

It's a Girl's Life

Do people in your village believe in education for girls?

NO

YES

Do your parents need you at home all day to help with chores?

YES

NO

Does your family believe in education for girls?

NO

YES

Is your family beginning to understand why it's important for girls to go to school?

NO

YES

Is there a school nearby?

NO

YES

Is it a safe walk to school?

NO

YES

Does the school allow students who are girls?

NO

YES

Can your family afford to send you to school?

NO

YES

You are not able to go to school.
It will be more difficult for you to get a good job.

Congratulations, you finished elementary school!

Is there a high school you can attend?

NO

YES

Without a higher education, your options for the future might be more limited. BUT... It will be easier to find a job and support yourself than if you didn't go to school at all. You're also more likely to send your children to school.

Is there a girl's bathroom at your school?

NO

YES

Do the boys bully the girls at your school?

YES

NO

Can your family still afford to send you to school?

NO

YES

You have not completed high school.
Because you continue to feel vulnerable at school or can no longer afford the fees, you will not complete high school. You will not be able to go to university. But because you have some education, you may still be able to find work, earn a living and help your own children have a brighter future.

Congratulations, you graduated high school!
You can make twice the amount of money you would make if you had no education at all and are more likely to go to university. You have the skills and confidence to help your family and community build bright futures, and you will likely send your own children to school!

