the Guidelines in the light of experience and expectation and would submit the following revised Guidelines:

1. (i) The name of this body shall be "The National Co-ordinating Body for Co-Educational Youth Groups in The Presbyterian Church in Canada", hereafter known as the National Co-ordinating Body, or N.C.B.
(ii) The National Co-ordinating Body shall be for all co-educational youth groups whose members are between the ages of 14 and 28. (See p. 42.)
2. The N.C.B. shall have as its purpose:
 - (i) To present Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.
 - (ii) To lead young people into fellowship and communion with Him.
 - (iii) To guide and encourage young people in Christian faith and obedience in their daily living.
 - (iv) To teach young people to practise Christian stewardship of the whole of life, time, talent and treasury.
 - (v) To promote the spirit of, and support the work of Christian missions.
 - (vi) To encourage young people to be interested, active, and well informed church members.
3. The specific function of the N.C.B. shall be: to represent young people of The Presbyterian Church in Canada; to assist communication and to foster unity among those young people; to provide programmes, resources, projects and information for those young people; to advise resource persons and special projects of needs, ideas, problems and successes concerning programmes, resources, projects and information at the various levels of young people's work.
4. The N.C.B. shall consist of one voting representative from each Synod of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, plus one voting representative elected by and from the outgoing N.C.B. representatives plus at least one non-voting representative from the Board of Congregational Life.
5. Representatives to the N.C.B. shall be appointed as follows:
 - (i) Representation on the N.C.B. shall be open to members of The Presbyterian Church in Canada between the ages of 14 and 28 years.
 - (ii) The Synod Christian Education Committee or its equivalent shall be responsible for holding an annual meeting of Synod youth to elect an N.C.B. representative and alternate(s). The annual meeting shall be arranged in consultation with existing youth organizations providing for either:
 - (a) an opportunity for each youth group or congregation without a youth group to send two voting delegates;
 - or
 - (b) an opportunity for each Presbytery to send two voting delegates elected at an annual Presbytery youth meeting. Provision will be made for each youth group or congregation without a youth group to send two voting delegates to this meeting.
 - (iii) The names of the representatives and alternates shall be submitted to the Board of Congregational Life through the Synod Christian Education Committee or its equivalent within fifteen days of the election.
 - (iv) The Board of Congregational Life shall be authorized to select a representative and alternative(s) from any Synod which has not elected these by October 31 of each calendar year.
 - (v) No person may serve as an N.C.B. representative for more than three years.
6. A chairman, and, if necessary, other officers shall be selected by the N.C.B. from within its membership in order to carry on the work of the N.C.B.
7. The N.C.B. shall implement its functions by:
 - (a) Sharing reports and information monthly through a newsletter.
 - (b) Meeting each year between Thanksgiving and the New Year. This meeting

- will be the annual meeting and will include orientation and training for new members.
- (c) Meeting each year prior to the General Assembly with a time to be arranged immediately before Assembly for conferring with the Youth Delegates to the General Assembly.
 - (d) Conferring between these meetings by conference telephone as needed.
 - (e) Delegating responsibilities to N.C.B. members to ensure that the following areas of concern are met:
 - (i) Resources
 - (ii) Communications
 - (iii) Correspondence
 - (iv) Programmes
 - (v) Finances
 - (vi) Leadership training
 - (vii) and such other areas as may from time to time become apparent.
 - (f) Promoting regional or national youth camps and conferences.
 - (g) By being a consultative and support body for youth ministry projects; suggesting priorities and sharing in financial and personnel decisions.
8. A quorum for the N.C.B. shall be two-thirds of the voting membership plus a representative from the Board of Congregational Life.
 9. If no official representative or alternate from a Synod can attend a meeting, then the representative will send a written report and he may also send a non-voting delegate to the N.C.B. to share the Synod's information on his behalf.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. (a) that the practice of having young persons attending each General Assembly be continued under the responsibility of the Board of Congregational Life and these young persons be designated "Youth Delegates".
- (b) that one half of the Presbyteries each year be invited to appoint a Youth Delegate to the General Assembly.
- (c) that where a Presbytery has not made such an appointment by May 1 the Board of Congregational Life have authority to make an appointment.
2. that the revised N.C.B. Guidelines as printed above be approved.
3. that in the light of the reduced age of majority and the meaning of church membership the Committee on Church Doctrine be directed to study the Book of Forms chapter III, section 106, paragraph (a) and report to the next General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
B. H. MCNEEL,
Chairman.

A. E. BAILEY,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEE BOARD

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

During the year necessary discharges, postponements, leases, title deeds, releases and similar documents were executed under seal of the Board on behalf of the various departments of the Church.

Frequently documents are presented to the Board for immediate execution without adequate time to allow for a review of them. This Board recommends that all departments of the Church, when presenting legal documents for execution be requested to allow sufficient time for adequate review before execution.

In accordance with the Act of Incorporation, the Board presents lists of securities:

- (i) which have been purchased or received during the year;
- (ii) which have matured or have been sold during the year; and
- (iii) held by The Trustee Board at December 31, 1972 on behalf of the several funds of the Church.

Copies of these lists are available for the commissioners to the General Assembly.

The Board would like to report once again its appreciation for the invaluable assistance given to it by the Investment Advisory Committee under the chairmanship of Mr. E. C. Gill.

On October 25th, 1972 the Honourable Mr. Justice G. A. McGillivray was appointed by the Administrative Council to fill one of the vacancies on the Board. Mr. Justice McGillivray who served a previous term from November 1964 to June 1971 is a welcome addition to the Board. The Administrative Council will recommend to this General Assembly that his appointment be confirmed.

The Board has asked the Administrative Council to recommend to the General Assembly that the Rev. A. J. Calder be appointed as a member of the Board to replace the Rev. Dr. A. L. MacKay whose term of office expires at the end of June 1973 and that Mr. W. D. S. Morden, Q.C. be appointed as a member to fill a vacancy on the Board.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. R. G. AMENT,
Chairman.

J. B. BARBOUR,
Secretary.

THE NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

Although the five-year campaign to raise the National Development Fund ended in December 1972, collection procedures will be kept in operation till 1975 to accommodate over 600 congregations which are still working on their commitments. The Campaign Committee has handed over the collection operation to the Board of Stewardship and Budget.

Contributions to the Fund at December 31, 1972, were $2,483,161. Outstanding pledges are being revalued because some congregations have stated that they will be unable to reach their commitments. 59 congregations made initial contributions in 1972 thus reducing the number of non-participants to 279. 125 congregations had completed their commitments by December 1972. The financial statement will be found with the Church Treasurer's Report, and the list of allocations made from the Fund will be included in the Report of the Administrative Council.

The Campaign Committee lost the services of the Executive Director, Dr. James Alan Munro who died suddenly on June 19, 1972, and of the National Chairman, Mr. Maxwell Bell who died on July 19, 1972. Mr. Bell had been in indifferent health for several years, and so was unable to help after getting the campaign launched, but Dr. Munro was giving vigorous leadership until his death.

One of Dr. Munro's schemes to stimulate interest in the campaign was an essay contest for young teen-agers. The response was not as good as he would have wished but some creditable efforts were made. The Clerks of Assembly, who acted as judges of the essay contest, awarded first prize to Jane Little, second prize to Gerry Schep and third prize to Jane Mitchell.

The Committee regrets that the original objective for the National Development Fund will not be reached. Several reasons have been given for the short-fall, lack of publicity, priority of heavy local commitments by some congregations, inadequate leadership in certain areas, — but the fact that some congregations in every area reached or exceeded their allocations means that others could have done the same had they tried. Even so it is the largest capital fund raised by our church, and we hope that the final figure will be several hundred thousand higher than at present.

There is satisfaction in knowing that the Fund has been operating according to the published objectives. In addition to the category "B" projects reported by the Administrative Council, it should be noted that the total investment income paid into the general funds of the church since 1967 has amounted to $301,947.

In its final report the Committee wishes to thank the many presbytery and regional leaders who have energetically and faithfully promoted the Fund in their respective areas.

Respectfully submitted,

F. G. STEWART,
Vice Chairman.

H. F. DAVIDSON,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO STUDY BASIS AND PURPOSE OF THE CHURCH MISSION TASK

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

At its first meeting the Committee felt it had an important decision to make as to its modus operandi in carrying out its assigned task in obedience to General Assembly's directive. Having regard to the fact that the nature and purpose of Christian mission, with particular reference to overseas missions, have been increasingly the subject of much research and voluminous writing over the last half-century, the Committee might have elected to discharge its task by preparing some sort of resume of the views expressed. It was felt, however, that such a method could achieve little beyond an unconvincing and unhelpful pot-pourri of conflicting viewpoints.

As a further alternative, the Committee had to decide whether perhaps a simple statement, formulated on the spot to the best of our ability and unsupported by any in-depth study, might suffice. But such a possibility seemed to be ruled out by the terms of reference which specifically required the Committee, once having defined its conclusions as to the Biblical basis and purpose of Christian mission, then to proceed to indicate resultant priorities. This appeared to preclude any simple and superficial approach to its assignment.

In the end it was decided that these very terms of reference demanded nothing short of a careful and comprehensive study of the whole field of inquiry, involving a thorough knowledge of the relevant bibliography. Thus it became obvious that all of this would call for a great deal of time and considerable effort from each Committee member.

As a practical beginning it was agreed that particular areas of study should be assigned to particular members of the Committee. These areas of study involved the following:

- The Biblical imperatives relative to the basis and purpose of mission.
- The relation between mission and theology.
- Mission with relation to established national Churches.
- Mission and the problems of contemporary world politics and economics.
- Mission and the non-Christian religions.

By such means it was hoped that certain basic principles would emerge, representing a consensus of conviction within the Committee itself, from which point, hopefully, we might then formulate a fairly comprehensive statement. But, at the time of writing this report, it is by no means evident that such can be achieved so quickly. It may very well be that much more time and effort will have to be expended in order to realize even that limited objective.

Even so, it seems reasonable that any such statement should be submitted to the scrutiny and judgment of many other people, including at least some of those presently engaged in activities that, strictly speaking, fall within the category of mission. Such a modus operandi means that the Committee cannot undertake to present anything in the nature of a final report earlier than to the General Assembly of 1974. Meantime the Committee would beg leave to report diligence and ask for prayerful support in attempting to carry out its so important assignment.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the resignation of the Rev. Dr. D. T. Evans, consequent on his appointment to the Policy Committee of the Board of World Mission, be accepted with regret.
2. That the Rev. L. L. de Groot replace Dr. Evans on this Committee.
3. That General Assembly, in the interests of continuity, confirm the appointment of members of the Committee already named, including the appointees of the respective Boards and Committees.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

MURDO NICOLSON,
Convener.

COMMITTEE ON THE REVISION OF THE BOOK OF PRAISE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

This final report of the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Praise is made in terms of the Book of Praise, Revised 1972. We are humbly grateful for the instant and wide-spread enthusiasm which has greeted the publication of the Book of Praise reflected in sales which exceeded our most adventurous early calculations. At the time of writing, the Book of Praise is into its second printing and by the time of the meeting of the 99th General Assembly, it might very well be that a third printing is being undertaken.

The Committee on the Revision of the Book of Praise would express to the 99th General Assembly its gratitude for the high privilege of serving the Church in the preparation of this Book. The members of the Committee have been greatly enriched by the disciplined study of hymnody necessitated by our commission, and it is our prayer that the Church's song will be equally enriched by the noble literature of hymnody that is encompassed within the covers of the Book of Praise. We humbly pray that the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ shall be highly exalted in the Church by the singing of these psalms and hymns of praise.

We would remind this Assembly that by the adoption of recommendation #3, the Report of the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Praise, page 468, Acts and Proceedings, 1972; that the Committee on Church Worship becomes, on the adoption of this report, the custodian of the Revised Book of Praise. With the increasing volume of correspondence requesting, information concerning hymn sources and copyrights, available guidance and instruction, help for congregational and Presbytery teach-ins, we become seriously aware of the magnitude of the responsibility which is now placed upon the Committee on Church Worship.

Recommendation:

1. That the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Praise be now dissolved.

H. DOUGLAS STEWART, Acting Convener.

ASSEMBLY REPORT SUPPLEMENT TO THE BOOK OF PRAISE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Committee to "prepare a Supplement to the Book of Praise", appointed by the 98th General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, has made considerable progress in fulfilling its appointed task. As of April 1st, the Committee has met on six occasions. We are continuing to make an extensive survey and study of materials which relate to our terms of reference.

Work has begun on the procurement of copyright; and on the writing of the manuscript. Although not a commission which can be completed in haste, we hope to have the material for the Supplement ready for the press early in 1974.

We envisage a book containing approximately 100 songs and hymns, many of which will be modern folk-type pieces. Both words and music will be printed, together with suggested guitar chords. The name for the Supplement has not yet been chosen.

We would recommend to the 99th General Assembly

- (a) that the Committee be continued
- (b) that the Committee be connected with the Assembly's Church Worship Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

DIANE READER,
Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON THE TRAINING OF PROFESSIONAL CHURCH WORKERS

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

This is our fourth annual report, summarizing three years of work (we were organized just prior to the 1970 General Assembly). It should be our final report, since the new Board of Ministry will continue our function in a new form; we hope it will prove of greater effect than our own. For we have encountered severe problems in our efforts to study the work of "theological education". Committee members have expressed considerable frustration in trying to fulfil our terms of reference; insofar as this can be overcome by a better way of organizing decision-making and recommending to General Assemblies, we are hopeful that the new Board may prove effective.

PART I AREAS OF STUDY

Our original proposal (1970) was to study two subjects, and to test the relationship between them: the nature of Christian ministry and models of theological education.

We were established (under terms of reference supplied by the LAMP Report) because a sense of dis-ease about "the ministry" had arisen in our church, a sense that the so-called "crisis of identity" and "crisis of authority" needed an objective study that might suggest different ways of being ministers, and different ways of training for these alternative styles of ministry.

Our first year of work, therefore, issued in a statement (1971) sent down to Presbyteries which developed the ideas of shared ministry as the general model for the various kinds of ministry now in vogue. We pointed out that historically, the Court of Presbytery was intended to function as a sharing of oversight, a "corporate episcopacy" as it has been termed. We suggested that the present spate of problems about ministry stems in large part from "the loss of this sense of corporate or collegial identity". And we concluded that our colleges need to face the challenge of shared ministry as the model which should guide their way of teaching and training professional church workers.

Presbytery response to our statement was not encouraging. While most of the replies agreed that "sharing" is good as an ideal, there was little consensus about transferring the lesson of this model to congregational and Presbytery structures, or to the colleges. So we summed up our argument once again:

"If in the past we have failed to develop the sort of theological education appropriate to such ministry, and to develop congregational and presbytery structures that will encourage both clergy and laity to participate in such tasks, we dare not change the model but must examine ourselves as to where we must reform in order to embody it more truly" (1972 A&P, 433).

A brief section below will outline our most recent study, under a task group on the nature of ministry.

Other areas of study have included the care of students. We produced a series of forms governing certification procedures, which were authorized by the 1972 Assembly. These provide formal procedures, but require the diligent attention of Sessions and Presbyteries in the oversight of students at every level, if the colleges are to be helped in the difficult task of assessing candidates and in genuine caring. The subject of "pre-admission counselling and testing of students" remains critical. We have examined the interesting pattern used by the Church of Scotland, thanks to the work of Prof. Murdo Ewen MacDonald. In order to keep this concern before the church as a priority, we will recommend that the new Board of Ministry prepare a blueprint for a screening program for a future Assembly.

Another area of study has been continuing education. We have helped the church to implement the 1969 Assembly ruling and are happy that the matter is now in the hands of the Personnel Committee. Education for a shared ministry involves not only the college training period, but a life long process. We hope that our colleges take further steps to provide this process for all our professional church workers.

The question of the status of deaconesses has also concerned us, although our proposal to the 1972 Assembly (A&P 434) was combined with similar proposals and is now in other hands.

The Vancouver School of Theology is the subject of report and recommendation, below.

Other concerns which we will communicate to the new Board of Ministry include the following:

- a. recommending to future Assemblies practical means of implementing the idea of "continuing education as a lifelong process", so that presbyteries will be responsible for overseeing regular continuing education by all their clergy.
- b. the study of forms of leadership development in congregational and presbytery life, so that insecurity of both clergy and laity may be alleviated insofar as it results from confusion of roles and failure to honour the sharing nature of Christian ministry.
- c. the provision of supportive groups for Deaconesses (as part of the general problem of caring groups for professional church workers) while the church deliberates the legal aspects of their status.
- d. finding ways and means of encouraging open and shared ministries, especially at the congregational level, e.g. by NDF funds for experimental ministries.

Now we turn to our continuing thesis that the nature of ministry and the shape of theological education go hand-in-hand.

PART II SHARING THE MINISTRY

The Presbyterian understanding of ministry might be approached as follows: the only proper "Minister" is Jesus Christ himself. The Church is graced to participate in his continuing ministry as a whole, and this wholeness is expressed by the sharing carried out through the group known as Presbytery. One could argue that the only right use of the title "The Reverend" is not for individuals but for that "corporate person" known as "The Reverend the Presbytery". Thus the essentially corporate or shared meaning of ministry becomes clear: no individual holds his ministry on his own, or because of his rights (as gifted, ordained, or whatever). It is shared with him through a decision of the larger group which in turn receives participation or sharing as Christ's gift to the whole church.

"Sharing the ministry" focuses our question on the kind of person able to function well in a vocation of sharing with others. Individualism works against the very nature of ministry: a different "style" is demanded. Is our theological education — not only in our three Colleges, but at Presbytery and congregational levels — the best preparation for such style?

To pursue our work of answering such questions, we have conducted two studies during the past year, under two task groups. The first surveyed various professional training institutions about their understanding of teamwork and their preparation of students for it. The Health professions in particular are moving toward the "health team concept". A group of complementary specialists, for instance — doctors, nurses, dentists, social workers perhaps — work together as "co-operative individuals" rather than "solo individuals". Social workers also speak of learning the art of "inter-professional collaboration". Similar professional training for teamwork appears in faculties of law and of education.

In theological education itself, the growth of forms of "clinical pastoral education" and "supervised training" reflects the needs of pastors for skills necessary in interpersonal relationships. The new degrees in "Ministry" (e.g. Princeton Seminary's Doctor of Ministry program began last year) suggest similar recognition of a positive, proper kind of "professionalism". The American Association of Theological Schools, in its quarterly journal Theological Education (AATS Office, Dayton, Ohio) offers regular reports and models in the above fields. Their experts see the same logic that your committee has discovered: "education to the ministry asks for a vision of the ministry from which concrete methods and approaches can come forth" (Autumn 1972, 48). AATS is also sponsoring seminars for professors of theology in the "case study method" of the Harvard Business School model, a problem-solving approach involving group research and decision.

In a day when decision-making has become so complex (e.g. when does life begin? when does death occur?) that it will require teams of specialists to seek for consensus, Christian ministry must offer itself as a tested form of sharing. But our Committee research, and the church's replies to our study document of 1971, suggest that we are unsure of our model of ministry, and not ready to engage wholeheartedly in a ministry which breaks the "prima donna syndrome" as one Presbytery expressed it. Therefore our conclusion after this period of study and dialogue is this: our earlier definition of Christian ministry as "corporate ministry shared among the total group" remains valid. Whether the "group" in question be smaller or larger units than a congregation, it needs now to be spelled out so that the nature of sharing becomes clearer and the style of "sharing persons" becomes the normative model for congregational life and theological education.

PART III PROPHET, PRIEST, KING

Our study of the goals or objectives of theological education has included this year a preliminary discussion of the traditional "three offices" of ministry — a most interesting example of a "functional" approach. A working paper presented by one of our members made some helpful points. 1) Our traditional training has emphasized the "prophetic" role, interpreted as preaching. Yet this involves, at times, a certain loneliness or alienation, the "voice in the wilderness" type. Perhaps this is a major source of clerical insecurity. 2) The "priestly" function in our reformed view has been a corporate one, although Presbytery responsibility is often neglected. Thus some clergymen see their role as priestly-pastoral, both towards their own congregations and toward one another within Presbytery. But the perennial problem of rivalry and competitive power structures works against sharing this function. 3) The "kingly" role or ruling function was intended as a positive rather than negative "discipline" or building up the people of God. But here again, the sort of "leadership" the church often has in mind is too charismatic and occasional to benefit from structures meant to encourage a sharing role.

We do not necessarily recommend the threefold functional definition as adequate, but we think it a fruitful approach to explore.

We will recommend that the new Board of Ministry involve our three colleges in a study of their goals in light of the above sections. We will also recommend other areas of concern as a follow-up to our committee work.

PART IV FIELD WORK AND INTERNSHIP PROGRAMS

We have surveyed and studied this area, and consider it to be a priority in theological education. That is, it is not a "practical subject" to be added on and fitted in, where possible, to "academic subjects"; rather, it permeates all disciplines as a style of learning, and serves to mark the properly "professional" nature of theological studies. We believe that our usual approach has taken the former way — casual and makeshift, whereas our study leads us to conclude that academic training and supervised practical experience must be integrated as a unified process in theological education. Appreciating what the colleges are attempting to do in this area, we will recommend a) that our colleges be asked to implement this concept of integration more fully in their curriculum design, including staffing for adequate supervision; and b) that the Administrative Council be asked to make available to the colleges the funds necessary for implementing the design.

Our committee is aware of the requests of Knox and Ewart Colleges that have been submitted to the General Assembly for the appointment of staff persons whose duties would involve a closer liaison with pre-entry and registered students. Since we began, our committee stand has been that Christian ministry is corporate or shared ministry, which means for the student an opportunity for the development of closer relationship with staff and peers. We believe that persons so related in each college would be instrumental in developing a style of education which would include field education. Therefore we have urged the Administrative Council to proceed with funding the appointment of such persons for our training institutions.

PART V CO-ORDINATING COMMITTEE ON THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION

Dr. A. E. Bailey has represented our Church on this interdenominational committee under appointment by our committee. This year he has reported to us a most significant move on which we seek the Assembly's decision. Last year we indicated the general purpose of the Co-ordinating Committee, which operates with a national perspective and which seeks commonly accepted standards in theological education. Now that Knox College is related to the Toronto School of Theology and Presbyterian College to the McGill Faculty of Religious Studies, the co-operative nature of theological education today is evident. One of our recommendations, indeed, asks for a study of the implications of such engagement.

The new proposal of the Co-ordinating Committee is to sponsor an "Ecumenical Foundation" to receive funds and to disburse them in support of theological education. The formal proposal will be coming to the Administrative Council. A preliminary draft has already been shared with Knox and Presbyterian Colleges, as well as our committee, gaining approval in principle.

Briefly put, the proposal appears to be a most generous one in that it is being established by a donation of "seed money" from the United Church of Canada. Other churches will be invited to add to this basis; no sum has been set, however, nor have the means of raising it been laid down. In this matter the denominations are free to make their own decisions. The expectation is that the Foundation will attract further grants from similar Foundations, as well as providing funds from its own annual interest.

What sorts of enterprise would be financed by an Ecumenical Foundation? The hope is that given the new and co-operative situation in theological education today, new forms of training and administration will be involved, not easily funded by denominational resources. While not likely to affect the autonomy of present seminaries, such funding would enhance the quality of education and promote experiments in training for ministry.

We have requested the Administrative Council to endorse the proposal and share in the application for a charter to establish an Ecumenical Foundation in terms of the above statement.

PART VI VANCOUVER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Last year we reported that further examination of the question of participation in the Vancouver School of Theology was required. Our Sub-committee, chaired by Dr. Jesse Bigelow, has continued its work most acceptably. It has explored the question of the relationship of both St. Andrew's Hall and Regent College to the Vancouver School of Theology. It has received an invitation officially inviting the Synod of B.C. to nominate two Presbyterians to Senate and one to the Board of the Vancouver School of Theology. These appointees would act as observers, with privileges of receiving agenda, documents and participating insofar as questions and answers will help clarify the situation.

We will recommend appointment of such observers, who will report to Assembly through the Board of Ministry.

We will also recommend that the mind of the Western Church be tested on the advisability of participation and that briefs be sought from our three colleges. No decision will be sought this year, since such testing seems required before committing ourselves to a step with broad implications for the pattern of our theological education.

PART VII FUTURE OF OUR COMMITTEE

We voiced the opinion last year that the proposed Board of Ministry was likely to fulfill the functions of our committee in a more effective way than our own constitution allows. We have taken two steps to assure continuity of functions. One is to ask the Assembly to forward to the new Board various of our concerns, as set out in Recommendation 1. The other is to ask the Assembly's Nominating Committee to continue our present committee with its present membership, until the new Board is operational.

We hope that we have fulfilled the Church's mandate during these three years or more of our existence. Our annual reports speak for themselves, and this final report indicates the concerns and the expectations which appear most important to us at this point.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We recommend that the new Board of Ministry be charged with the following tasks:
 - a. to co-operate with the next annual Colleges Consultation in a study of the goals of their programs, in light of the above definition of shared ministry, and the allusions to forms of training for shared vocation outlined in the report.
 - b. to bring to the next Assembly a blueprint for a continuing program of screening and supportive counselling of candidates for ministry, for the guidance of presbyteries and colleges.
 - c. since our church is being asked to become increasingly involved in ecumenical approaches to the training of professional church workers, and since we have not yet explored the advantages, disadvantages and theological implications of and possible approaches to such combined educational enterprise and implications for our present structures, to initiate a study of these matters and report to the next Assembly.

2. We recommend that the Committee on Church Doctrine initiate a study of the acculturation of faith, doctrine and practice in contemporary society, as to whether and how it contributes both to ecumenism and to sectarianism.
3. Believing that academic training and supervised practical experience must be integrated as a unified process in theological education, and appreciating what the colleges are attempting to do in this area, we recommend that our Colleges be asked to implement this concept of integration more fully in their curriculum designs, including staffing for adequate supervision; and that the Administrative Council be asked to make available to the Colleges the funds necessary for implementing the design.
4. We recommend:
 - a. that the Presbyterian Church in Canada accept the invitation from the Vancouver School of Theology to appoint one observer to the Board and two to the Senate, with privileges including receiving minutes and documents, and engaging in questions and answers for information; the observers to be appointed by the Synod of British Columbia, to report to the General Assembly annually through the Board of Ministry; and
 - b. that Presbyteries of the four Western Synods be asked to study the advisability of our participation in the Vancouver School of Theology as an authorized training centre for candidates for the ministry of our church, and to report to the Board of Ministry by January 31, 1974 (Presbyteries should consult the Committee report of 1972, A&P pp. 616-618); and
 - c. that Ewart, Knox and Presbyterian Colleges be requested to prepare briefs on the implications of our participation in the Vancouver School of Theology, to be presented to the Board of Ministry by January 31, 1974.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. McLELLAND,
Chairman.

Secretary.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY, EASTERN DIVISION REPORT FOR 1972

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Board of Management of the Woman's Missionary Society, Eastern Division, respectfully submits the following report for the year 1972.

INTEGRATION:

Since the first Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was organized in Halifax in 1876 this society has followed a policy of cooperation in the mission enterprises of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Fifty years earlier, in 1825, this pattern was established by the earliest recorded women's missionary group in Malpeque, P.E.I., when Eleven Pounds was contributed to the Synod of Nova Scotia "for missionary purposes".

This pattern of cooperation entered into a new phase in 1972 with the inauguration of the Board of World Mission, integrating all mission operations of the Church. An initial step was the transfer to the B.W.M. of all mission responsibilities previously carried by this society, including missionary personnel at home and overseas and grants to overseas projects. Originally W.M.S. (E.D.) contributions to the B.W.M. were itemized in relation to separate mission fields and projects, but in the 1972 budget we state only the total contribution to the B.W.M. for all purposes.

Integration has meant many changes in the operation of the Woman's Missionary Society (E.D.), and in consequence our Constitution is under review. For the first time in many years we are not presenting a separate mission report, since this is now the responsibility of the Board of World Mission and our mission contributions are toward the whole mission of the Church. The focus of all W.M.S. activity continues to be mission, and there has been a steady increase in receipts for mission through the usual presbyterial channels over the last five years.

MISSION EDUCATION:

Mission Education continues to be a major function of this society. The purpose of our first monthly magazine, introduced in May 1893, was to circulate missionary information, and eighty years later this is still the prime role of The Presbyterian Message. In 1972 there were 32 Overseas letters and articles, covering all the areas where our Church is at work overseas, also twelve articles on national mission and nine pages featuring mission education programs, methods and resources.

There has been a steady increase in the use of recommended mission studies by adult groups, and this has been encouraged by the development of workshops at the presbyterial level. In 1972 58% of E.D. auxiliaries used the recommended mission study, and wide use was made of church publications as study resources. Presbyterial rallies and workshops are proving helpful. Two presbyterials organized three area workshops; another reported 80% auxiliary representation at a workshop, and the smallest presbyterial reported that 75% of its members had had the opportunity of hearing a missionary speaker. A central conference at Camp Geddie was attended by members from all presbyterials except one.

The use of audio-visuals is growing, and visiting missionaries have stimulated interest and involvement in the world-wide mission of the Church. In 1972 we welcomed Miss Giollo Kelly and Rev. Desmond Howard as speakers at our 96th Annual Meeting in St. John's, Newfoundland. Later in the year many were able to meet Rev. Jen-li Tsai or Rev. Su-ti Tan, from Taiwan, also Miss Wilma Welsh, as they visited in the Atlantic Provinces.

W.M.S. (E.D.) PERSONNEL:

In the past we have not distinguished between Home Mission and Christian Education work and workers, but in the process of integration mission personnel were transferred to the B.W.M., while deaconesses with major assignments in Christian Education remained as E.D. staff. In 1972 these were:

Synod Deaconesses

Miss Christine Shaw

Miss Jean Clarke

Presbytery Deaconesses

Miss June Pratt, Pictou Presbytery — appointment ended in March.

Miss Catherine Goss, P.E.I. Presbytery — resigned in August.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION:

It is difficult to separate Christian and Mission Education. Both have been major concerns of E.D. officers and the deaconesses, who work under supervision of Synod and presbyteries. The deaconesses have given leadership in all areas of Christian Education, in some cases in a mission setting — Church School, mid-week groups, camps, V.B.S., youth and women's groups. This work is vital to the life and growth of the Church at all levels, and it is disturbing to find our deaconess force depleted at a time when reports are coming in of declining membership, especially in children's groups. This may be partly due to a change in the reporting year, but it demands our serious attention immediately. There is a crying need for leadership, and this depends finally on the concern and dedication of individuals, and the availability of assistance and training.

The close of 1972 marked the inauguration of the new Board of Congregational Life, to become operative in 1974. We pray for wisdom in the development of programs and structures, and for inspiration and blessing to congregations. We commend to this new Board the urgent need for leadership development in reaching and teaching the children and youth of our nation. May we, as members of the Woman's Missionary Society, Eastern Division, be ready to do our part.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EWART COLLEGE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Board of Ewart College begs leave to submit the following report for the year 1972-73.

SECTION I: CONCERNS OF THE COLLEGE

1. Enrolment:

The Board of Ewart College is most happy to report that enrolment at the College has been on the increase for the last two years. While the third year graduating class of last year was one of the lowest on record, there are eight students in the class of 1973. Five students are completing their second year and twelve are in the first year group. This increase appears to be no passing phase as applications for the first year class beginning in September, 1973, were being received shortly after the year began. We are also happy to report that the 1973 graduating class appeared to have no difficulty in securing employment within the Church, contrary to the views of some that graduates of this College would not readily find employment.

2. Continuing Education — for Professional and Lay Workers

The Board of Ewart College continues to evidence concern about the need for quality learning experiences within congregations of the Church, experiences related to the total life and faith of the Church. Many volunteers are required to staff the programmes our various congregations offer. Very little — if any — real training is provided for these volunteer leaders and teachers in a day when new and sophisticated methods and resources are common in many other areas of education. In this regard, Ewart College strives as best it can under the burden of too small a staff and inadequate resources to provide continuing education programmes for both professional workers and lay volunteers in the field of Christian Education. Some of the most outstanding

North American educators (e.g. G. Campbell Wyckoff, Kendig and Iris Cully, Malcolm C. McIver) have contributed to these Institutes and Workshops. The average number of participants in these events annually since the inception of this limited effort in 1970 has been 90.

3. The Need for Trained Educational Leadership.

"Never in our Church have we had sufficient numbers of professionally trained Christian educators to permit them to undertake the teacher's role themselves. We must rely on these few to train the lay teachers in our congregations — and we spread them so thinly across the nation that their efforts to train teachers are rendered almost ineffective."

A well-trained leadership, which has ever been a part of our Reformed tradition, is needed in this vital field of Christian Education throughout the Church, particularly at the presbytery and congregational levels. Many young people are recognizing the call of God in this field of service and are preparing for such service at Ewart College. The Church must awaken to the need for these workers and seek new and better methods of employing them.

4. The Church's awareness of Ewart College.

During this past year, the Board of the College has arranged for its Chairman to travel across our Church in Canada for the purpose of a) publicizing the College, b) engaging in recruitment where possible, and c) discussing new job opportunities. It has been amazing to know how few people appeared to be aware of Ewart College and the purpose it serves. It would seem that since the demise of the Church's Recruitment Committee, few ministers and others in the Church are confronting their young people with the need for dedicated and trained young people to devote their lives to the Church's work, particularly in the field of Christian Education. Many congregations are prepared to bemoan their lack of educational expertise but few realize how, by means of clusters or even on their own, they could employ directors of Christian Education to aid their seriously deficient programmes.

5. Degree Granting.

On the recommendation of a special committee appointed by the 96th General Assembly (1970) to study the matter of degree granting at Ewart College, the 97th General Assembly (1971) agreed that "The General Assembly, through its Administrative Council, proceed immediately to obtain degree granting privileges in the field of Christian Education for Ewart College and that this be done a) by obtaining a Charter from the Legislature of the Province of Ontario, b) or in any other such way as the Council, in consultation with the Board of Ewart College, sees fit". The Board of Ewart College reported to the 98th General Assembly (1972) that the Administrative Council had taken no action in this matter. We must now report that so far as this Board is aware no action has been taken during this year also. The instructions of the Church to "proceed immediately to obtain degree granting privileges" appear to have been forgotten. We will recommend that action in this regard be initiated and, if at all possible, be brought to completion before the 100th General Assembly (1974).

6. Additional Faculty.

The Board of Ewart College is in a difficult position in regard to future planning for the life of this institution because of the failure of the Administrative Council to implement a number of actions taken by two successive Assemblies relative to the College. Ewart College has been instructed by a previous Assembly to carry out a certain role in regard to continuing education of professional workers and lay leaders in congregations. This, as well as the training of our regular, fulltime students, cannot be carried out adequately until the appointment of a fourth faculty person has been effected. This appointment has been approved by two consecutive Assemblies (97th and 98th).

The matter of this appointment has been referred to the Special Committee on Education. As a College Board, we recognize the enormity of the task which has been assigned to this Committee. We trust that they will recognize the urgent need of this appointment (as already outlined in previous reports and approved for implementation) and make the matter of its inception an item of priority in their deliberations.

SECTION II: THE ACADEMIC PROGRAMME

1. Undergraduate Study

25 students were enrolled in the undergraduate programmes during the 1972-73 session. Of these, 14 were involved in the degree-diploma programme, taking some of their courses in the University of Toronto.

The faculty, consisting of Doctor Margaret Webster, Principal; Professor Ada Adams, Dean; and the Rev. Irene Dickson, Associate Professor, was assisted by the following sessional lecturers who offered the courses indicated in brackets:

Rev. R. F. G. Campbell, M.A., B.D., Ph.D.	(Effective Oral Communication for the Church Worker)
Rev. M. Roy Gellatly, B.A., B.D.	(Living Religions)
Mrs. J. A. Goldsmith	(Assistant in "Christian Education through the Life Span")
Rev. W. J. Klempa, M.A., B.D., Ph.D.	(Man, His Faith and Society)
Rev. F. H. Rennie, B.A., B.D., M.Th.	(The Presbyterian Church in Canada)
Mr. Henry Rosevear, F.C.C.O., F.T.C.L.	(Director of Ewart College Choir)
Professor Donald Wade, M.A., Ph.D.	(Varieties of Contemporary Theology)

Ewart College continues to place great stress on the practical training of its students. In addition to approximately 3 hours per week of practical work for all students during the regular academic year (consisting of observation, supervised teaching and internship), all first year students participate in a six week course in May and June, involving week-day Church School, camps, the Institute and Workshop. First year diploma students spend 6 weeks in group internship in Montreal and Nova Scotia, sharing in aspects of work in an inner city mission, planning for and providing leadership at camps and vacation Church schools. Second year students are required to do a 5 to 6 week internship under the direction of a qualified supervisor in congregational or area work.

2. Continuing and Lay Education.

The 1972 Christian Education Institute was held from June 12 to June 16. Leadership was provided by a team consisting of Dr. John Ohliger, Associate Professor of Adult Education, Ohio State University, Dr. J. W. Olson, Associate Professor of Social Sciences, York University, and the Rev. James A. Thomson, minister of Knox Presbyterian Churches, Bracebridge and Gravenhurst, who acted as co-ordinator of the team. Other persons working in the field of education on projects related to the insight of the Brazilian educator, Paulo Freire, participated in the leadership. A Seminar on Youth Ministry was held from June 16 to June 18 under the leadership of the Rev. Ted Sivers, Co-ordinator, Team for Youth Ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. A Christian Education Workshop was held from June 18 to June 22 with leadership being provided by Professor Irene Dickson, the faculty of Ewart College and staff members of the Board of Christian Education assisted by graduates of the College. The Plans for 1973 include two events:

Christian Education Institute — June 11 to June 15

Christian Education Workshop — June 15 to June 19.

The Theme of both will be, "Faith is Communicated by a Community of Believers", focussing on Church Education and the local congregation. Leadership will be given by Prof. C. Ellis Nelson, Ph.D., D.D., of Union Theological Seminary, Prof. Donald Brundage of Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, Madame Laurette Changnon of Algonquin College, and Rev. F. A. Styles of Newtonbrook United Church.

3. Graduation.

The graduation service for the year 1972-73 will be held at Ewart College on May 17, 1973. The Reverend J. K. English, the Chairman of the Board of Ewart College will be the speaker.

The following report provides information about the 1972 graduation service which was held in the Assembly Hall of Ewart College on May 11, 1972. The guest speaker was the Reverend Doctor C. Ritchie Bell, Acting-Principal of Presbyterian College, Montreal. The occasion also marked the 75th Anniversary of Ewart College.

Graduation 1972:

General Proficiency Scholarships (Awarded to students with at least a B standing)

Diploma in Christian Education:

Three Year Course — Brenda Moncrieff

4. Ordination of the Rev. Irene Dickson.

The Board of the College was pleased that the 97th General Assembly granted permission for Professor Irene Dickson to be ordained. The Ordination Service was conducted by the Presbytery of East Toronto at Ewart College on September 24, 1972. The charge to the newly ordained minister was given by the Very Rev. W. G. Maclean, M.A., B.D., D.D., Miss Dickson's former minister in Winnipeg.

SECTION IV: RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That Presbyteries and congregations be urged to consider "clustering" or other alternatives as a means of employing qualified Directors of Christian Education in order to provide and support capable leadership for congregational teachers and leaders.
2. That Presbyteries and congregations urge their professional and lay workers to attend continuing education Institutes and Workshops in the area of Christian Education at Ewart College as one means of strengthening their work locally.
3. That, in order to implement the decision of the 97th General Assembly (1971), the Administrative Council be asked to initiate consultations with the Board of Ewart College so that degree granting privileges in the field of Christian Education may be obtained, if at all possible, before the 100th General Assembly (1974).
4. That this Assembly, aware of the basic need for a fourth staff person at Ewart College as approved by two preceding Assemblies, commend the implementation of this additional appointment to the Special Committee on Education as a priority item in their study.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Management of Ewart College, The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

We have examined the balance sheet of Ewart College, The Presbyterian Church in Canada as at December 31, 1972 and the statements of revenue and expenditure, scholarship and bursary funds, fund for special purposes, and reserve for contingencies for the year then ended. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the College as at December 31, 1972 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH DOCTRINE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

I. MINISTRY IN THE CHURCH — A PROPOSAL

Twenty-six presbyteries across our Church responded to the Proposal re Ministry sent down for study by the 98th General Assembly. The central thesis of the Proposal concerned the suggestion of substituting a "commissioning of those who hold office in the church" for ordaining and inducting them. All the replies indicated that presbyteries saw this as the main issue and twenty-one favoured retaining our present practice of ordaining and inducting, while five presbyteries expressed "a willingness to consider commissioning." Three replies expressed concern about commissioning vis à vis our relationship with other Christian denominations which continue to ordain. One presbytery suggested that elders be commissioned and ministers ordained, while another favoured others besides ministers and elders being commissioned. A few of the replies expressed the feeling that there were psychological and professional needs of the ministry (e.g., security) as well as theological grounds (e.g., permanent gifts require life long ministry) for retaining ordination. Six presbyteries commented on who might administer the sacraments. Three held that ministers only should have this responsibility, while the other three were prepared, under certain circumstances, to allow others also (e.g., elders and catechists).

Quite a number of the presbyteries raised issues for further study (e.g., an exposition of commissioning, the meaning of laying-on-of-hands, the work of the laity, administrators of the Sacraments, etc.) and made suggestions (e.g., mobilize the laity to assume responsibility, emphasize the Church as the Body of Christ, develop support structures for ministry, etc.).

Several replies expressed anxious concern about the proposal and most replying presbyteries treated the paper as a document paving the way for an immediate revision of the Book of Forms. This was not the intention of the Sub-committee on Ministry. Instead of preparing "a definitive statement on ministry, a 'proposal' was developed of an alternative view of ministry to that presently held. This 'proposal' was designed to encourage a review of the New Testament evidence about ministry and to be a challenge to our traditional understanding. Out of this rethinking, the Sub-committee believed that we might as a Church be liberated to develop a viable concept of ministry that would be true to the biblical material, to the theological implications of our being the Body of Christ, and to the needs of the Church today. As noted above, the presbyteries that replied to the proposal have defended the traditional view of ministry. But the nature of the replies indicates that there is serious need for further discussion and investigation. It would also seem better to do this in a seminar than in a court structure.

The Committee on Church Doctrine has therefore prepared a recommendation (No. 1) having the purpose of furthering ongoing dialogue on the subject of ministry. Members of the Committee are prepared to act as consultants in the seminars proposed. A request for financial assistance has been submitted to the National Development Fund.

II. ASSISTANTS-TO-MINISTERS

A practice has developed in our Church of ministerial appointments in some congregations which bypass the presbyteries, viz., the appointment by sessions of "Assistants-to-the-Minister." If presbytery is properly to have its pastoral oversight of ministers and congregations, all appointments of ministers to pastoral charges should be made through presbytery. In this connection, the employing of licentiates must place upon presbytery the obligation to ordain. Thus the comprehensive oversight of presbytery over the ministry and the rights of ministers as presbyters would both be maintained.

The Committee on Church Doctrine has therefore prepared a recommendation (No. 2) that Section 201 of The Book of Forms be amended by addition of the requirement that any full-time appointment of a minister, assistant minister, or assistant-to-the-minister be made by presbytery through process of call and induction (Licentiates being at the same time ordained), except in the case of appointments by the Board of World Mission and for stated supply.

III. THE DIACONATE

The Committee on Church Doctrine recommended to the 1971 and 1972 General Assemblies that deaconesses and other academically qualified persons, under appointment by the church for at least one year be ordained to the diaconate and be admitted as members of the presbytery.

To give effect to the recommendation we propose that diaconate for both men and women be established as an integral part of the total ministry of the church and having a distinctive role within that ministry. We conceive of this diaconate as a form of ministry complementary to the Ministry of Word and Sacrament and distinct from it.

In agreement with a similar proposal presently before the Church of Scotland, we think of this diaconate "in terms of service to the world and its needs, in terms of training and encouraging the laity to such ministries of service, in terms of pin-pointing by example and involvement relevant, urgently necessary forms of service in the current world situation: in short, in terms of enabling the Church the better to fulfil her ministry of diakonia to the world."

The office of deacon will be a specific office to which men and women are called and set apart by ordination to exercise a ministry within the church for its own upbuilding and its mission to the world.

If this proposal is accepted by the church, qualification for this office in the case of those specializing in Christian Education shall be a diploma from Ewart College or a comparable institution; in the case of those specializing in social service, nursing and overseas work, the Board of Education will be asked to draw up the necessary qualifications.

The specifics of this proposal may be outlined as follows:

1. Deacons shall be ordained by Presbyteries under regulations and qualifications established by the General Assembly.
2. These deacons shall be referred to as "Ordained Deacons," and their office shall be distinct from the office of deacon in a congregation which has a deacon's court. The latter office shall be known as "Congregational Deacon."

3. Deacons ordained under such regulations shall continue to be eligible for office in deacons' courts, boards of managers and Kirk Sessions in the congregations of which they are members. For matters of discipline they shall be answerable to Presbytery.
 4. Deacons ordained by Presbytery shall be members of a Presbytery when they hold a full-time appointment for no less than a year under the General Assembly, Synod, Presbytery, or the Woman's Missionary Society (E.D. or W.D.), or one of their boards or committees, or in a congregation. When their appointment ends they shall cease to be on constituent roll of Presbytery.
 5. Deacons on the roll of Presbytery will also be members of Synod.
 6. One sixth of the number of ordained deacons shall be eligible to be members of the General Assembly. Synods shall maintain a list of ordained deacons on the Synod roll, one sixth of whom shall be annually commissioners to Assembly. The Synod shall establish a system of rotation, or some other system of nomination whereby places as commissioners shall be allotted to the various Presbyteries who shall have the normal right of election.
 7. Ordained deacons, as such, shall be neither ministers nor ruling elders. As a result, their appointment shall not balance that of ministers or elders; they shall not serve as an elder corresponding to a minister placed on the roll of a court, nor shall elders be added to the court to correspond to them.
 8. Ordained deacons shall be subject to the general provisions relating to ministers and licentiates, but they shall not be eligible to be moderators of the courts of the Church.
 9. Persons ordained to the diaconate may demit office by application for a dismissory letter in a manner parallel to ministers.
- Study material regarding this proposal will be made available to commissioners at the 1973 General Assembly and to presbyteries in the fall.

The Committee is recommending (No. 3) that Presbyteries be requested to study and reply to the specifics of this proposal and to make suggestions regarding the necessary legislation, which the Committee on Church Doctrine will ask the Clerks of Assembly to formulate, and which it is hoped will be sent to the Presbyteries under the Barrier Act in 1974.

IV. THE COVENANT OF GRACE AND RECEPTION INTO COMMUNICANT MEMBERSHIP

Twenty replies on this topic have been received from the presbyteries this year. They show that the question surrounding children, participation at the Lord's Supper and confirmation are being taken very seriously by a good number. Helpful suggestions were made which include, among others, the importance of a personal affirmation of faith, the significance of covenant privileges already experienced by children prior to such a profession, the need for clarification of the notion of confirmation, the ambiguities attaching to the vocabulary of "evangelizing" covenant children and the need for straight-forward guidelines to local Kirk Sessions. With reference to the question of expecting a profession of faith prior to reception at the Lord's Table, fifteen Presbyteries favoured continuation of the present procedure, three gave a mixed response, one suggested that the matter be dropped and two asked that the topic be held over until next year's General Assembly.

In the light of these submissions and further study a revision of the 1972 paper already has been prepared and discussed within the Committee on Church Doctrine. Any further or additional submissions from the Presbyteries will be gratefully received. The Committee hopes to conclude its study of the subject with a report to the Assembly of 1974: Recommendation No. 4.

V. PREAMBLE TO QUESTIONS AT ORDINATIONS

In clarification of the sentence, "The Presbyterian Church in Canada is bound only to Jesus Christ her King and Head," the following comments are offered.

From the biblical designation of Jesus Christ as the Head of the Church we conclude:

1. The Church's binding to Jesus Christ is the focal point of the Church's binding to the Triune God. There is no distinction: to posit the one is to confess the other.
2. The Church's binding to Jesus Christ finds expression on different levels of her life and experience:
 - (a) The Church is bound to her Head, and only to Him, by a loyalty and love which is unique and unequalled. It is a personal relationship, marked by mutual devotion, without which any other bond would be lifeless and of no avail for salvation.
 - (b) The Church is bound to the Holy Scriptures, in their testimony to Christ the living Word, as the canon of her faith and ethics, ever depending on the Holy Spirit to guide her into all the truth.
 - (c) The Church is bound to Creeds and Confessions as her common expression of devotion to Jesus Christ, her response to the guidance of the Spirit of truth, and her ongoing witness in the world.

So understood, the sentence under discussion gives expression to the overarching and all-embracing personal relation of love and loyalty in which the Church stands with her Lord. It provides the basis and setting for the binding of the Church to the Holy Scriptures as her canon of doctrine, faith, and life, and to her subordinate confessional documents.

VI. THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

In obedience to an instruction of the 98th General Assembly that the Committee develop its study of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit with an emphasis upon the biblical and theological understanding of God as Triune, the Committee submits the following statement and Recommendation No. 5.

THE GIFTS OF THE TRIUNE GOD

1. Threeness in Oneness
But the Godhead of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit is all one: the glory equal, the majesty coeternal. . .
But all three Persons are co-eternal together: and co-equal. (The Athanasian Creed).
It is necessary to affirm the true Deity of the Spirit, but he has no Deity out of relation to the Deity of the other "Persons." The Spirit is not divine in himself alone, apart from the Deity of the Father and the Son, and so also is it with the other "Persons".
2. The Internal Relations of the Trinity
Being distinguishable within the Unity, the Persons have different relations towards one another (ad intra). The Father is "fount and origin of the whole Trinity." The Son is "begotten" of the Father, and the Spirit "proceeds" from the Father and the Son. These internal relations are the basis of the Godhead's relations to the creation.
3. The Exterior Relations of the Godhead
In action towards the creation (ad extra), the Persons are always inseparable. But they are spoken of in Scripture according to what are traditionally called the special appropriations, especially as regards creation, redemption and sanctification. Thus while the Son alone becomes incarnate, the Father (Creator) reconciles the world to himself by the Son (2 Cor. 5:19), and the Spirit brings us to adoption through Christ's Sonship (Gal. 4:6).

The whole matter is put in a nutshell in the latter saying: "And because ye are sons, God has sent for the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father." The experienced and loving intimacy that we have with God our Father is due to the inner working of the Spirit, who gives us a share in the Son's love of the Father (Rom. 5:5, 8:16; 2 Cor. 3:17 f.).

The Spirit must therefore always be seen in a Triune way. There is no Pentecostal Spirit or Holy Spirit who falls from heaven upon men or enters into their spirits in solitary Godhead. To think in this way could be described as holding to a kind of Unitarianism of the Spirit. The one and only role and power of the Spirit in redemption is to conduct the Church into the saving action of the Father and the Son. Therefore the Scriptures emphasize the Spirit's testimony to Christ (S. John 16:13, 14).

4. The Descending and Ascending or Manward and Godward Movements of the Son and the Spirit.

We are familiar with the descending and ascending movements of the Son, but there is a similar double movement of the Spirit, his "procession" (being "poured out" by the Father through the Son, Acts 2:17ff.), along with what might be called an "upward-turning" of the Church in Him to the Father (Eph. 2:18; Rom. 8:26). The Spirit who raised up Christ raises us also with him (Rom. 8:11). A truly Trinitarian emphasis upon the Spirit will therefore lay prior and pervasive emphasis, as far as his work among us is concerned, upon his role in giving the Church participation with Christ's glorified humanity in the love that unites the Holy Trinity in one (S. John 17:20-24).

5. The Gift of the Whole Godhead

- (a) The great and all-embracing gift to the Church is not, as some writers have averred, the gift of the Spirit, for we have also the gifts of the Father and of the Son (Rom. 8:15; 2 Cor. 9:15). We must not deviate like the Montanists into a false "Holy Spiritism." The great gift is unity of the Church with the total Godhead, and this gift, not just the Holy Spirit, is the source of all the Church's power and joy. The action of the Spirit at Pentecost was not just to give himself and some inspired qualities, but to bring the fullness of Christ to men after the consummation of his work in his Ascension and thereby to bring all men to the Father. It is a serious error to regard Pentecost as a matter only of the gift of the Spirit.
- (b) In consequence of this total gift, the new mankind was born by participation in Christ's glorified humanity. This new man is Christ along with the whole Church and its members (Eph. 12:15; 4:13). Of this new mankind or manhood we must say three things. (i) It is the restored and transformed family of man produced by conformation to the image of God's Son (Rom. 8:29). (ii) As it is inaugurated it is given orders or types of ministry and endowments to individuals for various kinds of service. Consistently with the purpose and historical mode of the Body's emergence, its orders and types of ministry must be seen as originating in Christ's appointment of his Apostles as the foundation of his Church (Matt. 16:18; 19:28; Eph. 2:20; Rev. 21:14). (iii) Such gifts as miracles, healings, and tongues are part of the total range of gifts, and are in no way a special sign of the working of the Spirit.

The term charismatic applies to all the gifts mentioned in this section.

6. The Word and the Spirit

The Reformed emphasis upon the unity of the Word and Spirit is a wholesome reminder — providing we hold fast to the truth that Christ is the basic form of the Word — that the Spirit must always be understood in the Triune way. The Reformed tradition has tended to view the unity of Word and Spirit too exclusively as the action of the Spirit in making the written Word, read and preached, effectual to salvation. In fact, however, the unity between Christ and the Spirit is operative in a diversity of ways in the Body, and our dependence upon reading and preaching should not render us inhospitable to these other operations.

7. Consequences

- (a) The Person and work of the Spirit must be viewed in the unitary work of the Father and the Son. There is no Holy Spirit who as a separate Deity, Person, force or power descends from above to fill men or is available apart from the Church, the Body of Christ.
- (b) The true Holy Spirit is he by whom we say, "Jesus is Lord" (1. Cor. 12:3). Pentecost was the time when Peter and the Apostles were inspired to preach Christ in his fullness for the first time to the nations as the Father's Reconciler. The one and only criterion by which Christian discipleship and possession of the Spirit are to be measured is the criterion of union with Christ in his visible Body through faith that works by love.
- (c) Healing and glossolalia may emerge in the Church and are not to be quenched. But they are in no sense to be exalted as the true criteria of Christian discipleship. It is much to be regretted that the "charismatic renewal" is marked by a strong tendency to issue in this error and thereby to encourage a sectarian form of Christian allegiance. A sectarian allegiance is one that emphasizes an element of the Christian faith to a degree beyond its due place in the Church (e.g. Adventism, Quakerism, some forms of Anabaptism and Pentecostalism). Perhaps we may hope that those who have been helped by "the charismatic renewal" may be able to enjoy their gifts without falling into this error.

VII. A PROPOSED CONTEMPORARY STATEMENT OF FAITH

Last year the Committee on Church Doctrine published a study booklet entitled, What it Means To Confess the Christian Faith Today. The purpose of that booklet was twofold: first, to stimulate our Church to do some serious thinking about the meaning of confessionalism in our day; and, secondly, to enlist the help and support of our whole membership in the task of producing a Statement of Faith for our Church. Presbyteries were requested to study the material and to report their findings to the Committee by February 15, 1973.

Although only nineteen out of a total of forty-four Presbyteries replied (several asked for more time), the responses from these nineteen Presbyteries were very encouraging. A majority of the Presbyteries replying felt that there was a need for a contemporary Statement of Faith and expressed themselves as in favour of the Committee on Church Doctrine going ahead with its plans to produce a Statement of Faith for The Presbyterian Church in Canada. One Presbytery voiced its concern that resumption of work on a new Confession of Faith by the Committee on Church Doctrine might promote a split within our Church. The Presbytery of Montreal not only went on record as in favour of the production of a new Statement of Faith but it also sent the Committee a draft statement of faith that it had formulated.

A small sub-committee has been appointed which will begin its work by examining existing Statements of Faith of various Churches, particularly the Proposed Statement of Faith of the Southern Presbyterian Church. If it appears both wise and feasible to proceed with the production of our own Statement of Faith, it is hoped that a first draft will be completed in a year's time, and it will then be sent to Presbyteries and congregations for study during our Centennial year, 1974-1975.

VIII. OVERTURE FROM THE PRESBYTERY OF MIRAMICHI RE THE INFALLIBILITY OF SCRIPTURE

The Presbytery having asked that its Overture be referred to the Committee on Church Doctrine, the Committee wishes to express its mind that the subject of the Overture should not be dealt with in isolation but as part of a Statement of Faith which it has under consideration and in connection with our Church's declared belief that the purpose of Scripture is to testify to Jesus Christ. We accordingly submit Recommendation No. 6.

IX. RELATIONS WITH ROMAN CATHOLICS

The Ninety-Eighth General Assembly appointed a Commission upon the Appeal by members of the Session of West Branch, Presbytery of Miramichi. The Commission issued the following instruction to the Committee on Church Doctrine:

"We direct the Committee on Church Doctrine to study the area of the cooperation of our Church with the Roman Catholic Church, and report to the 99th General Assembly, in order that as soon as expedient the General Assembly may give direction to the Presbyterian Church in Canada in this important question."

Historic Affirmations

In considering possible areas of cooperation between the Presbyterian Church in Canada and the Roman Catholic Church, it is appropriate to refer to historic affirmations of our Church, which are pertinent to the issue.

Our ecumenical tradition finds important expression in the Westminster Confession of Faith, in Chapter XXVI "Of Communion of Saints," where it is stated that "Saints, by profession, are bound to maintain an holy fellowship and communion in the worship of God, and in performing such other spiritual services as tend to their mutual edification; as also in relieving each other in outward things, according to their several abilities and necessities. Which communion, as God offereth opportunity, is to be extended unto all those who in every place call upon the name of the Lord Jesus."

It is interesting to note that the concluding phrase of this statement was employed in a notable pronouncement concerning Christian unity which emanated from the World Council of Churches Assembly in New Delhi, 1961.

An expression of this communion in terms of an historical continuum, which we share in large part with Roman Catholics, stands out in the Preamble to Ordination Questions for Ministers as approved by the 96th General Assembly. There it is affirmed: "We acknowledge our historic continuity with the Holy Catholic Church and her doctrinal heritage in the ecumenical creeds and the confessions of the Reformation."

It is true that the confessions of the Reformation reflect adversely at many points against corruptions of doctrine and ecclesiastical practices in the Church of Rome. However, these corruptions had an historical origin and development. It behoves a tradition which acknowledges its own historical relativity by invoking the watchword, semper reformanda, to attend to the possibility of historical reformations in other churchly traditions than its own. In particular, we should have regard to changing emphases and expressions in doctrinal formulations of the Roman Catholic Church, as these have emerged in the pronouncements of Vatican II and in its biblical and theological scholarship generally.

Ecumenical Practice

We welcome and rejoice in a number of de facto ecumenical involvements in which Presbyterians have shared their Christian heritage with Roman Catholics, and certain explicit declarations of intent which we have made in this regard.

1. We bear in mind that the Presbyterian Church, in common with other Churches of the Reformation, has never ceased to share in a community of theological scholarship embracing both pre- and post-Reformation writings. We are mindful too of a common liturgical tradition and a considerable body of hymnody that is shared. In recent years, Protestant scholars have profited greatly from a revival of Biblical interest and scholarship in Roman Catholic circles. Within the city of Toronto, of recent date, this sharing has been formalized through the establishment of the Toronto School of Theology in which Roman Catholic colleges participate with Protestant colleges, including Knox College. A mutual recognition of academic courses witnesses to an acknowledgement of wide-ranging agreement, both in scientific and even confessional terms.

2. A significant development emerged in the Presbytery of East Toronto during 1972 when its Gateway Congregation was granted permission to share common premises, including a sanctuary, with a Roman Catholic congregation. A joint agreement to this effect was formally signed by the Moderator of the Presbytery and the Archbishop of the diocese.

3. Another recent action by a court of the Church, affecting relations with Roman Catholics, was that of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston in 1969 made in response to an Appeal by Mr. A. L. Farthing. Mr. Farthing had appealed against the action of the Presbytery of Barrie in censuring the Session of Bonar Presbyterian Church, Pt. McNicoll, for making their sanctuary available for use by a Roman Catholic congregation. The verdict of Synod is worthy of citation as a guide in similar situations: "Whereas, the Reformed Faith is the great enemy of idolatry and since we of the Reformed Faith, recognize no holy men, holy places nor any holy things, the equating of the church building with the Church rather than with the people assembled to hear the Word is idolatrous, and

WHEREAS, in inviting the Roman Catholic Church to use the church building, the Kirk Session of Bonar Presbyterian Church, Port McNicoll, neither gives assent to the entire doctrine nor does it sanction all the acts of worship of the Roman Catholic Church, and

WHEREAS the World Council of Churches recognizes the Roman Catholic Church as a Christian body, and this is implicit in the action taken by the Port McNicoll session, and

WHEREAS, there are ample precedents for the conjoint use of the same place of worship by various communions, including the Roman Catholic — such as in the Canadian Armed Forces, hospitals and other institutions, and

WHEREAS, the Kirk Session of Port McNicoll was expressing a deep Christian love and concern for their brethren in time of distress, and

WHEREAS, we, of the Synod's Committee are not convinced that the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Book of Forms and the Book of Common Order give any conclusive directives on the matter before us;

THEREFORE, while respecting the individuals who have voted in accordance with their conviction, we feel constrained to recommend that the appeal be upheld" (Minutes of the 95th Meeting of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, pp. 50, 51).

The Committee takes pleasure in submitting to Assembly a recommendation on this subject (No. 7). Mr. Blake Walker asked that his dissent be recorded to the inclusion of "united services of worship" under (c).

X. AN ECUMENICAL CERTIFICATE OF BAPTISM

The Committee received from the Board of Evangelism and Social Action a communication from the Secretary of the Canadian Council of Churches presenting a proposal from the Council's Joint Working Group with the Canadian Catholic Conference that a common baptismal certificate be agreed upon in addition to denominational certificates. The Committee on Church Doctrine agreed that this matter comes within its terms of reference, and agreed to recommend to General Assembly that our Church cooperate in the production of such a certificate (Recommendation No. 8).

XI. A THEOLOGY OF REVOLUTION

The Ninety-Eighth General Assembly referred the subject of a theology of revolution to the Committee on Church Doctrine (Acts and Proceedings, 1972, p. 62). A sub-committee, based in Ottawa, has begun work on this referral.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Board of Ministry (or, failing its immediate appointment, the Personnel Committee in cooperation with the Sub-committee on Ministry of the Committee on Church Doctrine) be instructed to foster the holding of seminars on Ministry within synods or clusters of presbyteries.
2. That Section 201 of The Book of Forms be amended by addition of the requirement that any full-time appointment in a congregation of an associate minister, assistant minister, or assistant-to-the-minister be made only by presbytery after due process (licentiates being at the same time ordained), except in the case of appointments by the Board of World Mission and for stated supply.
3. That Presbyteries be asked to study and comment upon the proposed measures for a reconstituted diaconate, along with other matter to be distributed, and to send their replies by December 31, 1973, to Miss Ann Drummond, 5 Grenoble Drive, Don Mills, Ont.
4. That Presbyteries that have not yet commented upon "The Covenant of Grace and Reception into Communicant Membership" be invited to reply by December 31, 1973, to the Rev. Blake Walker, Knox Church, 630 Spadina Ave., Toronto 4.
5. That the Assembly commend for general study the statement of the Committee on the work of the Holy Spirit as a Person of the Triune Godhead.
6. That Assembly instruct the Committee on Church Doctrine to take within its purview the Overture of the Presbytery of Miramichi re the Inerrancy of Scripture in connection with the proposed production of a Statement of Faith, and that this resolution be adopted as Assembly's reply to the Overture.
7. The Committee recommends:
 - (a) That Assembly commend any arrangement for the common use of buildings by Presbyterians and Roman Catholics where it would meet an urgent need, or where such action would serve as a unique expression of common witness to the community.
 - (b) That Assembly commend the institution of joint projects of study into moral and social problems, as well as the mounting of common programmes of action to deal with the same.
 - (c) That Presbyterian ministers and laity rejoice in every opportunity of sharing the Gospel of Christ in Bible study, prayer, fellowship and united services of worship "with all who in every place call upon the name of the Lord Jesus."
8. That Assembly approve the selection of a representative or representatives by the Convener and Secretary of the Committee on Inter-Church Relations to participate under the Canadian Council of Churches in the production of a common Certificate of Baptism.

Convener.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Venerable The General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada

We have examined the balance sheet of The Presbyterian Church in Canada as at December 31, 1972 and the statements of income and expenditure and unappropriated operating and property funds for the year then ended. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Church as at December 31, 1972 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in accordance with the accounting practices described in note 7 applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1972

- MARKETABLE SECURITIES
 - On the recommendation of The Trustee Board all securities held on behalf of the Church are valued at the market values prevailing on December 31 and except for those held for the National Development Fund have been so stated in all the financial reports. Market values at December 31 have been determined on the basis of asked or closing quoted prices.
 - An amount of $67,235 in each of 1972 and 1971 is invested in securities on behalf of Tyndale House. Income therefrom is paid to Tyndale House.
- FIXED ASSETS
 - Fixed assets are recorded mainly at cost but include properties which have been donated and on which a fair value has been placed at the time of acquisition.
 - Accumulated depreciation, covering all properties and furniture and fixtures, has been increased by $153,427 ($159,847 in 1971). This amount has been charged against unappropriated operating and property funds.
- COMPOSITION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES
 - The assets and liabilities of Knox, Presbyterian and Ewart Colleges, Saskatoon Residence, Armagh and St. Andrew's Hall are included in the balance sheet only to the extent of fixed assets.
 - The assets and liabilities of the Pension Fund are not included in this statement. A separate statement covering this Fund has been prepared.

4. COMPOSITION OF INCOME AND EXPENDITURE

- (a) Except for the amount allocated from the Budget, no receipts or disbursements have been included in the statement of income and expenditure for the following:

Knox, Presbyterian and Ewart Colleges, St. Andrew's Hall, Saskatoon Residence, Pension Fund, Penmarvian, Presbyterian Record, Armagh.

- (b) The total cost of operating Knox, Presbyterian and Ewart Colleges, St. Andrew's Hall and Saskatoon Residence is $666,740 ($623,815 in 1971).
 (c) Income of the J. B. Maclean Bequest Fund has been included in the statement of income and expenditure only to the extent of the amount received from the Fund ($45,000 in each of 1972 and 1971). A separate statement covering this Fund has been prepared.

5. CHANGES IN FINANCIAL STATEMENT PRESENTATION

- (a) Lending funds, formerly included with Endowment and Restricted Funds, are now shown separately.
 (b) Assets received from the Walter Gow Fund, formerly shown as a separate asset are now consolidated with the Church's assets according to type of asset.
 (c) The 1971 comparative figures have been restated to reflect the changes in (a) and (b) and reclassified to conform with presentation adopted for 1972.

6. BOARD OF WORLD MISSION

The Board of World Mission has projects under review which will require the expenditure in 1973 of the greater part of this appropriation.

7. ACCOUNTING PRACTICES

The Church follows the practice of valuing marketable securities at market value except for those held for the National Development Fund (see note 1(a)) rather than at acquisition cost. With the exception of this practice the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted for non-profit organizations.

PENSION FUND

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Year Ended December 31, 1972

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Venerable The General Assembly
of The Presbyterian Church in Canada

We have examined the statements of capital and revenue and expenditure of The Presbyterian Church in Canada Pension Fund for the year ended December 31, 1972. These statements incorporate the assets, liabilities, revenue and expenditure of the segregated fund administered by The Canada Life Assurance Company for The Presbyterian Church in Canada, of which fund a financial statement has been furnished to us by The Canada Life Assurance Company. Our examination of the pension fund transactions of the Church included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these statements of capital and revenue and expenditure present fairly the financial position of the pension fund as at December 31, 1972 and the results of its transactions for the year then ended.

THE COMMITTEE ON HISTORY

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

Once again this committee records those areas in which it was particularly engaged and upon which considerable energy has been expended, namely The Archives and The 1975 Centenary.

Anniversaries

Numerous congregations celebrated significant anniversaries in 1972 with special mention of the George Leslie MacKay centennial in Zorra, Ontario and Taiwan. At Knox College, and in many churches, the 400th anniversary of the death of John Knox was recognized by special services and lectures. Sunday bulletins and articles also recalled the 1572 St. Bartholomew Day massacre in France and the death of the Huguenot leader, Admiral Gaspard de Coligny. Ewart College celebrated its seventy-fifth anniversary, while Fernie House, a half-way house for boys in Toronto, began its construction.

Plans are being made for publicizing the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Canadian church mission to the Bhil Field, India. In Pictou County, Nova Scotia, church and government are jointly commemorating the 200th anniversary of the arrival of the "Hector", as well as the restoration of the Dr. Thomas McCulloch house in Pictou. The committee requests that copies of local histories and special Services be deposited in the Archives of the church.

Presbyterian History and Annual History Prize

One issue of our newsmagazine was mailed to all ministers of the church. This edition centred on G. M. MacKay, reproducing correspondence and containing an article on the Black Bearded Barbarian by the church archivist. Specimen copies were mailed to designated libraries across Canada inviting subscriptions. The Annual History Prize for 1972 was awarded to W. Moncrieff for his History of Beachridge Church, 1821-1971.

Synod Reports

Due to consolidation and re-alignment of the committees of many church courts, this committee expresses concern that historical emphases can easily be overlooked. It is recommended that synods and presbyteries, especially, hear reports regularly from their Committee on History, reporting through the Committee on Congregational Life or Administration or whatever be their organizational arrangement.

The Synod of the Atlantic Provinces record extensive preparations for the dedication of the first log church in Pictou County, at Loch Broom, with financial support allocated for special speakers, etc. The Synod has asked the Presbytery of Pictou to repair the grave site of The Rev. James McGregor and arrange a right-of-way to the site. Two Atlantic Provinces have agreed to microfilm church documents, with copies to be presented, gratis, to the Synod and General Assembly Archives by the provinces concerned.

In the Presbytery of East Toronto, histories and pictures of every congregation are being collected as a photographic and historic record of Presbyterianism in centennial year. In Manitoba, the convener reports the dedication of the new St. James Church in Dauphin, Manitoba, with thirty-eight congregations having now completed historic sketches in preparation for the 1975 centennial.

Robert McDowall Plaque

Following a presentation by this committee, prepared by our associate archivist, to the Ontario Historic Sites Board, authorization was given for the erection of an historic plaque in 1975 alongside the St. Lawrence River, honouring this missionary servant from the Dutch Reformed Church in the U.S.A.

Centennial

In preparation for the 1975 centennial of the denomination, under the theme of "Remembrance, Renewal and Response," this committee has been especially involved in the historical areas of the celebrations. All presbyteries, it is noted, have appointed centennial chairmen, while many local co-chairmen have been appointed in individual congregations. Hundreds of congregational and presbytery histories are in the process of being written, with the Synod of Manitoba actively completing a volume containing a history of every congregation within its bounds.

A detailed History of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, commissioned by the General Assembly, being written by Professor John Moir, and to be printed by Presbyterian Publications in both hard- and soft-cover editions, is integral to our centennial planning. Other publications include biographies of influential laymen and laywomen, missionaries and ministers, short pamphlets on the history of the denomination and the 1875 Union, and a paperback of authors and composers related to our new Book of Praise. Other volumes hopefully to be in print by 1975 include works on the Presbyterian Church in Guyana and Nigeria, a pictorial paperback, and a volume on Brown of Saskatchewan.

Communion tokens are being designed for the June 1975 Sacramental Services across Canada. Travelling displays of tokens and other historical materials are being arranged for centennial year. At the General Assemblies of 1974 and 1975 (proposed for Kitchener and Montreal respectively) this committee will emphasize the church's heritage and historic faith as they witness to the renewal and response of the church entering its second century as the Servant of Jesus Christ.

The Archives

The desire to acquire a suitable location for the archival materials of The Presbyterian Church in Canada was realized in 1972. Air-conditioned and fire-protected, the new Archives, located at 59 St. George Street, Toronto, was made possible by a grant from the National Development Fund. It has been equipped with carrels, desks, typewriter, microfilm cabinet, picture-file case, 250 pamphlet cases, stack truck and other equipment needed to adequately preserve and utilize the historical records of the church. Deep appreciation is expressed to our architect, Mr. Murray Ross, for his valued service and his many contributions to the completion of the project.

The Church recognizes its debt to Dr. G. L. Douglas, church archivist, now retired for health reasons. Tribute was paid him and a presentation made by this committee, sharing in a moving testimonial evening at Knox College. Cataloguing continues under the direction of the Rev. Fred Rennie, associate archivist, with the part-time assistance of Miss M. Bunting and secretarial help from Mrs. E. Fenn. Additional man-power is needed to enable the archives to be open and useful to the church. The acting librarian of Knox College, Mrs. Kuhl, is engaged in re-organizing part of the card system. Special thanks is extended to the students of Knox College and other Torontonians who most effectively and gratuitously, moved the archives to its new location.

Coinciding with the transfer of the Archives has been the acquisition of an unprecedented number of historical records from many quarters. From Taiwan has come the G. M. MacKay papers on microfilm. The Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, Montreal contributed the Minutes of the continuing Synod of The Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland, 1875-1903, and other important documents. Minutes of church courts and committees, papers and correspondence of such individuals as John Geddie, Frank Baird and Neil G. Smith have been received. The Women's Missionary Society, (E.D.) has presented the Archives with a catalogue of its holdings. Magazines, pamphlets, etc., came from many sources. Invaluable to the study of our history was the gift of a complete set of the Bulletin, produced by the Presbyterian Church Association, concerned with the 1925 Union. In addition, the committee purchased, on microfilm, theses on Canadian Presbyterianism. The Church should be justly proud of its new archival depository, and anticipates the invitation to share in the official dedication of the Archives in 1973.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That all congregations appoint centennial co-chairmen and committees with special responsibilities for the development of 1975 anniversary programmes.
2. That congregations, societies and local organizations be encouraged to place their historical records in the new archives for maximum preservation and safe-keeping.
3. That Presbyterians be urged to support the refurbishing of a national picture library by forwarding photos of candid camera size depicting church buildings, people and related activities, to the Archives, as a centennial project.
4. That congregations be invited to include amounts in their 1974 Budgets for the purchase of copies of the official History of The Presbyterian Church in Canada for congregational libraries and as presentation copies.
5. That church courts regularly forward historical reports to the higher courts for transmission to the General Assembly's Committee on History.
6. That the Archives receive all denominational publications by being placed on the mailing list of the programme boards and committees of the church.

Respectfully submitted,

MEL T. BAILEY,
Secretary.

JOHN A. JOHNSTON,
Convener.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE RE: SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY IN INVESTMENT POLICY: A & P, 1971, PAGES 56-57 AND A & P, 1972 PAGE 31.

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Special Committee appointed by the 98th General Assembly to consider the matter of social responsibility in investment policy has met and submits the following report and recommendations.

The issue of corporate social responsibility centers on the social effect that large corporations have on human welfare, both within their own organization and in the public arena. The Church is involved in the practice of corporate business most directly through the investment portfolios held by various bodies throughout the Church. As shareholders, these bodies have the responsibility not only for assuring a reasonable return on the investment capital, but also for exercising responsible stewardship over the purposes for which that capital is used.

Any activities pursued by Church bodies in this area should always be governed by the attempt to achieve consistency between the Church's social ideals and concerns and its investment policies with a view to bringing all of the Church's resources into action in achieving those goals to which the Church has committed itself and to which it has been commissioned by the Gospel. There is no question as to the integrity and ability of those within our Church responsible for the investment of the Church's money, nor is there any question as to the priority of reasonable returns on these investments since much of the Church's work and the viability of the pension scheme depend to a great extent on these funds. Your Committee is aware, moreover, that a number of important questions concerning the impact of corporate practices on the welfare of men and their environment have been recognized and discussed extensively in the past few years by our investors. These concerns, and those outlined below, deserve regular attention by all Church bodies responsible for investment policy.

The Church's voice on these matters will be one among many, but it is essential that it be a responsible voice. We recognize that there are those within the business community itself who are pressing for a greater measure of social conscience and effort within that community, arguing that business needs a healthy social climate in order to ensure continued success; and also that there are those who attack the business community for the damage done to human welfare by corporate policies and practices. Theologically, the Church is motivated by four considerations that lead to our active response:

1. The Doctrine of Creation affirms that God is the Maker and Lord of this world and that it is only as His servants or deputies that we enjoy the fruits of that marvelous work. God has shown us that His purpose is to sustain the life of His Creation and that all of our resources, including economic power, fall under His call for responsible stewardship.
2. Our responsibility for obedient stewardship involves consistency in the use of our resources. The Church's charter is to increase the love of God and neighbor among men. With such a mandate, the Church is called to use its resources as instruments of justice and righteousness among men.
3. The Doctrine of redemptive love is shown most clearly in the full life that is offered to men in Christ, life which promises justice, righteousness, and eternal life. It is because of such redemptive love on the part of Christ that we can presume to care for our fellow men, to express concern for their welfare and take steps to ensure that all men are treated with justice and righteousness.
4. The final consideration is that God's love for man implies that man being made in the image of God has a dignity and sanctity that must be respected. We must actively oppose all "principalities and powers" that deny man's dignity and the sanctity of his personal and social life. To discharge this responsibility, the Church must be constantly sensitive to the subtle ways in which dignity and justice are denied in our modern, bureaucratic society.

In the light of this motivation, the role of the Church in efforts to promote corporate social responsibility will be one of service; offering its resources and expertise in human relationships to a common effort to better the condition of all men, and to achieve a beneficial correlation between economic activity and social need. The issues to be faced are complex. The answers to these problems cannot be arrived at by a small ad hoc committee working in isolation from particular problems. Our committee saw its role as one of recognizing the concerns of corporate social responsibility and outlining the issues. Answers and appropriate responses will become apparent as particular cases are examined and as representatives from all parties concerned work together toward solutions.

In the light of the concerns expressed by General Assembly in the past three years, our committee proposes the adoption of the following general guidelines in determining the exercise of social responsibility with regard to investments of all bodies involved in this area. The policies and practices of corporations in which we have investments should be evaluated by these bodies with respect to the following criteria:

- (a) Pollution control and abatement.
- (b) The pursuit of justice in world development.
- (c) The achievement of just and equitable national development.
- (d) Equality of opportunity for minority and oppressed groups.
- (e) The reduction of offensive armament production.
- (f) The provision of adequate housing, health and welfare.

Corporations, institutions, and government bodies in which money has been invested should be advised of and invited to participate in discussion of these concerns. If replies should prove unsatisfactory, further action might take the following forms:

- (a) Consultation with management.
- (b) Shareholder pressure.
- (c) Divestment or refusal to buy.
- (d) Government pressure.
- (e) Consumer pressure.
- (f) A combination of these.

The expression of concern and the possibility of increasing corporate social responsibility will be most effective through co-operative action in this vital area. Our Committee therefore strongly urges that The Presbyterian Church in Canada actively seek to co-operate with other denominations and bodies in Canada already active in the promotion of corporate social responsibility.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the several guidelines outlined in the body of this report, viz pollution control etc., be adopted as a general basis of investment policy by all bodies concerned in the Church.
2. That the Administrative Council be requested to set up a small permanent sub-committee, i.e. possibly 5 to 7 members, to include two members appointed by the Board of Evangelism and Social Action, for continued study and action with regard to questions relating to corporate social responsibility. It is suggested that the secretary of this sub-committee be a Staff person.
3. That this sub-committee co-operate as fully as possible with other denominations and bodies in Canada which are engaged in similar study and activity.
4. That local congregations and other bodies in the Church having investment responsibilities be informed of these concerns and be encouraged to examine their investments in the light of the general guidelines set forth in this report.
5. That all companies in which The Presbyterian Church in Canada has investments be informed from time to time of our concerns and be invited to discuss these matters in relation to the criteria set forth.
6. That the Special Committee be now discharged.

Respectfully submitted,

A. LORNE MACKAY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CONGREGATIONAL LIFE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The new Board of Congregational Life was established by the General Assembly of 1972 as the first step toward the integration of the various services now being offered to congregations. The Board will become operational as of January 1, 1974, at which time the boards and committees which are being integrated will be dissolved as presently constituted.

During the period June 1972-June 1973 the Board of Congregational Life has been engaged in the extensive study and research necessary to enable it to report to this Assembly according to the instructions of the General Assembly of 1972:

"to develop policy and detailed plans of organization to formulate a budget to recommend the name of a general secretary after nominations have been received from the Presbyteries to study the staffing needed for the work of the board and will consult with the Boards and Committees affected by this amalgamation and consider the replies from Presbyteries and congregations in preparing its report."

The decision of the General Assembly to allow the membership of the Board to remain unchanged until the Assembly of 1974, at which time the normal three-year rotation will begin, has been a great advantage in this intensive kind of study. It has enabled the board members to respond to the assignment with a genuine sense of commitment. The board has had no staff during this year. All board members have made their contribution to this report, and some have assumed heavy responsibilities and have given significant blocks of time to the demanding board assignments. We are indebted also to Rev. Robert Carter, Miss Nancy Edwards, and to Rev. W. J. Adamson and his O. and P. Task Force on Congregational Life, for generous support and encouragement during the year.

It is understood that it will take time for the Board, its Standing Committees and Staff to develop appropriate patterns of operating after January 1, 1974. It is anticipated that the structures and staff assignments during the period January 1974-June 1975 (the Interim Period) will be somewhat fluid and experimental.

From time to time the Board will bring to the General Assembly more explicit recommendations, which will arise out of experience of operation. An evaluation of the policy, functioning and staffing arrangements of the Board will be reported to the 1976 General Assembly.

Because of the rapid rate of change in contemporary society, it is desirable that the Board of Congregational Life will maintain a maximum degree of flexibility in its structures, to allow for the maximum degree of credibility and usability of its services.

GENERAL PLAN OF OPERATION FOR THE BOARD OF CONGREGATIONAL LIFE for the interim period — Jan. 1974-June 1975.

A. Policy Guidelines

The Board will operate on the principle that the responsibility for building a parish program rests primarily with the congregation subject to church policy.

The principal purpose of the Board of Congregational Life is to provide assistance to congregations for carrying out their program of life and mission, either directly or through the Presbyteries and Synods.

The aim of the Board of Congregational Life is to provide service to congregations in a personalized, practical and accessible way.

The Board of Congregational Life will pledge itself to acquiring a sensitive, listening attitude, and will strive to operate in response to the requests and needs which are expressed by congregations and presbyteries.

The leadership style of this Board and its staff will be patterned on the team concept in which each team member has general competence as well as being able to provide specialized help in some specific areas.

The Board will encourage the development of a similar pattern of leadership at all levels of church life.

As the Board of Congregational Life becomes operational it will undertake the following priorities:

1. The continuity of existing programs and services.
2. The evaluation and adaptation of existing programs and resources and their use.
3. The initiation of plans for certain new prime programs in leadership training (e.g. eldership training seminars) in response to the expressed needs of congregations.

4. Extensive consultation with Presbyteries with regard to the services and programs of this board to the congregations within their bounds will be a major priority on the time of the staff and the board.
5. Careful examination of the principle, implications, and feasibility of decentralizing field services.

B. General Structures.

1. The work of the Board of Congregational Life will be handled by the following structures:

the Board

Executive Committee

Standing Committees — Leadership Development
— Resource Development

Advisory Committees

Task Groups

2. The BOARD will elect from its members 2 vice-chairmen who will ordinarily serve for 2 years on a staggered basis. The vice-chairmen will assist the chairman, chair Executive meetings in his/her absence, represent him/her on board and extra-board committees as requested by the chairman.

3. An EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE will be established.

- (a) The Executive committee will have responsibility under the board for finance, policy, personnel, liason with presbyteries and synods, field services, agenda and format of board meetings, and such other matters as are referred to it by the board. Task groups may be appointed as needed by the Executive.

- (b) The Executive will be composed of the Board Chairman, as Chairman, 4 other board members, 2 of whom will be vice-chairman, 1 member named by each of the Standing Committees, and 1 of the Synod representatives on the board from each of the following groupings, named by the board in rotation every two years:

- I. Atlantic Provinces
Quebec and Eastern Ontario
- II. Toronto and Kingston
Hamilton and London
- III. Manitoba and Northern Ontario
Saskatchewan
- IV. Alberta
British Columbia.

The following will be invited to sit and correspond: Executive Secretary of the W.M.S. (W.D.) or her alternate, the General Secretary of the Board of World Mission or alternate.

- (c) The Executive will meet at least quarterly.

4. Two STANDING COMMITTEES will be established, namely:

Leadership Development

Resource Development

- (a) The function of these committees will be to implement the policy decisions of the board, to co-ordinate program development, and to bring policy recommendations to the Executive and board.
- (b) Each Standing Committee will have a membership of seven voting members appointed annually by the Board, plus as non-voting members the National Core Staff plus such field staff and other persons in an advisory capacity as the voting members may invite from time to time.
- (c) The Chairman of each Standing Committee will be elected by the voting members from among their number and reported to the Executive. The General Secretary will call the first meeting at the earliest convenient time following the appointment of the Committee by the Board, and preside over the election of a chairman, which will be the first main item of business.

5. ADVISORY COMMITTEES.

- The Board or its Executive will appoint annually Advisory Committees in such areas as they deem wise, including the areas of continuing programs carried over from the integrating boards e.g. men's work, youth work, evangelism, stewardship promotion, family life etc.
- The membership of the Advisory Committees will not be limited to Board members, and may include the appropriate staff members.
- One of the Advisory Committees will be a Staff Committee on Field Services to be responsible for the delivery of the Board of Congregational Life's services to synods, presbyteries and congregations. It will also advise and guide the Board and its committees in the development of policy and programs and budgets for field services; provide the Board of Congregational Life with such field information and data re use, requests, program, evaluation, etc., as is helpful for the Board's task; will cooperate with, support, assist, and consult field workers of other agencies and boards of our church, and agencies beyond our church that provide field services to the congregations of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and will report to the Board through the Executive.

It will be composed of such people as:

- General Secretary B.C.L. (Chairman)
- National Field Staff B.C.L.
- Executive Secretary (W.M.S.) (W.D.)
- Representative of W.M.S. (E.D.)
- Staff representative of B.W.M.

6. TASK GROUPS

As policy or program issues arise which need study, resolution, development, or promotion, Task Groups will be appointed by the Board or Executive to deal specifically with them, and then be dissolved.

C. Structural Relationships

The Board of Congregational Life recognizes that of the present programs of the integrating boards, some programs may be transferred to other boards and committees as study and experience will direct.

1. THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF PRESBYTERIAN MEN.

- The program of Presbyterian Men will be co-ordinated with the program of the Board of Congregational Life.
- There will be representation from the National Committee of Presbyterian Men on an Advisory Committee on Men's Work, of the Board of Congregational Life.
- The National Committee of Presbyterian Men shall have the privilege of reporting to the General Assembly through the Board of Congregational Life.
- The present position of National Director of Presbyterian Men will become a field staff position of the Board of Congregational Life.

2. THE NATIONAL COORDINATING BODY FOR CO-EDUCATIONAL YOUTH GROUPS.

The work of the National Coordinating Body for Co-Educational Youth Groups will be co-ordinated with the program of the Board of Congregational Life.

3. WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Both the Women's Missionary Society (W.D.) and the Woman's Missionary Society (E.D.) are represented on the Board of Congregational Life as decided by the 1972 General Assembly. In addition, the Executive Secretary of the W.M.S. (W.D.) or her alternate will be invited to sit and correspond at Board and Executive meetings.

4. BOARD OF WORLD MISSION.

The Board of World Mission will be invited to name a member to the Board of Congregational Life. The General Secretary of the Board of World Mission, or his alternate, will be invited to sit and correspond at Board meetings and at meetings of the Executive when policy matters regarding missionary education or field services are being discussed.

5. JOINT TASK FORCES.

- The Board of World Mission and the Women's Missionary Societies will be invited to share with the Board of Congregational Life in a Joint Task Force to study ways of providing continuing missionary education services to congregations.
- The Board of World Mission, the Women's Missionary Society (W.D.) and the Woman's Missionary Society (E.D.) will be invited to share with the Board of Congregational Life in a Joint Task Force to study the development and coordination of field services within the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and to report and bring recommendations to each of the above-named agencies.

D. Staffing

Staff persons will operate as a team in carrying out the policies of the Board of Congregational Life.

1. GENERAL SECRETARY.

- The General Secretary will act as the executive secretary of the Board of Congregational Life, appointed by the General Assembly but accountable to the Board. In this capacity the General Secretary will represent the Board and interpret its work.
- The General Secretary will be responsible for putting into effect the policies and procedures laid down by the Board of Congregational Life, it being understood that there should be the greatest possible flexibility of staff functions on the national staff team. The General Secretary shall be responsible for the operation of the Staff Team.
- The General Secretary will be responsible for the administrative oversight and co-ordination of the unified support program for congregations in all aspects of their work—both in leadership development and material resources, and specifically in the areas now designated evangelism, outreach, Christian education, Assembly budget promotion, stewardship, planning assistance, education for mission and worship.

A Core Staff Team will be appointed to assist the General Secretary in the implementation of these duties.

- (d) The General Secretary will establish the means by which it will be possible to be tuned to the needs of the local congregations, and will be a two-way communication link between the Presbyteries and the Board of Congregational Life.
- (e) The General Secretary will be responsible for the preparation of the program budget of the Board, which he shall submit to the Board for approval. When the budget is approved by the General Assembly the General Secretary shall be responsible to the Board for the administration of funds allocated for the work of the Board of Congregational Life.
- (f) The term of office for the General Secretary is five years as determined by the General Assembly.

2. CORE STAFF TEAM.

- (a) Four persons will be appointed to the Core Staff Team, and will be named Associate Secretaries of the Board of Congregational Life. The Core Staff Team will be responsible for the following functions of the Board's work: Education and Leadership development, Evangelism and Community Relations, Stewardship and Resource Development, Research and Communication, Administration and Planning.
- (b) Specific responsibility for the administration and servicing of present programs will be divided amongst the members of the Core Staff Team.
- (d) Core Staff persons will be expected to spend a period of time each year in the field. They will be expected to attend meetings of the Board, and such other meetings of the Executive and Standing Committees as requested by the Chairman or General Secretary.
- (e) Meetings of the Core Staff Team will be held at least twice a month for planning, the exchange of information, assignment of tasks. The General Secretary will be responsible for calling the meetings, chairing them, and organizing them.
- (f) The 4 staff people on the Core Staff Team will be accountable to the General Secretary and through him to the Board or its Executive. This is not to preclude the right of any staff member to have direct access to the Board.

3. NATIONAL FIELD STAFF.

- (a) There will be a National Field Staff team to carry the services of the Board of Congregational Life to congregations and Presbyteries. The members of this team will be entitled Associate Secretaries for Field Services.
- (b) For the interim period the number of National field staff team members will not exceed 6, and may be based in Toronto.
- (c) The optimum number of field staff positions and the location of such persons will be determined by the Board of Congregational Life in consultation with Presbyteries and Synods, and will be reported to the General Assembly in 1975.
- (d) The National Field Staff team will have specialist proficiency in a particular area, but will be expected to develop competence in all services of the Board.
- (e) Members of the National Field Staff team will have the responsibility in consultation with the General Secretary and the Board to provide service to individual congregations and Presbyteries, for extended periods of time when feasible.

- (f) Seminars will be arranged by the General Secretary for briefing and training the field staff in all aspects of the Board's services.
- (g) Field staff will be responsible not only for the services of the Board, but also for research into congregational life styles, the gathering and exchange of information re the work of congregations, Presbyteries, and Synods.
- (h) When available, the Associate Secretaries for Field Services will be present at the Core Staff meetings to share in planning.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. (a) That the Rev. W. L. Young be appointed the General Secretary of the Board of Congregational Life.
(b) That the duties of the General Secretary begin at a time suitable to the Board of Congregational Life and the newly-appointed General Secretary, following this General Assembly.
2. Whereas the Committee on Church and University has indicated its desire to have its work related to the Board of World Mission, and whereas the Board of World Mission, the Board of Christian Education, and the Organization and Planning Committee have approved this relationship. Therefore the Board of Congregational Life recommends that this transfer be made.
3. That the General Assembly approve the General Plan of Operation for the Board of Congregational Life for the Interim period, January 1, 1974 to June 1975.
4. On the approval of Recommendations 2 and 3 above, the Board recommends to the General Assembly that a representative of the Board of World Mission be added to the membership of the Board of Congregational Life, and that the representative of the Committee on Church and University be deleted.
5. (a) That the General Secretary be employed at the "Secretary" level of salary and the Associate Secretaries at the "Assistant Secretary" level.
(b) That present staff who become staff of the Board of Congregational Life may do so without any reduction in their salary.
6. That in the event of a staff vacancy, the Board of Congregational Life will be authorized to seek nominations from Presbyteries to be submitted no later than November 1, 1973, and make the appointment.
7. That the Chairman of the Board of Congregational Life, or alternate, be a regular member of the Administrative Council, and the General Secretary and other staff as required act as consultants (non-voting).
8. That the 1974 budget for the Board of Congregational Life not exceed the total of the combined estimated budgets for 1974 of the boards and committees being integrated.

Respectfully submitted.

(MRS. K. DENTON) MARGARET TAYLOR,
Chairman.

ADDITION TO REPORT OF BOARD OF WORLD MISSION

OVERTURE #27, 1972, Presbytery of Hamilton: Ministerial Support

An Overture from the Presbytery of Hamilton had been referred to the Board from the Business Committee of General Assembly. The intent of the Overture is to grant permission to Presbyteries to set their own minimum stipend and that the Board be permitted to pay grants up to the Presbytery minimum.

RECOMMENDATION

8. The Board of World Mission recommends the prayer of the Overture be not granted.

RE: CATECHISTS

The following persons are filling appointments as Catechists under the Board of World Mission and have been certified by the Presbyteries concerned:

Mr. Frank Canning	Pictou	Sherbrooke, etc.
Mr. D. S. McLaren	Miramichi	New Carlisle
Mr. James Mullin	Brandon	Hartney, etc.
Mr. C. E. Burrige	Red Deer	Three Hills, etc.
On Course
Mr. K. B. Weeks	St. John	Stanley, etc.
Mr. A. J. Ballard	St. John	Sussex, etc.
Mr. Archie Murray	P.E.I.	Alberton, etc.
Mr. J. O. Forrester	Lanark & Renfrew	MacDonald's Corners, etc.
Mr. J. A. Morrison	Kootenay	Creston

The attention of Presbyteries is directed to the advantages of ensuring that Catechists participate in the Retirement Fund for Church Employees. At the present time only two are enrolled in the Fund.

The three year course for Catechists has been continued but the response has been very disappointing. The same course is available for interested laymen. A few laymen have shown interest in the course.

L. L. DEGROOT,
Chairman.

G. A. MALCOLM,
General Secretary.

BOARD OF STEWARDSHIP AND BUDGET

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The 1972 Record of Performance

Congregational givings to the General Assembly Budget in 1972 rose to $2,126,113, an increase of $78,397 (3.7%) over the previous year which was the record high to that date. In addition, congregations contributed $731,735 for "Other Benevolences" which included $353,000 for the National Development Fund and $73,000 for Inter Church Aid, Refugee and World Service. The total for All Purposes in 1972 was $18,446,381, an increase over the previous year of $1,068,673 (6.1%).

Note: From these figures it is seen that 15.4% of all congregational revenue was given to purposes outside the congregations. The General Assembly Budget received 11.5% of the total for all purposes. We are far short of giving as much to others, as we spend on ourselves in the church.

Analysis of Presbytery Givings in 1972

The attached chart shows presbytery totals for (1) The Assembly Budget, (2) Other Benevolences, and (3) All Purposes, with per member rates for each.

The per member rate for the Budget increased to $11.85 from $11.21 in 1971. The per member rate for all purposes increased to $102.89 from $95.19 in 1971.

The highest per member rate for the Budget in a presbytery was in Superior ($18.76), followed by East Toronto ($15.45), Winnipeg ($15.02), Temiskaming ($14.75) and Brockville ($14.17).

The highest per member rate for all purposes in a presbytery was in Newfoundland ($183.09), followed by Vancouver Island ($167.95), Kamloops ($154.79), Quebec ($147.74), Kootenay ($146.87), and Halifax and Lunenburg ($146.78).

All Synods showed increases in both Budget givings and in giving for All Purposes. Thirty-six presbyteries showed increases in Budget givings. Thirty-eight showed increases in All Purposes. Only one presbytery reported decreases in both Budget support, and in givings for All Purposes.

What takes some of the glow from the above statistics is the fact that the increases are coming from fewer members. The decrease in total membership of 3292 enhances the per member rate figures, but we must not be lulled into complacency by such statistics. The decrease in membership points to challenges facing our church, along with other denominations, which cannot be dealt with by acquiring a few extra dollars. Before people can become stewards of the gospel, they must become believers in the gospel.

The $3,000,000 Budget Objective

The 98th General Assembly approved a $3,000,000 Budget Objective for 1973, and allocations to apportion that amount to the presbyteries and congregations were sent out in September. In making the recommendation, it was realized that we could not reach that figure immediately, but it was hoped that as National Development Fund commitments were completed, there would be a transfer of effort toward Budget support and that we should be able to move up gradually toward the new level of giving. In working out the required congregational shares, it became evident that many of our congregations are already close to the new allocation, and in some cases beyond it. The $3,000,000 objective is within our reach if we want to reach for it.

Some confusion was caused last year by the wording of the recommendation which aimed at encouraging congregations to complete their N.D.F. commitments before tackling the new Budget allocation. The N.D.F. will not be merged with the Budget. N.D.F. money must be designated as such. Budget money will not be apportioned to the N.D.F.

Allocation Scale

It is recognized that the scale in use for many years apportions unfairly large shares to small one-point charges, and assigns relatively too small shares to the over 700 member congregations. Where Sessions assume their responsibility to adjust the recommended required share so that it is a realistic challenge to the congregation, there is no problem. But where the suggested required share is viewed as a tax, which it is not, there are complaints from the smaller groups and smug complacency in the unchallenged larger groups. The Board of Stewardship and Budget has tested alternative methods of allocation, but so far has discovered nothing better than the one in use. However, the question is still under study by a competent committee. We could, of course, set up an elaborate system on a computer, but the initial cost and the cost of changes would be prohibitive for a denomination of our size.

Report on Organization and Planning Proposal

In view of the proposal of the Organization and Planning Committee to integrate the Board of Stewardship and Budget into the new Board of Congregational Life and our Board's decision to concur in same, we take this opportunity to review some of the recent history of our Board.

During the '30's and '40's, Budget promotion was carried out by a committee of the Board of Administration with voluntary leadership. It is interesting to note that the emphasis were on the same techniques that are being recommended today.

In 1947, Dr. Neil Miller was appointed Field Secretary for Budget promotion, and the Stewardship and Budget Committee was given authority to plan its own program, although it continued as a committee of the Board of Administration. During the '50's under Dr. Miller's vigorous and imaginative leadership, stewardship gained in significance and Budget support increased at an impressive rate, going up from $389,000 in 1947 to $1,530,000 in 1959. Two pre-Assembly Congresses were held in that period. Inter church cooperation in production of materials and training of stewardship leaders was introduced under the name Sector Plan, with great benefit to all the denominations.

In 1960, the Board of Administration became the Administrative Council, and the Stewardship and Budget Committee became a Board of the General Assembly. Incidentally this change coincided with the appointments of the present Secretary and associate Secretary. The change in name and status did not change the emphases and techniques. When the National Development Fund campaign was launched in 1967, the tested method of our Board was recommended for the operation by the consultant firm that organized the campaign.

This brief resume indicates why the Board opposed the original proposal of Organization and Planning to divide its work amongst three agencies of the Assembly. Our conviction is that education in stewardship doctrine and practice must be kept closely related to promotion of the General Assembly Budget. Under whatever board or committee the work is placed, the theoretical and practical emphases on commitment, counselling and training, along with materials needed for same, have to be seen as parts of one operation. Having been assured that such would be possible under the revised proposals of the Organizations and Planning Committee, our Board agreed to concur in the proposal. The Board is recommending that a nucleus of the present Board members be named as an Advisory Committee under the Board of Congregational Life during its interim period to assure that the momentum of our program is maintained.

Because the February meeting might be the last full meeting of the Board, the members insisted on putting on the record their appreciation of the "skilled and dedicated service" of their two staff members, Mr. A. M. Deans and Dr. H. F. Davidson.

Promotional Materials

(a) Annual Theme Emphasis.

The stewardship theme for 1973-74 is "You have Response-ability", a variant on the Mission Education theme of "Christians and the Responsible Use of Power". Posters and other materials on this theme for use in the Every Person Visitation are being sampled to all congregations.

(b) Bible Study Work-book.

The fourth annual Bible Study Work-book on the current theme is being produced in co-operation with the other program boards and the W.M.S. (W.D.) for congregational use. We should like to see wider use being made of this instrument which has proven, where it has been tried, to be an effective means of stimulating discussion of issues basic in Christian discipleship. The Board urges stronger promotion of the work-book in congregations.

(c) The weekly church bulletin continues to be the most widely used, and we believe the most effective instrument for promoting the General Assembly Budget. Aid-receiving congregations may receive up to 100 bulletins per week free of charge on request.

(d) Motivation Study Materials.

One of the many findings of the North American Inter Church Study, reported on last year and summarized in the book "Punctured Preconceptions", is that there is a significant gap between what people profess about their motives for church support, and their actual performance. A set of exercises has been prepared to help congregational leaders examine their own motives and performance, with the hope not only that they would improve their performance, but that they would be motivated to discuss this matter with their fellow members.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the General Assembly approve a Budget objective for 1974 of $3,000,000.
2. That the Assembly authorize the Board of Stewardship and Budget to compute Synod and Presbytery shares required to reach the 1974 objective, and that the data used to compute the required shares be sent to presbyteries to assist them in apportioning congregational required shares.
3. That the Assembly approve the Board's recommendation that during the interim period of operation of the Board of Congregational Life, i.e. from January 1, 1974 till June 1975, an Advisory Committee comprised of Mr. Hugh Lloyd, Mr. Lyle McLaren, Mr. Howard Runnalls, Rev. Warren MacKinnon, Rev. Alex J. Calder, Rev. George Bell, Rev. Walter Allum plus the two representatives of the Board appointed by the General Assembly, be authorized to give guidance in the Stewardship and Budget program.

For Presbytery Action

4. That presbyteries be instructed to inform Sessions of the Required Share of the 1974 Assembly Budget in time for this to be considered at congregational budget planning meetings in October, and that if adjustments are made, the total presbytery required share be allocated.
5. That where allocations are sharply increased due to the new objective, presbyteries be instructed to encourage congregations to set annual objectives so as to meet their new required share by 1975; and where the required share is lower than the present level of giving, presbyteries encourage congregations to set their own objective at a level that challenges the congregations' generosity.
6. That presbyteries encourage congregations to be diligent in keeping their membership rolls accurate.
7. That presbyteries be encouraged to arrange Budget promotion seminars within their bounds and to invite the assistance of our Board staff in planning same.
8. That presbyteries encourage the congregations which have not completed National Development Fund Commitments to fulfill their pledges by 1975.

For Session Action

9. That Sessions be urged to arrange for every member to be given the opportunity annually to renew his commitment to support the work and worship of the church, by one of the methods recommended by the Board of Stewardship and Budget.
10. That Sessions be requested to arrange for effective distribution of the Stewardship materials on the theme "You have Response-ability" and arrange for study groups to use the Bible Study work-book entitled "Power".
11. That Sessions be urged to promote completion of National Development Fund commitments, if such were made, or, where no commitment was made, to endeavour to persuade the congregation to make their contribution by the end of 1975.
12. That the thanks of the Assembly be recorded for the faithful work being done to support its total program by congregational leaders as evidenced by the annual increase in Budget giving.

H. M. LLOYD,
Chairman.

H. F. DAVIDSON,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CLERKS OF ASSEMBLY RE: OVERTURE 10, 1972
PRESBYTERY OF BROCKVILLE, RE: GRADUATING THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Clerks of Assembly are grateful to the Presbytery of Brockville for stating clearly a problem that has emerged to larger proportions since graduating students were no longer required to be appointed to serve under the Board of World Mission for a year's term.

Section 215 of the Book of Forms, requiring that Interim-Moderators permit only ministers and licentiates of the Church to appear as candidates, has always been subject to some abuse. Prior to the time (1938) of the regulation that graduating students be appointed to a mission field the Church found ministers in such short supply that little or no objection was offered if a student expecting to be graduated, engaged, through the interim-moderator of the vacancy, to take a call after licensing. The charge was permitted to mark time with pulpit supply until the student became a licentiate. There were some heart-burnings in this. A charge hurrying to get a minister could find between the time of the student's appearance (say, January) and the time of his licensing (say, May) that it had second thoughts upon the suitability of the student concerned. There were occasions when the student, having committed himself to a vacancy, also had second thoughts.

It is to be noted that the regulations spoken of did not apply to all graduating students; those who had had service in the armed forces were not subject to the regulation. With these also there were times when second thoughts were desired.

It is also to be noted that the Board of World Mission can still appoint graduating students who are willing to accept an appointment.

In these matters subterfuges to escape the letter and the intent of the law have been common. To prevent such the presbytery has the primary responsibility. Presbyteries should be alert to the responsibility and should query an interim-moderator-carefully before sustaining his conduct of affairs in the vacancy.

Another factor in the problem is that a strict enforcement of Section 215 would mean that a graduating student would be without steady income from the time of his licensing until the time of his ordination and induction — a burden that most students would find financially great.

In view of these and other considerations, the Clerks of Assembly propose that the substance of the prayer of the Presbytery of Brockville in Overture 10, 1972, be granted.

The opinion of the Clerks is that a regulation cannot set aside the absoluteness of Section 215 of the Book of Forms, and therefore an amendment under the Barrier Act is required.

The Clerks recommend that the following be sent down under the Barrier Act as an addition to Section 215:

"Students of our Colleges, in the term in which they expect to graduate, may, with the permission of the Senate of their College, be presented by an interim-moderator to a vacancy not earlier than March 1st of their graduating year. In the event of the charge desiring to call the graduating student, procedure shall be suspended and resumed after the graduating student is licensed."

E. A. THOMSON, L. H. FOWLER, D. C. MACDONALD,
Clerks of Assembly.

REPORT OF THE CLERKS OF ASSEMBLY RE: OVERTURE 12, 1972
PRESBYTERY OF CALGARY-MACLEOD, RE: REMITS UNDER THE BARRIER ACT

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Presbytery of Calgary-Macleod, Overture 12, 1972, Re: Remits Under the Barrier Act prays that no Remit under the Barrier Act be sent down whose final wording has not been approved by the General Assembly.

As the Overture did not specify the Remits to which the Presbytery took exception, the Clerks of Assembly have made an analysis of all Remits 1962-1972, inclusive, and present the following summary concerning final wording:

Remits in which the texts have been approved by the Assembly remitting under the Barrier Act:

All Remits originating from the work of the Committee on Church Doctrine.

Changes affecting these sections of the Book of Forms: 27(1), 80, 125 (e), 131 (c), 151, 200 (h), 208 and 298 — a total of eight Remits.

Remits in which the texts have been referred with authority to send the Remits to the presbyteries:

To be prepared by a special committee: Concerning Regulations of the Assembly's Committee on Business.

To be prepared by the Clerks of Assembly: Ordination of Women, Deleting 'Kirk' in 'Kirk'-Session, Elders at 18 years of age, Open meetings of Kirk-Sessions, Overtures 16 and 18, 1969, re: Appointments to Parishes — a total of five.

This analysis indicates that where it has been possible the prayer of the Overture has been met.

The Clerks offer the following comment:

1. Unless preparatory work has been done (as in the work of the Committee on Church Doctrine) it is not possible for the assembly first receiving the Remit to approve the final wording of it. The Assembly is not always competent in ordinary debate to settle the wording of the text. The final wording often involves hours of research through any relevant sections of the Book of Forms, comparison with practice and procedure, precision of phrasing that the wording will conform to interpretation of similar words elsewhere in the Book of Forms or in usage, and examination of the phrasing for clarity and unambiguous language. Debate on these items on the floor of assembly could result in hasty and contradictory decisions.
2. The effect of the prayer of the Overture is to remove from assembly its rights to appoint a commission, that is, a committee to issue in the matter. Such a change in the rights of the assembly is not acceptable to the Clerks, nor is it in conformity with good practice.
3. The Book of Forms, Section 293 (3) gives the substance of the prayer of the Overture to the assembly that considers the returns from the presbyteries. If a remit is faulty in its phrasing, and fails to pass the presbyteries, the Remit, under 293 (3) may be sent again to presbyteries in a revision. If the Remit does pass the presbyteries, the assembly is not bound to pass it into law. It is competent for the assembly to reject it, and send it down again with a revised phrasing.
4. It should be noted that in the list of Remits to be prepared by the Clerks of Assembly the Clerks wish to state they do not work in isolation, but often consult those interested in the Remit. No complaint has ever been received concerning the work of the Clerks in preparing Remits. The Clerks recommend that this Report be the answer to Overture 12, 1972. Respectfully submitted,

E. A. THOMSON, L. H. FOWLER, D. C. MACDONALD,
Clerks of Assembly.

REPORT OF THE CLERKS OF ASSEMBLY RE: OVERTURE 30, 1972
PRESBYTERY OF GUELPH AND SAUGEEN RE: MINISTERS ON THE APPENDIX TO THE ROLL

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Clerks of Assembly recommend that the prayer of Overture 30, 1972, Presbytery of Guelph and Saugeen Re: Ministers on the Appendix to the Roll be granted, the following to be sent down under the Barrier Act:

Addition to Section 258 (a) of the Book of Forms, "Ministers qualifying as elders under the Book of Forms, Section 106 (b), shall not be eligible to hold commissions as elders except from their own Presbyteries."

Addition to Section 258 of the Book of Forms, a sub-section, "258 (e) A minister who is an elder in a congregation as per Section 106 (b) can sit in the Assembly only as an elder commissioner from the Presbytery to which he belongs."

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. THOMSON, L. H. FOWLER, D. C. MACDONALD,
Clerks of Assembly

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The function of the Committee on Church Architecture is to advise congregations and Presbyteries regarding the suitability of plans and cost estimates of proposed buildings.

This, the committee has found can be most helpfully done by commenting upon preliminary sketch plans and estimates submitted at an early stage in the planning process. A subsequent submission of design development drawings then usually meets with prompt approval. During the past year the committee has examined the plans of a number of congregations from coast to coast. In addition the convenor discussed planning and building procedures with a conference of Mission Superintendents.

This year the Committee has printed an explanatory booklet "Guidelines for Planning a Church" as an aid to congregations contemplating building a church. It outlines both diagrammatically and by explanatory notes the steps in the planning and building process.

Two-thirds of the members of the committee are architects, engineers, quantity surveyors and other members of the building industry. The other third of the committee are ministers who are involved in the various aspects of church extension. Because of the difficulty of securing the attendance of more than a portion of the professional members of the committee at any one meeting, the Committee wishes to recommend to the General Assembly that membership be restored to 12 members from the 9 to which it was reduced last year. We respectfully point out that the committee has never come close to spending all of its annual budget of $500 and thus we do not feel that the restored membership would create a financial burden upon the church, while serving its purpose more effectively.

RECOMMENDATION

That the membership of the Committee on Church Architecture be set at 12 members, plus ex-officio the Secretary for Christian Education, the Secretary of the B.W.M. — Canada Mission Fields and the Manager, Presbyterian Church Building Corporation.

M. R. ROSS,
Convener.

ALEX F. MACSWEEN,
Secretary

THE COMMITTEE TO ADVISE WITH THE MODERATOR

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Reverend M. V. Putnam, B.A., D.D., Minister of St. Andrew's Church, Kingston, Ontario, was elected Moderator of the 98th General Assembly, meeting in Riverdale Presbyterian Church, Toronto, the first sederunt being Sunday, June 4th, 1972.

St. Andrew's Church, Kingston, kindly released Dr. Putnam for itineraries that might be arranged by his Committee. During his moderatorial year he visited within almost all the Synods of the Church, but especially those of the Atlantic Provinces and British Columbia. He visited India for the celebration pertaining to John Buchanan. He also attended the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

The Committee to Advise with the Moderator had two overtures referred to it by the 98th General Assembly. The report on these is as follows:

Overture 9, Presbytery of Edmonton, Re: Annual Tour of the Moderator of the General Assembly. The Committee has given much consideration to the prayer of the Overture, and has been in touch with moderators of previous assemblies and others acquainted with the problems of itineraries for moderators. Answers are not yet in from all moderators consulted. In all, the widest possible spectrum of suggestions have been found.

The Committee recommends that the prayer of the overture be given sympathetic consideration by the Committees to Advise with the Moderator in the future, realizing it is difficult to lay down general rules inasmuch as the gifts of the Moderator for the current year in which he/she serves have all to be taken into consideration.

Overture 31, Presbytery of Glengarry, re: The method of Electing the Moderator. The Committee finds itself in full appreciation of the points made in the overture, and, as requested, was in touch with the presbyteries. Twenty-four presbyteries answered the circular, and sixteen of these approved the present method of electing the moderator. The Committee recommends a revision of the regulations and, for the sake of clarity will ask that the present regulations be struck out and the following substituted, for which a Notice of Motion will be given as required under present regulations:

"PREAMBLE":

1. That the following orders be now adopted, and reviewed by the 1974 General Assembly, and confirmed or changed as that Assembly may desire.
2. That in the Regulations below where the phrase "nomination of Presbytery" or equivalent is used, this phrase be understood for convenience only: the only true nomination for Moderator is from the floor of Assembly.

REGULATIONS:

1. That Presbyteries return to the Clerks of Assembly for the Committee to Advise with the Moderator by November 30th on nomination only, the nomination to be accompanied by a biographical sketch of the nominee, not over one hundred words in length.
2. That the Clerks of Assembly ascertain from those nominated their willingness to accept the nomination and to accept the office if elected.
3. That the Committee send to the Clerks of Presbyteries sufficient ballots for the Presbytery, each containing the names of those duly nominated by the Presbyteries, each ballot being accompanied by biographical sketches and envelope.
4. That the Clerk of Presbytery give a ballot, biographical sketches and an envelope to each of those on the Constituent Roll of Presbytery (alternate Elders not to have a vote). Each voter shall vote by preference for Moderator, 1, 2, 3, and so on, to the number of the names on the ballot. Said ballots, as prepared as under 5 following, are to be returned to the Clerks of Assembly, forwarded by the Clerk of Presbytery, registered mail, postmarked not later than March 31st to be counted.
5. That the voting in the Presbytery be as in the Book of Forms, Section 132 (3) and (4), mutatis mutandis, the envelope being sealed and authenticated by the signature of the member on the Constituent Roll and certified also by the signature of the Clerk of Presbytery on the envelope.
6. That the Committee to Advise with the Moderator open and count the ballots as under Section 132 (4) of the Book of Forms, mutatis mutandis. The counting shall proceed until one nominee receives an over-all majority, with the low nominee being dropped and his votes distributed according to the preference indicated. The quorum of the Committee for this counting is here stated to be three members of whom at least one shall be a Clerk of Assembly.

7. That the Minister receiving the over-all majority be informed by the Committee, who, upon receiving his/her acceptance, will notify his/her Presbytery with the request that he/she be named a commissioner.

8. That the Committee, if the foregoing 7 is in order, notify the Church in whatever manner they deem good.

9. That the Committee destroy all the ballots at a suitable time after the election of the Moderator.

10. That the nomination be made from the floor of the Assembly, and that opportunity be given for another nomination or nominations.

11. That, if the foregoing fails to be effective, the election of the Moderator shall proceed in the manner of 1969, notice being given to the Presbyteries as early as possible."

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Reverend Agnew H. Johnston, M.A., D.D., Minister of St. Andrew's Church, Thunder Bay, Ontario, be officially nominated as Moderator of the 99th General Assembly.
 2. That Assembly adopt the recommendation in this Report re Tour of the Moderator as an answer to Overture 9, 1972, Presbytery of Edmonton.
 3. That Assembly adopt the statement in this Report as an answer to Overture 31, 1972, Presbytery of Glengarry, in the process of Notice of Motion and Motion.
 4. That the thanks of Assembly be tendered to St. Andrew's Church, Kingston, for their fine co-operation through the year.
 5. That the thanks of Assembly be tendered to the courts of the Church, the congregations, and the many beyond numbering who have assisted the Moderator and this Committee.
 6. That the thanks of Assembly be tendered to the communications media for their readiness to make available their facilities to Dr. Putnam and his associates.
- Respectfully submitted,

L. H. FOWLER,
Chairman.

DONALD C. MACDONALD,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE PENSION BOARD

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

During the past year two meetings of the Pension Board have been held, in November, 1972, and April, 1973.

In our report to the 98th General Assembly we recommended that the suggested New Pension Plan be submitted to Presbyteries for reply by February, 1973, and it was also referred to the Administrative Council. We also advised that it was subject to approval by the Actuary that the contributions provided would be sufficient to buy the suggested pensions.

Even though the last valuation was at the end of 1969, we asked the Actuary for a re-valuation of the Pension Plan because he had obtained most of the information from his other calculations of the feasibility of this suggested plan. The Actuary's valuation of the present fund is attached and he has recommended an increase in pensions which has been approved by the Pension Board so that the pension for each year of service will be $50.00, rather than $41.25, as at present. This will mean that a full ratepayer, with forty years of service, will receive a pension of $2,000.00 from the Church's share, plus $250.00 purchased by himself, for a total of $2,250.00, and $1,125.00 to the widow. Optional ratepayers would receive $200.00 less. This increase will be made as of January 1st, 1973, and will be paid as soon as possible after approval by the Assembly. There will be no change in the retirement age. As in the past, ministers may retire at sixty-five with a reduction of one half of one percent for each month prior to normal retirement at age sixty-eight.

As a result of our consultations with Presbyteries, and the Administrative Council, it is now recommended that under the New Plan congregational contributions should be 2% of amounts raised for all congregational purposes, rather than 6% of stipend. But, for Board Secretaries, College Professors, cognate workers, and any other ministers not included with the congregations, the contribution should be 6%. As recommended last year, ministers' contributions will be 4% of stipend and the Budget will also be 4% of stipend. The amount of pension is unchanged at 2% of stipend for each year of service. The maximum stipend to be in use in any connection with the Pension would be $10,000.00. At the meeting of the Administrative Council on April 10th, they approved the Plan in principle, subject to review regarding financial needs by the Executive of the Administrative Council in May. Therefore, at the meeting of the Pension Board, on April 12th, they recommended that this New Plan be approved, effective January 1st, 1974.

Our Financial Statement for 1972 again shows an increase in interest return, a further appreciation in the market value of our investments, and a large increase in bequests.

The Pension Board has given careful consideration to the direction of the 98th General Assembly in connection with the reduction in the number of members on the Board. The Board has a number of actuaries who have rendered valuable voluntary service, and the Board is reluctant to lose these members in this time of transition to a New Pension Plan. If they are to be retained, it would mean almost no ministers, or lay persons, other than actuaries on the Board. The Board considers it important to have the three elements represented, and the cost of meetings has always been very minimal. The Board, therefore, presents a recommendation requesting the General Assembly to rescind its resolution of the 98th General Assembly with regard to the membership of the Pension Board, and permit 18 members appointed by General Assembly, with 3 Synod conveners of the Central Synods and the Treasurer of the Church, ex-officio, plus the other Synod Conveners by correspondence.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the present Pension for years of service be increased from $41.25 to $50.00, making the total pension after forty years of service $2,000.00, plus $250.00, purchased by the minister, and the widow's pension half that amount, or $1,125.00, except for the $200.00 reduction in the case of optional ratepayers, effective January 1, 1973.
2. That the Pension Plan recommended to the 98th General Assembly, and amended in our report so that congregations pay 2% of amount raised for congregational purposes rather than the 6% of stipend, be approved.
3. That if the new plan is approved, all bequests, starting with the year 1972, be set aside at the present time to provide additional payments to pensioners and widows who receive no amounts from the Canada Pension Plan. These amounts to be determined by the Pension Board.
4. That the membership of the Pension Board be 18 members appointed by General Assembly, plus the Conveners of the 3 Central Synods and the Church Treasurer, ex-officio; plus the Conveners of the other Synods by correspondence.
5. That Mr. K. R. MacGregor be appointed as a corresponding member of the Board because of his valuable knowledge in the pension field.
6. That the recommendations re applicants to retire on benefits of the Pension Fund listed in this report be approved.

7. That the General Assembly express most grateful appreciation and sincere thanks to Professor Noriss E. Sheppard, M.A., F.I.A., F.C.I.A. and Professor D. C. Bailey, A.S.A., F.C.I.A. for their dedicated personal service to our Pension Board and our Church.
8. That the General Assembly express most grateful appreciation to those in the office as well as Dr. MacDonald and Miss Scott for their assistance, and to Dr. E. A. Thomson, who retires from the Board this year after a 6 year term, for his faithfulness over many years as secretary, counsellor and strong pillar in the life of the Pension Board.

Chairman.

Secretary.

The Presbyterian Church in Canada,
50 Wynford Drive,
Don Mills, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Smart:

We have completed our valuation of the Pension Fund as at 31 December 1971, this being our eleventh report thereon. The tenth report was made as at 31 December 1969.

The detailed valuation information was supplied to us on record cards; a card was typed for each pensioned Minister, for each widow who received an allowance, and for each active Minister who was connected with the Pension Fund during the two years ended 31 December 1971.

MORTALITY OF PENSIONERS

We have examined the mortality experienced during the two-year interval period of both the pensioned Ministers and the widows who were on pension according to the records which we had before us; the following are the summarized results:

Pensioned Ministers	Number	Pensioned Widows
78	On pension list 31 December 1969	158
+ 15	Pensioned during the two years	+ 15
— 14	Pensions terminated by death or remarriage	— 25
= 79	On pension list 31.12.71	= 148

A summary in quinquennial age groups, of the distribution of the retired Ministers and the widows drawing allowances during the past two years is given in Schedules A and B, respectively.

The following is a comparison of the actual deaths with the expected numbers of deaths on the a(55) Ultimate Mortality Tables for Annuitants, written down one year of age, for each of the periods 1953-1962 and 1963-1971 respectively.

Attained Age Group at Death	Deaths in the Years between Valuations
	1953-1962		1963-1971
	Actual	Expected	Actual	Expected
Retired Ministers
Under 60	1	0.0	0	0.1
60 to 69	4	0.8	4	1.8
70 to 79	27	25.9	26	17.1
Over 80	58	47.7	39	38.5
	90	74.4	69	57.5
Pensioned Widows
Under 60	2	0.7	1	0.9
60 to 69	5	4.7	8	3.5
70 to 79	20	20.7	14	18.3
Over 80	53	42.6	56	48.9
	80	68.7	79	71.6

The numbers of deaths are not large but they provide some evidence that the mortality of both men and women is decreasing above age 80. In the five years 1967-71, only 17 men died above age 80, against 22.7 expected.

TERMINATION RATES FOR ACTIVE MINISTERS

We have examined the service experience of 729 active Ministers who were connected with the Fund at any time during the inter-valuation period, with respect to the four main modes of termination of service to the Church in Canada — withdrawal (with or without a lump sum benefit), transfer under a Comity Agreement, dying while in service, and going on pension.

Their over-all movement during the two years was as follows:

Ministers with the Fund 31 December 1969	657
joined the plan during the period	+ 72
withdrew or were suspended during the period	— 16
transferred under Comity Agreements during the period	— 1
died in service during the period	— 7
were superannuated during the period	— 15
Ministers with the Fund, 31 December 1971	690

A summary of the age distributions of these 729 members who were contributors at any time during the interval period is given in Schedule C.

This most recent termination experience among the contributing Ministers was compared with the numbers expected according to the rates of termination for each mode of exit that we used in both our 1962, 1966, and 1969 valuations. We satisfied ourselves that these same rates of separation from service could still be used for the future, and accordingly we have based our calculations for the contingent liabilities and the value of the future Ministers' contributions on the 1969 service table, which terminated at age 68.

PENSION BENEFITS

As of the end of the year 1969 (when our last valuation was made) the maximum normal yearly pension being paid the then existing pensioners (including those pensioned immediately thereafter) was —

	$ 250.00 from the Minister's personal rates and	1,450.00 (40 × $36.25) from the Church's contributions or	$1,700.00 a year.

The widow's allowance for a Minister who died in service or while on pension was generally $850 per annum, the widow's pension being independent of the length of service of the husband. $125 of this came from the Minister's rates, the other $725 from the Church.

Following the 1969 valuation the maximum Minister's pension of $1,450 per annum payable from the Church's contribution was raised by $200 so that a Minister now may receive —

	$ 250.00 a year from his personal rates and	1,650.00 a year (40 × $41.25) from the Church or	$1,900.00 a year to a Minister retiring at age 68 with at least 40 years' service.

The basic widow's allowance rose accordingly from $850 to $950, of which $825 came from the Church.

REVENUE SOURCES

It will be recalled that the four sources of revenue other than invested earnings are —

- (i) the Ministers who have connected with the Fund,
- (ii) the Boards and Congregations,
- (iii) the Church Budget,
- (iv) all Gifts and Legacies.

The following schedule gives a year-by-year summary of the revenue from each of these sources for the ten years ending 31 December 1971.

Year ending 31 Dec.	Ministers	Boards and Congregations	Church Budget	Gifts and Legacies
December 31, 1962	$ 38,207	$141,764	$125,000	$ 8,324
December 31, 1963	39,574	138,031	125,000	144,377
December 31, 1964	38,918	163,578	125,000	6,535
December 31, 1965	33,710	155,235	125,000	12,530
December 31, 1966	37,536	129,114	125,000	164,542
December 31, 1967	34,059	158,685	125,000	8,020
December 31, 1968	34,687	158,240	125,000	14,376
December 31, 1969	35,535	156,394	125,000	26,357
December 31, 1970	38,135	166,963	125,000	50,714
December 31, 1971	43,894	170,944	125,000	70,628

In the Asset side of our actuarial valuation balance sheet there is shown the present values of the shares of such future revenues that should go to the benefit of the present contributors during their service lifetime, determined as follows.

It will be noticed that the amounts received from Gifts and Legacies for each of the years 1963 and 1966 include one unusually large legacy. For the future we have assumed an average annual revenue of $22,000 from gifts and legacies.

Similarly, we have assumed an annual figure of $155,000 from Boards and Congregations along with $125,000 from the Church Budget.

Each of these is multiplied by an average annuity factor of 9.33 to obtain the present values in the balance sheet.

MINISTERS WHO HAD NOT YET JOINED THE PENSION FUND

As of 31 December 1969, from the information supplied to us, there were some 58 ministers who had not yet connected with the pension plan. But as of 31 December 1971, there were only about a dozen ministers still outside the Plan, and the fund faced no liability for their service before that date.

FUND INVESTMENT AND PURCHASE OF ANNUITIES

In our 1962 valuation report (dated May 1, 1963) we referred to the taking over as of January 1, 1963, of the investment of the funds by the Canada Life Assurance Company under a segregated fund (contract No. P-3185).

In our 1966 report we describe the actual operation of this fund. The Company's annual charges for administering the fund have in recent years run from 0.38% to 0.35% of the mean assets, which can be viewed in effect as a reduction in the annual earned rate of interest.

In our valuation as at 31 December, 1971, of future pensions to be granted under the Pension Plan, we have used the following basis for purchase prices:

Net annuity rates based upon the 5% a(55)
(British) annuitants' tables (written down one and one-half years in age).

These net rates are a little higher than the effective rates actually being charged by the Canada Life in 1966, and significantly higher than the Canada Life's effective 1972 rates. However, one must bear in mind that no one can predict how much declining interest rates and improved longevity may cause Canada Life to raise its rates by, say, 1990.

We have assumed and used a valuation rate of interest of $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ per annum during the service lifetime of each of the 690 active Ministers contributing under the Plan on 31 December, 1971.

ACTUARIAL BALANCE SHEET AS AT 31 DECEMBER 1971

On the basis of the information supplied to us and on the assumptions above, we find the situation regarding future benefits to be granted in respect of active Ministers, based upon the benefit scales and Ministers' premium rates in force at 31 December, 1971, to be as follows:

LIABILITIES

Value of future pensions and allowances

(i) Pensions of $50 to $250 to be purchased for 690 contributing Ministers now in service; including extra pensions for 28 Ministers who are paying voluntary additional contributions	$ 678,500
(ii) Additional pensions at the annual rate of $41.25 per service year, available at age 68 or at earlier disability	3,802,300	$4,480,800
(iii) Reversionary widow's pensions in respect of 690 contributing Ministers now in service; normally $950 per annum		1,982,700
(iv) Allowances payable to children up to age 18 on death of the Minister while in service		60,700
Value of returns of contributions payable to those of the contributors above who will withdraw, or die in service without leaving a pensionable beneficiary		13,500
Value of deferred pensions to those who will leave under Comity Agreements or otherwise		23,700
Estimated value of return of premiums and deferred pensions to Ministers who have already left the Church under Comity Agreements		66,000
Value of future non-investment expenses allocatable to the contributors and pensioners above		105,000
Surplus		2,137,000
		$8,869,400

ASSETS

Market value of funds held by the Canada Life as at 31 December 1971, plus accrued revenue	$5,523,200
Cash on hand available for transfer to Canada Life, less accounts payable	129,900
Value of outstanding arrears of Ministers' rates	8,800	$5,661,900
Value of future regular personal rates now being paid by present contributors so long as each remains a contributor under 68 years of age		390,500
Value of estimated
(i) future receipts from Congregations	$1,446,000
(ii) future receipts from the Church Budget	1,166,000
(iii) future Gifts and Legacies	205,000	2,817,000
		$8,869,400

Summarized details of the value of the main contingent liabilities and future Ministers' rates will be found in Schedule D attached.

The actuarial balance sheet set out above shows a surplus of $2,137,000 as at 31 December 1971 compared with a surplus of $1,091,700 as at 31 December 1969.

During the intervaluation period, there were increases granted to existing and prospective retired Ministers in the Church's share of each person's pension, amounting to 4/29 of the former pensions (maximum rise being $200 per annum on the former $1,450.) Widow's allowances were raised in the same ratio from $725 to $825. The normal benefits bought by members remained at $250 for the Minister and $125 for his widow.

Estimates made on page 8 of our 1969 report indicated that these increases would reduce the 1969 surplus by about $695,000 in respect of the active Ministers, and by a further $225,000 if the increased benefits were bought from Canada Life as of 1 January 1970. However, the increases of pensions in force were not implemented till 1 January 1972, and thus their cost of purchase had not yet been reflected in the actuarial balance sheet at 31 December 1971. Thanks largely to the very favourable investment earnings, and correspondingly low annuity purchase rates, during 1970 and 1971, and also to the recovery in the bond market during the two years, and in the stock market during the latter part of 1971, the net surplus of the fund had improved during the two years by about $1,700,000. Some part of this improvement can also be attributed to the assumption in this valuation of lower mortality rates for active Ministers while still active, and to the assumption of higher values for future gifts, legacies, and Congregational receipts.

RECOMMENDATION

We recommend that the Church's present basic $41.25 annual pension per year of service be raised by $8.75 to $50.00 per year of service. Present and future pensioners with 40 years' service would then receive $2,000 per annum from the Church, and their widows $1,000. The addition of the $250 and $125 pensions paid for by the Ministers would bring these totals to $2,250 and $1,125 respectively.

In addition to these pensions, most of the retired Ministers, their wives, and the widows, are now entitled to the OAS pension of $1,200 per annum, together with whatever C/QPP benefits the younger pensioners and widows may obtain.

We estimate that if these recommended increases had been in force on 31 December 1971, the surplus in the actuarial balance sheet would have been reduced by some $410,000 for immediate purchases from the Canada Life and by a further $1,186,000 increase in liabilities in respect of the 690 active ministers. This would have left a surplus of $541,000, of which at least $250,000 could reasonably be regarded as an investment reserve against possible future losses on market values. A large part of the remaining surplus was in effect ear-marked for the previously approved increases, to be bought as of 1 January 1972.

If the increases now proposed were not bought from Canada Life till 1 January 1973, there would be a saving of some $50,000 due to the non-payments during 1972, together with some reduction in the Canada Life's premium rates during the year.

Faithfully yours,

D. C. BAILLIE
N. E. SHEPPARD

THE RETIREMENT FUND FOR CHURCH EMPLOYEES

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

This Fund is administered by members of the Pension Board, and the nature of the Fund is outlined in Acts and Proceedings, 1969, Page 370. A Financial Statement is printed in the Auditors' Report.

At present there are 96 members, but the potential is many times that. Many Churches are making no provision for full, or part time workers who could benefit by belonging to this Fund. Contributions are made by employer and employee, and after 60 years of age Pensions are available according to the contributions received. A Group Insurance policy is also available to members which provides Life Insurance and Income Replacement for those not able to work because of sickness or accident.

The undersigned Secretary would be glad to correspond with congregations or individuals interested.

J. E. SMART,
Chairman.

DONALD C. MACDONALD,
Secretary.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL: THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCES

THE MRS. MARY MORGAN BENEVOLENCE FUND
THE JARDINE MEMORIAL FUND
THE DR. EPHRAIM SCOTT BENEVOLENT FUND
THE JOSEPH B. ROBERT AND DAME SARAH ROBERT FUND
THE CLARENCE MacLEOD PITTS GENERAL BENEVOLENCE FUND

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

Particulars concerning the above Funds may be found in detail in the Acts and Proceedings, 1969, Page 368 and 369. A Financial Statement on each Fund is printed in the Auditors' Report.

Donations to these Funds, and careful investment, provides a greater revenue each year, and we are pleased to report that the maximum amount for monthly grants was increased 20% during 1972. Many grateful letters have been received from those who have received comfort and encouragement because the Church was able to show its concern by a cheque when it was needed.

We record our appreciation, along with those who have been helped, to those far sighted persons who made all this possible.

L. L. DE GROOT,
Chairman.

Respectfully submitted,
DONALD C. MACDONALD,
Secretary.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Administrative Council is pleased to submit the following report for the consideration and action of the 99th General Assembly.

The Administrative Council is pleased to report the Appointment of Mr. John Grebb as Assistant to the Comptroller, and he is already fitting in well with the team of workers at 50 Wynford Drive.

Mr. Frank Whilsmith has succeeded Mr. John G. Inglis as Chairman of the Council, and his friendly leadership is appreciated by the members of the Council.

The Church has suffered the loss of many stalwart servants, and the Council records its appreciation of the witness and effort of four men who have given generously of their talents. Mr. George Thomson, Brantford, passed away in the Fall of 1972 after completing 8 consecutive years of service as a member of the Council. Mr. Max Bell, Calgary, Chairman of the National Development Fund, and Dr. J. A. Munro, Director of the Fund, died during the year. Recently we were called to record another passing of a pillar in the Kirk when Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Sr., Counsellor for the Presbyterian Church for some years, died March 24, 1973.

One of the difficult tasks that constantly confronts the Council is deciding where the priorities should be placed in the development of the Church's program. In the past General Assembly has given direction to the Council on where the priorities are. The Council is aware of the importance that must be placed on recommendations of General Assembly. The Council is also aware that General Assembly sometimes has to make decisions without sufficient research, and on occasions may be swayed by the eloquence of a speaker, or the emotional spontaneous appeal of one project without adequate opportunity to compare the need of the matter under consideration with the other needs of the Church. The Assembly has agreed to restrict its own powers by referring every question which has financial implications to the Council before a final decision is made. When projects are brought to the attention of the Council before Assembly meets and opportunity is given to the Council to study the financial support that it considers that project should receive, the Council is able to make a recommendation to the Assembly and the Assembly can then take definite action. But when projects are advanced on the floor of General Assembly the Council has difficulty, due to lack of time, and often lack of members at Assembly, to give adequate guidance to the Assembly. The Council appreciates the opportunities which Assembly has given in the past for items approved by Assembly to be referred to the Council with power to issue if the Council considers that project should have priority in view of the other projects that need financial assistance. It is the opinion of the Council that this practice should be continued, and the Council hopes the Assembly has such confidence in it.

MATTERS REFERRED TO COUNCIL BY PREVIOUS ASSEMBLIES:

OVERTURE #1, 1972, Pages 458 & 20

This Overture from the Presbytery of Montreal requests simultaneous translations in French for Centennial General Assembly, as well as a request to have an outstanding French Professor lecture at that Assembly. The Administrative Council is studying this matter, along with the Centennial Committee, and the Audio-Visual Services Committee, and plans to have a definite recommendation for the 100th General Assembly.

RECOMMENDATION

1. That this statement on Overture #1, 1972 General Assembly be received as one of progress.

DEGREE GRANTING POWERS FOR EWART COLLEGE

This matter was deferred by the 98th General Assembly, and the Council has continued to have it under review. Because the Council has a special Committee studying the whole area of Education in our Church, and this committee has not yet brought in a definitive report, the Council is of the opinion this matter should be deferred for another year.

RECOMMENDATION

2. That the Council continue to study the matter of securing degree granting powers for Ewart College, and report to the 100th General Assembly.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON EDUCATIONAL NEEDS

By the authority of the General Assembly of 1972 the Council has set up a special committee "to make a study of the relation of the educational needs of our Church to the resources that can be made available." The Committee has held three meetings, and has gathered a large amount of study material. It hopes to have a definitive, if not a final, report to present to the Council in time for the 100th General Assembly.

RECOMMENDATION

3. That the statement re the Special Committee on Educational Needs be received as one of progress.

INCREMENTS, BASIC STIPEND AND HEATED MANSES

The Council reports that it did a thorough study of implementing the direction of the last two General Assemblies that "the term stipend as approved by the 82nd General Assembly be amended by changing the phrase 'with a free house or rented apartment' to read 'a free heated house or rented apartment'." The Council had the advice of heating experts, and also the advice of the Board of World Mission. The Council decided that the problems anent heated manses, such as, the Church supporting congregations whose manses are deficient in insulation, furnaces, etc. did not merit our support of the plan. Also it is evident that implementing heated manses as part of stipend will not give any tax relief to ministers. With no increase in basic stipend since April 1st, 1971, ministers recently ordained are finding the increase in the cost of living more difficult year by year. The Council considered that increasing the basic stipend would do the most good where there is greatest need, and therefore implemented an increase in basic stipend of $300.00 per year effective April 1st, 1973. Counting the value of a free manse at $2,400.00 per year a minister with ten years of service now has a minimum stipend of $10,000.00 per year.

RECOMMENDATION

4. That General Assembly condone the action of the Administrative Council in not implementing the direction of the 98th General Assembly regarding heated manses.

NEW PENSION PLAN

The Council has spent considerable time studying the new Pension Plan. An independent Insurance Consultant addressed the Fall meeting of the Council. An Ad Hoc Committee of Council and Pension Board members met several times. As a result of these studies the Pension Board has agreed to set 2% of money raised for all congregational purposes as the portion to be paid by congregations. The Council considers this is a more equitable plan than 6% of stipend. The Council agreed to approve the Plan in principle at its Spring meeting, and requested its Executive to prepare a report to Assembly on the Financial implications. It is expected this will be available for consideration at Assembly when the Pension Board reports.

OVERTURE 13, 1972, re THE RETIRING AGE OF MINISTERS

This Overture was considered by the Pension Board which reported to the 98th General Assembly recommending that it be referred to the Administrative Council and the Board of World Mission. The prayer of the Overture is "to set seventy years of age as the retiring age of all ministers of the Church, and that any extension of this limit be on a yearly basis, and on application of the congregation with the approval of the Presbytery." The Council is agreed that as our Pension Fund is calculated on a retirement age of 68, therefore there should be no financial problems involved with granting the prayer of this overture.

RECOMMENDATION

5. That Overture 13, 1972 be placed on the docket of the 99th General Assembly.

DIRECTOR OF FIELD EDUCATION, RECRUITMENT, AND REGISTRATION AT KNOX COLLEGE

The Board of Knox College requested the 98th General Assembly to make the above appointment. The Assembly approved the appointment, and referred it to the Administrative Council. The Council agreed to defer this appointment until the Special Committee on Education, mentioned above, makes a definitive report.

RECOMMENDATION

6. That the Administrative Council keep this appointment under review.

SETTING FACULTY SALARIES BY EACH COLLEGE BOARD

The recommendation anent the above, as submitted by the Board of Knox College to the 98th General Assembly, was adopted by the Assembly and referred to the Administrative Council. The Council considers this matter should also be deferred until the Special Committee on Education makes a definitive report.

RECOMMENDATION

7. That the Administrative Council keep the matter of Faculty salaries under review.

ADDITIONAL FUNDS FOR KNOX COLLEGE

The 98th General Assembly referred to the Administrative Council for sympathetic consideration the present need of Knox College for allocation of additional funds, as indicated in the Board's report. The Council kept under review during the Fall the financial needs of Knox College, and granted $20,000.00 to meet the 1972 operating deficit. The Board has requested a budget for 1974 of $146,312 as against an approved budget of $106,000 for 1973. The Council desires to hold the line on spending re education until the Special Committee on Education makes a definitive report.

RECOMMENDATION

8. That the statement re Knox College's financial situation be received as information; and the Council keep the financial needs of Knox College under continual review.

ADDITIONAL MEMBER FOR EWART COLLEGE FACULTY

The Board of Ewart College requested the 98th General Assembly to take steps to appoint an Associate Professor of Religious Studies to their staff. The Assembly approved the Recommendation and referred it to the Council. The Council believes additional appointments to College Staffs should not be made until the Special Committee on Education makes a definitive report.

RECOMMENDATION

9. That the Administrative Council keep under review the appointment of an addition to the staff of Ewart College.

FACULTY SALARIES AT EWART COLLEGE

The Board of Ewart College recommended to the 98th General Assembly to "direct the Administrative Council to provide for faculty salaries (at Ewart College) in keeping with revised classifications." The Assembly so directed, and the salaries have been provided.

RECOMMENDATION

10. That the statement on Faculty Salaries at Ewart College be received as information.

FUNDS FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION

The 98th General Assembly directed "that the Council continue to seek the necessary funds to implement fully the action of the 97th General Assembly which sought to provide the opportunity of two weeks of study for continuing education etc." The Council reported to the last General Assembly the establishment of a fund of $25,000.00 from the National Development Fund to assist ministers in continuing education. The demands on this Fund have not been as great as anticipated, but the Council does not believe there are sufficient Funds available to guarantee every minister Study Leaves.

It is understood that the cost of Study Leaves, etc. will be paid by self-supporting congregations.

Moreover, Presbyteries should ensure that all congregations able to do so provide ministers with this item in their Call, as suggested in the change made by the 98th General Assembly in the appendices of the Book of Forms, Page 111, # 10, Guarantee to Presbytery for Minister's Stipend. The Council agreed to make the following recommendation to General Assembly with regard to the accumulation and portability of Study Leaves.

RECOMMENDATION

11. That General Assembly approve:

- A. That Study Leaves of two weeks per year with $100.00 annually toward expenses and pulpit supply paid, may be accumulated to a maximum of three years.
- B. That portability of Study Leaves for ministers moving from one charge to another be not granted.
- C. That each Presbytery must receive application for approval of Study Leaves for Continuing Education of eligible ministers within its jurisdiction.

FUNDS FOR COMMITTEE TO CO-ORDINATE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS

The 98th General Assembly "authorized the Administrative Council to appoint, through its Centennial Committee, a competent Executive-Director for 1973 and to allocate to the Centennial Committee a budget not to exceed $50,000.00." Dr. F. G. Stewart, Kitchener, has been appointed to this position. $4,000.00 was provided the Committee in 1972 to launch its plans, and $20,000.00 was provided to cover the expenses of the Executive-Director and his secretary. An additional grant of $17,000.00 has been made from "The Special Projects Fund." This makes a total of $41,000.00 to this committee, and the Council has notified the Committee it intends to keep within the $50,000.00 budget agreed upon at the 98th General Assembly.

The resignation of Professor A. L. Farris as chairman of the committee was accepted, due to illness, and Dr. J. A. Johnston succeeded him. The theme for the Centennial is "Remembrance, Renewal, Response."

RECOMMENDATION

12. That the statement on Budget to the Centennial Committee be received as information.

A FILM FOR USE DURING CENTENNIAL YEAR

The 98th General Assembly agreed "that the Committee preparing the Centennial Celebrations of our Church be requested to prepare a film suitable for use during the Centennial year throughout the Church." This matter is still under study by the Council and its Centennial Committee.

RECOMMENDATION

13. That the statement re "Film for Use During Centennial Year" be received as information.

BENEFITS TO STAFF AT EWART COLLEGE

The 98th General Assembly directed the Council to include the staff at Ewart College in the increase in salaries and tax allowances granted under Recommendation 13 and 14 in the Council's report to that Assembly. The Council reports that this has been done.

RECOMMENDATION

14. That the Statement re Benefits to Staff at Ewart College be received as information.

GRANTS RE STUDY ON VANCOUVER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

The 98th General Assembly requested the Administrative Council to provide a grant of $800.00 to enable the Committee on the Training of Professional Church Workers to continue its study re the Vancouver School of Theology. The request of the Committee was satisfied in the granting of $500.00.

RECOMMENDATION

15. That the Statement re the Vancouver School of Theology be received as information.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE BOOK OF PRAISE

The 98th General Assembly set up a Committee to prepare a supplement to the Book of Praise. The Council has provided funds to enable this committee to meet, and has initiated plans for the publication and sale of the Book, which hopefully will be ready sometime next year.

The Council has been in consultation with the Committee preparing the Supplement, and has cautioned it that there is not likely to be nearly as great a demand for this production as there was for the New Book of Praise. The Council also considers the supplement should be of a temporary nature in both substance and format.

RECOMMENDATION

16. That the statement on the Supplement to the Book of Praise be received as information.

STIPEND OF DEACONESSES, ETC.

The 98th General Assembly gave direction re increases in the salary of certain Church Workers, and on September 1st, 1972, the salary of Women Missionaries and Chinese Assistants was increased to $4,000.00 per year, and the salary of Catechists was increased to a basic of $4,200.00 per year. The Council has stipends continually under review, and proposes the following additional increase in salaries:

	Former Stipend	New Stipend
Deaconesses	$4,200	$4,450
Catechists	4,200	4,450
Women Missionaries	4,000	4,240
Kindergarten Assistants	4,000	4,240
Married Students	3,200	3,425
Lay Supply	4,200	4,450

RECOMMENDATION

17. That the above Schedule of New Stipends be approved effective July 1st, 1973.

OTHER MATTERS

TRUSTEE BOARD

During the Year the Council appointed the Hon. Mr. Justice G. A. McGillivray, and Mr. W. D. S. Morden, Q.C., to fill vacancies on the Trustee Board. Dr. Lorne MacKay has rendered faithful service to the Trustee Board for the maximum period permitted by the Board's Constitution, and on the recommendation of the Trustee Board the Council recommends to General Assembly that Reverend Alex. J. Calder, Peterborough, replace Dr. MacKay on the Trustee Board.

RECOMMENDATION

18. That the appointment of Hon. Mr. Justice G. A. McGillivray, Mr. W. D. S. Morden, Q.C., and Reverend Alex J. Calder to the Trustee Board be confirmed.

RECOMMENDATION

19. That the Statement on Allocations re the National Development Fund be received as information.

SALARY OF SECRETARIES, AND PROFESSORS

The Finance Committee has made an intensive study of our salary structure for Secretaries and College Professors. It discovered that our scale is very much lower than that of other denominations. Also the cost of living in Toronto is becoming increasingly burdensome. The Council acted on the Finance Committee's recommendation and agreed to make the following recommendation.

RECOMMENDATION

20. That Salaries of Professors, Board Secretaries, and Assistant Secretaries be increased by $1,000.00 per annum effective July 1st, 1973.

HOUSING ALLOWANCE

The 96th General Assembly set the Housing Allowance of Secretaries etc. at $2,500.00 per annum. There has developed a great variation in the value of housing used by secretaries in recent years. The Revenue Department is willing to accept for Income Tax Purposes a reasonable sum according to the cost of accommodations or the rate of rent in the area. In most cases this sum is larger than $2,500.00. The Council believes it would be easier to operate if no fixed Housing Allowance were in effect.

RECOMMENDATION

21. That the term "Housing Allowance" be discontinued, and the cost of housing be included in the salaries of Secretaries etc.

CONSTITUTION OF THE SUB-EXECUTIVE

In experience the constitution of the Sub-Executive of the Council has proven to be impracticable. With some Chairman of Boards appointed to the Sub-Executive living too far from Toronto to attend meetings which usually deal with minor items, on most occasions when the Sub-Executive has been called to meet it has been difficult, and often impossible to obtain a quorum. The Council therefore makes the following recommendation to rectify this matter.

RECOMMENDATION

22. That the following constitution be received as information: Constitution of the Sub-Executive of the Administrative Council be:
1. The Chairman, or the Vice-Chairman of the Council
 2. The Chairman of the Trustee Board, or alternate
 3. The Chairman of the Board of World Mission, or alternate
 4. The Chairman of the Board of Congregational Life, or alternate
 5. The Church Treasurer
 6. Two appointed by Council
 7. The Secretary and Comptroller of Council as non-voting members

CHANGE IN MEMBERSHIP OF COUNCIL

Inasmuch as the Board of Congregation Life becomes operational on January 1st, 1974, and on that date some of our present Boards will be amalgamated therein, some adjustments will need to be made in the membership of the Council.

RECOMMENDATION

23. That the membership of the Administrative Council be changed by:
- A. The addition of the Chairman and General Secretary of the Board of Congregational Life, effective at once.
 - B. The deletion of the Chairmen and Secretaries of such Boards as may be amalgamated into the Board of Congregational Life, effective December 31st, 1973.

NEW BOOK OF PRAISE

The new Book of Praise has been well received. The first edition of 70,677 copies was quickly sold out. A second edition of 42,772 copies was ordered, and at this printing 22,839 have been sold. This speaks better than words of the great work done by the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Praise and the Committee on its Promotion and Distribution. This book will be a testimony to a job well done.

RECOMMENDATION

24. That this Assembly express its deep appreciation to those who produced and promoted the New Book of Praise.

GROUP INSURANCE COVERAGE

Since the introduction of Group Insurance coverage for ministers on the Pension Fund the Church has proposed Plans which have received the support of the great majority of ministers. In 1971 we introduced Group Insurance Plan #6, which was accepted by over 90% of our ministers. It was hoped that Plan #6 would enable Presbyteries to drop their policies, but it became apparent that many ministers and congregations consider that Plan #6 does not give adequate income replacement for ministers unable to carry on their work because of sickness or accident. It is obvious that a national policy would be cheaper and more efficient than each Presbytery having its own policy, or some Presbyteries carrying their own policy and other Presbyteries having no protection. It is also obvious that the most costly period for protection is the first few weeks of disability. The Council believes congregations should be able to pay their ministers for three months as well as paying pulpit supply for that period, when ministers are incapacitated. The Board of World Mission will continue its grants for three months to congregations whose ministers are incapacitated. Especially would this be true if congregations maintained a fund for this purpose into which they could put the money now being used to pay Presbytery policies. All ministers are now covered by Unemployment Insurance, which provides coverage on disability. Canada Pension will pay over $100.00 a month to ministers on disability with a six month waiting period. The Council believes our Group Insurance presently provides sufficient Life Insurance coverage, and if our disability coverage of $150.00 per month were increased to $300.00 per month all ministers would have a reasonable protection for the foreseeable future. We can provide this additional coverage for $1.74 a month. We are recommending that ministers should pay $1.50 per month of this amount, which would increase their premiums from $66.00 a year to $84.00. More than this difference would be saved if Presbyteries cease to carry their policies. Also we propose to use the ministers' payments to cover the full premium cost of Disability — any remainder going to pay the Life Insurance Part — and this will mean that benefits received on disability will not be taxable under the Income Tax Act. We suggest to Presbyteries the following procedure to cover disability:

1. Congregations to be responsible for paying their minister, and paying for pulpit supply, during the first three months of disability.
2. After three months disability the congregation would provide a free manse, and the minister would receive Unemployment Insurance benefits for 119 days.
3. After seven months the minister would receive the Disability of $300.00 per month under Plan VII, and should consider resigning from the Charge. The minister would also receive Canada Pension Benefits. If the disability appears to be permanent, by retiring an additional income could be secured from the Church Pension Plan.

RECOMMENDATION

25. That Assembly approve:
- A. Recommending to Presbyteries the above procedure to cover ministers on disability.
 - B. That Group Insurance Plan #7, with the change outlined above from Plan #6, be adopted.

CO-ORDINATING COMMITTEE ON THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION IN CANADA

About seven years ago The Presbyterian Church in Canada was approached as to how Churches in Canada might co-ordinate theological education programs. Representatives of the Anglican, Baptist, Lutheran, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic and Presbyterian Churches discovered among other things that there are 34 different B.D. programmes being offered in Canada. A budget of $15,000.00 was secured and a person was hired for a year to make a study. A meeting was held at McMaster University and an ad hoc Committee was set up, and each denomination was asked to contribute $1,000.00 to cover the cost of investigation. Over the years, Dr. Clarke, Mr. Cooper and Dr. Bailey have represented our Church.

The primary focus of the discussion has been an attempt to reduce the cost of education. There are 27 theological colleges in Canada, and all denominations are finding the financial responsibility increasingly difficult. Centers have been set up in Vancouver, Saskatoon, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax for consolidating graduate studies.

It is proposed to establish a Foundation in order that Churches might receive funds from non-church sources. The Colleges and the Committee on the Training of Professional Church Workers, the Special Committee on Educational Needs in our Church, and the Administrative Council all support our Church being a part in establishing this Foundation. Some denominations have already raised large sums to be put into the Foundation to get it started. We are permitted to join without making any financial commitment, except the Administrative Council believes it should pay $1,000.00 to cover the costs of the ad hoc committee over the years.

Although the Council is recommending we become an original member in the Charter of this Foundation, we are insisting that opportunity be provided in the Charter for Churches to withdraw at any time.

RECOMMENDATION

26. That The Presbyterian Church in Canada become a partner with other Churches in establishing an Ecumenical Foundation for the Support of Theological Education in Canada.

REGULATIONS OF THE F. ROY BARKER FUND

A substantial bequest was received from the estate of F. Roy Barker. The Council agreed to set aside $100,000.00 of this bequest to establish the F. Roy Barker Fund. The regulations of this fund are available from the Secretary of the Council, but it is primarily "available to assist congregations in smaller communities in Canada. Loans or grants may be made for the erection, renovation or the repair of churches, manses or other church properties or for other projects which will further the work of the Church in smaller communities."

RECOMMENDATION

27. That the statement on regulations of the F. Roy Barker Fund be received as information.

REGULATIONS OF THE SPECIAL PROJECT FUND

The Fund was established by using a sum of $9,200.00 already available, and $167,512 from the Estate of Mrs. M. L. Young. The regulations for this Fund are available from the Secretary of the Council. It is to be "used for projects and programmes which will strengthen the life and work of the Church." $93,700 of this fund have already been used.

RECOMMENDATION

28. That the statement re the Special Project Fund be received as information.

CONGRESS

A Committee has been set up by Council to plan for a Congress in 1975. The Reverend Dr. Walter Welch is Chairman of the Committee. Plans are begun for the holding of the Congress in Hamilton the latter part of June, 1975.

RECOMMENDATION

29. That the statement on the Congress 1975 be received as one of progress.

ORGANIZATION AND PLANNING

The Council at its April meeting spent considerable time studying the Organization and Planning Committee's report to General Assembly. The items presented to Council dealt with (1) a Report re Congregational Life, (2) Board of Ministry, (3) Policy matters in the staffing of Assembly Boards and Committees, and were all ordered forwarded to General Assembly with the approval of Council.

A report on Presbytery and Synod restructuring was not ready for the Council meeting, and the Council gave its Executive power to issue on this report when it meets in May.

RECOMMENDATION

30. That the action of the Council on the Report of the Organization and Planning Committee to General Assembly be received as information.

OVERTURES TO THE 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

OVERTURE #7, 1973 PRESBYTERY OF WEST TORONTO, RE BASIC STIPEND

This Overture requests an increase in basic stipend for ministers of $300.00 per year for 1973, 1974, and 1975, with corresponding increases for other workers. These increases have already been made for 1973, and the Council makes an annual review of stipends.

RECOMMENDATION

31. That the statement on OVERTURE #7 Presbytery of West Toronto, be taken as answering the prayer of the Overture.

OVERTURE #2, 1973 SYNOD OF HAMILTON AND LONDON, RE BASIC STIPEND

This Overture requests an immediate increase in basic stipend of $600.00 per year, with corresponding increases to Deaconesses and others. The Council believes that the adoption of Recommendation 17 above will go far to granting the prayer of this overture, inasmuch as Council has already increased basic stipend $300.00 per year.

RECOMMENDATION

32. That the action taken on Basic Stipends for ministers, deaconesses and others be taken as granting the substance of the prayer of this Overture #2.

OVERTURE #17, 1973 PRESBYTERY OF HAMILTON, RE J. B. MACLEAN ESTATE

This overture urges the development of the Maclean Estate as intended by the late Colonel Maclean. The Assembly has a Committee investigating this matter, and a report will be made to this Assembly. The Council is prepared to proceed in the direction the Assembly indicates.

RECOMMENDATION

33. That this Overture be considered with the Report of the Maclean Estate Development Committee.

OVERTURE #19, 1973 PRESBYTERY OF MONTREAL, RE SUSPENSION OF FURTHER RESTRUCTURING IMPLEMENTATIONS.

This Overture was considered by the Council at its April meeting, and the Council agreed to confer with the Organization and Planning Committee.

RECOMMENDATION

34. That the Council continue its joint study of this matter with Organization and Planning.

OVERTURE #22, 1973 PRESBYTERY OF EAST TORONTO, RE RENTAL ALLOWANCE FOR WOMEN WORKERS.

The Council has this Overture under joint study with the Board of World Mission, and will report further to the 99th General Assembly.

RECOMMENDATION

35. That the report re OVERTURE #22 be received as one of progress.

OVERTURE #11, 1973 PRESBYTERY OF EAST TORONTO, RE GROUP INSURANCE.

This overture requests increases in the Group Insurance Plan as recommended above, and Council reports that the adoption of Recommendation #25 preceeding will grant the prayer of this Overture.

RECOMMENDATION

36. That the Prayer of Overture #11 be granted.

OVERTURE #27, 1973 SYNOD OF TORONTO & KINGSTON, RE STIPENDS FOR ORDAINED MINISTERS.

This Overture requests increases in stipend for ministers, deaconesses and others. The increases already adopted, or recommended to this Assembly for adoption, nearly fulfills the prayer of this Overture.

RECOMMENDATION

37. That the increases granted in stipend to ministers, deaconesses, etc., be taken as fulfilling the prayer of this Overture.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In accordance with modern business practices an Audit Committee has reviewed the Financial Accounts on behalf of the Council, and the Council has approved the Financial Statements for signature by the Chairman of the Committee and the Treasurer of the Church.

These statements appear elsewhere in the appendices to the Acts and Proceedings.

RECOMMENDATION

38. That the statements on Financial Accounts be received as information.

AUDITORS

RECOMMENDATION

39. That the firm of Thorne, Gunn and Company be continued as Auditors of the Church Accounts.

BUDGET FOR 1973 AND 1974

PREFACE

The estimate of income and expenditure for these years is submitted for approval.

The Council is unable to recommend expenditures for any new programme for these years but is recommending increased basic stipends, increases in the salaries of other field workers and in the salaries of Board Secretaries, Assistant Secretaries and College Professors. The Council believes that these increases should be the priority item of expenditure.

The projected deficit for 1973 is $167,697 before the inclusion of contingent and discretionary items; for 1974 the deficit is $169,592. For 1973 it is recommended that the contingent and discretionary items already approved in 1972 be included as part of the total budget. For 1974 it is recommended that the notes regarding these contingent and discretionary items be discontinued. The Council will thus be able to review the priority needs of the Church in 1974, when the trends of income and expenditure are known.

SUMMARY

A Summary of the position for the years 1973 and 1974 is as follows:

	1973	1974
Estimated Income	$2,983,500	$3,020,500
Authorized Expenditures	3,151,197	3,190,092
Operating deficit	$ 167,697	$ 169,592

Add: Contingent Items
Board of World Mission	52,000
Board of Christian Education	5,000
Add: discretionary item
Board of World Mission
Capital Needs	150,000
Total Possible Deficit	$ 374,697

In the past ten years the projected deficit has been eliminated by increased amount received for bequests and gifts and by the underspending of the budgets of Boards and Committees.

RECOMMENDATION

40. That this Assembly approve a Gross Authorized Expenditure of $3,151,197.00 for 1973, and a Gross Authorized expenditure of $3,190,092.00 for 1974 as set forth in the above table, and subject to the notes appended for 1973, and subsequent adjustments by the Administrative Council.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FRANK WHILSMITH, Chairman

DONALD C. MACDONALD, Secretary

REPORT OF REMIT UNDER THE BARRIER ACT

Re: Section 80, Section 297, sub-section (5), and Section 298, Book of Forms.

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

THE MACLEAN ESTATE DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

This Committee was appointed by the 97th General Assembly (1971) and consists of two representatives from each of the following: The Crieff Conference Centre Committee (Dr. G. D. Johnston and Mr. C. R. Talbot), The Maclean Estate Committee (Mr. Wallace Little and Dr. L. H. Fowler), The Trustee Board (Mr. A. R. G. Ament, Mr. N. L. Mathews, Mr. R. R. Merifield — one of these being an alternate), and the Chairman (1970) of the Administrative Council, Mr. J. G. Inglis, Chairman. Dr. L. H. Fowler was appointed by the Committee as its Secretary.

The terms of reference were: "... to conduct a thorough study of the development of the Crieff property in the light of the will of Colonel Maclean and the needs of the Church, and to bring in a full report to the 98th General Assembly." The Committee was authorized to hire a competent person to conduct the survey and to obtain specialized consultation services as required. Up to $12,000 of the undistributed income from the Maclean Estate was made available to the Committee for its work for the period of June 1971 to June 1972. (A & P, 1971, page 91).

The Committee reported to the 98th General Assembly, stating that two professors of the School of Landscape Architecture of the University of Guelph, one graduate student and two undergraduate students had been employed and were at work. Their report was not completed until late in the summer of 1972, but a preliminary report was presented to Assembly by the Chairman, Mr. J. G. Inglis. The Committee was continued with the same terms of reference. (A & P, 1972, pages 318 and 91).

The total cost of the survey was $4,840.

The Report, entitled "Development Opportunities", was a competent and fairly exhaustive work of 40 pages, plus maps and diagrams. The Introduction gave background, purpose of study, limitations of study and approach. The Factors of Demand were listed under population, Presbyterian membership, access, time-distance, alternative recreation opportunities and user-preferences. The Resource Inventory gave geology, soils, topography, hydrology, vegetation, wildlife, and history and culture. The Summary and Conclusions will be read during the presentation of this Report to Assembly.

The Development Opportunities were listed as three:

- (1) To continue utilizing the property in its present form and use.
- (2) To sell the property for future development as estate lots, gravel extraction or recreational development. (The market value of the land is $750 to $950 an acre, and the acreage is 250).
- (3) Development Opportunities. In this section were listed agriculture, forestry, wildlife, mineral extraction, and recreation in both summer and winter. One of the opportunities strongly recommended was the extension of present camping facilities.

The Report, in its suggestions, keys in with the Colonel's desire for a "model community" that "may eventually become revenue producing". The Report states that any development should evolve from existing land-uses and eventually stimulate "physical structures requiring substantial capital expenditures". Considerable detail is given to this.

The staging suggested is as follows:

- (1) 1972-1975. Continue current operations, lay out Day Camp area, upgrade tree management, restore the Memorial Park, design family and group camping areas, and plan for various programs and policies for crafts, restaurants, museum, etc.
- (2) 1975-1978. Initiate pioneer farm operations (maple sugar, etc.), develop family camping area, initiate craft centre and restaurant, and plan for leadership training and conference centre.
- (3) 1978-onwards. Development in leadership training and conference centre, establish museum.

The "Summary and Conclusions" is an over-all view of what the Report suggests.

The Committee, in view of the emphasis on camping, has taken into consultation the camping committees of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston and the Synod of Hamilton and London, and individuals interested.

The Committee believes it has fulfilled its terms of reference in obtaining this professional report.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the method of procedure outlined in "(3) Development Opportunities" being, in our opinion, of great value, it be commended for serious consideration and possible action by an ongoing Committee.
2. That the Maclean Estate Committee be enlarged with a sub-committee doing the work of the present Committee in management of the Estate, the enlarged Committee to be a Committee of the Administrative Council. This enlarged Committee to be charged, as far as is practicable, with implementation of Colonel Maclean's will. The research done to date by the Crieff Conference Centre Committee and the Report on Development Opportunities at the Crieff Property, prepared by Professors Wright and Scott of the University of Guelph, be handed over to the enlarged Committee for their consideration, and that the Committee report annually through the Administrative Council of progress and for authorizations beyond the competence of the Administrative Council.
3. That the Maclean Estate Committee (a Committee of the Administrative Council) be authorized to proceed further and immediately with the basic facilities required for camping, with expenditures authorized by the Administrative Council.
4. That the enlarged Committee assume its responsibility August 1st, 1973, and that the Maclean Estate Committee and the Crieff Conference Centre Committee be discharged as of August 31st, 1973.
5. That the Maclean Estate Development Committee be now discharged.

Respectfully submitted,

J. G. INGLIS,
Chairman.

L. H. FOWLER,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF KNOX COLLEGE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Board of Knox College begs leave to submit its 129th Annual Report. We are pleased to report that the residence has been fully occupied during the year. The registration in theology continued at a high level which is very gratifying. A total of forty-six students were enrolled in the three-year undergraduate course in theology, 1972-1973.

The Board has endeavoured to maintain the building, furnishings and other equipment in as good condition as possible, within the extent of available funds. This has meant that only the most urgent work has been undertaken. It is regrettable that more extensive renovation could not be done since delay in carrying out almost any type of renovation means a higher expenditure in the end.

Your Board is distressed to note the decision of the Administrative Council to freeze the 1973-1974 authorized expenditures at the 1972 level which was much below the amount requested by the Board of the College for 1972.

After giving careful consideration to find ways to curtail the expenditures last year (1972-1973) the College ended the year with a deficit of $23,658. This was reduced to $3,658 due to the fact that the Administrative Council found it possible to increase the authorized expenditure amount by $20,000 thus bringing the authorized expenditure total for Knox College to $126,000 for the year 1972. The Board wishes to express its sincere appreciation to the Council for their assistance in this matter.

It is difficult, however, to understand how the operation of Knox College can adequately be maintained on the basis of the 1972 authorized expenditures when it is a known fact that the actual cost of operations for 1972-73 required a total of $126,000 from the Church.

The Board of the College has few resources from which to add to the revenue of the College; one is room and board in the residence. This has been increased recently from $1,000 to $1,150 per year effective September 1973. Another resource is that of contributions from friends of the College, not specified for bursaries or scholarships.

Until two years ago, the Board had absorbed any deficits by using capital funds which were "unspecified" by the donor. This was done with the full knowledge of the General Assembly and the Council. Today we face the situation of not having any such funds available. We have, therefore, reduced income from investments for general use by about $10,000. At the same time, the costs of operating the College are steadily increasing.

Your Board suggests, therefore, that further consideration be given to the allocation to Knox College for 1973 and 1974, and that the amounts should be $132,000 and $138,000 respectively.

The Board expresses its grateful appreciation to the donors of gifts received during 1972 to be used for scholarships and bursaries. These donations are listed below:

REPORT OF THE SENATE OF KNOX COLLEGE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Senate of Knox College begs to submit its 129th annual report. During the 1972-1973 academic session 46 students were enrolled in the undergraduate department, 3 of whom were in the Assembly course. In the post graduate department 28 were enrolled for the Th.M. degree and 5 for the Th.D. degree. Most of those enrolled in the post graduate department were part-time students.

During the autumn term the Principal was on sabbatical study leave. Professor David W. Hay kindly assumed the responsibility of Acting Principal. The following sessional lecturers provided courses in their respective fields: Rev. James Jack, B.A. (New Testament Greek); Rev. Homer McAvoy, B.A., B.D. (Hebrew); Rev. H. F. Davidson, M.A., D.D. (Church Government); Miss Helen Goggin, M.A., B.D. (Christian Education); Mr. Marvin Munshaw, Mus. Bac. (Church Music).

In January and February, Professor Arthur Cochrane of the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Penn., who was on sabbatical leave, delivered the Laidlaw Lectures. These were spread over a six week period associated with a seminar. The subject of the lecture series was "Eating and Drinking with Jesus". In early March Dr. Delton Glebe, Dean of Waterloo Lutheran Seminary, Waterloo, Ontario, delivered the MacDonald Memorial Lecture. His lecture was devoted to the therapy of grief with particular reference to pastoral care.

The College was gratified to receive from the family of the late Dr. Morris Zeidman a gift, in his memory, of an early hand lettered scroll in Hebrew characters of the first five books of the Bible, together with accessories necessary for carrying and expounding the scroll. The scroll and accessories, probably the possession of a wealthy orthodox Jewish family, was buried during World War II for safe-keeping at Lodz, Poland. It was given to Dr. Zeidman by survivors of the holocaust to show their appreciation of his efforts on their behalf. It has been placed in a specially prepared display case in Caven Library, and it is of interest to note that two internationally known Old Testament scholars who have seen the display have testified to its great historical and theological significance.

The congratulations of the College are extended to the students of the residence in winning the Reed Trophy for the highest number of points in Inter-Faculty Athletics (Second Division) in the University of Toronto. This is the third time in the last four years that our resident students have won this trophy. This year they won championships in basketball, lacrosse and swimming. A number of our theological students participated with the students of the other faculties in the residence in bringing this honour to the College.

The names of those enrolled in the first year were: J.A. Deyramond, B.A.; D.J. Dick, B.A.; B.J. Fraser, B.A.; D.W. Maxwell, B.A.; S.A. McLauchlan, B.Sc.; A.H.W. McWilliams, B.A.; Miss P. Rose, B.N.Sc.; J.D. Skinner, B.A.; A.J. Sutherland, B.A.; J.R. Young, B.A.; Miss I. King, B.A.; (Occasional).

The names of those enrolled in the second year were: R.C. Archer, B.A.; C.B. Brown, B.A.; E.L.M. Clifton, B.A.; E.J. Creen, B.A.; D.A. Donaghey, B.A.; J.R. Farrer, B.A.; J.C. Ferrier, B.A.; N.L. Flindall, B.P.H.E.; D.G. Freeman, B.A.; D.R. Glass, B.A.; L.A. Murdock, B.A.; D.G.I. McInnis, B.A.; W.D. Penny, B.A.; H. Ruiter, B.A.; T. Theijmeijer, B.A.; G.E. Timbers, B.A.; D.N. Young, B.A.

The names of those who were graduated and received the diploma were: H.T. Aicken, B.A.; R.E. Baker, B.A.; S.D. Chiphangwi, B.S.Sc.; C.N. Congram, B.A., B.R.E.; E.S. Dowdles, B.A.; M. Farmery, Reg.N.; K.W. Gibson, B.A.; G.R. Haynes, B.A.; H.J.H. Kouwenberg, B.A.; W.G. Munshaw, B.A.; J.S. Neil, B.A.; W.C. Nicholson, B.A.; R.O. Rahn, B.A.; J.H.W. Statham, B.A.; W. Wybenga, B.A. The following Assembly students were graduated and received the certificate: A.B. Fuleki, B.A., B.D.; D.B. Hanley; K.J. Rowland.

The degree of Master of Divinity was conferred on the following: H.T. Aicken, B.A.; R.E. Baker, B.A.; C.N. Congram, B.A., B.R.E. (hs); Rev. S.D. Chiphangwi, B.S.Sc.; E.S. Dowdles, B.A.; M. Farmery, Reg.N. (hs); K.W. Gibson, B.A. (hs);

KNOX COLLEGE
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
Year Ended December 31, 1972
AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Management of
Knox College

We have examined the balance sheet of Knox College as at December 31, 1972 and the statements of revenue and expenditure for the year then ended. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the College as at December 31, 1972 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

REPORT OF THE CLERKS OF ASSEMBLY RE: OVERTURE 29, 1973, PRESBYTERY OF BARRIE RE: MEMORIAL RECORD

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

The Presbytery of Barrie, Overture 29, 1973, Re: Memorial Record overtures that the Clerks of Assembly be instructed to include in future Acts and Proceedings an 'In Memoriam' of catechists. The Overture has been referred to the Clerks of Assembly by the Committee on Business.

The Clerks recommend that the prayer of the Overture be granted, subject to the following regulations:

1. That an 'In Memoriam' record for a catechist be included in the Acts and Proceedings when a catechist has died while being employed by a presbytery, or when a catechist has died in retirement with no full-time employment in a secular capacity since the date of retirement.
2. That the presbytery in which he last served prepare the memorial record and forward it to the Clerks of Assembly.
3. That an 'In Memoriam' record be included for those described in the foregoing 1. and 2. retroactively to January 1st, 1971, on request of the presbytery concerned, with memorial record forwarded to the Clerks of Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
E. A. THOMSON, L. H. FOWLER, D. C. MACDONALD,
Clerks of Assembly.

ORGANIZATION AND PLANNING COMMITTEE

To the Venerable, the 99th General Assembly:

The Organization and Planning Committee humbly reports diligence in the matters assigned to it by succeeding Assemblies, in 1969, 1970, 1971 and 1972. Our report this year includes the following matters:

I. NATIONAL STRUCTURES

1. Board of Congregational Life — A brief report of the Committee's consultative work in assisting this new Assembly Board; along with several recommendations concerning the Board of Stewardship and Budget; also a brief report concerning the Committee On the Church and University. Page 448
2. General Assembly Agency For Ministry — As instructed by the 1972 Assembly, the Committee here presents a plan of organization for this new agency and recommendations whereby a Board of Ministry may begin its work following this Assembly. Page 449
3. Communications — The Committee reports its findings concerning an Assembly Agency For Communications, and the steps being taken to seek improvement and development of existing structures involved in communications. Page 456
4. Policy In Staffing General Assembly Agencies — The Assembly's attention is here drawn to questions about 'term appointments', the employment of lay people, training and personnel development policies. Recommendations are presented concerning each of these matters. Page 458
5. Theological Studies of Contemporary Issues — The Committee makes a preliminary report concerning a new area of enquiry which has arisen out of some of the re-organization of Assembly boards now taking place. No recommendations are made. Page 460

II. SYNODS AND PRESBYTERIES

6. Proposals For Study Concerning Synod and Presbytery — After three years of enquiry and preliminary reporting, the Committee here presents a general plan to streamline the Synod/Presbytery system of church government and administration. The Committee recommends that these proposals be studied by synods and presbyteries, and a report be made by the Committee to the 1974 Assembly. Page 462
7. Training For Synod and Presbytery Clerks — Pursuant to recommendations approved by the 98th Assembly the Committee reports, with a recommendation to defer action on a pilot training project. Page 470

III. WORK PROGRAM 1973-74

The Committee outlines work still to be completed during the coming year, preparatory to a final report to the 1974 Assembly.

BOARD OF CONGREGATIONAL LIFE

1. The 98th General Assembly appointed the Board of Congregational Life and instructed it to develop policy and a plan of organization so that it would become operational January 1st, 1974.
2. During this period the O & P Committee is acting in a consultative capacity and has tried to give as much assistance as possible to the new Board. We have been encouraged and excited by the way in which all the members of the Board have taken up their responsibilities and caught a vision of how this new national structure may serve the church.
3. Further consultation and study of the work of the Board of Stewardship and Budget has taken place to determine how its functions will relate to the new structures.
4. The Board of Stewardship and Budget, in responding a year ago to Organization and Planning proposals concerning its work, expressed a major concern that the present operation of the Board of Stewardship and Budget ought not to be split up and assigned to several different agencies in the national structures of the church.
5. It has become apparent that the proposals of the Board of Congregational Life for its internal organization are such that the Board of Congregational Life is able to accept responsibility for the present work of the Board of Stewardship and Budget during the initial period of the Board of Congregational Life's operation; and the Board of Congregational Life and its staff can continue the process of study and consultation with other Assembly agencies concerning future policy and responsibilities for some of the services presently rendered by the Board of Stewardship and Budget. The Organization and Planning Committee therefore recommends as follows:

RECOMMENDATION 1

That the responsibilities of the Board of Stewardship and Budget be assumed by the Board of Congregational Life effective January 1, 1974.

RECOMMENDATION 2

That the Board of Stewardship and Budget continue to function on its present basis until December 31st, 1973 at which time it would be dissolved, having made its final report to the General Assembly in June 1973.

RECOMMENDATION 3

That the Board of Congregational Life, during its initial period of operation continue study and consultation with the Organization and Planning Committee and other Assembly agencies, concerning future policy and organizational responsibility for particular aspects of the present work of the Board of Stewardship and Budget.

RECOMMENDATION 4

That the two executive staff members of the Board of Stewardship and Budget be offered positions on the national (core) staff or the field staff of the Board of Congregational Life, on the same basis as approved by the 1972 Assembly for the staff of the Boards of Christian Education, and Evangelism and Social Action

6. It was expected that the Committee on the Church and University would be related to the Board of Congregational Life. However, study of the issue has indicated that the work of the Committee is more logically related to the Board of World Mission and a recommendation in those terms will be presented to the Assembly by the agencies concerned. The Organization and Planning Committee concurs in this proposal, and is prepared to act as consultant to assist the Board of World Mission and the Committee on the Church and University in arranging a mutually satisfactory basis of amalgamation.
7. Arising from our study of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action, it became apparent that some of their extensive work in preparing theological position papers on contemporary social issues would not properly belong within the responsibilities of the Board of Congregational Life. The Organization and Planning Committee therefore established a small task force to enquire into the matter. A progress report appears below, under the heading: "Theological Studies of Contemporary Issues".
8. The report of the Board of Congregational Life to this 99th General Assembly has been studied by the Organization and Planning Committee. We have no additional recommendations to make and note with pleasure the clarity and thoroughness of the Board's report.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY AGENCY FOR MINISTRYPREAMBLE

1. The need for leadership at the national level to provide for the concerns and the support of the ministries of the Church ("ministries" used in the sense of ministers, deaconesses, catechists, etc.) has become evident in recent years as measured by the numerous overtures and reports to the Assemblies dealing with these matters. Changes and constructive developments have taken place and are taking place on many fronts, making the equipping of professional Church workers by training, up-dating, specializing, and adapting a constant challenge. Support in terms of resources and finances is an ever-pressing issue. To help to meet these needs a Board of Ministry was conceived as a necessary agency.
2. The ninety-eighth General Assembly approved the concept of an agency for Ministry to be established within the Presbyterian Church in Canada (See A & P pages 396-398, 1972) which would:
 - (a) Amalgamate and replace two existing committees of Assembly: the Personnel Committee and the Committee on the Training of Professional Church Workers.
 - (b) Establish regular consultation (through Joint Committees) with the colleges of the church on the one hand and the boards and committees concerned with the financial support of the professional church workers on the other.
 - (c) Incorporate, if such seemed possible and desirable, the work of such committees as the Committee on the Order of Deaconesses, the Committee on Institutional Chaplaincies, the Canadian Forces Chaplaincy Services Committee, and the Assembly's Board of Education.
3. The principle functions of the agency were stated as:
 - (a) To advise the Assembly in all matters pertaining to the ministries of the Church, and to engage in appropriate study and consultation to that end.
 - (b) To engage in such activities as the Assembly may authorize to promote the effectiveness, the well-being, and the life-long support of those who serve in Church vocations.

- (c) To provide personnel services to the Church as authorized by Assembly.
 - (d) To foster the fullest possible consultation and cooperation among the Church's agencies that recruit, train, support, supervise and employ men and women in Church vocations.
4. The Organization and Planning Committee was charged with the task of bringing to the ninety-ninth General Assembly an organizational plan for such an agency. This document is the proposal worked out by a task force of the Organization and Planning Committee in consultation with representatives from the Personnel Committee, the Committee on the Training of Professional Church Workers, the Committee on the Order of Deaconesses, and the three Colleges — Ewart College, Knox College and Presbyterian College. This plan is called the "Organizational Proposal".
5. Certain decisions have been taken by the Organizational and Planning Committee since the last Assembly concerning the other boards and committees mentioned in 2(c) above:
- (a) The Board of Education
To alter the status of the Board of Education it would be necessary according to the Book of Forms, to send legislation down to presbyteries under the Barrier Act. Therefore it has been decided not to proceed to incorporate the Board of Education at this time, but to recommend to the new Board of Ministry that during its first year of operation it should undertake to study the question in consultation with the existing Board of Education.
 - (b) The Committee on the Order of Deaconesses
The Committee functions as a channel to Assembly for the concerns of the Council of the Order of Deaconesses, which Council does not have any other access to General Assembly. The Committee has expressed its willingness to become part of a single agency dealing with the Church's ministries, but has asked that some separate identity for the concerns of the Council of the Order be maintained until such time as the place of the Deaconesses within the Church has been clarified. To this end a "Task Force concerning Deaconesses" has been proposed within the structure of the Board. (see below)
 - (c) The Committee on Institutional Chaplains and the Canadian Forces Chaplaincy Services Committee
These two committees feel that, while chaplains as individual "Church Workers" would be served by the agency, they wish to consider further whether their programme needs might be better served under the general supervision of the Board of World Mission or the Board of Congregational Life. It has been decided, therefore, not to incorporate these committees into the plan for the new agency, but to wait until the matter has been further reviewed.
6. In the course of consultation by the Organization and Planning Committee with the various boards and committees as well as with the presbyteries, certain principles were accepted and included in the writing of the "Organizational Proposal":
- (a) The Use of Ad Hoc Sub-committees
It is necessary to keep the Board trimmed to a reasonable size while at the same time to build in flexibility and expertise. This has been done by the use of co-opted membership on "Task Forces" (Ad hoc sub-committees) under the convenorship of members of the Board and its standing committees. Such Task Forces report to the Board and its committees which will be responsible for any decisions actually implemented.

(b) The Use of Consultation

The various ministries of the Church are trained by the colleges, employed by the boards (e.g. B.W.M., B.C.L., etc.), employed by societies (W.M.S., Chaplaincy Services, etc.) supervised by presbyteries, supported by congregations and the national funds of the Presbyterian Church, and yet are under the care and responsibility of the General Assembly. It is not the responsibility of this Board to do the work of any of the agencies listed above, but to consult with each so as to assist in a more adequate fulfilling of the task as a whole. The work of consultation addresses policy-making at a level (within the Board) where coordination is possible. The Board would have the right and the duty to formulate its own policy proposals to the Assembly concerning the Church's ministries, while at the same time respecting the integrity of the agencies with which it consults.

(c) Phased Development

Recent experience in the Board of World Mission and the Board of Congregational Life has shown the wisdom of bringing about organization development by stages. The organizational proposal for the Board of Ministry allows for the time needed by the new Board to prepare for its work; to consult with other boards and committees and with the presbyteries about how best to accomplish its intended purpose, and to pick up responsibility for the work of existing structures with a minimum of disruption or loss of leadership.

ORGANIZATIONAL PROPOSAL — (INITIAL PERIOD OF THREE YEARS)

1. The new agency shall be called the Board of Ministry.
2. The Board of Ministry shall be in Category A of Assembly Boards and shall therefore have representation on the Administrative Council and the Finance Committee of the Administrative Council.
3. The Board
 - (i) The Board shall consist of
 - a. Twelve members appointed by General Assembly chosen to ensure regional representation. Six of these appointees shall be laymen or women not employed by the church. The Chairman shall be named by General Assembly from among these twelve members after consideration (except in the case of the first appointment) of any nomination by the Board. 12
 - b. One representative from each of the following:
 - The Board of Knox College
 - The Board or "Governing Body" of Presbyterian College
 - The Board of Ewart College
 - The Board of World Mission
 - The Board of Congregational Life
 - The Pension Board
 - c. The President of the Council of the Order of Deaconesses 6
 - d. The General Secretary of the Board of Ministry as a non-voting member. 1 20

(Note: In accordance with the general practice of the church no individual shall be a member of the Board of Ministry for more than six consecutive years.)

- (ii) The Board shall have a co-ordinating committee consisting of the chairman of the Board, the General Secretary and the chairman of the Policy Committee and the Personnel Committee (see below). This committee will arrange for the meetings of the Board, co-ordinate the various activities of its committees and task forces and be given executive power of the Board to deal with such matters as may from time to time arise.

- (iii) For the initial period (three years of full operation), the Board, being broadly representative of the Church, may meet twice a year, once in the fall and once in the spring, if the work so requires.
- (iv) The Board shall have two sub-committees:
The Policy Committee
The Personnel Committee
- (v) As an interim measure, the Board shall have a Task Force concerning the Deaconesses until such time as the place of the Deaconesses within the Church is clarified. The Order of Deaconesses will have the right of direct reporting to the Assembly through the Board of Ministry.
- (vi) When the Board is first established, the existing Personnel Committee and the Committee on the Training of Professional Church Workers shall each nominate two members to the Committee to Nominate as part of the General Assembly representation.

4. The Personnel Committee

- (i) The Personnel Committee shall be charged with carrying on the work of the existing Assembly Committee on Personnel.
- (ii) The Personnel Committee shall consist of:

3 members of the Board of Ministry one of whom shall be the chairman named by the Board	3
1 professional church worker (non-clergy)	1
4 members co-opted for their special knowledge and understanding of the area and approved by the Board	4
General Secretary as a non-voting member	1
- (iii) The Personnel Committee shall meet at least twice a year or more often at the discretion of the Board.
- (iv) The Personnel Committee may, from time to time, under the direction of the Board, set up Task Forces to deal with special problems co-opting other persons to these forces if desirable. In each case, the chairman of the Task Force shall be a member of the Personnel Committee.
- (v) The Personnel Committee shall be responsible for calling at least once a year a meeting of the Joint Committee on the Financial Support for Church Ministries. The Joint Committee shall consist of:

1 representative from the Pension Board	1
Fund for Ministerial Assistance	1
Committee on Benevolences	1
Finance Committee of the Administrative Council	1
Board of World Mission	1
The Treasurer of the Church	1
3 representatives of the Personnel Committee, 2 of whom shall be members of the Board of Ministry	3

(Representatives of the other employing boards might be included when desirable)

5. The Policy Committee

- (i) The Policy Committee shall be charged with studying such questions as the nature of the ministry, the changing concepts of ministry, experimental ministries, recruitment policy, certification of students, various aspects of training for ministry, both initial training and continuing education, in consultation with the colleges, and other matters which may from time to time arise.
- (ii) The Committee shall consist of:

3 members of the Board of Ministry, one of whom shall be the chairman named by the Board	3
1 professional church worker (non clergy)	1
4 members co-opted for their knowledge and understanding of the area and approved by the Board	4
- (iii) The Policy Committee shall meet at least twice a year or more often at the discretion of the Board.
- (iv) The Policy Committee may, from time to time, under the direction of the Board, set up Task Forces to deal with special problems co-opting other members to these forces if desirable. In each case the chairman of the Task Force shall be a member of the Policy Committee.
- (v) The Policy Committee shall be responsible for administering periodic church wide consultations concerning ministry.
- (vi) In view of the study on Ministry already in progress by the Committee on Doctrine, one of the first tasks of the Policy Committee shall be to consult with the Committee on Doctrine to see how best this study can be carried forward.
- (vii) The Policy Committee shall appoint a Task Force to negotiate with the Colleges concerning their relationship with the new Board.
- (viii) As one of its first tasks, the Policy Committee shall consult with presbyteries with a view to defining and developing the Board's working relationships with presbyteries, and with those serving in the ministries of the Church.

6. The Task Force Concerning Deaconesses

- (i) Until such time as the place of Deaconesses within the church has been determined, this Task Force shall continue to study the place of the diaconate within the Presbyterian Church In Canada and to prepare recommendations to be brought by the Board of Ministry to Assembly concerning this problem.
- (ii) Initially the Task Force shall consist of:

2 members of the Board of Ministry, one of whom shall be named by the Board as convener	2
2 members nominated by the existing Committee on the Order of Deaconesses	2
2 members nominated by the Committee on Church Doctrine	2
1 nominated by Ewart College	1
1 of the Clerks of Assembly	1
2 members nominated by the Council of Deaconesses	2
- (iii) The Committee of the Order of Deaconesses shall cease to exist when it has appointed its two members to the Task Force and handed over its work to the newly established Board.

- (iv) The Task Force shall work closely with the Committee on Church Doctrine and the Council of the Order of Deaconesses.
- (v) When the place of the Deaconesses within the church has been established, this Task Force shall go out of existence.

7. Staffing

- (i) Staffing for the Board of Ministry during the initial period shall consist of a General Secretary, an administrative assistant (below Executive level), and clerical assistance as required.
- (ii) The General Secretary, as chief executive officer of the Board, shall be responsible for:
 - (a) implementing board policies and administering its services
 - (b) assisting the committees and task forces of the Board
 - (c) maintaining contact with the presbyteries, and with those serving in the church's employ, concerning the Church's support for ministry.
 - (d) consultation and advice on request to those using the personnel services of the Board.
 - (e) study, consultation and reporting to the Board concerning any matter within the Board's terms of reference from the Assembly.
- (iii) The administrative assistant shall be responsible for:
 - (a) Assisting the General Secretary on any aspect of the work of the Board, as directed.
 - (b) Day-to-day management of the Board of Ministry office, including the processing of information in the work of the Board's personnel services, on a confidential basis.
 - (c) The administrative assistant's duties shall not include acting in a consultative or advisory capacity to anyone using the personnel services of the Board.

8. Timing

The timetable proposed is as follows:

That,

- (i) the Board be appointed by the 1973 Assembly
- (ii) the Committee on the Order of Deaconesses and the Committee on the Training of Professional Church Workers go out of existence after the Assembly, 1973.
- (iii) During 1973-74:
 - (a) the Board shall organize its Task Force on Deaconesses which shall convene as soon as possible.
 - (b) the Board shall organize its Policy Committee which shall meet at least once during 1973.
 - (c) the Board shall negotiate with the colleges to determine how the Board can establish the most effective consultative relationship between the Board and the Colleges.
 - (d) the Board shall consult with the Presbyteries about how it can best relate to the Presbyteries and to individual professional church workers.
 - (e) nominations for the post of General Secretary shall be called for from Presbyteries.
 - (f) staff assistance for this interim period shall be provided by one person at the level of assistant secretary, part-time, until the appointment of the General Secretary.
 - (g) the Assembly's Committee on Personnel Services shall continue to carry on its work independently although co-operating with the new Board in a consultative manner.

- (iv) the Assembly to appoint the General Secretary in 1974 and the Board become fully operational on the effective date of that appointment, the present Assembly Committee on Personnel Services to go out of existence three months after the date upon which the Board becomes fully operational. The appointment of the Director of Personnel Services will be terminated at that time.

9. Review Procedures

- (i) The Board shall constantly evaluate its procedures and structures in the light of its continuing negotiations with other bodies and recommend any substantive changes to the General Assembly, including a major review at the end of the initial three years.
- (ii) The Board shall review the work and membership of each Task Force annually.

RECOMMENDATION 5

That the General Assembly authorize as a basis of operation for the Board of Ministry, for an initial period of three years, the organizational proposals contained in the body of this report.

RECOMMENDATION 6

That the Board of Ministry be appointed by the Assembly of 1973.

RECOMMENDATION 7

That the Board of Ministry meet in November 1973 and March 1974:

- (a) to develop policy
- (b) to appoint its Policy Committee
- (c) to formulate a budget
- (d) to nominate a General Secretary to be appointed by the Assembly
- (e) to consult with Presbyteries concerning its policies and basis of operation
- (f) to negotiate with the colleges concerning their relationship with the new Board
- (g) to consult with the Board of Education, the Committee on Institutional Chaplaincy and the Canadian Forces Chaplaincy Services Committee concerning their possible relationship with the new Board.

RECOMMENDATION 8

That funds be provided for one staff person at the level of assistant secretary part time for the period from July 1973 until the permanent General Secretary has taken up his duties.

RECOMMENDATION 9

That the Board of Ministry become fully operational on the effective date of the appointment of the General Secretary; the present Assembly Committee on Personnel Services to go out of existence three months after the date upon which the Board become fully operational; the appointment of the Director of Personnel Services be terminated at that time.

RECOMMENDATION 10

That the Board make a thorough review of its structures and operations during its third year of existence and report to the General Assembly.

RECOMMENDATION 11

That the Committee on the Training of Professional Church Workers and the Committee on the Order of Deaconesses be discharged as soon as they have handed over their work to the Board of Ministry.

COMMUNICATIONS

In 1972, the Committee prepared some proposals for organizational changes 'to bring about greater co-ordination and improved services to the Church in the general field of communications'.

As a result of discussion in the Administrative Council, the Committee did not submit to the 1972 Assembly its specific organizational proposals, and agreed to do further study in consultation with various Assembly agencies. But the Committee did ask for and receive Assembly's approval of the following recommendation:

That General Assembly instruct the Organization and Planning Committee to develop plans for an Assembly agency for Communications, in consultation with the present boards and committees of Assembly involved in this work, for presentation to the Assembly in 1973.

The Committee has consulted with these boards and committees and this year presents revised proposals.

A major finding of the consultative study was general agreement that an Assembly Board of Communications was not clearly needed at this time, and that solutions to current needs should be sought through changes and improvements within the present structures.

In line with this general decision, a report was made to the Administrative Council in April of this year. That report is reprinted below for the information of the Assembly.

A. Distribution of Program Resources

There is a clear need for co-ordinating the distribution of program resources of the Church, both printed and audio-visual. We find that this is a major concern of the new Board of Congregational Life. It is also a major activity of the W.M.S., and of one section of the Board of World Mission. In our examination of this particular matter, we find that it is a very complex issue, and that it cannot be solved satisfactorily apart from a co-operative process of study by the major agencies involved, and consultation with those who will be on the receiving end of the distribution service. (The following recommendation was then presented, and received Council approval.)

RECOMMENDATION

That the Administrative Council ask the Board of World Mission, The Board of Congregational Life, The Women's Missionary Society W.D., The Women's Missionary Society E.D., and The Audio-Visual Committee to appoint a representative to a Committee To Study Distribution Services, which would be responsible for developing a proposal regarding the need for, and feasibility of, a single distribution service for program resources, and report to the Council.

B. Public Information and Public Relations

This work should remain under the care of the Administrative Council, through its Committee on Public Information.

In the consultative study, a number of suggestions were made which are passed on herewith for the consideration of that Committee:

- (a) A need to develop contacts with television and radio media, similar to the close links we have had with the press.
- (b) A need to strengthen the position of the public information officer of the church, so that all enquiries would be directed to him. For all planned releases of information to public media, he should be the channel, or at least consulted by those making the release.
- (c) The need to provide training and background information for persons who will be representing our Church through the public media (e.g. the Moderator of the General Assembly).

(The following recommendation was approved by the Council, who agreed to draw the report to the attention of their Public Information Committee)

RECOMMENDATION

That the Public Information Committee of the Council include in its membership the Communication Consultant.

C. Duplicating and Mailing Services

A variety of matters have been brought to the Committee's attention regarding printing, reproduction and mailing. These services are general management functions which can best be handled through a single department providing efficient and well-supervised services to the various boards and committees.

General policies should be established consultatively with the senior staff members of the boards, through the Program Co-ordinating Committee of Council, but management of the services should be under the care of the Office and Property Committee and the Comptroller or his Assistant.

The Organization and Planning Committee reports for information that it will be consulting with the Office and Property Committee regarding these matters, with a view to formulating proposals for consideration by the members of the Program Co-ordinating Committee.

D. Audio Visual Committee

The Committee believes that the major communication needs of the Church can be met by an active development of the work of the Audio-Visual Committee along the lines recently defined by the Assembly.

There are three major areas of work in this Committee:

- (a) A library facility for distribution of audio-visual resources
- (b) Production of, and consultation concerning, audio-visual program resources
- (c) Education and training throughout the Church concerning audio-visual resources and the use of radio and television.

It is the opinion of the Organization and Planning Committee that (a) above has become the dominant image of the Audio-Visual Committee throughout the Church. We also feel that (b) and (c) are in need of greater emphasis and should in fact be the primary focus of this Committee.

The question of budget becomes very important at this point. With the authority of Assembly, the Committee has hired a Consultant in the Communications field but there has been no significant increase in the Committee's program budget which would enable the Consultant to do the kind of work for which he was hired.

The membership make-up of the Committee also needs careful review in the light of the present terms of reference of the Committee and its Communication Consultant.

(The O & P Committee then reported for the information of the Council a series of matters on which it proposed to consult with the Audio-Visual Committee, with a view to preparing recommendations to be brought to the General Assembly. These matters were brought before the Audio-Visual Committee, who have included recommendations in their report to this Assembly.)

Pursuant to the above report to the Administrative Council in April of this year, and subsequent contact with the Audio-Visual Committee, the Organization and Planning Committee presents the following recommendations to the Assembly:

RECOMMENDATION 12

That the name of the Audio-Visual Committee be changed to The Communication Services Committee.

RECOMMENDATION 13

That the primary purposes of the Communication Services Committee be

- (a) responsibility for production of, and consultation concerning, audio-visual, radio and television program resources;
- (b) education and training throughout the Church concerning the use of audio-visual resources, radio and television, and

- (c) participation in ecumenical projects in the Communications field
- (d) on a temporary basis, the operation of an audio-visual library service until a new distribution service for all program resources is developed.

RECOMMENDATION 14

That the position of Communication Consultant for the Audio-Visual Committee become the Communication Consultant of the Communication Services Committee.

RECOMMENDATION 15

That The Administrative Council be asked to seek ways and means of increasing the authorized spending of the Communication Services Committee by approximately 25% in both 1974 and 1975.

POLICY IN STAFFING GENERAL ASSEMBLY AGENCIES

I. Term Appointments

1. Repeatedly, the proposal is made that all executive-level appointments to General Assembly agencies should be term appointments, (with the exception of the College faculties.) In practice, recent General Assemblies have approved motions introduced from the floor, imposing terms of five years or less on major appointments.
2. There is an urgent need to examine this question in a serious way. Reasonable arguments can be presented both for and against term appointments for these national executive positions. The consequences could be rather important for the future staffing of Assembly agencies. And it would be unfortunate if such a policy developed de facto in the Assembly, without benefit of serious study of the various dimensions of the problem.
3. The root of the matter (theologically) lies in the Church's understanding of ministries, and in the nature of a 'Gospel Call'. While our theology supports the idea of a diversity of Christian ministries, based on the gifts of the Holy Spirit, in practice we have recognized the ministry of Word and Sacrament to congregations as the norm, and our whole polity and procedure leave in some doubt the relationships of other specialized forms of ministry such as the national executive offices under discussion.
4. We have never clearly resolved the question of 'Gospel Call' in relation to these offices, and the procedures to be followed in establishing or dissolving the tie between the individual and the office. Since presbyteries have no direct jurisdiction over those serving in executive staff positions with Assembly boards and committees, it is difficult for them to moderate in a Gospel Call to such positions. Yet there is no other avenue for dealing with such a 'call' at present defined nor procedures established.
5. Term appointments represent a special set of conditions imposed on ministerial service. While there is some precedent for limited terms of service in the practice of Board of World Mission appointments both in Canada and overseas, on the other hand there is seldom if ever any term stated in moderating a Gospel call to a congregation that is entitled to call a minister.
6. There are positive and beneficial aspects to a term appointment, whether it be in a national executive staff position, a pastoral charge, or other form of service. There is also real value in some suitable system of periodic review and evaluation of a person's service. But there are also practical problems involved, both in limited term service and in review and evaluation of that service. There are plus and minus factors both for the Church and for the individual serving. These factors deserve thoughtful study.

7. If a policy of term appointments for national executive staff positions is to be adopted by the Assembly, it should be after full and careful study of both the theological and practical considerations involved, and it should be in the context of an overall policy for all the ministries of the Church.

RECOMMENDATION 16

That the Committee on Church Doctrine as part of its present study of the Ministry, be asked to study the whole matter of appointments to the executive staff and the field staff of Assembly boards and committees, (including the matter of term appointments) in the context of the 'Gospel Call' and the various ministries of the Church which emerge from the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and make an initial report to the Assembly in 1974.

RECOMMENDATION 17

That until such time as a future Assembly shall declare otherwise, all existing or future term appointments of national executive staff of Assembly agencies may be renewed, on recommendation of the Board or Committee concerned to the Assembly.

II. The Laity, and Staffing of Assembly Agencies

1. A significant number of lay men and women now occupy key staff positions in the national office of General Assembly agencies. When this is examined in the light of the remuneration scales, the lack of possibilities for promotion, the inadequacies of our present pension/retirement and insurance benefits for them, it is rather remarkable, and a great tribute to their unselfish desire for serving.
2. In addition, a great deal of the day-to-day work is done by a small army of lay men and women who fill the various positions in the 'office help' categories. These too render service which is often quite out of relation to remuneration and other financial support provided.
3. Two things seem needed at present:
 - (a) a wider range of avenues of service for laity in the national offices
 - (b) continued urgent attention to matters of remuneration, pension/retirement benefits, and salary scales commensurate with a wider range of levels of responsibility.
4. (a) On the matter of widening the range of avenues of service, the present arrangement of two broad groups: executive level staff and office help, is too rigid, and tends to reduplicate the management/labour concept of industrial and business organization. We should study the possibility of a gradation of positions, with increasing levels of responsibility, from the simplest to the most senior, specifying the qualifications that are considered necessary for each level. In such a policy, theological training in varying degree might be specified as necessary for the more senior levels of responsibility. The question of whether or not ordination should be a qualification for certain positions needs serious study.
 - (b) If we want to encourage lay people to bring their skills and experience into the service of Assembly agencies, we will have to develop more adequate policies in the whole range of personnel matters. Present efforts to upgrade our standards need continuing urgent attention.

RECOMMENDATION 18

That the Personnel Committee be asked to study the matter of service by the laity in the employ of the Assembly's boards and committees, in consultation with the employing boards, the Administrative Council and its Office and Property Committee, and report to the Assembly in 1974, (taking into account items 3(a) and (b) in the body of this report).

III Staff Training — Professional Development

1. There has been a general policy in some boards to grant sabbaticals to members of staff, usually after seven to ten years of service, if it proved feasible to carry on the work of the Board during an extended absence of a staff member. It has also come about that many executive secretaries have periodically participated in short term training events connected with their work, or taken night courses to enlarge their competence.
2. This matter requires special attention at several points. First and foremost, every general secretary should be expected to undertake the equivalent of not less than three months training in business administration or management at the university level, at the expense of the Church, at the beginning of his/her service. In the case of secretaries recently appointed, this training should be arranged at the earliest opportunity.
3. Secondly, it should be the policy for all employing boards to require of each staff person some professional training each year, at the expense of the Church. Senior secretaries should be responsible to their boards for this program of professional development. Since some kinds of training will be common to the needs of staff in various boards, senior secretaries should consult together with a view to arranging common training programs wherever this is advantageous.
4. Common standards will be needed for all employing boards, regarding the length of required annual training, and the basis on which the Church will pay expenses for it. The relation of this required annual training to the concept of sabbatical leaves should be studied. The possibility of allowing a staff person an additional annual period of study on a voluntary basis at his own expense, which could be accumulated into a short sabbatical, would be worth considering.
5. Thirdly, new policies are needed which would encourage and assist employees of the boards and committees, other than executive-level staff, to engage in continuing education, and in enlarging their competencies to the benefits of the Church. This matter will be brought to the attention of the Office and Property Committee of the Administrative Council.

RECOMMENDATION 19

That the Administrative Council and the Assembly Boards employing general secretaries, be authorized to implement as quickly as feasible, a policy whereby their senior executive staff persons would be authorized to undertake the equivalent of up to three months training in management, at the university level, at the expense of the Church; such training to include planning, budgeting, and administration.

RECOMMENDATION 20

That the Boards of Assembly employing executive-level staff be authorized to implement a policy of a stated period of required training on a regular basis for each executive staff person, at the expense of the Church, from within the Assembly budget funds allocated to that Board; the general secretary to be responsible to the board: (a) for developing common (inter-board) policies for this training program, and (b) for its implementation.

THEOLOGICAL STUDIES OF CONTEMPORARY ISSUES

In all the work in which the Organization and Planning Committee has been engaged over the last four years, we, as a committee, have tried to keep before us the purpose of our activities. That purpose is, of course, to help the church in all its structures to be more effective in advancing the kingdom of God in this world. Without the gospel, without the prophetic gifts of the Holy Spirit, there is no living church. Unless those engaged in structural reform are constantly aware of this, they are merely tinkering with the machinery.

A church aware of its mission, must be constantly responding to events and actions in the world. If the church is to provide leadership in matters of social, national and international importance, the church must be informed. To this end several of the boards and committees of the church over the past years have devoted much prayer and study to preparing reports and papers, some addressed to the church, some addressed to various levels of government. One of our greatest resources, as a church, is the minds of our people. But they must continue to be informed of the theological dimensions of the issues of our day (e.g. drug abuse, racism, civil disobedience, divorce, mixed marriages, terrorism).

The basic premises upon which a Christian response to such issues are based must be stated clearly and simply so that people can be guided in their own lives and in the lives of their congregations. There could then be a fruitful interchange between the professional theologian and the laity (what might be called "abstract theology" and what might be called "situational theology").

There is a need also for corporate public statements made on behalf of the whole church and addressed to governments and other agencies concerned with contemporary social issues.

Further, there is a place for individuals to state their own views in public forums such as the Record so that issues can be discussed.

During the past winter, the Organization and Planning Committee has begun to ask certain questions:

- (1) What boards and committees are now engaged in theological studies of contemporary issues?
- (2) How are the structural changes presently taking place affecting such studies in the systems of priorities built into the functions of the new agencies of Assembly (BWM and BCL in particular)?
- (3) What action, if any, should be taken in co-ordinating the activities of the various bodies engaged in this work so that the theological resources of the church can be used to their maximum potential?
- (4) How best can the results of such considerations of theological issues be communicated to the church? to the world?

Our enquiries are only in a preliminary stage. We have corresponded with the Committee on Church Doctrine, the Board of Evangelism and Social Action, the Board of World Mission and the Committee on International Affairs. It is clear from their replies that there is already some cooperation among these agencies in their consideration of various issues.

A major concern has emerged in relation to the Board of Congregational Life. The definition of that Board's responsibilities would include theological resources prepared for use by people at the congregational level, but not the preparation of theological statements or pronouncements for the General Assembly to direct toward government or social structures. This particular aspect of the work of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action would therefore have to be undertaken by others, if it is to be continued.

We are also concerned that communications with the church and with the world on these matters should be effective, and this involves an effective melding of both theological and communications skills.

In the course of the coming year, the Organization and Planning Committee intends to consult further with all those boards and committees presently engaged in theological study of contemporary issues, with the Audio-Visual Committee and the Record Committee, so as to discover how the Church can most effectively deal with this basic aspect of its life.

PROPOSALS FOR STUDY CONCERNING SYNOD AND PRESBYTERY

A TIME TO LISTEN — AND A TIME TO REPORT

1. Over the last three years, our study of synods and presbyteries has taken members of the Organization and Planning Committee back and forth across the Church as we have attended meetings of all the synods, and talked with men and women from all the forty-four presbyteries. The strengths, and the weaknesses of these synods and presbyteries have been discussed at length, and we have listened and talked for hours with fellow Presbyterians in a search for ways and means of making our system of church government more effective in the service of Christ's Kingdom.
2. We believe the time has come to focus our findings as best we can, and submit for study some specific proposals concerning both the synods and presbyteries. These proposals do not contain answers to all the needs and problems. They are not offered as a packaged panacea. They do offer a set of simple basic steps which we believe could open the way to change and development of the courts into a more effective system for our church situation in Canada today.

REDUNDANT MACHINERY

3. The synod's role and effectiveness are more in doubt than the presbytery's. But this is not surprising. Historically, the synod in the Presbyterian Church in Canada has never had a strong role ever since the union of 1875 which brought us into being as a Canadian denomination. In merging a number of synods of various origins present in Canada at that time, our church retained the synod as a court, but the General Assembly and the presbytery became the courts with the real strength and usefulness.
4. All the synods have been experimenting in recent years, to try to find an authentic role. It is obvious that the synod is more valued in the Atlantic region and in Western Canada than it is in most of Ontario and Quebec. Yet there is a wide range of diverse opinion about the synod and its future in all parts of the Church.
5. One thing is clear enough however. The synods and presbyteries as they exist at present provide us with more governmental and administrative machinery than we need. We can neither sustain the workload that they generate, nor afford to provide the staff leadership that they require to function effectively.

TOWARD A SIMPLER STRUCTURE

6. As a Committee, we have come to believe that eventually our Church will be best served by having only one level of church government linking the General Assembly to the congregations. But no one seems able to see clearly enough as yet how this might be accomplished in a country as big as Canada, and in a Church whose membership is so unevenly distributed across the land.
7. At the present time therefore, we are proposing a number of basic steps that could bring us a long stride toward a simpler and more effective structure.
8. In outline these proposals are: to streamline the synod-presbytery system, retaining both synod and presbytery, but reducing the number of synods and presbyteries so as to make them more viable units for program purposes; to redefine their work, structures and procedures so as to make them a more highly integrated and efficient system; and to make it possible for each synod to appoint a synod executive staff person to assist with the work of both the synod and its presbyteries.

9. These proposals (described below) would make possible a greater strength and effectiveness for both the synod and the presbytery, encouraging a fuller development and expression of the concerns and needs of the Church in each synod region, and providing a framework to which the reorganized Assembly Boards and Committees now coming into being could relate effectively.
10. In order to bring about the changes in our administrative structures which we feel the church is seeking at this time, we would submit the following proposals:
 - (1) That each Synod and the Presbyteries within its bounds be integrated into a simplified system of government and administration (without changing the present essential powers and functions of each court).
 - (2) That executive staff leadership for the integrated Synod/Presbytery system be provided by a Synod Executive Officer for both Synod and Presbytery work, appointed by and responsible to the Synod.
 - (3) That the areas of responsibility of both Synod and Presbytery be carefully defined following these basic principles:
 - a. that the courts concentrate on matters of policy and principle, general oversight, and essential judicial and episcopal functions
 - b. that all other matters such as administrative work, preparatory work, and programs be carried out by the Executive Officer, by committees and task forces.
 - (4) That Presbytery meetings be reduced to two (or at the most three) each year and that they be extended to two days (three if needed).
 - (5) That the number of Synods be reduced from eight to six and the boundaries adjusted accordingly.
 - (6) That the number of Presbyteries be reduced to a maximum of five in each Synod, and that the boundaries be re-aligned, taking into account present-day factors of transportation, governmental boundaries and other relevant sociological data.
 - (7) That a Synod office be established in each Synod to act as a focal point, providing a source of communication and leadership for each Synod.
 - (8) That the Synod Executive Officer and the synod office provide for co-ordination and teamwork among field workers in the Synod, including all staff or other representatives of General Assembly boards and committees.
 - (9) That this synod/presbytery system present annually to the Administrative Council and the boards of Assembly suggested plans for the strengthening and extension of the church within its bounds.
 - (10) That the synod executive officers be made members of the Administrative Council, without vote.
11. The proposals are limited to basic concepts, and do not include at this stage the more detailed matters of committee structures, and procedures for the effective functioning of the synod/presbytery system. In the commentary that follows, however, there are many implicit ideas for the development of these more detailed matters.

SYNOD EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

12. Executive staff leadership is a basic requirement for the more effective functioning of both the synod and the presbytery.
13. The administrative work load, the need for greater coordination of operations, and the clear need for staff leadership to serve, organize, and represent the interests of the church regionally, all indicate that the appointment of a synod executive officer for each region is a prime requirement at the present time.
14. The geography and regional differences of Canada, the very uneven distribution of our church's membership in the various parts of the country, and the limits imposed by the combined financial resources of the courts (the Assembly, the synods and presbyteries) constitute the principle factors to be reconciled in proposing a solution to the need for synod executive staff appointments.

15. In providing executive staff for the synods and presbyteries, it will be essential to define their work and their relationships with staff members of the Assembly boards and committees, so that synod and national staff can work together for the good of the Church.
16. Terms of Reference
 - (1) The synod executive officer would be appointed by the synod, through a nominating procedure that would include presbytery nominations.
 - (2) He would be accountable primarily to the synod, and secondarily to the presbyteries, in his capacity as executive officer of both synod and the presbyteries.
 - (3) As executive officer of synod and the presbyteries, his duties would include:
 - (a) Acting as clerk of the synod, and normally as clerk of the presbyteries.
 - (b) Assuming responsibility for the interim-moderatorship of vacancies in the synod, in cooperation with the synod superintendent of missions; arranging pulpit supply, arranging leets or hearing of candidates; setting up local or area arrangements for other pastoral needs of vacant congregations. (The Presbytery would continue to process "calls").
 - (c) Cooperating with synod and presbytery committees and task forces, and providing administrative support to them.
 - (d) Consulting with representatives of Assembly boards and committees and coordinating their work within the synod, and in particular building a teamwork relationship among the field staff people who work within the synod, (BWM superintendents of mission, BCL Field Staff, and WMS Educational Resource Persons) so as to provide comprehensive support and service for the church's work within the bounds.
 - (e) Providing leadership to the synod in planning, program evaluation, budget development, and special events.
 - (f) Representing the synod on the Administrative Council as a non-voting member, to provide a direct voice for the synod's needs and concerns in national planning and budget development.
 - (g) Being available for consultation on pastoral problems of ministers and other church workers.
(Presbytery would continue to be responsible for the exercise of discipline. Appeals, petitions, etc. might be dealt with by a Synod Commission, with The Synod Executive Officer and a Clerk of General Assembly as consultants.)

REDEFINING THE WORK OF SYNOD AND PRESBYTERY

17. The need here is not to alter the constitutional powers and responsibilities of the synod or presbytery, but to determine what work must be done by the court, and what should be delegated to the synod executive officer, or to committees or task forces, on an accountability basis; or to commissions with power to issue. It is common practice at present to crowd the agenda of the court with a great many matters that could be handled more effectively in other ways, without in any sense weakening the authority and oversight of the court.
18. In general, it is proposed that the court should concentrate its attention on matters of policy and principle, on essential judicial and episcopal functions, on annual evaluation and planning; on spiritual exercises including Bible Study and theological debate concerning issues of faith and life. It should delegate to members of the court, to committees, task forces, program councils etc., and to the synod executive officer, matters of administration of policy and program, of preparatory study and other detailed work. Like an effective Session, the presbytery and synod as courts should give a spiritual leadership and oversight to the work within the bounds, without trying to run all activities and programs.

19. To fully implement the intent of streamlining and integrating the synod/presbytery system, the respective work of the synod and the presbytery courts should be defined so as to eliminate duplication of effort or overlapping of responsibility. The standing committees of synod and presbytery need to be defined in relation to one another so that they can operate effectively as a single system.
20. It will also be necessary in this redefinition to take into account the major board and committee structures of the General Assembly, so that the synod/presbytery system can work harmoniously within the framework of a national church.

MEETINGS OF SYNODS AND PRESBYTERIES

21. There is no change proposed in the number of synod meetings. But the date of synod meetings will need to be tied to a schedule of meetings of the presbyteries, and executive committee meetings of synod.
22. It is proposed that the synods meet on the second Tuesday in November, and the Synod Executive Committee on the first Tuesday in February and the second Tuesday in May.
23. Presbytery meetings could take place on a schedule like the following:

Presbytery No. 1. First Monday of March	Second Thursday, September
Presbytery No. 2. Thursday	Third Thursday
Presbytery No. 3. Second Monday	Fourth Monday
Presbytery No. 4. Thursday	Fourth Thursday
Presbytery No. 5. Third Tuesday	First Tuesday, October

These dates avoid major holiday dates; space the presbytery meetings in relation to the meeting of the synod and synod Executive Committee, and make it possible for the Synod Executive Officer to attend all regular presbytery meetings. Presbyteries would meet at the time of synod if necessary.

24. There is cause for serious concern over the present lack of participation of ruling elders in synod and presbytery meetings. Scheduled dates of meetings as outlined above might have to be altered so as to permit half or more of these meetings to take place on weekends, if stronger elder participation can thereby be secured.
25. Minutes of all stated meetings of synod, its Executive Committee, and the presbyteries would be prepared by the Synod Executive Officer and would be distributed from the Synod Office to all members of Synod.

SYNOD AND PRESBYTERY BOUNDARIES

26. In the effort to streamline the synod-presbytery system in to viable administrative units for program purposes, it would be necessary to reduce the number of both synods and presbyteries.
27. There are several possibilities in deciding the number of synods needed for major regions of Canada. This proposal sets forth the possibility requiring the least change: to amalgamate the three prairie synods into one synod of the Prairies, thus reducing the present eight synods to six.

28. In Ontario and Quebec, by shifting a few presbyteries from one synod to another, it is possible to balance out the number of pastoral charges more evenly among the three synods.
29. The Canadian north poses problems for the proposed synods of Central Ontario, the Prairies, and the Pacific. But these problems would still exist in other synod configurations.
30. Synods
 - I ATLANTIC SYNOD
Same as the present Synod of the Atlantic Provinces
 - II QUEBEC AND EASTERN ONTARIO SYNOD
Present Synod of Quebec and Eastern Ontario, plus Kingston Presbytery
 - III CENTRAL ONTARIO SYNOD
Present Synod of Toronto and Kingston, less Kingston and Guelph-Saugeen presbyteries.
 - IV SOUTH WESTERN ONTARIO SYNOD
Present Hamilton and London Synod, plus Guelph-Saugeen presbytery
 - V PRAIRIE SYNOD
Present Synods of Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario, Saskatchewan, Alberta
 - VI PACIFIC SYNOD
Present synod of British Columbia

Presbyteries

31. In the matter of reducing the number of presbyteries, this is desirable for a number of reasons. It enlarges the membership of most presbyteries and thus enlarges the fellowship and increases the available manpower for the work of the court. Similarly, it reduces the number of committees operating in the presbyteries (most of which are parallel operations doing the same work for the individual presbyteries), reduces the overall number of meetings of courts and committees, and makes it possible for a synod executive officer to serve the presbyteries as well as the synod.
32. With fewer presbyteries, geographical distances are greater. It is therefore proposed that the presbyteries meet less often than most do at present, and that they meet for a longer period each time. This reduces overall travelling time and costs, in relation to the work done in the court. Less frequent meetings of presbytery also require re-definition of the work of the court and a higher degree of delegated responsibility as outlined elsewhere in this proposal.
33. As a starting point for in-depth study at a later stage, the following indications are given of possible re-alignments of the present presbyteries. These will provide a useful preliminary picture of how the proposed streamlining of the synod-presbytery system might work out.
 - I. Atlantic Synod
 1. Newfoundland and Cape Breton Island
 2. Nova Scotia mainland
 3. New Brunswick
 4. Prince Edward Island
 - II. Quebec and Eastern Ontario
 1. Quebec province
 2. Brockville-Cornwall area
 3. Ottawa-Smith's Falls area
 4. Kingston area

- III. Central Ontario
 1. Area east of metropolitan Toronto
 2. Area north of metro Toronto (mainly Barrie presbytery)
 3. Metro Toronto east
 4. Metro Toronto west (including Brampton presbytery)
 5. Northern Ontario (Temiskaming and Algoma-North Bay presbyteries)
- IV. South Western Ontario
 1. Niagara peninsula (Niagara and Paris presbyteries)
 2. Hamilton area
 3. Guelph-Saugeen presbytery area
 4. Bruce-Maitland and Stratford-Huron presbytery areas
 5. Chatham and Sarnia presbytery areas
- V. Prairie Synod
 1. North-Western Ontario (Superior and Lake of the Woods Presbyteries)
 2. Manitoba (Winnipeg and Brandon Presbyteries)
 3. Saskatchewan (Assiniboia and N. Saskatchewan Presbyteries)
 4. Alberta (Calgary-MacLeod, Red Deer, Edmonton and Peace River Presbyteries)
- VI. Pacific Synod
 1. Mountain Presbytery (Kamloops and Kootenay Presbyteries)
 2. Fraser Valley Presbytery (Westminster Presbytery)
 3. Vancouver Island Presbytery

SYNOD OFFICE

34. This facility need not be expensive, nor elaborate. Space could probably be made available in one of our churches on a modest rental basis, (provided that the Synod Executive Officer is given all necessary control of the facility for the purposes of the Synod).
35. The size and nature of synod office requirements would be determined in the light of the uses to which the facility would be put in carrying out its stated purposes, and of the available budget.
36. The Synod Office would need to be staffed five days a week by a competent secretary, so as to fulfill its purpose as a communications centre for the synod.
37. The Synod Offices should be linked by Telex with the national office of the Church and with one another. Conference telephone facilities might also be provided, so as to hold short committee meetings by telephone and thus reduce travel time and costs.
38. Location of synod offices should be based not only on offered accommodation but on transportation considerations by air and by road, postal delivery services, bus and air parcel post depots, etc.
39. Committee meeting facilities, eating and overnight accommodation close to the synod office are also desirable considerations.

SYNOD EXECUTIVE OFFICER AND SYNOD FIELD WORKERS

40. Clear terms of reference will be needed defining the authority and responsibilities of the Synod Executive Officer, and his working relationships with representatives of General Assembly boards and committees who work within the Synod, especially the B.W.M. Superintendents of Mission, the B.C.L. Associate Secretaries for Field Services, and the W.M.S. Educational Resource Persons.

41. The aim would be to build a staff team for work in the Synod. Regular meetings of these staff persons would be essential, so as to keep one another informed, consult together on how best to support and assist the work in the synod, coordinate movements on the field, and participate in evaluation and planning under the direction of the Synod Executive Officer.
42. The field staff representatives of Assembly boards and committees would keep the Synod Executive Officer informed of all his/her board's policies and plans as these may pertain to the synod. Visits of central staff or other representatives from the national offices to meetings or other events within the synod would be communicated in advance to the Synod Office for information, and any necessary clearances.

SYNOD PLANNING AND NATIONAL PLANNING BODIES

43. There are two needs to be met. First, that the synod/presbytery system should develop clear cut and effective planning procedures on an annual basis, so that the work of the whole region goes forward in an orderly and considered way, with a clear understanding of purpose, and a wise ordering of priorities.
44. The other need is to develop the means whereby synod concerns, plans and priorities can be reported effectively to the Administrative Council, and Assembly Boards and Committees.
45. To meet these needs, the following aims must be achieved:
 - (a) A simple and fully integrated standing committee structure for the Synod/Presbytery system.
 - (b) The development of a clear and effective planning process for the system involving the standing committees, presbyteries, the synod, and the staff.
 - (c) Change in the constitution of the Administrative Council to include the Synod Executive Officers as non-voting members; and a general study of the procedures whereby synod needs and concerns will be effectively represented in the boards and committees of Assembly, as they do their planning, priority setting, and policy-making.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

46. The Synod Executive Committee might consist of the synod moderator, the presbytery moderators, plus two ministers and three elders from the presbyteries (one from each presbytery) named on some system of rotation.
47. It might be found desirable to give to the Synod and its Executive Committee the power of the presbytery to deal with calls from within the bounds of Synod, etc., when necessary.
48. A supervising body for the Synod Executive Officer might consist of the synod moderator, and presbytery moderators, and might meet with the S.E.O. at the time of the Synod meeting, the synod Executive Committee meetings, and at other times at the call of the Synod moderator or the S.E.O. The S.E.O. would be accountable to the Synod through this Committee.
49. Commissioners to the General Assembly would be appointed at the Spring meeting of the presbyteries, on the same basis as at present.
50. Remits from the General Assembly could be assigned to task forces, the task force members being from the same general area, and including commissioners to the Assembly sending down the remit. These remit task forces would each submit their report to all the presbyteries at the Spring meeting. (Deadlines for sending in presbytery replies to remits would have to be extended).

51. The principle should be followed wherever possible of appointing task forces for specific assignments, rather than establishing standing committees. Each task force is given specific terms of reference, and a projected date for reporting or completion of the assignment. It is dissolved when it has completed its work, or at the pleasure of the court which established it.
52. This scheme for synod and presbytery reorganization, if adopted, should be followed for an initial period of five years, and during the fifth year thoroughly evaluated by the presbyteries and synods, with the synods reporting the results of this evaluation to the Assembly through the Administrative Council, together with any recommendations for change in the arrangements.

Grant from General Assembly		45,500
Grant from B.W.M., B.C.L. and W.M.S. for use of synod office facilities and secretarial assistance
1500 BWM, 1500 BCL, 1000 WMS, x 6 synods		25,000	158,000

Notes

The cost estimates are for administrative costs of establishing the synod office, appointing the synod staff, and running the committees, task forces etc., of the synod/presbytery system.

Any costs of program within the synod, originating either within the presbyteries or at the synod level would have to be budgeted for separately as at present.

RECOMMENDATION 21

That these proposals be sent to synods and presbyteries for study, and reply to the Organization and Planning Committee by March 1st, 1974.

RECOMMENDATION 22

That the Organization and Planning Committee present and interpret these proposals to the presbyters at the meetings of the synods in the Fall of 1973.

RECOMMENDATION 23

That the Organization and Planning Committee prepare a report to the 1974 Assembly in the light of the replies of the synods and presbyteries.

TRAINING FOR SYNOD AND PRESBYTERY CLERKS

The 1972 Assembly approved a series of recommendations of the Organization and Planning Committee calling for an on-going training program for clerks and other leaders in the synods and presbyteries. A committee was named by the Assembly to study how this training program might be arranged.

The Committee has reported to the Organization and Planning Committee recommending that a pilot training event of four days duration be held in the Fall of 1973, for clerks of synods and presbyteries; the results of this pilot project to be evaluated to determine whether similar training should be incorporated in the future into the continuing education program at Presbyterian College.

The Organization and Planning Committee in bringing forward major organizational proposals for synod and presbytery study this year recommends that this pilot project be deferred, on two grounds (a) the additional work placed on the synods and presbyteries and their clerks by this study remit, (b) the fact that the proposals envisage a major change in the office of the clerk.

Training programs will undoubtedly be needed for those who will give leadership to the synods and presbyteries. The recommendation to defer holding a pilot training project is primarily a matter of timing.

RECOMMENDATION 24

That action on a pilot training project for synod and presbytery clerks be deferred until the study of proposals concerning synod and presbytery is completed, and training requirements can be defined.

WORK PROGRAM 1973-74

FOR THE ORGANIZATION AND PLANNING COMMITTEE

On behalf of the O & P Committee, the Director of Planning and Development submits the following tentative outline of work projected for the Committee during the coming year.

1. The O & P Committee will serve in a consultative capacity to The Board of Congregational Life until it becomes fully operational January first 1974.
2. If the Board of Ministry is appointed by this Assembly, the O & P Committee will assist the Board in getting established, acting in a consultative capacity until the 1974 Assembly; will participate in the consultations which are to take place between the Board and the presbyteries, the three Colleges, and with several other Assembly agencies.
3. In the matter of communications, the Committee has indicated in its report a number of consultative meetings which are to be completed during this calendar year.
4. The task force on Theological Studies of Contemporary Issues will continue its consultative study, and prepare a report for the 1974 Assembly.
5. The O & P Committee will continue to study ways and means of developing the planning, priority-setting, and budget-building processes of the Administrative Council, and hopes to have a report ready for presentation to the 1974 Assembly. In this connection, the Committee plans to bring to the 1974 Assembly its final report, including recommendations regarding future provision for leadership in planning and organizational development in the Church.
6. Concerning the Proposals for Synod and Presbytery, the Committee is prepared to send representatives to the synod meetings to present and interpret the proposals; to receive and study the replies of the synods and presbyteries, and prepare a report for the 1974 Assembly.

7. If it proves desirable, the Committee will hold another series of seminars for representatives of the presbyteries, where any of the matters listed above can be placed on the agenda for study. This may prove to be necessary, in order to coordinate the study of relationships between various national boards and the synods and presbyteries.
8. There are a number of other matters still under study, mainly having to do with whether certain Assembly committees should be incorporated into one of the Assembly boards.

RECOMMENDATIONS

RECOMMENDATION 1

That the responsibilities of the Board of Stewardship and Budget be assumed by the Board of Congregational Life effective January 1, 1974.

RECOMMENDATION 2

That the Board of Stewardship and Budget continue to function on its present basis until December 31st, 1973 at which time it would be dissolved, having made its final report to the General Assembly in June 1973.

RECOMMENDATION 3

That the Board of Congregational Life, during its initial period of operation continue study and consultation with the Organization and Planning Committee and other Assembly agencies, concerning future policy and organizational responsibility for particular aspects of the present work of the Board of Stewardship and Budget.

RECOMMENDATION 4

That the two executive staff members of the Board of Stewardship and Budget be offered positions on the national (core) staff or the field staff of the Board of Congregational Life, on the same basis as approved by the 1972 Assembly for the staff of the Boards of Christian Education, and Evangelism and Social Action.

RECOMMENDATION 5

That the General Assembly authorize as a basis of operation for the Board of Ministry, for an initial period of three years, the organizational proposals contained in the body of this report.

RECOMMENDATION 6

That the Board of Ministry be appointed by the Assembly of 1973.

RECOMMENDATION 7

That the Board of Ministry meet in November 1973 and March 1974:

- a. — to develop policy
- b. — to appoint its Policy Committee
- c. — to formulate a budget
- d. — to nominate a General Secretary to be appointed by the Assembly
- e. — to consult with Presbyteries concerning its policies and basis of operation
- f. — to negotiate with the colleges concerning their relationship with the new Board
- g. — to consult with the Board of Education, the Committee on Institutional Chaplaincy and the Canadian Forces Chaplaincy Services Committee concerning their possible relationship with the new Board.

RECOMMENDATION 8

That funds be provided for one staff person at the level of assistant secretary part time for the period from July 1973 until the permanent General Secretary has taken up his duties.

RECOMMENDATION 9

That the Board of Ministry become fully operational on the effective date of the appointment of the General Secretary; the present Assembly Committee on Personnel Services to go out of existence three months after the date upon which the Board becomes fully operational; the appointment of the Director of Personnel Services be terminated at that time.

RECOMMENDATION 10

That the Board make a thorough review of its structures and operations during its third year of existence and report to the General Assembly.

RECOMMENDATION 11

That the Committee on the Training of Professional Church Workers and the Committee on the Order of Deaconesses be discharged as soon as they have handed over their work to the Board of Ministry.

RECOMMENDATION 12

That the name of the Audio-Visual Committee be changed to The Communication Services Committee.

RECOMMENDATION 13

- That the primary purpose of the Communication Services Committee be
- (a) responsibility for production of, and consultation concerning, audio-visual, radio and television program resources;
 - (b) education and training throughout the Church concerning the use of audio-visual resources, radio and television, and
 - (c) participation in ecumenical projects in the Communications field
 - (d) on a temporary basis, the operation of an audio-visual library service until a new distribution service for all program resources is developed.

RECOMMENDATION 14

That the position of Communication Consultant for the Audio-Visual Committee become the Communication Consultant of the Communication Services Committee.

RECOMMENDATION 15

That the Administrative Council be asked to seek ways and means of increasing the authorized spending of the Communication Services Committee by approximately 25% in both 1974 and 1975.

RECOMMENDATION 16

That the Committee on Church Doctrine as part of its present study of the Ministry, be asked to study the whole matter of appointments to the executive staff and the field staff of Assembly boards and committees, (including the matter of term appointments) in the context of the 'Gospel Call' and the various ministries of the Church which emerge from the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and makes an initial report to the Assembly in 1974.

RECOMMENDATION 17

That until such time as a future Assembly shall declare otherwise, all existing or future term appointments of national executive staff of Assembly agencies may be renewed, on recommendation of the Board or Committee concerned to the Assembly.

RECOMMENDATION 18

That the Personnel Committee be asked to study the matter of service by the laity in the employ of the Assembly's boards and committees, in consultation with the employing boards, the Administrative Council and its Office and Property Committee, and report to the Assembly in 1974, (taking into account items 3(a) and (b) in the body of this report).

RECOMMENDATION 19

That the Administrative Council and the Assembly Boards employing general secretaries, be authorized to implement as quickly as feasible, a policy whereby their senior executive staff persons would be authorized to undertake the equivalent of up to three months training in management, at the university level, at the expense of the Church; such training to include planning, budgeting, and administration.

RECOMMENDATION 20

That the Boards of Assembly employing executive-level staff be authorized to implement a policy of a stated period of required training on a regular basis for each executive staff person, at the expense of the Church, from within the Assembly budget funds allocated to that Board; the general secretary to be responsible to the board: (a) for developing common (inter-board) policies for this training program, and (b) for its implementation.

RECOMMENDATION 21

That these proposals be sent to synods and presbyteries for study, and reply to the Organization and Planning Committee by March 1st, 1974.

RECOMMENDATION 22

That the Organization and Planning Committee present and interpret these proposals to the presbyters at the meetings of the synods in the Fall of 1973.

RECOMMENDATION 23

That the Organization and Planning Committee prepare a report to the 1974 Assembly in the light of the replies of the synods and presbyteries.

RECOMMENDATION 24

That action on a pilot training project for synod and presbytery clerks be deferred until the study of proposals concerning synod and presbytery is completed, and training requirements can be defined.

Respectfully submitted,

(MRS.) A. C. BURGESS,
Chairman.

R. P. CARTER,
Director.

No. 1—PRESBYTERY OF ALGOMA AND NORTH BAY

Re: NOMINATION OF THE MODERATOR OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
(Referred to the Committee to advise with the Moderator)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, there have been a large number of nominations for Moderator of General Assembly in the last few years and

WHEREAS, we suspect that because of the large number of nominations, no one man has received a majority of the votes cast, and

WHEREAS, we feel that the Moderator of the General Assembly should be the choice of the majority of the voters,

THEREFORE, in order to ensure that one man receives a clear majority of the votes cast, we recommend:

- (1) that no more than five be nominated for the position of Moderator of General Assembly. The responsibility to nominate not more than five persons be assigned to the Moderator's Nominating Committee. The Committee would be struck by the previous General Assembly and would represent all regions of the Church. The Committee would be expected to see that each region of the Church was represented by a nomination, e.g. The West; Ontario region; Quebec and the Maritimes Provinces.

- (2) That each voter be given three choices to be marked 1, 2, 3, on the ballot paper. That the first be worth 5 points, the second choice worth 3 points, the third choice be worth 1 point. That the man with the highest number of votes and a clear majority be declared Moderator designate.
- (3) That if a clear majority is not achieved on the first ballot, a second vote be taken involving only the two men with the largest number of votes.

S.S. Marie, Ontario.

Clerk of Presbytery.

NO. 2—SYNOD OF HAMILTON AND LONDON

Re: BASIC STIPEND
(Referred to the Administrative Council)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the present basic stipend for ordained ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Canada is only $4,900 plus $500 for travel, and

WHEREAS, newly ordained persons entering the Ministry of the Word and Sacraments acknowledge this amount as inadequate for their needs, and

WHEREAS, this basic stipend has not been increased in 1971 or in 1972 in spite of the escalating cost of living, and

WHEREAS, the remuneration of other church workers is also considered inadequate.

THEREFORE, the Synod of Hamilton and London humbly overture the General Assembly to immediately authorize the basic stipend to be increased by $600 a year, with the salaries of deaconesses increased by a like amount and those of other professional be reviewed accordingly, or to do otherwise for this purpose as in its wisdom the General Assembly deems best.

Re: CENTENNIAL YEAR
(Referred to the Board of World Mission)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, our denomination in 1974-75 will be commemorating its Centennial as the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and

WHEREAS, this Synod recognizes that this jubilee period offers a unique opportunity for the study of our Church's mission during the past one hundred years as well as contemporary concerns and involvements,

THEREFORE, the Synod of Hamilton and London overture the General Assembly to authorize the Missionary Education Committee of the Board of World Missions to develop study materials for Centennial Year under the theme of "The Mission of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, Past, Present and Future."

Re: ABORTION
(Referred to the Board of Evangelism and Social Action)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the number of abortions performed every year increases radically; and
WHEREAS, the increase is so drastic that it would seem that the unborn are much more endangered than are prospective mothers; and
WHEREAS, existing legislation may often be abused;

THEREFORE, we, the Presbytery of Temiskaming, overtures the Venerable, the General Assembly to take steps to endorse and support the national organization Alliance For Life, 17 Queen St. E., Toronto 1, Ontario.

Re: PROHIBITING ADVERTISING OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES
(Referred to the Board of Evangelism and Social Action)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the Federal Government, in response to efforts of the Department of Health and Welfare, enacted legislation prohibiting the advertising of tobacco products; and

WHEREAS, it is also required that warning of the dangers of cigarette smoking be printed on all packages; and

WHEREAS, this came about because of the dangers to health (particularly lung cancer); and

WHEREAS, we realize that legislation cannot guarantee health, none the less good legislation can be an effective instrument; and

WHEREAS, the consumption of alcohol is also a danger to health (e.g. alcoholism and also such illnesses as ulcers and liver cirrhosis are also often the result of the excessive consumption of alcohol); and

WHEREAS, it also frequently contributes to family breakdowns; and

WHEREAS, modern advertising glorifies the consumption of alcoholic beverages, even going so far as to imply that it is food.

THEREFORE, we the Presbytery of Lindsay-Peterborough ask the General Assembly to urge the Department of Health and Welfare to initiate legislation:

(1) prohibiting the advertising of all alcoholic beverages, and

(2) requiring the inclusion of a warning to public health on all containers.

Re: CONFESSING THE CHRISTIAN FAITH TODAY
(Referred to the Committee on Church Doctrine)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church has since the time of Reformation held that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are God's word, and therefore,

"infallible truth" (Westminster Confession of Faith chapter one, section four) and
 WHEREAS, our church is engaged in preparing a confession of our faith in contemporary terms; and
 WHEREAS, in the study booklet "What it means to confess the Christian Faith today" various writers indicate their disagreement with the presently confessed understanding of Scripture;
 THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Miramichi humbly overtures the Venerable, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada:
 1. to reaffirm our belief that by the grace of God, the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, as originally given, were not mixed with error; and
 2. to assert that the Scriptures have been preserved by God's grace so that the Bible as presently held is sufficiently close to the original text to be dependable as "... the only rule to direct us how we may glorify and enjoy him." and
 3. to declare that we are not free to correct scripture in any way, other than in the determination of the original text by good documentary evidence; Or to do otherwise as General Assembly in its wisdom may deem best."

Re: BASIC STIPENDS (Referred to the Administrative Council)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the basic salary of ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Canada is only $4,900. (plus $500. travel and increments);
 WHEREAS, this is insufficient especially for those just entering the ministry;
 WHEREAS, the cost of living has increased over the past few years, at least 6% per year;

WHEREAS, no increases have been authorized for 1973, 1974, 1975;
 It is humbly overtured by the Presbytery of West Toronto to the Venerable the General Assembly:

1. To authorize the Administrative Council to increase the basic salary $300. per year for the years 1973, 1974, 1975, as soon as funds become available;
2. To authorize that this increase be applied to deaconesses, women church workers and catechists on a proportional basis;
3. To instruct the Administrative Council to set this as their top priority in each of the above-mentioned years;

Or to do otherwise for this object what to their wisdom may seem best.

Re: GROUP INSURANCE (Referred to the Administrative Council)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the revised group insurance Plan introduced on July 1, 1971, received almost 100% acceptance by the ministers of our church, and

WHEREAS, Presbyteries are continuing their Group Insurance coverage and other Presbyteries are taking our new Group Insurance Coverage, and
 WHEREAS, we believe this indicates a desire for additional coverage to what is offered by Group Insurance Plan 6, and
 WHEREAS, it would be cheaper to obtain this coverage for the ministers of the church on a national basis rather than on a Presbytery basis, and
 WHEREAS, we consider $150.00 per month is inadequate income replacement for a minister unable to work because of sickness or accident, and
 WHEREAS, we consider $300.00 per month, along with Canada Pension Income Replacement, would be reasonably adequate income replacement for ministers unable to work because of sickness or accident,
 THEREFORE, the Presbytery of East Toronto overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to direct the Administrative Council to revise its Group Insurance coverage to include the above mentioned increase, or do other for this matter what in its wisdom it deems to be best.

Re: J. B. MACLEAN ESTATE (Referred to the Administrative Council)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the late Colonel John Bayne Maclean, founder of the Maclean-Hunter publishing Company died during 1950 and in his will bequeathed approximately 250 acres of land on which there are five houses and other buildings together with other negotiable assets, principally stock in the Company, to the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and

WHEREAS, it was the intent of the late Col. Maclean that after certain specific bequests had been satisfied, "to pay and transfer the remaining residue of my estate to the Presbyterian Church in Canada to be held by the said Church as an endowment fund and the net income derived therefrom to be expended by the said Church in maintaining and developing the several properties at Crieff hereinbefore directed to be transferred to the said Church as a model and example to other communities and in the expectation that the said properties may eventually be revenue producing" and further, "If there is any income from the remaining residue of my estate not required for the aforesaid purposes same shall be used for the general purposes of the Presbyterian Church in Canada", and

WHEREAS, over the past twenty-three years the Church has made little use of this property nor has it maintained or developed it in accordance with the wishes and intention of the late Colonel Maclean as expressed in his will, and

WHEREAS, this property is very centrally located in Southern Ontario and is within fifty miles of the Presbyteries of Hamilton, Guelph-Saugeen, Brampton, Paris, West Toronto and Niagara, as well as parts of other Presbyteries, (32,091 households, 162 congregations, 51,132 members), and

WHEREAS, this property has a great potential as a retreat, a conference centre, and a recreation centre (both summer and winter), and in so doing would provide employment, much of which could be for students in the general maintenance and development of the property.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Presbytery of Hamilton request and urge the Venerable 99th General Assembly to proceed as expeditiously as possible with the use and development of this property using funds provided for this purpose and as intended by the late Colonel Maclean, or to do otherwise as the General Assembly may deem best.

Re: WINE AT GENERAL ASSEMBLY SACRAMENTS
(Referred to the Board of Evangelism and Social Action)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, it is customary to observe the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at General Assemblies; and
WHEREAS, sometimes the wine that is used is fermented; and
WHEREAS, the use of alcoholic beverages is the cause of much unhappiness, and of the destruction of lives and homes in our society; and
WHEREAS, it would seem that the only sure deterrent for many persons against becoming alcoholics would be absolutely total abstinence; and
WHEREAS, there are many Ministers, Elders and lay people within our Church who do not believe that the use of alcoholic beverages is morally justifiable under any circumstances; and
WHEREAS, some commissioners to General Assembly are therefore excluded from full participation in the Sacrament for reasons of conscience; and
WHEREAS, it is most desirable that the General Assembly set an example in strict moral standards;
THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Cape Breton respectfully overtures the Venerable the General Assembly that the General Assembly establish a policy that the wine used for sacramental purposes at General Assembly be not fermented; or do otherwise as the General Assembly in its wisdom deems best.

Re: SUSPENSION OF FURTHER RESTRUCTURING IMPLEMENTATIONS
(Referred to the Administrative Council and Committee on Organization and Planning)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, present efforts to restructure the boards and committees at the General Assembly were born out of a concern for renewal of the Church at and from the grass roots; and
WHEREAS, the grass roots issue is whether the local church will move ahead with purpose and integrity; and
WHEREAS, many ministers need practical help such as colleagues in leadership; and
WHEREAS, the main question is "How can the General Assembly best help the local church in its struggle to move forward"; and

WHEREAS, the Organization and Planning Committee has consulted with the Presbyteries in 1973 and thus gained valuable information about the concerns of the local churches and presbyteries; and
WHEREAS, there is concern that restructuring be functional and pastoral as well as administrative,

THEREFORE, we, the Presbytery of Montreal, humbly overture the Venerable the General Assembly to suspend further restructuring implementations for a period of one year so that the Organization and Planning Committee may continue to consult with the presbyteries to keep planning and restructuring relevant to and consistent with the needs and goals of the local church; or that the General Assembly do otherwise to this end as in its wisdom it deems best.

Re: RENTAL ALLOWANCE FOR WOMEN WORKERS
(Referred to the Board of World Mission and the Administrative Council)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the lack of adequate provision in the salary of women workers serving the Church under the Board of World Mission, for costs of housing and accommodation, sometimes imposes undesirable living restrictions, or alternatively forces these workers to commit an inordinate portion of their salary for accommodation; and
WHEREAS, unsatisfactory living situations very likely affects the quality of work rendered to the Church, as well as reflect on the Church as an employer; and
WHEREAS, the Board of World Mission has at least 3 different levels of rental allowance for its people living and serving in the same community; and
WHEREAS, the Church, like industry and the professions, is concerned about reducing or eliminating discriminatory practices in their personnel policy in favour of those which are fair and supportive to all who serve under their salary jurisdiction;
THEREFORE, we humbly overture the Venerable the General Assembly to direct the Board of World Mission and/or the Administrative Council to take steps to bring policy regarding rental allowances for all personnel serving under the Board of World Mission into a unified policy which is particularly sensitive to the varying costs of accommodation in different areas, or to do so in their wisdom at they deem best.

(Referred to the Administrative Council)

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the present basic stipend for ordained ministers is only $4,900 plus $500 for travel; and

WHEREAS, this amount is not adequate for newly ordained ministers facing heavy expenditures involved in starting their ministry; and
 WHEREAS, there was no increase in the basic stipend in 1971 and 1972, and none has been authorized for 1973 and 1974; and
 WHEREAS, the cost of living continues to rise at the rate of at least 4% each year; and
 WHEREAS, the salaries of deaconesses, women church-workers and catechists are inadequate also;
 THEREFORE, the Synod of Toronto and Kingston humbly overtures the General Assembly to authorize the Administrative Council to increase, as soon as funds become available, the basic stipend of ordained ministers by the amount of $500 per annum and the salaries of deaconesses, women church-workers and catechists by a proportional amount; or to do otherwise for this purpose as in its wisdom the General Assembly deems best.

Re: REPRESENTATION OF MULTIPLE POINT CHARGES

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:
 WHEREAS, the Rules of the Church state that, "when a charge consists of two or more congregations having separate Sessions, such Sessions shall be regarded as one for the purpose of representation in the Church Courts." Book of Forms. The Kirk Session, 131 (b);
 AND WHEREAS, on the frontier necessity may dictate that a charge be formed of two or more congregations separated by such mileage that it is not possible for regular communication by the members of the congregations with one another, and therefore, not possible for geographical reasons, for one elder to represent the congregations' Sessions at the Church Courts; (i.e. Cochrane and Kapuskasing; separated by 78 miles of Ontario's northland);
 AND WHEREAS, the concerns of these congregations may be highly different in nature because of their background; i.e. Cochrane and Kapuskasing, where the one is a congregation existing for more than 50 years, concerned with the problems of addressing itself to the preaching of the Gospel to the people of this day; and the other is a new congregation whose concerns must be for the gathering of Presbyterian people within the community, preaching the Gospel to that community, and attending to all the problems of organizing itself to serve Christ within The Presbyterian Church In Canada, including considering matters such as building, etc.;
 AND WHEREAS, to follow the existing rule of the Church must disenfranchise one of the involved congregations (or more) of its (their) Presbyterian heritage of rights and privileges in the Courts of the Church;

AND WHEREAS, it is the nature of our church (The Presbyterian Church in Canada) to respond to the nature of the frontier in such a way as to further the work of the preaching of Christ's Gospel;

THEREFORE, it is humbly overtured by the Presbytery of Temiskaming that the General Assembly reconsider its ruling regarding the representation of multiple point charges where for such reasons of geography and background one ruling elder cannot possibly represent all of the congregations involved.

Re: THE OFFICE OF MODERATOR OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the office of Moderator of the General Assembly in recent years has had in practice associated with the duty of presiding at the sedertants of the court, a recognition of and giving honour to a minister who has been judged to have made a notable contribution to the life and work of his Church; and WHEREAS, the office has come to include the responsibility during the months following the Assembly of representing "The Presbyterian Church in Canada", not only at official government and interdenominational functions, but also in association with Synods, Presbyteries and congregations; and

WHEREAS, it is not to be expected that the individual whom the Church chooses in honour will in every case be an experienced and skilful chairman, and an enthusiastic and indefatigable Church promotion agent, such as the important duties assigned call for;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Guelph and Saugeen humbly overtures the Venerable, the General Assembly to study anew and redefine the office of its moderator through referral for consideration and report to its Committee on Organization and Planning, or to take such action in the matter as in its wisdom it may deem best.

Re: PAYMENT OF INCREMENTS

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of 1967 authorized the payment of stipend increments for years of service; and

WHEREAS, the Administrative Council defines "service" in such a way as to exclude ministers who are engaged in full-time post-graduate study; and

WHEREAS, this interpretation by the Administrative Council discriminates against the minister who seeks to be better qualified academically to fulfil his function as a teaching elder; and

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church has always encouraged her ministers to attain a high degree of scholarship; and

WHEREAS, one minister, now serving within the bounds of the Presbytery of Algoma and North Bay, stands to be penalized a total of $1,500 through the loss of increments for having interrupted his pastoral service in order to obtain one year of post-graduate study at Knox College, Toronto;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Algoma and North Bay humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to rule that a minister who withdraws from the pastorate to pursue a course of post-graduate study at an accredited theological college shall be entitled, on returning to the pastorate, to full stipend increments for the period of study; and further, to decide that, in terms of this ruling, all ministers who have suffered the loss of increments shall be fully compensated or to do otherwise for this object that which in its wisdom the General Assembly may deem best.

Re: STIPENDS AND ALLOWANCES

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the 97th General Assembly directed that the term "stipend" as approved by the 92nd General Assembly be amended by changing the phrase "with a free house or rented apartment" to read "a free heated house or rented apartment"; and

WHEREAS, the Administrative Council on considering this directive "did not consider it to have the priority of other items in its budget" and deferred implementation until funds become available; and

WHEREAS, the payment of heating costs continues to be a severe strain on the income of ministers who are limited to the basic stipend and allowances; and

WHEREAS, many ministers are sustained in the ministry today through the earnings of their wives; and

WHEREAS, there seems to be little likelihood that funds will become available in the foreseeable future to provide an adequate basic stipend and adequate allowances;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Algoma and North Bay humbly overtures the General Assembly to recognize the ministry as a part-time vocation and authorize ministers to supplement their stipends by income obtained from secular employment; or to do otherwise for this object that which in its wisdom the General Assembly may deem best.

Re: BASIC SALARIESTo the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the present basic salary for Ordained Ministers is only $4,900 per year plus $500 toward the upkeep of an automobile or other modes of travel; and
 WHEREAS, the continually escalating cost of living makes the amount totally inadequate, if not immoral; and

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church in Canada has not allowed the needs of its employees to be properly considered before other far less important demands on the funds of the Church are allotted; and

WHEREAS, every man and woman, especially in the Christian Church, ought to receive adequate reimbursement to maintain a decent existence without constant monetary worry;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Algoma and North Bay overtures the General Assembly to authorize immediately,

(a) the Administrative Council to increase the basic salary for Ordained Ministers to $7,500 per year, and that this be given top-priority in the use of funds; and

(b) permit the present rates of increment to continue as they are based on Service and this beyond the new proposed basic salary of $7,500 per year;

OR, that they do otherwise for this object what to their wisdom may seem best.

Re: ELECTION OF THE MODERATORTo the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the present system of choosing a Moderator of the Assembly by presenting a slate of more than two candidates may result in the Moderator being elected by a minority of those voting; and

WHEREAS, the public declarations of the Moderator are taken to represent the mind of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and determine in a large degree the general impression in Canada concerning our church; and

WHEREAS, the church at large has usually no opportunity of knowing the minds of the candidates concerning important contemporary issues;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of East Toronto humbly overtures the Venerable, the General Assembly, to revise its present method of electing a Moderator, or that the General Assembly do otherwise as in its wisdom it may deem best.

Re: SALARIES FOR GENERAL SECRETARIESTo the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the General Assembly in its wisdom has agreed that the senior posts in the Boards of World Mission and Congregational Life shall be for a five year term; and

WHEREAS, the Church should make it possible for any and all persons serving the Church to be free to accept a Call to serve the national Church; and

WHEREAS, the present salary level for national executive staff is no longer comparative with many of the larger parishes; and

WHEREAS, the cost of living in the Metro Toronto area is significantly higher than in other parts of Canada;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Guelph and Saugeen humbly overtures the venerable the General Assembly to agree to the following changes in policy regarding the terms of service of Board Secretaries:

(1) that General Secretaries be invited to serve at a salary level that is not less than his/her present salary and benefits in Church service; and

(2) that a "Revolving Fund" be established to make available a down payment of approximately $10,000 for housing during the period of the appointment. This amount to be loaned on an interest free basis, and to be repaid to the fund within six months of the termination of employment; and

(3) that a scale of regular yearly increments be established, which will be in addition to an annual adjustment of salary and benefits in the light of cost of living increases; and

(4) that a "Wage Stabilization Fund" be established to guarantee that the salary level of the retiring Board Secretary be maintained, where necessary, at his/her retiring level for a period of up to two years, in the event that immediate employment in the Church is not available at a comparable level.

OF THE BOOK OF FORMS*

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the Ninety-Eighth General Assembly has enacted a Declaratory Act to be appended as a footnote to Section 176 (1) (e) of the Book of Forms, providing that a significant change in status or abilities of a minister on the constituent roll of a presbytery shall lead to his name being placed on the Appendix to the Roll; and

WHEREAS, certain presbyteries have a large number of constituent members named by special resolution of Assembly;

THE PRAYER of this overture is that the Venerable the General Assembly enact that any minister under appointment by Assembly to a Board of the Church, or any minister appointed to a full time office by such a Board, be automatically named to the Constituent Roll of the Presbytery in which the office of his employment is situated, and that any change of function within the general terms of appointments indicated under (1) above be not construed as a "significant change in status" in terms of the Declaratory Act aforementioned, or that the Assembly do whatever in its wisdom it deems best.

WHEREAS, in the years 1974-1975 The Presbyterian Church in Canada will be celebrating its one hundredth anniversary of service; and

WHEREAS, the Government of Canada has frequently issued postage stamps commemorating important historical events in the life of our nation;

THEREFORE, we the Presbytery of Vancouver Island humbly overture the Venerable the General Assembly to seek the issue by the Government of Canada of a postage stamp of popular denomination, e.g. 8 cents, to commemorate the One Hundredth Anniversary of the establishment of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, or to do otherwise as the General Assembly in its wisdom may deem best.

Re: FEASIBILITY OF MOVING EXPENSE FUND

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the congregations of the Presbyterian Church in Canada are scattered across several thousands of miles; and

WHEREAS, moving a minister from one parish to a distant parish entails an expense which is burdensome, especially to smaller congregations; and

WHEREAS, this state of affairs lessens the effectiveness of the call system by restricting the choice of congregations in calling a minister, and the mobility of ministers in seeking and answering calls; and furthermore,

WHEREAS, an annual assessment by all Presbyteries of 25 to 50 cents per member from all congregations within their bounds would raise a national fund of $45,650. to $91,300 (1971 membership); and

WHEREAS in 1971 there were some sixty-two services of induction and/or recognition reported by Presbyteries, for which (if national fund had been operating) an average sum of $735. to $1,470. would have been available to defray all moving expenses;

THEREFORE, we the Presbytery of Vancouver Island respectfully overture the Venerable the General Assembly to instruct the Administrative Council to study the feasibility of a moving expense fund to which all congregations would contribute annually, and if found feasible, to submit a plan for its operation to the 100th General Assembly for its approval; or to do otherwise for this object what it their wisdom may seem best.

Re: SYNODICAL MISSIONARY FOR SYNOD OF SASKATCHEWAN

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the Synod of Saskatchewan is so wide spread that it is impractical, if not impossible, to have its Presbyteries served by the Synodical Missionaries in Alberta and British Columbia, whose work loads are already onerous; and

WHEREAS, there are vacancies from time to time of varying length, which have a depressing deteriorating effect upon the congregations; and

WHEREAS, those Synod Convenors who have been serving faithfully during the absence of a Synodical Missionary just cannot spare the time and energy away from their own congregations; and

WHEREAS, there is a definite need to keep in touch with congregations which have suffered from lengthy vacancies; and

WHEREAS, it seems clear that the alternative to having the Synodical Missionary is to accept a slow death to the Presbyterian Church in Saskatchewan by attrition; and

WHEREAS, a part of the reason for short-term Ministeries in this Synod is that the nearest fellow teaching Elder may be many miles distant, a distance that can be bridged by the regular visits from a Synodical Missionary; and

THEREFORE, the Synod of Saskatchewan, humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to appoint a Synodical Missionary to the Synod of Saskatchewan, to be in office not later than the first of January, 1974, or to do in its wisdom what seems best.

I certify this Overture as a true and faithful extract of minutes, from the Minutes of the Annual Meeting of the Synod of Saskatchewan.

Re: METHOD OF RECEIVING NOMINATIONS FOR MODERATOR OF GENERAL ASSEMBLYTo the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the General Assembly did enact legislation affecting the manner of receiving nominations for the office of Moderator, and this legislation was subject to review after five years, which "trial" period is now drawing to an end; and

WHEREAS, the enactment had at no time the unanimous approval of Commissioners to General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, some ministers and elders question the value of opening the opportunity to nominate to all Presbyteries, as being in effect a diminution of the traditional right of any court to select its own Moderator; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly as presently constituted is not a court in which all ministers and elders on constituent rolls of Presbytery are commissioners but only "one in six of the ministers", and a similar number of elders; it appears that opening the right of nomination to the Presbyteries generally is an invasion of the rights of commissioners to any given Assembly, modifying the historic right of the Assembly to choose its own Moderator and, as related to that, the right to make its own nominations for Moderator; and

WHEREAS, the "Pre-nomination notices" tend to restrict nominations from the floor of Assembly, and effectively diminish the "color", anticipation and spontaneity, that normally attend the election of a Moderator approximates an infringement on the historic rights of commissioners as compared to "representatives of Presbyteries"; and

WHEREAS, ministers and elders are early each year confronted with a variable list of prospective candidate nominees, some of whom have scarcely been heard of before by many elders, and some ministers, and the "personality perspectives" accompanying these names are not always helpful toward wise decisions

THEREFORE, the Reverend the Presbytery of Edmonton respectfully overtures to Venerable the General Assembly:

"To enact such legislation as may be necessary to terminate this 'electioneering' by Presbyters who will not be members of particular Assemblies, in order to return to the former, direct method of receiving nominations of Moderator from the floor of a sitting Assembly, to the end that the Office of Moderator may be restored to its traditional and respected role, and that the historic rights and privileges of 'commissioners' may be properly safeguarded, or, to do otherwise to this end as the Venerable the General Assembly, may in its wisdom deem best."

ADDITION TO REPORT OF THE BOARD OF KNOX COLLEGE

To the Venerable the 99th General Assembly:

Recommendation 1

The last General Assembly approved Recommendation 1 of the Board of Knox College (A. & P. 1972, pp 43-44, 471), which requested "that consideration be given by the Administrative Council, in consultation with the Boards of the three Colleges, to a change of policy which would permit each College Board to have the authority to set Faculty salaries and that a report on the matter be made to the 1973 General Assembly".

Since the Board of Knox College understands that the matter is under consideration by the Administrative Council, the Board respectfully requests that a decision be made as soon as reasonably convenient.

Recommendation 2

Last General Assembly also approved Recommendation 2 of the Board of Knox College (A. & P. 1972, pp 99, 471), which read as follows — "that the Board of Knox College be authorized to appoint an Instructor of Field Education, Recruitment and Registration, with the authorization contingent upon the General Assembly providing the funds for the Board to pay the salary of the incumbent".

The Board was gratified by the action of the Assembly, and was encouraged in the hope that some financial provision might be made for such a Director, if not a full-time Director, at least a part-time one, but to date no provision has been made.

To provide background information on the importance of such a Director, the pertinent paragraph in the report of 1972 is herewith repeated — "The wide range and variety of courses taken by our students in the Toronto School of Theology, and the processing of the results, have greatly increased the amount of clerical work. At the same time the needs of the Church for graduates in theology who are adequately qualified in such practical areas as Christian Education, Church Administration, Urban Training, Pastoral Care and Counselling, have emphasized the importance of supervised field work experience. With fewer opportunities for summer mission fields, and a deeper awareness of the complex society in which they will be ministering, our students are seeking more knowledge and experience in these practical areas. Meanwhile the recruitment of the best qualified students continues as a steady responsibility."

The Board would therefore respectfully emphasize the importance of something being done to meet this urgent need in the College, in whole or in part.

Recommendation 3

At the regular meeting of the Board of Knox College, held on May 3, 1973, the decision of the Administrative Council to freeze authorized expenditures at the 1972 level was again discussed, and its implications considered.

The Board now, therefore, requests the General Assembly to support the following recommendation: "That the General Assembly approve the request of the Board of Knox College for sufficient funds from the budget of the Church for the calendar years 1973 and 1974 — of $132,000.00 and $138,000.00, respectively, in order that the College may adequately and efficiently carry out its responsibility to the Church for the education of the ministry."

G. B. MALLION,
Secretary.

A. W. R. ADAIR,
Chairman.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

The Administrative Council requests permission of the General Assembly to make the following supplementary report.

OVERTURE #19, 1973 PRESBYTERY OF MONTREAL, RE SUSPENSION OF FURTHER RESTRUCTURING IMPLEMENTATIONS

The Council reported above that this Overture had been referred to the Organization and Planning Committee, and in Recommendation #34 the Council requested permission to continue study of this item. The Council has now approved the report of the Organization and Planning Committee on this Overture. The report is as follows:

"Consultation with members of Montreal Presbytery to clarify the intent of the prayer of the overture has revealed that the presbytery is principally desirous of delaying implementation of the establishing of a Board of Ministry, for one year so as provide opportunity for further study as to how such a Board would function in relation to ministers, congregations and presbyteries.

The Organization and Planning Committee is in basic agreement with the reasons given in the overture, and with the desire of members of Montreal Presbytery that there be a fuller definition of how this Board will relate to the presbyteries and the congregational life of the Church in carrying out its work. The Committee has provided for this concern in recommendation 7(e), of the Organization and Planning Report where the Board is required during its preparatory first year of work to consult with presbyteries concerning its policies and basis of operation.

We believe that the Board of Ministry itself should have a direct part in consulting with the presbyteries on these matters before becoming operational. Experience in setting up the Board of Congregational Life confirms the wisdom of the procedure, of providing a year or more of preparatory work and consultation before becoming operational."

RECOMMENDATION

41. That the above statement be adopted as a reply to Overture #19, 1973.

ORGANIZATION AND PLANNING

As mentioned above in the original report under the heading "Organization and Planning", the Executive considered the report of this committee on Presbytery and Synod restructuring, and agreed that Council concur in the request of Organization and Planning that the General Assembly send this item down to Presbyteries and Synods for study and report.

RECOMMENDATION

42. That the action of the Council on the report of Organization and Planning anent Presbytery and Synod restructuring be received as information.

ONTARIO PROPERTY TAX CREDIT

There is considerable confusion as to how ministers relate to this Tax Credit. Formerly the refund was made to the owner of the property, but in 1973 the benefit was received as a reduction in the Income Tax payment. This makes it much more cumbersome for the benefit to go to the congregational treasury. If such were done it would necessitate some disclosure to the Board of Managers of each congregation why the sum involved is what it is. The Council considers this information is of a confidential nature. The amount of the sum involved is governed by personal matters, such as the number of dependents, medical and charitable donations, and all other personal items connected with Income Tax reporting these days. Therefore the Administrative Council believes that this type of Tax Credit, wherever applicable in Canada, should be a refund to the minister, and not to the congregation.

RECOMMENDATION

43. That the Ontario Property Tax Credit, and similar tax credit in other provinces, be a refund to the minister, and not to the congregation.

NEW PENSION PLAN

As submitted in our Report to General Assembly, the Council has given careful study to the New Pension Plan, and out of that study has come to some conclusions. Although the proposed New Pension Plan will place considerable extra expense on the Funds of the Church — both General Assembly, and Congregational Budgets, the Council is persuaded the increased benefits are needed by the members of the Fund, and has agreed to recommend that the new plan be implemented on January 1st, 1974.

RECOMMENDATION

44. That the General Assembly adopt Recommendation #2 of the Pension Board report.

PENSION FOR EXECUTIVE STAFF

The Council notes that under the New Pension Plan the Church will be providing 10% of salary of ordained staff in the Church Office, Colleges, etc., but non-ordained staff providing similar services will be covered only to the extent of 5% (less Canada Pension) of salary. There are at present fewer than 10 persons in this category who are paid on the same salary scale as ordained staff, and performing comparable administrative duties, and the Council believes these should be covered by the New Pension Plan.

RECOMMENDATION

45. That non-ordained members of Executive Staff employed by our Church be covered under the New Pension Plan, effective January 1st, 1974.

PENSION COVERAGE FOR OTHER STAFF MEMBERS

The Council considers that when changes are being made in our Pension Plans for Church Employees a study should be made of all persons employed within the Church to determine if they have adequate pension coverage, and the Council has agreed to ask the Pension Board to make this study with the hope that a full report can be made to the 100th General Assembly.

RECOMMENDATION

46. That the report on study of Pension coverage for other staff members be received as information.

INCREASE IN BASIC STIPEND

The Council notes that the Board of World Mission is recommending increases in stipends for 1974 and 1975. The Council has studied this recommendation of the Board of World Mission and proposes as follows:

RECOMMENDATION

47. That an increase be made in basic stipends for each of the years 1974 and 1975 of $300.00 for ministers, and that a proportionate system of increase for other church workers, including Synod Superintendents of Missions, should be maintained, the increases for each year to be effective January 1st.

ADJUSTMENTS IN SALARIES OF OVERSEAS STAFF

The Council notes that Recommendation #2 in the report of the Board of World Mission deals with adjustments of the overseas salaries schedule in order that there may be a single salary scale regardless of training or job assignment.

Although the Council is in sympathy with the changes recommended by the Board there are some areas that need further study, and the Council makes the following recommendation:

RECOMMENDATION

48. That the Council be authorized to implement Recommendation #2 of the Report of the Board of World Mission at a date to be determined after consultation with the Board.

HOUSING ALLOWANCE FOR DEACONESSES

The Council has had under consideration Overture #22, 1973 Presbytery of East Toronto, re Rental Allowance for Women Workers. The Council reported above under Recommendation #35 that this overture would be considered further and reported on to the 99th General Assembly. This study has been carried on in consultation with the Board of World Mission. As stated elsewhere in the Report of the Council to this Assembly the Council is seeking to do away with reference to Housing Allowance in the future. Our study confirms the need for financial assistance to deaconesses, and the Council is prepared to recommend a salary increase to deaconesses of $1,200.00 per year, effective January 1st, 1974. It is understood that the above increase will include the increases for 1974 and 1975 recommended in Recommendation #46 above.

It is also understood with regard to overseas staff that the Board of World Mission would be permitted to adjust salaries within the salary scale where housing is now being provided.

RECOMMENDATION

49. That an increase of $1,200.00 per year for deaconesses be granted effective January 1st, 1974 in the terms outlined above.

INTERPRETATION OF SECTION 200(i) BOOK OF FORMS RESPECTING NON-VIABLE CONGREGATIONS

The Council considered that the basic problem is to determine what procedure would provide the maximum benefit to the Church as a whole, when a congregation which, while formerly viable and self-supporting, has been deemed by Presbytery to have reached the end of its mission and usefulness in a community and is no longer capable of financing its own affairs.

Under present procedure, there are two methods of terminating the corporate life of a congregation faced with the situation described above.

1. The Presbytery may decide that the congregation be dissolved. By the Federal Act of 1939 relating to The Presbyterian Church in Canada (Section 10), it was enacted that the property of congregations ceasing to exist be vested in The Trustee Board.
2. The congregation may request Presbytery that it be amalgamated with another congregation, and Presbytery may decide accordingly.

It has been customary for Presbyteries to permit a congregation to take all its assets and liabilities with it into an amalgamation with another congregation.

COMMENTS ON PRESENT PRACTICES

1. Under present dissolution procedures,
 - (a) The overall interest of the Church would seem to be well served, subject to possible consideration as to whether or not all net assets should be made available to the Presbytery concerned, or whether some portion should be allocated to other Presbyteries. For a guide as to how net assets could be allocated among Presbyteries possibly a survey might be made to determine where former members of the congregation have transferred their membership — i.e. how many stayed in the same Presbytery and how many moved to other Presbyteries.

- (b) Sometimes, and possibly currently, the view may exist that a stigma is attached to dissolution. The opinion of the Council is that the idea of a stigma arising out of dissolution is a misconception.
2. Under present amalgamation procedures, particularly when non-viable congregations are concerned, it would appear questionable, in at least some cases, as to whether the Church as a whole is receiving the maximum possible benefits.
 - (a) For example, when a congregation requests permission to amalgamate with another congregation, the decision to amalgamate is usually made by a few people, who, in the case of the congregation concerned, may have contributed only a small percentage toward the assets which, by custom, they now have control. In the case of the congregation to which the move is being made, it may be that a decision to take in the congregation concerned is influenced by the amount of net assets which it will bring with it. A further consideration is that a majority of the congregation concerned, voting for amalgamation, may in fact be a few people. Your Committee suggests that the remaining members of a congregation, together with the congregation receiving any assets resulting from amalgamation, would not necessarily make an unbiased decision on amalgamation based on achieving the maximum benefit to the work of the Church as a whole.
 - (b) Under current amalgamation procedures, custom has decreed that the assets of a congregation belong to the remaining members of a congregation. The Council submits that when a congregation is no longer viable and self-supporting, in effect a congregation no longer exists and, accordingly, disposition of the assets concerned should no longer be under the control of the remaining members.

Based on the foregoing considerations, The Council submits that a change in existing procedure should be instituted forthwith to ensure that assets of congregations no longer viable and self-supporting be dealt with in such a manner as to produce maximum benefits to the overall Church as set out in the recommendation. In making this recommendation the Council is conscious of the need for individual viable and self-supporting congregations continuing to control all of their assets, and it would in no way wish to infer that the recommendation now being made would in any way change this long-standing concept of ownership by congregations.

RECOMMENDATION

50. That the interpretation of the first paragraph of Section 200(i) page 50, in the Book of Forms with respect to non-viable congregations shall be as follows:

"That congregations once viable and self-supporting but which are in the opinion of Presbytery (subject to appeal to Synod & General Assembly) no longer able to finance their own affairs, be given the option by Presbytery of either

1. being dissolved
2. uniting with another congregation as to membership and having all of its assets vested in The Trustee Board with realization and distribution of the assets to be carried out by The Trustee Board, to the order of the Administrative Council and the Presbytery concerned."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FRANK WHILSMITH,
Chairman.

DONALD C. MACDONALD,
Secretary.

Memorial Records

MR. HAMILTON CASSELS, M.B.E., Q.C.

Mr. Hamilton Cassels, M.B.E., Q.C., was born in Toronto August 1st, 1895, and in the same city he died on March 24th, 1973. He was the son of Mr. Hamilton Cassels, K.C., who for many years had been Chairman of the Foreign Mission Board of The Presbyterian Church in Canada. It was in this church background that young Mr. Cassels was reared.

Mr. Cassels was educated at the Toronto Model School, Ridley College, St. Catharines, the University of Toronto and Osgoode Law School. He interrupted his education to go overseas as an officer with the 48th Highlanders. He was twice wounded and was awarded the M.B.E. He maintained connection with the battalion and at the end of the Second World War was colonel of the reserve unit.

Mr. Cassels was one of Canada's foremost rugby players — playing with the University of Toronto team and with the Toronto Argonauts. He had a close connection with Ridley College marrying Miss Nannette Miller, the daughter of Ridley's first Headmaster and later becoming President of Ridley's Board. He was a Bencher of the Upper Canada Law Society and a former President of the County of York Law Association. At various times he was a director of the Toronto Branch of the Red Cross, a director of the Toronto General Burying Grounds, a vice-president of the Dominion Insurance Corporation, a director of the Thomas Meadows and Company Canada Limited, a Past Master of Ionic Masonic Lodge Toronto, a director of the Argonaut Football Club, an executive of the Canadian Football League in 1943 President and a member of the Grey Cup Dinner Committee.

In 1920 Mr. Cassels joined the law firm founded by his father and his Uncle Richard. For thirty years he was legal Counsel for the University of Toronto. In 1935 he was appointed General Counsel for The Presbyterian Church in Canada. He served on the Committee on Armed Forces Chaplaincy Services and was Chairman of the Special Gifts Committee of the National Development Fund. He was an elder of St. Andrew's Church Toronto.

Surviving Mr. Cassels are Mrs. Cassels, one son Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Q.C., a member of his father's law firm, one daughter Mrs. Katharine Barton and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in St. Andrew's Church Toronto conducted by the Reverend Doctor H. D. Stewart. Thousands of men and women paid tribute to the memory of a good and a great man. Burial took place in St. James' Cemetery Toronto.

Mr. Cassels was regarded as one of the ablest of his profession and was held in high esteem not only within his profession but by many of every walk of life. We cannot be too grateful for the services which he rendered our Church. No problem was too great or too small for him. He customarily went the second mile in the work of the Church. He was one of the great men of our time.

SYNOD OF THE ATLANTIC PROVINCES

THE REVEREND DONALD ARCHIE MacKINNON

The Presbytery of Pictou suffered the great loss of a faithful pastor of many years, Donald Archie MacKinnon, after some time of illness, on July 1st, 1972.

Born in Gabarus, Cape Breton County, Nova Scotia, 85 years ago, Mr. MacKinnon had retired from the active ministry, but never from his interest in Presbytery, Synod, and the Church as a whole. He served pastoral charges in Pinehurst and Windsor in the Halifax-Lunenburg Presbytery, and Gairloch, Springhill, Barney's River, Little Harbour, and Pictou Landing, all within Pictou Presbytery. He was honoured by being elected Moderator of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces in 1944 while he was serving in Springhill.

As well as being a fine churchman, Mr. MacKinnon was a past grand master of the Loyal Orange Lodge, and their Chaplain. He was president of the St. Andrew's Society of Pictou County, and an honorary member of the Trenton Lions Club.

Mr. MacKinnon is survived by his son, Hector, of Pictou Landing, and a brother, James Alex, of Montague, P.E.I.

Funeral services were conducted at Bethel Church, Pictou Landing, and St. Andrew's Church, Gairloch with the Rev. G. Cameron Brett, Dr. Fred Pauley, Moderator of Presbytery, the Rev. J. Donald MacKay, and the Rev. Edgar F. Dewar taking part.

Pictou Presbytery lost a dedicated and beloved pastor and friend.

SYNOD OF QUEBEC AND EASTERN ONTARIO

THE REVEREND DAVID LESLIE ELDER

The Reverend David Leslie Elder was born in Belfast, Northern Ireland, on February 3rd, 1909.

He received his Public and Secondary education in Belfast and proceeded with his Theological studies at the Assembly's College, in Belfast. Coming to Canada in 1948 he pursued his academic studies at Acadia University, Nova Scotia. The completion of his studies in Theology was carried out at the Presbyterian College, Montreal, from which he graduated in 1957 and was Ordained by the Presbytery of Ottawa in Osgoode Presbyterian Church, Vernon, Ontario, in June, 1957.

Mr. Elder furthered his theological studies at the American Divinity School, Pineland, Florida, from which he received the degree of Bachelor of Theology, and later, the degree of Master of Theology.

Following his secondary schooling in Ireland, for a time, Mr. Elder was employed as a machinist in the Albert Foundry, Belfast, one of the world's largest textile engineering companies. He was also engaged in evangelistic work in the North of Ireland and received much evidence which assured him of his calling into the Christian ministry.

The late Mr. Elder was keenly interested in music, especially choral work, and was founder, President, and conductor of the Eldorado and Ashleigh Junior Choirs, and was successful in many musical competitions held throughout the North of Ireland.

Since coming to Canada, Mr. Elder has ministered to congregations in Sherbrooke and Hopewell, Nova Scotia; Vernon, Seaforth, Almonte, Toronto and for the past 3½ years in St. Andrew's and St. James', Cardinal.

He was honoured by the Brockville Presbytery, being elected Moderator, an office he filled with dignity.

During his three and one-half years in Cardinal he has served as Padre of the local branch of the Canadian Legion in a manner most acceptable to his Comrades.

His keen interest in the young people of the Church was evidenced by his involvement with the Boys' Brigade in Northern Ireland and in Canada.

Mr. Elder's sincerest interest in the wider sphere of the life and work of the Church, especially the Missionary Cause at home and abroad, was recognized by the local branch of the Women's Missionary Society, which conferred upon him a Life Membership.

During the Second World War, Mr. Elder served as Divisional Superintendent of the St. John's Ambulance Brigade in Northern Ireland and was awarded the Defence Medal by the Northern Ireland's Home Secretary for services rendered during the blitz on the City of Belfast.

The Reverend David Leslie Elder is survived by his wife, the former Margaret McLarnon of Belfast, N. Ireland, and three daughters: Margaret (Mrs. V. A. Heigh-ton), Maureen (Mrs. E. Crowder), both of Ottawa, and Carole (Mrs. R. McFalls), of London, Ontario, and 9 grandchildren. His sole surviving brother, Mr. Gilmour Elder, is residing in Belfast, N. Ireland.

THE REVEREND JAMES LUXON BURGESS, M.A.

The Reverend James Luxon Burgess died in Kincardine General Hospital on Friday, June 8, 1973 in his sixty-ninth year. He graduated from the University of Toronto in 1927 with the degree of B.A. and later obtained his M.A. Degree in Philosophy. He graduated in Theology from Knox College in 1930 and was ordained and inducted into the charge at South Kinloss in October of the same year.

Mr. Burgess held pastorates as follows: South Kinloss (1930-36), Duff's, Puslinch and Knox, Crieff (1936-42), Orangeville (1942-46), Elmvale (1946-52), St. Andrew's, Hagersville (1952-56), Alliston (1956-59), Hanover (1959-63), Hull and Aylmer (1963-68), St. Andrew's Puce (1968-72). He retired from the active ministry on January 11, 1972. In 1952 he was elected Moderator of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston. He also served as Clerk for some years in the Presbytery of Guelph and in the Presbytery of Barrie.

Mr. Burgess is survived by his wife, Mary Pearson Mitchell, whom he married in Wingham in 1931; by two sons, Doctor W. J. Burgess of Ottawa, and Andrew R. Burgess of Kincardine; by one daughter, Mrs. Alan (Marion Joan) McLean, of Ripley; also survived by five grandchildren, four sisters in Orono, and one brother in Georgetown.

The funeral service was conducted by the Clerk of the Presbytery of Ottawa, the Rev. Dr. Peter C. Wotherspoon, in South Kinloss Church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. H. Douglas Stewart, the Rev. Glen A. Noble, the Rev. John Bell, and the Rev. J. D. C. Jack who paid tribute to his life and work. The burial took place beside the church at South Kinloss which was his first charge.

Mr. Burgess was well loved and much appreciated by all who knew him, for he was a faithful pastor and a kindly friend who always considered the needs of others and took little thought for his own. His memory will long be cherished.

SYNOD OF TORONTO AND KINGSTON

THE REVEREND JAMES NOBLE HEPBURN

The Reverend James Noble Hepburn was born in 1898 in Glasgow, Scotland, the son of James and Susan Hepburn. In his native land, he received his primary and secondary education and parental desire was that he should seek a career in the legal profession. However, with his land engaged in the conflict of World War I, he enlisted in the British Army and spent some time in the Machine Gun Corps. Upon honourable discharge, he emigrated to Canada and in 1926 married the former Nancy Watson whom he had known in the homeland. Shortly thereafter, he acknowledged God's call to the ministry and began preparations for his life's work.

Mr. Hepburn enrolled in what was then the Toronto Bible College, graduating in 1931. His theological education was augmented by two years of study in Presbyterian College, Montreal, from which institution he was granted the diploma in 1933.

Mr. Hepburn's ministerial career saw service in three provinces of Canada. After ordination in June 1933 in St. John, New Brunswick, he ministered in Woodstock in that province, in Lethbridge, Alberta and Fort Francis, Kirkland Lake, Richmond Hill and Burke's Falls, all in the province of Ontario. In 1943, he again entered the armed forces as a chaplain in the Royal Canadian Air Force, serving until 1945. In May 1970 he retired from the active ministry after 37 years of service and died on Jan. 1, 1973 after a period of indifferent health.

Mr. Hepburn enjoyed public speaking and writing for which he had some facility and gained some repute. He is survived by his wife who shared to the full the years of his preparation and of his ministry; one son, Kenneth of the Department of Communications, Ottawa, and one daughter, May, of Toronto.

The Presbytery of East Toronto hereby records its appreciation of Mr. Hepburn's ministerial years and gives thanks to Almighty God for what He was able to accomplish through the life and work of this servant. It upholds his surviving family in prayer and points them to the God of all comfort who in Christ Jesus hath said: 'I will not leave you comfortless'.

THE REVEREND KENNETH MACLENNAN

The Reverend Kenneth MacLennan was born and brought up in Kilmuir, Cromarty, Ross-Shire. One of a family of nine, he became an apprentice blacksmith and saved enough money to complete a course of training at the Glasgow Bible Training Institute.

Mr. MacLennan came over to New Brunswick and served at Plasterrock while he took further theological training at Pine Hill College, Halifax. After graduation he returned to Scotland in 1921 and was for some time minister of the Free Church of St. Columba, Aberdeen. Thence he went to Arderseir, a fishing village just east of Inverness.

The call of the new world still ringing in his ears, Kenneth MacLennan returned to Canada in 1927 and through his strenuous efforts the Kyde Memorial Church, Rosemount, Montreal, was built. This was a long and remarkably successful ministry. Other charges followed: Creemore, Port Elgin, Toronto Westminster, and Fingal and Port Stanley. Restless in retirement, he was happy to do stated supply at Pickering for eight years.

The Christian ministry is a vocation that calls for varied gifts and qualities. It calls for intelligence that will relate the eternal gospel to an ever-changing situation. It calls for courage, the readiness to abide by one's convictions however lonely and foolish one may feel. It calls for prophetic insight, the ability to anticipate current events and to proclaim them in the name of the Lord. But it calls for something else without which intelligence, courage and prophetic insight are in vain. It calls for graciousness and Kenneth MacLennan was the embodiment of that great Christian virtue.

Mr. MacLennan's conduct of public worship was a model of dignity and simplicity, his prayers were moving and his preaching was winsome, but where he excelled above all was as a pastor and this is the real test of the Christian Ministry.

Mr. MacLennan must have had a unique capacity for liking people to have got so near to them and to evoke such love and loyalty. And with it all he was witty, humorous and friendly. There were no rough edges about Kenneth MacLennan yet he was delightfully human. Gentle, gracious, humble and compassionate, he was a good ambassador for Christ. He fought a good fight, he ran the race and he kept the faith. We tender our sympathy to his wife and daughter and thank God for all he did in our midst.

THE REVEREND WALTER TURNBULL MCCREE, M.A., D.D.

Walter Turnbull McCree was born in Sunderland, County Durham, England, in 1878. His family was loyally Presbyterian, and it is not surprising that, after an initial period in his father's grocery and as an insurance agent, he answered the call to the holy ministry.

Dr. McCree's first preparation was in Glasgow, where he attended the Bible Training Institute, but in 1907 he made his way out to the far Canadian West on mission work, and attended Westminster College in Vancouver (from which the University of British Columbia was later born). Among the eminent men who taught him there, he honoured the name of Professor E. F. Scott. He completed his Arts and Theology in Queen's University, Kingston, graduating with an M.A. and first-class honours in both departments. The teachers of whom he most frequently spoke afterwards were the Hegelian, Professor Watson, and the Habraist, Professor Jordan, to the latter of whom he was assistant for five years after graduation. Among his near contemporaries at Queen's were John Angus MacInnis and John McNab, who, like him, were destined for the Moderatorial Chair of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

The hostilities of the First World War having broken out, Walter McCree enlisted in a unit of the Canadian Medical Corps which was being formed out of Queen's volunteers. In this congenial company, which combined the serious business of war with dramatic stage productions, he saw service for four years in Egypt and France, rising to the rank of Lieutenant Quartermaster and achieving the honour of being mentioned in despatches.

The time had come for Walter McCree to take up his intended life's work. On the pastoral side, this was accomplished in four charges: Amherst Island, where he was ordained and inducted in 1920, and where he ministered for four years; Lyn, Caintown and Mallorytown, where he spent a year; St. Andrew's, Streetsville, of which he was minister for seven years; and Glebe Church, Toronto, where he brought his longest pastorate of twenty-two years to its fruitful conclusion at his retirement in 1954. Imbued with an evangelical faith; scholarly, thoughtful, literary and ethical in style; this wise man of God broke the bread of life to his people. His geniality and good humour endeared him to his parishioners, who can never forget the warm, kindly and often mildly quizzical smile with which he greeted a friend, his hand outstretched to be clearly welcoming and yet not so far thrust forward as to invade the other's reserves.

In the transitional period between military and spiritual warfare, while studying in Westminster College, Cambridge, Walter McCree was brought through a common interest in dramatics into the company of a Yorkshire girl, Janet Dykes, whom he took not long afterwards as his bride to the manse in Caintown. A graduate of Leeds University and an authoress in her own right, she provided for him a loving home, a fitting foil to his mental gifts, and a gracious accompanying presence in all his ministrations. We pray that God will stay her now, and their son and two daughters with their partners, and the six grandchildren who increased their joy.

Amplly endowed, Walter McCree was able to fulfill the requirement of Presbyterian Churches that a minister take his share of duty beyond congregational bounds according to his gifts. He did so in a number of Church avocations with unfailingly refined service.

Walter McCree's work in Knox College lay close upon his heart. After an initial three-year term from 1929, followed by a year in 1931, he was continually a member of the Senate until 1956. During this period he was Secretary from 1934 onward. From the same year, he was concurrently a member of the Board and also its Secretary (except in one year when he was not a member (1936-37)). Within this period of twenty-seven years, he gave himself unsparingly to the College's claims, sometimes in troublous periods when a man of his sensitivity was sorely needed. Among his many services, he was instrumental in bringing the Caven Library entirely into the ownership of the College. Since 1925, it had been owned jointly with the United Church. Relinquishment of a group of archives, not nearly so valuable for the College's purposes, made the deal possible. It was through his initiation also that No. 63 St. George Street came back to the College. To his administrative duties he added a teaching load as tutor in Hebrew for a number of years. In 1946, the College's gratitude led to his being given the Degree of Doctor of Divinity honoris causa.

The tale of Dr. McCree's academic interests is not thereby fully told. In addition to the scholarliness of his pulpit work, he taught Old Testament for seventeen years in the Missionary and Deaconess Training School, now Ewart College. He contributed to the Canadian Society of Biblical Studies, to the Journal of Biblical Literature, and to the Church's Sunday School Lessons, as did also his wife.

Dr. McCree was one of our leading experts in Church Law. For twelve years, from the institution of the Presbytery of East Toronto as a separate unit, he was our Clerk. He had an evangelical understanding of Church Law, insisting on its difference in spirit and application from criminal and civil law, as can be seen, for example, in the way in which the rules for treating an offender follow the injunctions of our Lord recorded in St. Matthew 18. Little wonder is it that he was a presbytery's commissioner in more than twenty-five congregational situations, sometimes in vacancies but also where dissension called for the combined legal wisdom and Christian diplomacy that he could so well bring to bear.

It is only fitting that this devoted servant of the Church was exalted to the Moderatorial Chair of the General Assembly of 1955.

Dr. McCree died on Sunday, May 6, 1973. The funeral service was conducted by the Reverend James Evans in St. Mark's Church, Don Mills, on Tuesday, May 8, with the assistance of Dr. Hugh Davidson and Dr. David Hay.

With the recording of so many fitting deeds, the story of Walter McCree's service is not concluded. It continues in the many whose feet he set in the path that leads to life and from whose hearts the voice of thanksgiving rises to the Throne of Grace. "Nothing is here for tears; nothing to wail or beat the breast." In all simplicity we make before God our memorial of praise for another of his soldiers, who, as we trust, has entered the everlasting mansions.

THE REVEREND DAVID C. MCCLELLAND, M.A., B.D., M.Th.

The Presbytery of East Toronto records with sorrow the sudden passing on the 16th of May, 1973, of the Reverend David C. McClelland. Born in Scotland in 1913, David emigrated to Canada with his parents and settled in Hamilton, where they became members of the St. Andrew's Congregation.

After obtaining his B.A. degree from McMaster University Mr. McClelland studied at Knox College where he earned his B.D., and from which years later he received his M.Th.

Ordained in 1942, Mr. McClelland served his missionary year in Port Alberni, B.C. Afterward he served successively and successfully in various parts of Ontario: First in Toronto in the Melrose Park congregation, then in Chesley, Trenton, and finally in Toronto again in the Hillview charge.

Throughout his life David McLelland had to contend with poor health because of a heart condition; yet he never spared himself. In addition to his pastorates he served for a time as secretary of the Protestant League and for some three years as Field Secretary of the Ontario Temperance Federation; latterly, from December 1972 to April 1973 he was Director of Fernie House, a youth Rehabilitation Home sponsored by the Presbytery. He also lectured in Philosophy occasionally at Toronto Bible College and in Richmond College of Arts. Despite failing health he hoped to the last to resume some such teaching ministry and perhaps also do some writing for his Lord and Saviour.

David McLelland, like another David, was "a man after God's own heart". A fine scholar, a faithful preacher of the Gospel and minister of the Word, a conscientious and compassionate pastor he endeared himself to young and old in the various congregations to which he ministered. But first and last he was a Christian indeed.

Mr. McClelland is survived by his like-minded wife, the former Audrey Reid, who entered wholeheartedly into his various ministries, and by their two daughters — Jane (Mrs. Gordon Wright) and Anne (Mrs. John Ireland). Also surviving are his aged mother and his sister Mrs. Mary McCorquondale, of Hamilton, and his brother Dr. Joseph C. McLelland of Montreal.

REVEREND DONALD McQUEEN

The Presbytery of East Toronto wishes to place on record its sorrow at the death of a beloved brother and fellow worker in the person of Reverend Donald McQueen who passed to his eternal reward on November 26th following a seizure in the chapel at Knox College.

Mr. McQueen, who was born on August 12, 1892, graduated from Knox College in 1927, and was called to St. Andrews Puce and Essex where he ministered until 1930. He was then called to Dunnville where he served until 1939 at which time he was called to St. Andrews, Lindsay, where he served for the next 20 years. At that time Donald was called to Glebe Presbyterian Church, Toronto, where he completed a very useful ministry. He had retired only a few months before his death.

Mr. McQueen was married to Miss Isobel Craigie Nicolson, who predeceased him in June, 1964. He leaves behind one daughter, Craigie Donn, one sister, Florence (Mrs. Archie Currie) and two brothers: Jack of Tillsonburg and Neil of Stayner, and was predeceased by his sister, Sadie.

Mr. McQueen was deeply involved in the Church and community. He served as Clerk of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston for 24 years, was a member of many Boards and Committees of the General Assembly, and active in welfare work. An ardent curler, he was a member of the East Toronto Clergy Curling Club and was highly respected by the clergy of all faiths as well as by his other associates.

His funeral service was conducted in the chapel of Knox College, the institution from which Mr. McQueen graduated and in which he took a deep interest. The service was conducted by Dr. J. H. Williams of Glenview Presbyterian Church, assisted by the Moderator of Synod, Reverend K. J. Wilson of Kirkland Lake, and Reverend Alex. Zeidman of the Scott Mission.

THE REVEREND JAMES ALAN MUNRO, M.C., B.A., D.D.

James Alan Munro was born in Winnipeg on July 4, 1898, and he departed from this life on June 19, 1972. His life throughout was marked by service to God and man and a deep devotion to the Church which he loved. His first career was as a teacher after graduating from The Saskatoon Teachers College. In following that calling he took his Bachelor of Arts degree at the University of Saskatchewan. He became Principal of the Public School in Coleville, Sask., and taught in the Church School.

Dr. Munro's devotion to his Church had the obvious result of his call to the Ministry and entrance to Knox College and graduation in 1931. He was elected President of the Undergraduates Association. He was called to the Ministry in Rose-town, Sask., and Chilliwack, B.C. He enlisted in the Chaplaincy Corps and served with the 5th Division of The Canadian Army, being decorated in the Italian Campaign with the Military Cross for bravery at Fortunata Ridge. He rose to be Deputy Senior Protestant Chaplain with the rank of Honourary Lieutenant-Colonel.

These events were but the prelude to a wider and deeper service to his Church and country. After the war Dr. Munro was appointed Secretary of Western Missions involving the tremendous area from Northern Ontario to Vancouver Island. In 1949 he became Secretary of Home Missions. In 1955 he was honoured with a Doctorate by Knox College and retired as Mission Secretary in 1965. He was elected Moderator of The General Assembly of that year. On the completion of his term in that office he was appointed the Executive Director of The National Development Fund and was instrumental in raising over $4,000,000. in cash and pledges for the extension and undergirding of all the Church's work.

These facts are the result of a life dedicated to the highest. Dr. Munro grew up in a Christian family. His father was an elder of the Church. He himself gave a helping hand to many young men and boys. He was interested in social welfare and community charities. He had a ready wit, a pleasant smile and a warm handshake. He was sensitive and sympathetic to the needs of others and sensitive to the opinions of those with whom he worked. He believed in the integrity of individuals and the rights of minorities. The dissolution of a congregation he regarded as a denial of that right. He was deeply concerned about the unity of Canada, spending time in learning the French language and temperament here and in France. He was proud of his Celtic heritage. He knew Canada and its varied peoples better than most Canadians. As a Churchman and a citizen Dr. Munro will be remembered long, and his influence will be far-reaching and permanent in the development of the Church.

We are grateful to God for this life among us, and our sympathy is given to his sisters, Mrs. Wilhelm and Mrs. Elliott, and his nephews, Donald Alan Wilhelm and Robert Elliott.

MR. MARK STONE: (CATECHIST)

He was one of the most devoted men in his profession. His love for his Lord called him away from his native Ireland to study in Edinburgh. After five years in missionary work in Great Britain, he and his wife and family went out in complete dependence on God. For almost twelve years with all the marks of a true Christian servant and pioneer, he moved through the rural country-sides of Ireland, Scotland and England. Many were the times when God alone was the provider for the family. Some nineteen years ago Mark Stone came to Canada — first to Nova Scotia where he settled and awaited his family. Then to Desoronto, Hillsdale and lastly Uptergrove. During thirty-seven years of ministry he covered miles, helping and healing, always with a heart of continuing care. Only God could have given him the depth of concern and love which he had for men and women who were out of touch with God. He possessed a passion in his soul which was expressed in his devotional attitude. Mark Stone knew the secret of prayer. His sincerity, spiritual power and persuasion, touched many. A man of contagious humour, he had the gift of Christian hospitality.

SYNOD OF HAMILTON AND LONDON

THE REVEREND DONALD BLAKE CRAM

The Reverend Donald Blake Cram died suddenly at his home in Dutton, Ontario, Sunday evening, December third, 1972, in his 76th year. Born near Wyoming, Ontario, a son of William and Margaret (Anderson) Cram, he began his education in the local schools and continued at the University of Toronto, being graduated from Knox College in 1936. The next year he was appointed to Three Hills, Alberta, and ordained by the Presbytery of Calgary. He served at Fort St. John and Vegreville, Alberta and Moosomin, Saskatchewan. There he met his wife, the former Evelyn B. Kilpatrick. They were married when he received a call to Dutton, in April, 1940. He subsequently ministered at Teeswater, Duart and Turin and Norwich, from which he retired to Dutton in 1962. Mrs. Cram died in 1964.

Mr. Cram loved people, encouraging young people to enter full time Christian service, cooperating with Presbyterian men and faithfully caring for the aged. He was a good pastor and remained active to the end.

The funeral in Dutton was conducted by the Moderator of Presbytery, Dr. H. S. Rodney, assisted by Reverend R. R. Gordon, presbytery clerk and Reverend A. Clements. The interment was in Duart Cemetery where his wife was buried in 1964. Two sisters, Mrs. James Hamilton, Toronto, and Mrs. Alfred Leach, Collingwood, and a brother, Wamless, of Chicago, survive.

THE REVEREND HUGH RICHARD WILLIAMS

The Reverend Hugh Richard Williams died in Strathroy, Ontario, on December 10, 1971, at the age of 85. He is survived by one daughter and three sons, including the Reverend Richard H. Williams of Mount Clemens, Michigan, U.S.A. His wife, the former Catherine M. Jones, pre-deceased him in 1966.

Born at Anglesey, North Wales, Mr. Williams received his university education at St. David's College in Lampeter, Wales, and began his ministry in the Church of England. Received into the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in 1920, he served nine successive pastoral charges in the course of the next 40 years: Massey, Ontario; the Corunna charge; Sandusky, Michigan; Croswell, Michigan; the Mount Brydges charge; Millbrook and Centerville, Ont.; Avonton and Avonbank, Ont.; the Alvinston charge and finally a nine-year ministry in the Beechwood charge. Over half his ministry was within the Synod of Hamilton and London. He retired on December 31, 1959.

Mr. Williams has been described as a dynamic Welshman, a man of strong character and forceful personality. He placed great emphasis on a pastoral ministry, visiting often in the homes of his people, and was particularly fond of the children. Vigorous in speech and action, he built into his people a strong sense of dedication to duty.

Following a family funeral service in Strathroy, he was buried in the Alvinston cemetery, leaving many rich memories with the people among whom he had so diligently served his Lord.

SYNOD OF ALBERTA

THE REVEREND HUGH LINDSAY SIMPSON

On the 8th day of June in the year 1972, the Rev. Hugh Lindsay Simpson, husband of Elizabeth, and father of Betty (Mrs. James Wilson) and Hugh, died in Calgary, Alberta. Mr. Simpson was a devoted and respected member of the Presbytery of Calgary-MacLeod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Mr. Simpson was a graduate of Glasgow University and emigrated to Canada in 1927, after having served in St. Bride's Church, Bothwell, Scotland. In Sussex, New Brunswick, he met and married Mrs. Simpson. In 1929 Mr. and Mrs. Simpson moved to Montreal where 'Linsay' as he was affectionately known, attended McGill University.

From here he went to Orangeville, Ontario; and thence to become a Padre of the Winnipeg Rifles in 1941 serving overseas with that unit till the end of the Second World War. In 1945 he was called to become the minister of the Presbyterian Church in Carleton Place, Ontario, where he remained until 1957 at which time he was called to the dual charge of the then 'North Hill Presbyterian Church' and 'Pleasant Heights Presbyterian Church' in the City of Calgary. It was during his stay in Calgary that the present St. Giles Church was erected as a result of amalgamation of the two aforementioned churches. On December 8, 1958 the newly erected St. Giles Church was dedicated under the ministry of Mr. Simpson. He retired on December 31st, 1967 due to ill health and resided in Calgary till his death.

Mr. Simpson will long be remembered in Calgary as a warm, kindly pastor; as well as a fine preacher. He spent countless hours in counselling as a most compassionate Christian minister.

The members of the Presbytery of Calgary-MacLeod knew him as an able debater and at all times a Christian gentleman.

The members of the Presbytery, his wife and children, and the congregation of St. Giles will miss Mr. Simpson. It is our prayer that all of us may see the Eternal purpose of God behind this seemingly untimely death.

His life was a life of faith, and perhaps it may be summed up in the words of Verse four, Hymn 520.

"I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care."

SYNOD OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

THE REVEREND MALCOLM STEWART BLACKBURN, D.D.

The Presbytery of Westminster records with sorrow, the death of Rev. Malcolm Stewart Blackburn, D.D., in White Rock hospital on August 9th, 1972, but at the same time expresses its gratitude to the only King and Head of the Church for Dr. Blackburn's faithful ministry, ready and wise counsel and fellowship. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Blackburn, his two sons, Rev. Malcolm Blackburn, Birmingham, Alabama; Staff Sergeant Donald Blackburn, RCMP, Yorkton, Saskatchewan; and his daughter, Mrs. Jean Chesham, of Cache Creek, B.C. Dr. Blackburn was born at Beachburg, Ontario October 17, 1895. There he received his call to the ministry and had his training in Moody Bible Institute, Chicago; University of British Columbia; and Westminster Hall, Vancouver, from which he graduated in 1925, and was ordained by this Presbytery. He had been called to Knox Church, Cranbrook, B.C. That same year he was married to Miss Ruth Barr of Robertson Church, Vancouver. Beyond his first charge at Cranbrook, a most fruitful ministry was enjoyed by congregations at Medicine Hat, Alberta; the Mission School and Church at Vegreville, Alberta; Kamloops, B.C.; Banff and Calgary, Alberta, as assistant minister. Dr. Blackburn served as Chaplain in the R.C.A.F. in World War II and thereafter was in Northern Alberta as Assistant to the Secretary of the Mission Board of our Church. His last pastorate, of 14 years, was of St. Aidan's, New Westminster, B.C. retiring in October, 1965, but remaining for another six months as stated supply. Taking up residence in Surrey, he and Mrs. Blackburn were most helpful in the work of St. Andrew's-Newton. Dr. Blackburn's presentation of the gospel was sincere and practical.

He gave personal and helpful care to his parishioners. In each community he was honoured for his public service, including that of his work in the Boy Scouts in which he was keenly interested. In recognition of his contribution to the life and work of the Church, Presbyterian College, Montreal, conferred on him the Degree of Doctor of Divinity. Not for the rewards of men, but ever seeking the honour and glory of his Redeemer and Lord was Malcolm Stewart Blackburn's constant endeavour. The funeral service was held in St. Aidan's Church, New Westminster, conducted by Dr. James Dunn, Dr. Harry Lennox, and Mr. Fred St. Denis.

THE REVEREND Y. N. KWAN

The Presbytery of Westminster records with sorrow, the death of the Rev. Y. N. Kwan, one of western Canada's leading Chinese Christian ministers. We extend our sympathies to Mrs. Kwan, and his sons and daughters. Mr. Kwan was born the son of a county judge in China and, after completing school in Canton, came to Canada in 1912 and served for 10 years at Chinese Methodist Church in Victoria. He later served at Vancouver's Chinese Methodist — later the Chinese United Church — and supervised the building of the United Church at Dunlevy and Pender, where he served for 15 years. Mr. Kwan joined the Chinese Presbyterian Church, a post he accepted "temporarily" but lasted for some twenty years, until his retirement in 1961. The Presbytery of Westminster and all members of the Body of Christ are deeply grateful for Mr. Kwan's devoted service to the only King and Head of the Church, our Lord Jesus Christ.

FOR THE BOOK OF FORMS

The Book of Forms, as issued by authority of the 95th General Assembly (1969), brought all previous revisions to and including 1969 up to date.

The following are the amendments under The Barrier Act, and other revisions as authorized by the 99th General Assembly.

From year to year other revisions will be found in this place in Acts and Proceedings.

Clip these pages, trim, and place in your copy of the 1969 edition of the Book of Forms beside or over the sections as indicated.

Section 80. Second paragraph to read —

It is an instruction to Clerks of Presbyteries to forward all overtures to the Clerks of Assembly prior to the date which shall be indicated yearly by a circular to the Clerks of Presbyteries from the Clerks of Assembly; but overtures anent names on the constituent roll of presbytery may be forwarded later if the need arise.

Section 297, sub-section (5), to be replaced by the following —

Clerks of Presbyteries are to forward two typewritten copies of all overtures intended for presentation to the General Assembly prior to the date which shall be indicated yearly by a circular to the Clerks of Presbyteries from the Clerks of Assembly, that the said overtures may be printed and included in the stitched volume of reports for the use of the General Assembly; but overtures anent names on the constituent roll may be forwarded later if the need arise.

Section 298 to have the words "at least forty days" replaced by the words, "before the date indicated yearly by a circular to the Standing Committees from the Clerks of Assembly".
