

CYCLICAL PCC

People Who Might Be a Good Fit For Cyclical PCC

This list is not exhaustive and is not a list of requirements. It is a snapshot to get you thinking about people you know who might be a good fit for starting a new worshipping community.

A person that might be a good fit:

- Cares about the church, God's kingdom, and making disciples
- Is interested in entrepreneurial work – someone who has started something new
- Has many friendships outside of an established church
- Spends a lot of time exploring their city/town/village and meeting new people
- Is engaged in the issues facing their local community
- Is comfortable taking risks
- Is able to think creatively and explore new ideas
- Is a good team leader and team supporter
- Is grounded in their faith and sensitive to God's leading

Know someone who might be a good fit? Have them contact us through our website to learn more: Presbyterian.ca/cyclicalpcc or contact Canadian Ministries at canadianministries@presbyterian.ca