Stand With Rohingya Refugees

Since August 2017, extreme violence and human rights abuses against the Rohingya minority in Myanmar have forced more than 700,000 refugees across the border into Bangladesh.

Settling in overcrowded refugee camps, the Rohingya lack necessities for survival including food, water and sanitation. The monsoon season's arrival will put refugees at greater risk.

PWS&D is responding with partners at Canadian Foodgrains Bank and the ACT Alliance to help deliver life-saving food packages and meet needs for non-food items including shelter, sanitation and psychosocial assistance.

Please join with us to continue this response and pray that oppression and violence against the Rohingya come to an end.
