Presbyterian World Service & Development (PWS&D) is the international development, relief and refugee sponsorship agency of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

With the generous support of Presbyterians in Canada, PWS&D responds with partners overseas to help vulnerable communities overcome poverty, recover from emergency situations and embrace hopeful futures.

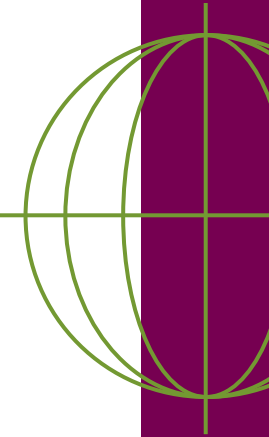

PWS&D works with networks such as the ACT Alliance, Canadian Foodgrains Bank and KAIROS to extend our reach, respond quickly in the aftermath of disasters, and make a difference for the poorest and most vulnerable in our global community. These ecumenical networks also allow your donations to go much further, as matching funds are accessed whenever possible.

One Mission, Two Funds

PWS&D raises funds directly from congregations, individuals and through government grants—over and above gifts to Presbyterians Sharing. Presbyterians Sharing supports the overall mission and ministry of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

While PWS&D does not receive funds directly from Presbyterians Sharing, we receive valuable in-kind support that helps keep administrative costs to a minimum, allowing us to maximize overseas program funding.
