

Presbyterians Sharing

Supporting the mission and ministry of The Presbyterian Church in Canada

When we give to Presbyterians Sharing, we are expressing our faith. Through the words we use, the decisions we make and the actions we take, we are proclaiming God's love, hope and grace in the world God loves.

Together, we equip congregations in Christian education, worship, evangelism, stewardship, communications, youth ministry and justice work. We help emerging and experienced leaders develop their skills in strategic visioning, people management, biblical interpretation, theological reflection, teaching methods and evangelism. We speak with a common voice on important issues and collaborate with ecumenical and interfaith partners on matters of justice around the world.

Together, we support ministries for refugees, sex workers, prisoners and marginalized people and speak out against racism, advocate for human rights and care for creation. We journey toward healing and reconciliation by creating spaces where Indigenous and non-Indigenous staff and volunteers can work together to meet the physical and spiritual needs of people scarred by Residential Schools, racism, discrimination and the loss of culture and language. We train and equip ministers and lay leaders to serve their communities.

Together, we are continuing Christ's ministry in Canada and around the world.

By the power at work within us God can accomplish abundantly more than all we can ask for or imagine – Ephesians 3:20
