

An Intercultural Awareness Event for GTA Area Presbyteries

How can our denomination become a more healthy multi-ethnic church? How can presbyteries and congregations be more aware of the ways in which the privilege and power of the dominant Euro-Canadian culture consciously and unconsciously marginalize and exclude non-Euro-Canadians? This workshop will assist participants by helping them:

- engage in difficult conversations about culture, race, and ethnicity
- understand the privilege and power conferred by culture
- understand the dynamics of other cultures and relationship building between them
